Dear friend pp Newton J 15 10th 1672 after the Cordell salutation of my in deared love to thee and thy dear wife these few lines are to request of thee to give my nephew John Clarke to every to cum over to see his grand mother & us in the idle days called Christmas for observation of y^e time but my then is desirous to see him if hee bee in to cum for wee heare hee is very ill of It could be thinkd that will bee the best time to spare him in respect to thy business wherein the greater kindness to request it of thee hoping thee will bee p^{re}sented to do as it according to our earnest desire. Do thee also to give the Cordell salutation my offer unto love to my dear & far friends James & Ann Harrison who are my one ^{dear} wife to mee in the love of god with whom my hart is often comforted & my spirit truly refreshed & my very desire is for you to gedden as for soule & upon you & blessings of co life may continually bee multiplied your great refreshment but may for ever as righer to flourish & bee like to y^e garden of the Lord w^h dew of heaven & your fruit to y^e prays honor & glory of our heavenly father whosoever all is worthy god blessed for ever my mothers dear love is to thee thy wife & I all the C. M. D. also to J. C. & H. H. & I

all the C. M. D. also to J. C. & H. H. & I

My Cosens Edmund & Eleanor Clarke are theen dear love to theen brotherly love my love to deare Cousen E. H. & friends these way as if you were to mention it do in some love to thee & thy dear wife if you see they thy friends & sister in y^e ever
