Dear Sir Dublin The 20th 6th mo 1679

With a loving love to J, Salute thee, I sent thee A letter by the post dated 10th of January w^{ch} gives thee A full account of my passage & welfare & also signifies to thee not to expect another letter from me before my return but having A convenient opportunity of sending by A friend to it for, Liverpool could not well omit it, lest my other should be miscarried, & believing thou & fa: & mo: will have A desire to hear from me, I am very well & happy but has done no business at yet, A goods at yet are not cleared from G: Lighters house I am much troubled I brought over the buttons I do not understand at yet but G: I shall loose by them no seeming market at yet for fustians on G: 10th of January I met with a brother Barroft who was very kind, & respectful to me, & so are friends generally, I do intend to make as quick a return as I can but do not expect me yet this good while, my deare love to fa: & mo: & friends generally & to both G: families to fa: Holland or the wife when there has an opportunity G: I saw thine son yesterday & he was well, I have not ill but that I am thy husband in true Amity

Since as thou hast gotten up ten pounds besides prime hat from Bolton moneye I ordered thee to pay I would have thee to send it & A letter with it ~~to~~ how things are with you & of what goods is wanting G: may be for me to buy at Liverpool to can buy there to live untill I call for it - farwell
