my right deare & truly beloved frendes I am even filled with pure love at this time to waite you with which my spirit is tendered & ever come in the remembrance of you & although ye overflowings of ye same doe I signify a little unto you for my hart is filled with pure praise unto my god for you because of his end-les love in bringing me amongst you & making you instruments in his hand by whom I was begotten in to his blessed truth in I desire to abide with you for ever & my deare frendes how great hath your travell & your tender care over me even as a tender be-nursing father & mother have you suckled mee with pure milke & Cased mee to drinke deepe draughts of ye same by which I have gone hither too blessed be my god for ever more & my dear friend the sense of gods love & tender dealings with me is upon my spirit at this time which is far behind all utterance or expression of tongue in ye same have I found your travell which is daily for my preservation which travell ye lord is answering day by day everlasting praise honor & thanks be returned unto his name both my sole for ever & for ever more amen so in this pure love which ye lord hath begotten united & joyned us together in & made near unto him selfe & more & dear won unto another do I take my leave with you at this time & remane your child in truth Ellinor Lowe my dear & true love to dear phoebe Harrison R L p p g c with ye rest of dear frendes of your family & w my mother & many it well remember there dear love & I desire to heare from you & of all your wellfare you I am well far well
