

1679-09-04

Ralph Pemberton, John Clarke, September 4, 1679

Ralph Pemberton

PRINT Identifier: 15859

Find similar works at: <https://stars.library.ucf.edu/printmigrationnetwork-pemberton>
University of Central Florida Libraries <http://library.ucf.edu>

This Correspondence is brought to you for free and open access by the Quaker Correspondence at STARS. It has been accepted for inclusion in Pemberton Correspondence by an authorized administrator of STARS. For more information, please contact STARS@ucf.edu.

Citation

Ralph Pemberton, n.p., to John Clarke, n.p., 1679-09-04, vol. 1, pg. 113, Pemberton Family Papers, 1641-1880, 0484A, Historical Society of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, PRINT, 15859, <https://stars.library.ucf.edu/printmigrationnetwork-pemberton/99/>.

This Correspondence is brought to you for free and open access by the Quaker Correspondence at STARS. It has been accepted for inclusion in Pemberton Correspondence by an authorized administrator of STARS. For more information, please contact STARS@ucf.edu.

John Black I wish there was to find but found none of
of those notes by Hannah Mather gave her a missive to find them in her will but she says they were in her will they were her own for which I wish more and not left her but she will make it better to say they had found other things before many other things were want at all but little hand now very much brought to you with letters in the small filling journals, little journals things before but I wish there was more a word as I know it is well to be how is Red Mather would you find your father or other I have I hope over the last 7 days of your father's words when he went to sea with whom if you can or what you love of him father Polborn had been at Longport the last with his words has it you but no time when he went. I think to see over this with a feather these further of our wants or see further by some other hope through we want no more that I know at all but that I am R P my love to you all The 25 of Nov 79

Ralph Pemberton

6 mo 25. 1879.

to

John Clarke.