Summer Library Workshops

Research Toolkit

May 30, 2013: Noon – 1pm

Join us for a refresher on library resources and services. This workshop will help you keep current by creating search alerts, pinpointing crucial databases in your discipline, using Google Scholar more effectively, citing sources using RefWorks and EndNote, and connecting with a librarian. After the session you will have a toolkit of resources ready for your next big project.

Tools for Research: Introduction to Endnote & RefWorks

June 4, 2013: Noon—1pm

Join us for a basic introduction to using EndNote and RefWorks to collect & organize citations, generate bibliographies, and export citations from library databases; plus a demonstration on how both products work with Microsoft Word. This session covers both products!

Untangling the Web of Science

July 11, 2013: Noon - 1pm

Join us to learn how to make the most out of searching this powerful database to find high impact journal articles and conference proceedings in the sciences.
