The 10th mo 79

I told Aspull, the day morning & look out for of Iron & Co.
Dung it not got out as yet, Robt Gregory told me & he said Mary had sent to wher Cap & not & about them they shoud have house rooms on condition they would find fire all w<sup>t</sup> motion they closed & have to come at may day & Adam Gregory came here on 2<sup>d</sup> day & I sent him the & fine Iron Crow & Crow plate & I great loving Iron for 20<sup>s</sup> I have this in earnest I would not have sent G: dish board but G: I heard they were to come & he was very earnest to have it & I thought it was little matter of it G: price being as much as there gave for it so long ago G: loving Iron I gave him in at G: fine Iron of 12<sup>s</sup> he would have bought G: Cheser press I would have sold it him for 5<sup>s</sup> but he would not give it & I was not willing to sell it away untill I had spoke w<sup>t</sup> the, I think it may be worth so much the frame is nought & broken the it would be worth more, I would have the to call to go over if thou be well G: beginning of next month if thou well call & let the looms be taken down in the shop and every thing to him removed out of the house, Robt Gregory would buy of the the shelved in the house & battery & chambers & other od things, & Adam would buy some thing the he says if thou would go over, & I think it will be best to dispose of them now when thou hast opportunity for if thou would any thing in the house I believe it will be stolen & I have been gam now about to send you to H. Balyse & G: man so the I can not ~~send~~ <sup>send</sup> this week, except thou have extraordinary occasion my love to the is all at present but am I am
