

1680-01-12

Roger Longworth, James Harrison, January 12, 1680

Roger Longworth

PRINT Identifier: 15874

Find similar works at: <https://stars.library.ucf.edu/printmigrationnetwork-pemberton> University of Central Florida Libraries <http://library.ucf.edu>

This Correspondence is brought to you for free and open access by the Quaker Correspondence at STARS. It has been accepted for inclusion in Pemberton Correspondence by an authorized administrator of STARS. For more information, please contact STARS@ucf.edu.

Citation

Roger Longworth, Amsterdam, Netherlands, to James Harrison, n.p., 1680-01-12, vol. 1, pg. 124, Pemberton Family Papers, 1641-1880, 0484A, Historical Society of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, PRINT, 15874, <https://stars.library.ucf.edu/printmigrationnetwork-pemberton/113/>.

This Correspondence is brought to you for free and open access by the Quaker Correspondence at STARS. It has been accepted for inclusion in Pemberton Correspondence by an authorized administrator of STARS. For more information, please contact STARS@ucf.edu.

James Harrigon

Amsterdam J. 2. d. J. II mo. 1619 my dearly beloved bro: and well assured friend in the Lords honor and of his honorable day, not only to receive the gospel, & go to supper, of which thou hath borne a great share, but also go of heaven, hath sustained thee, and is with thee, and thy countenance never reviveth againe thee, it is sealed in my heart, and truly not seeme without some desire of thy suffering of Let, but over it is in the Lord, and over confidance in the god of Jacob, who saith not I am with thee, to deliver thee, and by my own strength I will be thee, and over thee and confirm thy sinners, and thus it is with me, concerning thee, the Lord hath set thee, for a stander in that and though the Devil Praga and seeme as his weare loose, yet the hath bound him, and his now shall have his will, that he shall power remains over him, and all his instruments, and now my I do not write thus unto thee, as though thou did not know them, it is with me, for thy confirmation, and that from the god of heaven who is my life and my life flows forth unto thee, as a fountain opened, of sweet love, and in the streams of my heavenly fathers and life and glory, I do hereby salute thee, with thy dear wife, who is one thee, in thy dear wife, with dear zelmithas and his wife, the Lord pr you in his glorious power, saith my soul, now and for ever in dear bro: I desired him to the 20 of the 9 month, and was ver glad to see a few lines from thee, and to hear of your well be in the Lord, for I had a perfect peace of your desires, and it may I do hereby salute thee, with thy dear wife, with thy dear wife, the Lord pr thy dear wife, and for ever in in these days, I have not been ver well, of Let be now better be, in the Lord, it hath been a ver hot summer these past few days, and the 20 of the 9 month, we have and where the Engers beest held over, we have dead in that Cittie in some month time, and some Cittie that few left, but the Lord have from that, it is gone well with friends, and the in joye time, being separable or Emden and Danfild the 20 of the 9 month, and being winter, but the Lord is, with them, and the our bond and for the truth, and the Lord's blessed work goes on, and his glory day spreads over these parts of England, and people's eyes begins open, and a love is stirring, amongst febe people to warke for and friends, I do intend to go into a place called gilder I have been this summer, thine is some reviveth and an ness, and after my returne I hope I shall be able to come England, for with my love to thee, and to all thy and all dear friends of our meeting, as if I did name them, as reproaches of our meeting, that we have had to gether, in the Lord blessed power my soul, shall magnify the Lord, for ever more and thought I have been joyful in the remembrance, my soul had often been, as I was, in the remembrance, the seasons of the Lord, as at this time it flows unto you all you children of the u ring of gods glorious heavenly day, you honorable names an singlers, lift up your voices for trinites be not be as the mentioned to dust, the Lord of hoast is with you, as a mighty power, one to all the workers of iniquity, all for your love to all from of our meeting, I do salute you all, and I do hereby salute you in the names of our meeting, I do your grace and prosper in the Lord's of this year to say of you that write is for me to Dear Longworth

I have not been well, of Let be I have been this summer, thine is some reproaches of our meeting, that we have had blessed power my soul, shall magnify the Lord,
and thought I have been joyful in the remembrance,
my soul had often been, as I was, in the remembrance,
the seasons of the Lord, as at this time you children of the u ring of gods glorious honorable names an singlers, lift up your trinites be not be as the mentioned to dust, hoast is with you, as a mighty power, one to iniquity, all for your love to all from of our salute you all, and I do hereby salute you in the

Roger Longworth

Amsterdam

11 mo 2. 1679

to

James Harrison