J. 23. mo. 5. 49

James Harrison my dear friend and father in Christ whom I dearly love in y^e Lord, then and often in my remembrance and a joyful time of soft Bowllon of least having on a good gift upon my spirit, containing the crumyness of y^e Lord blessed truth w^{ch} thou hath so dealing with in that y^e Lord, but I know the Lord hath by word this to this day, and hath given dominion unto y^e confounding of them all, and will for ever be with us abide faithfully full unto him for his promises stand firm for ever, who will never leave nor for fear those that truly know trust in him, and our faith is in God, and in vain it is for man to strive against us, for y^e Lord is on our side, and we will not fear what man can do for y^e strength in you or of y^e Lord is with us, over all sea and land blessed new name for ever, well I have found my heart is full of love to God towards thee, and in y^e times of passing love and jubilation thee, with the dear wife and with a heart of love to thee who are faithful for with my love to call for some of the many prayers after most my love is to you all for the sake that is better for our souls who do best towards to y^e wife y^e name of y^e Lord and for y^e name of y^e Lord for y^e name of y^e Lord whom I love township and we had a very glorious heavenly meeting, and we stayed 5 or 6 meetings, and then I had in y^e Lord and y^e Lord on y^e journey to wards fradwith flat, and coming to Harlingen, and thou be a ship bound for fradwith flat, I was with y^e Lord I was 12 days upon y^e sea and came home y^e last first day in y^e morning and had 2 meetings and very good services and many prayers and y^e Lord and y^e Lord's blessed days, and all was still-and quiet, and not a tongue lift up against y^e truth, I have had four meetings in this city and y^e Lord's power is over all blessed for ever, I am now about to take my journey towards Hambrough if y^e Lord make way through y^e straits of Dammars township, for about Hambrough and about y^e river at going to Hambrough and y^e frank side on y^e south side of y^e river on against another, but I hope y^e Lord will make way for us is before me at present and when I have used friends living then towards Holland, friends at Danfild are all at liberty and things are quiet there, at amden the are very well I have banished friends out of y^e city, but y^e Lord is prevailing with them
