Re 2) 5th mo 79

Isaac Hindby has been here to day & says he will discharge all that due upon both bonds at Michaelmas, & I told him if he intended to affirm his word at the time upon that condition ~~which he~~ I did believe thou wouldst consent to that time. I told him thou expected payment for the pen but that he did not grant to do further. Says that its said by Mr & Sharrock son is married but keeps it private because of this debt therefore if when he pays thee he would have thee make him a letter of Attorney out of the bond ~~with~~ but foolish talker. He would not tell him if he would give him golfe for honest man & do the thing he ought to do, I did not question but thou wouldst be willing to do him any reasonable kindness if thou hadst not absolute conviction, to go to appall I would have thee defer it until another time. I intend to send on on forty day, for any thing I know wth it all but love
