London y^e 14. of y^e 4 moth 19.

Deare friend and brother in the Lord Iohannes Christ, whom I send and I devoutly salute in the fellow-ship of the glorious gossesons, of light life and peace, as all for thy deare wife, son and daughter, and the rest of the family by these thou may understand I got well to London James florister did come to me at Dunelm and we travailed to gairthwaite near to London, and he held a meeting on the first day, and I came into town, deare was man my friends and we had a blessed heavenly meeting as ever we had before, for the Lords power was over all, and not a tongue lift up against vs, I hoped to get out of town on the second day or on the third day towards Chelthampton with: Gibson both intent to go, and George both those have all I heard of at present I have sent a letter out of Holland and friends both expect it me there, I have not found my maier as yet I am in way and if I get any money before I come home I pay it within 30 day order, and if not I shall order it, it may be I may write again before I leave England and if not I hope to write from Holland for with my love to you all, and friends who may inquire after me in the good of life I rest with you all deare will

Roger Haydock

remembers his love to you all
