that was I could before to knowe whether I should have Robtall spoke to at what time I left when I went out of the tower but he for on about 10 or 12 days at first I asked what proportion those had made for the amount of the money that I had given for nothing at all but he said that he had not told me yet by how I said to him the money was not his but he said that if I said that if thou had given for 20 of ready money when first thou came into the house to sell by thou had made a good bargain so that thou had had nothing to have now I should have had ~~the~~ and said that some of his neighbors & friends said they did believe he had money in his power to paye that & I told him it was but he said in his to say to satisfy that debt for it was some new to that I said that they must either paye that or else all go to the jail or else run there & then I sawe John bar & John but more I got I spoke not loud but playfully to her & gave my hand a great shake by on the table & went my way & I am not into the shop again in my thoughts it might do well if thou got James the 3rd or some one else that thou would say to in to put them behind the great bell or a talker left & yet he by you say to the father of the bowl that so thou might have an other will saye that but I stand what I mean I hope I never saye no more but that I am thy friend The 29 of the mo 79

I have sent thee ^{the} towards the last of the 5 to you and the borrowed 20 & yet I must have 20 on the 5 if John I like to or else by money I would have if thou would have you to the friend at fall for I want a jump no more but I send it to thee
