J. H. / Chester Castle y<sup>e</sup> 16. of y<sup>e</sup> 2. mo. 19.

I have freind after my so: to stie in the Lord Jossens Chiefe, which is ever all blessed for ever, by this then under stand that I am like to be galled at the sessions and it is soe reported, by some that if I can bring out and that I am not a yeasle, then that I may have my liberty, and if then, or p<sup>r</sup>incipall shalve to go to Justices Hullton and told him under stand the beginne, that I am not counted a yeasle, but a quack under his hand, it might satisfie the bondes if the be but moderate, the sessions is the 29. of this Instent, how soe I shall have it to be considered our liberty is nowe streat of seats we have not gette to meeting and how is great need, how at yet the Informers are going on with their worke at middles worth and Reddely and Nanceys worth, but the Lord will stopp them in his own appointed time and season, and bring deliverance to his people by his own eternall arme of power, to whom be glory over all in the best for ever God with my love to all freinds as doe Inquire after mee I am nowe well over way blessed be the Lord for my soule, our freind Richard Millner was buried the last sixt day, which is all at yet my fellow yeaslers Remember howe I doe love to the and freinds from thy freind and Bro.

In witness of truth
