Luning friend

Shrimons Jambor After my Love to thee and my wife, this is to Lett thee understand that I have recd a Letter from my Brother Shmos and hee saith hee hath word. thy Letter wherein hee saith thou givest him to know that hee may have thy goods which are at ~~the~~ Dublin which hee is willing, to take all the profit thou sent word of, but hee saith thou art under a mistake in carrying the Buttons, for hee saith thou tells in the same Letter, of there being upon Card 9 gross Coats and 6 bust which makes 4 bags 1 Coat and 2 bust, and in thy bill of goods a little higher thou charges them thus 6 bags and 3 gross Coats upon Card which thou carries all 2-6. and hee saith there is but as hee said before and then some but too - 01 - 11 - hee tells me all of it of white yarn which hee sent with ~~the~~ things for I desire thee to send it me by this ~~same~~ banner to be Lett all ~~the~~ highways for me Shmos desires to be remembered to thee thy wife father in law with all the rest of friends,

God in haste Just thy Luning friend
