Undergraduate Academic Policy Statement
Mission Statement and UCF Creed

Mission Statement

UCF is a public research university invested in unleashing the potential within every individual; enriching the human experience through inclusion, discovery, and innovation; and propelling broad-based prosperity for the many communities we serve.

The UCF Creed

Integrity, scholarship, community, creativity, and excellence are the core values that guide our conduct, performance, and decisions. These values comprise the guiding principles that direct the actions of the University, its students and its employees.

Integrity

I will practice and defend academic and personal honesty.

Scholarship

I will cherish and honor learning as a fundamental purpose of my membership in the UCF community.

Community

I will promote an open and supportive campus environment by respecting the rights and contributions of every individual.

Creativity

I will use my talents to enrich the human experience.

Excellence

I will strive toward the highest standards of performance in any endeavor I undertake.

President's Message

Knights,

Whether you are just joining UCF or are planning classes for your final semester, we are excited to provide you with opportunities and support to help each of you reach your academic and professional dreams.

Even as the ways that we teach and learn change, you can have confidence in the high value of a UCF education and our commitment to providing you with the resources you need to be successful while you are here and after you graduate.

At UCF, our motto is "Reach for the Stars." It pushes us to think big and to refuse to be limited by what others say is possible. This mindset has helped UCF become one of the most innovative universities in the country, with a sense of entrepreneurship and optimism that is unique to Knight Nation.
Because of this, UCF is an outstanding leading research institution that remains on the rise. We harness our ingenuity in teaching and research and our strong community connections to help you reach new heights — in the classroom, laboratory, studio, field and court — so you can show the brilliance and unwavering confidence that Knights are known for.

I hope you take advantage of everything available to you this year to make the most of your college experience and set yourself up for the future. Our job is to remove the barriers to your success so that you are able to unleash your full potential.

Best wishes for a great academic year, and in everything ... Charge On!

Sincerely,

Alexander N. Cartwright, Ph.D.
President

The Burnett Honors College (BHC) fosters an environment of academic excellence and intellectual inquiry that gives students the best of both worlds — an intimate, welcoming place to learn and make new friends as well as access to the resources of one of the nation's largest and most innovative metropolitan research universities. BHC focuses on developing highly skilled graduates distinctively prepared for tomorrow's complex challenges, while being mindful of today's changing demographics and the importance of access to opportunity. The college creates a diverse learning community that cultivates talent and inspires excellence. The Burnett Honors College offers two main program tracks, University Honors and Honors Undergraduate Thesis.

Students in BHC are actively involved in co-curricular and social activities. They also have priority registration privileges and access to the Honors Reading Room, Computer Labs, Meditation Garden, and Honors Living Learning Communities.

University Honors

Students of all majors participate in the University Honors program, which is based on nearly 240 distinctive, small honors classes generally capped at about 20 students. The honors curriculum, which consists of honors courses, interdisciplinary seminars, and the honors symposium, takes place over the student's undergraduate career. Though a thesis is not required, the program provides breadth, depth, and engagement with the learning process. All honors courses meet UCF General Education and major-specific requirements. Honors interdisciplinary seminars allow... students to explore topics outside the confines of their discipline. As students participate in the University Honors program, they are encouraged to not only pursue rigorous coursework inside and outside the major but also to engage in research, internships, and study abroad programs.

Admission to University Honors is granted by BHC to qualified incoming "first time in college" (FTIC) freshmen on a competitive basis. Students who seek admission to University Honors must apply directly to BHC. It is the student's responsibility to obtain the appropriate Honors College admissions information from the Office of Student Services and follow the procedures necessary to enter the program. More details can be found at https://honors.ucf.edu/admissions. Prospective Honors students and their families are encouraged to contact Honors staff at HonorsAdmissions@ucf.edu if they have questions.

Qualified students who transfer to UCF with an A.A. degree with Honors from a Florida College System institution that has an Honors articulation agreement with BHC will be admitted into University Honors with junior standing. Further information is available from the Office of Student Services at https://honors.ucf.edu/university-honors/admissions-landing-page/.

First year UCF students who started in the summer or fall semester and meet all stated criteria may apply to the University Honors program during their first spring semester at UCF. This second-year entry gateway to the Burnett Honors College provides an opportunity for students who show exceptional academic ability and intellectual curiosity. Admission to the program is highly competitive. Further information is available at honors.ucf.edu/admissions/university-honors-current-ucf-students/.

University Honors students must take eight Honors courses total by the time they graduate. Students must also maintain a 3.3 UCF GPA and uphold the tenets of the Honor Code to remain in good standing with the Burnett Honors College. Please contact the Office of Honors Advising if you have any specific questions about Honors requirements, including when courses will be offered and possible substitutions.

By the end of the semester prior to the term in which a student plans to graduate with University Honors, the student must file a completed "Intent to Graduate with University Honors" form with BHC. Graduating seniors must complete the online "University Honors Exit Survey" by the end of the semester in which they plan to graduate. A student who completes all the requirements for University Honors will have the designation of University Honors entered on the diploma and transcript. Note: No student with a "Z" designation on their final transcript is eligible to graduate with University Honors.

Summary Table of University Honors Requirements

</tr>
</tbody>

Note: Students who are pursuing University Honors in two degrees must complete an additional upper-division course or interdisciplinary seminar to receive University Honors distinction on both diplomas.

Honors Undergraduate Thesis

The Honors Undergraduate Thesis program allows students to undertake original and independent research or a creative project as principal investigators and independent scholars under faculty supervision. Students enroll in a credit-bearing two-course sequence (which can be extended to three or four, as necessary) in which they research, write, defend, and publish an original Honors thesis. The thesis is published through the UCF library and is available to researchers worldwide. Students who fulfill all program requirements earn the Honors distinction on their diploma and transcript. No student with a "Z" designation on their final transcript is eligible to graduate with Honors.
The Burnett Honors College offers two tracks for the Honors Undergraduate Thesis:

Honors in the Major

Honors in the Major is the oldest and most prestigious undergraduate research program at UCF. Students complete a thesis or creative project in their declared academic major.

Interdisciplinary Honors Thesis

This interdisciplinary track, in which students earn Honors in Research or Honors in Creative Inquiry, allows students to write an Honors thesis in their minor or a discipline other than their major.

Program Requirements

- Earn a grade of A, B or S in Directed Readings course(s)
- xxx 4903H - Honors Directed Readings I or approved substitute (3 credit hours)
- xxx 4904H - Honors Directed Readings II (optional - 1 or 3 credit hours)
- Form a thesis committee that meets the requirements of the Honors Undergraduate Thesis program and submit a thesis proposal that has been approved by the thesis committee.
- Earn a grade of A, B or S in Thesis course(s)
- xxx 4970H - Honors Thesis I (3 credit hours)
- xxx 4971H - Honors Thesis II (optional - 1 or 3 credit hours)
- Submit Notice of Defense and thesis approval forms.
- Submit approved thesis to UCF Libraries.

Eligibility

Admission to the Honors Undergraduate Thesis program is granted by the Burnett Honors College to all qualified UCF students. Students apply directly to the Office of Honors Research and may start in Fall, Spring and Summer terms.

Prospective students are encouraged to review our website for admission criteria, application deadlines and other information at https://honors.ucf.edu/hut/about/.

Note: A collection of completed Honors Undergraduate Theses can be found online at stars.library.ucf.edu/honorstheses.

Office of Prestigious Awards

The Office of Prestigious Awards (OPA) provides all UCF students with information and advising for major national and international fellowships and scholarships. OPA serves as the UCF campus representative for all awards requiring university endorsement or nomination, including the Rhodes, Marshall, Fulbright, Goldwater, and Truman scholarships. While OPA is housed within the Burnett Honors College, it serves the entire UCF community.

OPA works closely with students throughout all stages of their application process. Because of the competitive nature of these awards, preparation is both intensive and extensive and can begin as early as a student's freshman year. Students who are applying for a prestigious scholarship or fellowship are encouraged to contact OPA for assistance with their applications, even if the award does not require institutional endorsement. Students seeking more information can visit opa.ucf.edu or contact OPA by phone at 407-823-0851, in TCH 248, or by email at opa@ucf.edu.

College of Arts and Humanities

Dean: Jeffrey Moore
College of Arts and Humanities (CAH) 190
The College of Arts and Humanities includes the following departments: English, History, Modern Languages & Literatures, Philosophy, and Writing and Rhetoric. The college also oversees the School of Visual Arts and Design, which offers degrees in Architecture, Emerging Media, Photography, and Studio Art and the School of Performing Arts, which offers degrees in Music and Theatre. In keeping with the goals of the University of Central Florida, the College is responsible for all programs in the areas of humanities and arts. The departments and schools collectively offer more than 97 baccalaureate and graduate programs. For additional information concerning graduate programs, please refer to the current online Graduate Catalog. In addition to providing academically strong degree programs in the areas noted above, the College of Arts and Humanities offers a selection of courses that are designed to complement the programs of the other colleges of the University. These offerings include a number of courses necessary to satisfy the University’s General Education program and foreign language requirements.

A student enrolled in the College as an undergraduate must fulfill all University degree requirements including those for general education as well as the particular requirements set forth within each degree program. Some departments also require a minimum grade in each major course. Students are advised to consult their departmental advisor for specific policies. For programs with a foreign language graduation requirement, American Sign Language is not considered a foreign language and will not fulfill the requirement.

Pre-professional Programs

Pre-law Program

There is no preferred major for pre-law. Law schools accept superior students with a good liberal arts background, regardless of major field. A Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Science degree with approximately three-fourths of the course work representing theory content is typically suggested. Majors such as English, History, Legal Studies, Philosophy, Political Science, Sociology, and Writing and Rhetoric meet this criterion. The College of Arts and Humanities also offers a Pre-Law in the Humanities Minor. The quality of undergraduate education for the legal profession, according to the Association of American Law Schools, is grounded in three basic skills and insights: comprehension and expression in words, critical understanding of the human institutions and values with which the law deals, and the creative power of thinking. Law schools require that the Law School Admission Test (LSAT) be taken prior to consideration for admission. General information pertaining to programs of study, the LSAT, careers, and law schools can be obtained from the Office of Pre-Health and Pre-Law Advising.
Advisement

College of Arts and Humanities Student Advising (CAHSA)

Interim Director: Kendra Gilbertson
Trevor Colbourn Hall (TCH) 159
cahsa.cah.ucf.edu
407-823-3312
cahsa@ucf.edu

CAHSA is the primary office for undergraduate academic assistance in the College of Arts and Humanities. CAHSA assists students in the College with academic advising, orientation, registration, graduation certification and with the interpretation of College/University policies and procedures. Students with a declared College of Arts and Humanities major should direct any questions to their assigned CAHSA advisor, which is listed in the myUCF students center. Non-CAH majors with questions should email cahsa@ucf.edu or visit CAHSA in TCH 159 during regular business hours. Questions concerning the requirements within a major should be directed to the department offering the degree. The student should meet with their assigned CAHSA advisor and major/minor advisor at least once a semester.

Program Planning

Although suggested curricula are available in most areas, students will plan their program in consultation with a faculty advisor appointed by the major department.

International Study Centers

Undergraduate Inter-institutional Transient Program

The State University System operates study centers in London, England and Florence, Italy during the Fall and Spring semesters. Students with 27 or more credit hours of credit and a minimum GPA of 2.5 or above in all state universities are eligible to apply for one or both semesters as inter-institutional transient students. Faculty at the centers are drawn from the nine state universities. While credits are earned through Florida State University, which administers the program on behalf of the State University System, credits are fully transferable within the System. Students at the Centers are considered to be resident in their home institutions for attendance and degree purposes.

Classes at the Florence Center emphasize art history, Italian, social sciences, and the humanities; at the London Center, theatre, business, English, history and the social sciences are emphasized. Field trips and museum visits are common to both. For further information, consult UCF Abroad at 407-882-2300.

Vision

#UCFBusiness will continue the transformation into a next-generation business school through the development of a unique college culture; one that promotes engagement, risk-taking, cross-disciplinary collaboration and data-driven decision making.

Moving Forward

While core business curriculum remains unchanged, the world of business is constantly changing, as is the way students learn and receive information.

The foundation of the College of Business Administration's mission and vision are to strengthen the college, the university, and ultimately, the Central Florida community. This is achieved by focusing on critical factors in higher education: students, faculty, programs and facilities. As such, the college aspires to:

- Offer the benefits of a large, metropolitan research university while providing individual attention and maintaining a sense of community for our students and faculty.
- Create a state-of-the-art educational facility that cultivates a learning environment, promoting collaboration, engagement, risk taking and data-driven decision making.
- Provide increased opportunities for student engagement and one-on-one learning.
- Cultivate an ecosystem that develops entrepreneurs from all backgrounds and skill sets.
- Raise the academic profile of the college by recruiting research faculty in key disciplines and by incorporating top industry executives into the curriculum.

The college will elevate the career prospects of students as well as the perceptions of graduates in the community, by ensuring students are career-ready upon graduation by providing experiential learning and developmental feedback. In addition, the college strongly encourages students to explore possible careers through mentoring, summer employment and job shadowing.

All undergraduate and graduate programs are accredited by the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business International (AACSB).

Pre-Major

Admission to the University of Central Florida does not equate to admission to the College of Business Administration (CBA). The CBA is a selective admission college. Students must qualify to be admitted into the college and therefore all students enter the university as a 'pre' business major. This applies regardless of the specific business major a student intends to pursue. As a 'pre' major, students will:

1. Complete the General Education Program
2. Complete the Gordon Rule requirements
3. Complete the Business Common Program Prerequisites (CPP) with a grade of C or better. The CPP classes are:
   - MAC 1105C - College Algebra
   - ACG 2021 - Principles of Financial Accounting
   - ACG 2071 - Principles of Managerial Accounting
   - ECO 2013 - Principles of Macroeconomics
   - ECO 2023 - Principles of Microeconomics
   - QMB 3003 - Quantitative Business Tools I or STA 2023 - Statistical Methods I and MAC 2233 - Concepts of Calculus or MAC 2311C - Calculus with Analytic Geometry I and MAC 2312 - Calculus with Analytic Geometry II
   - CGS 2100C - Computer Fundamentals for Business
4. Complete the Primary Business Core at UCF or an AACSB accredited institution. The Primary Business Core classes are:
   - MAN 3025 - Management of Organizations
   - MAR 3023 - Marketing
   - FIN 3403 - Business Finance
   - QMB 3200 - Quantitative Business Tools II
   - ACG 3173 - Accounting for Decision-Makers
   - Or if Pre-Accounting ACG 3131 - Intermediate Financial Accounting I
5. Complete GEB 3006: Career Exploration and Financial Planning

The Career Exploration and Financial Planning course provides the opportunity to learn and develop personal skills in career and financial management to successfully navigate on-going work and life challenges. Students are given the opportunity to apply career and financial management principles to make appropriate, timely and financially responsible choices with respect to majors/programs of study, progress through the curriculum, and post-graduation options. It is also designed to help students align their major and career interest. Students will take self-assessments to identify career-related skills and interests. Based on their results, students perform research to identify and learn about a target career, target company(ies), and target entry-level jobs.

The Business Common Program Prerequisites are required curriculum for all students within the Florida State University system pursuing a BSBA degree.

The Primary Business Core classes are the heart of the business world. As such they provide students with the basics to be successful in any business endeavor. It is important that students strive to thoroughly learn the material in this coursework as academic performance in the Primary Business Core is used to meet admission to the major standards.

All of the above requirements (numbers 1-5) must be completed before beginning any Business Major.

How to Select Your Major

Now you are ready to select a business major based upon your interests and skills identified in the GEB 3006 class, and your experiences in all of the Primary Business Core classes.

Due to the highly specialized nature of the revised Accounting, Finance, Management, and Marketing majors, interested candidates must show mastery of the subject matter in all aspects of the Primary Business Core, as demonstrated by a 3.0 GPA in the five classes. Additionally, a grade of at least a "B" is required in the introductory course of your desired major and a minimum grade of "C" is required in all Primary Core courses. Upon admission into the Accounting, Finance, Management, and Marketing majors, students must maintain a minimum 2.75 GPA in the Major and a minimum 2.0 GPA in the College to successfully complete the degree.

Admission to the Economics major requires completion of the five Primary Business Core classes with a minimum GPA of 2.0, and a minimum grade of "B" in the introductory courses of your desired major and a minimum grade of "C" is required in all Primary Core Courses. Upon admission into the Economics major, students must maintain a minimum 2.0 GPA in the Major and College to successfully complete the degree.

Admission to the Integrated Business and Real Estate majors requires completion of the five Primary Business Core classes with a minimum GPA of 2.0, and a minimum grade of "C" in the introductory course of your desired major and a minimum grade of "D" is required in all Primary Core Courses. Upon admission into the Integrated Business and Real Estate majors, students must maintain a minimum 2.0 GPA in the Major and College to successfully complete the degree. For more information on these requirements, visit: business.ucf.edu/undergraduate-programs.

After receiving admission to a major, students will complete major coursework, the Secondary Business Core and the remaining three courses in the Professional Development Sequence.

1. The Secondary Business Core: These courses are designed to ensure that you have a solid understanding of the various functions of business and the environment in which the enterprise operates. The Secondary Business Core culminates with our "Great Case Competition" which is part of our Strategic Management Course (MAN 4720) and has become a signature experience for all business students:
   1. QMB 3602 - Business Research for Decision Making (3 credit hours)
   2. BUL 3130 - Legal and Ethical Environment of Business (3 credit hours)
   3. MAR 3203 - Supply Chain and Operations Management (3 credit hours)
   4. MAN 4720 - Strategic Management/Capstone (3 credit hours)

2. The Professional Development Sequence: Students must also complete the professional development sequence that began with GEB 3006. The goal of the Professional Development curriculum is that students will research potential career opportunities and acquired a knowledge base that will prepare them to secure employment prior to graduation:
   1. GEB 3005 - Career Search Strategy (1 credit hour)
   2. GEB 4223 - Business Interviewing Techniques (1 credit hour)
   3. GEB 4004 - Executing Your Career Plan (1 credit hour)

Student Load

A student who is enrolled in 15 – 16 credit hours of course work is considered to be carrying a normal academic load. Per University policy, students may take a maximum of 17 credit hours in the Fall and Spring terms, and 14 credit hours in the Summer term.

Community/Junior College Transfer Notes

1. Admission requirements can and do vary among the business and accounting programs at the ten universities comprising the State University System. To ensure that they have met all prerequisite course eligibility requirements, transfer students from Florida's community and State colleges should complete the following common program prerequisites as part of their Associate of Arts degree: ACG 2021 (or ACG 2001 and ACG 2011), ACG 2071, ECO 2013, ECO 2023, MAC 2233, STA 2023, (or QMB 3003) and CGS 2100C. At UCF, students who have completed MAC 2233 and STA 2023 or MAC 2311C and MAC 2312 will be waived from QMB 3003 - Quantitative Business Tools I. Students who have completed either MAC 2233, MAC 2311C, MAC 2312, or STA 2023, but not both classes in the combination, must take QMB 3003. Completion of these courses with a minimum grade of "C" or better will satisfy all prerequisite course requirements for all business and accounting degree programs and will ensure that a student will receive further consideration for admission to the Primary Core Classes.

2. Subject to the general grade and residency requirements, credit will be granted for transferred course work equivalent to that required in UCF's Business program. Only grades of "C" or higher transfer into the program.

3. It is expected that all incoming transfer students, regardless of intended business major, will upon admission to the university have successfully completed the General Education Program and the Business Common Program prerequisites. Transfer students will attend an orientation session that will provide information regarding university and college policy, program requirements, and college culture.

4. Courses taken at Florida College System institutions do not substitute for upper division courses.
5. Courses transferred must be formally evaluated for equivalency credit. General Education coursework is evaluated for equivalency by Academic Services, while the Business Common Program Prerequisites and all business coursework is evaluated for equivalency by the College. The student must provide a course syllabus and any other supporting information with his/her petition for this evaluation.

6. The Business Primary Core courses must be taken at UCF or an AACSB accredited institution. Additionally, professional courses, in the areas of Accounting, Economics, Management, Marketing, Real Estate, or Finance, should not be taken at a community/junior college. These professional areas are third and fourth year course areas in the College of Business Administration and cannot be satisfied with community/state college courses.

7. A minimum of 12 credit hours must be completed at UCF within each individual major and a minimum of 30 hours of upper level courses within the UCF College of Business.

In 2018, UCF established the College of Community Innovation and Education (CCIE) to bring together programs focused on building strong communities. CCIE is a unique college with opportunities for students to work with faculty and community members to develop innovative solutions to complex social issues that affect communities throughout Central Florida and beyond. The college offers degree, minor and certificate programs designed to be responsive to community needs. Several of CCIE’s undergraduate programs are delivered in a flexible format including both fully online and mixed-mode options.

As the anchor college to UCF Downtown, the College of Community Innovation and Education has select programs that hold classes in downtown Orlando. This location provides students with numerous opportunities to engage in community-based experiences. Internships, practicums, and research take place within walking distance of the downtown campus.

Accelerated BS/MS Degree Program

All of the Engineering and Computer Science programs except for the Information Technology Program are offering an Accelerated BS/MS degree program which will allow students of high academic standing to complete an MS degree at an accelerated pace. The generic rule for students in this program is that they will be allowed to use up to twelve hours of selected 5000 and 6000 level courses with a grade of "B" or higher toward fulfillment of both the BS and MS degree requirements. Interested individuals should see the program descriptions in the graduate and undergraduate catalogs. They may also contact the department Undergraduate Coordinator and/or Graduate Coordinator if they have any further questions.

College Vision

Our Vision is to be among the nation's top producers of engineering and computer science workforce talent in terms of scale and excellence, and to lead the next generation of engineers and computer scientists in advancing research and education that impacts the global society.

College Mission Statement

Our Mission is to provide high-quality, broad-based education and experiential learning in engineering and computer science; create knowledge through pioneering scholarship and impactful research; enrich our students' development and leadership skills; nurture the inherent innovation and leadership of our students; and address pressing local, state, national, and international issues in support of the global community.

College Organization

The College of Engineering and Computer Science is organized into two major divisions: the Engineering and Computer Science Division and the Reserve Officer Training Corps (ROTC) Division. The Engineering and Computer Science Division is comprised of six engineering departments: the Civil, Environmental, and Construction Engineering (CECE) Department, the Computer Science (CS) Department, the Electrical and Computer Engineering (ECE) Department, the Industrial Engineering and Management Systems (IEMS) Department, Materials Science and Engineering (MSE) Department, and the Mechanical and Aerospace Engineering (MAE) Department. The ROTC Division is made up of the Aerospace Studies Department (Air Force ROTC) and the Military Science Department (Army ROTC).

All departments of the Engineering and Computer Science Division offer advanced studies leading to master's degrees and the Doctor of Philosophy degree; see the Graduate catalog for further information on these graduate programs. The Bachelor of Science programs in Aerospace Engineering, Civil Engineering, Computer Engineering, Construction Engineering, Electrical Engineering, Environmental Engineering, Industrial Engineering, and Mechanical Engineering are accredited by the Engineering Accreditation Commission of ABET, https://www.abet.org. The Bachelor of Science programs in Computer Science and Information Technology are accredited by the Computing Accreditation Commission of ABET, https://www.abet.org.

The College houses the ROTC Division for those students desiring to pursue military training while earning their degree. The AFROTC program offers a minor in Aerospace Studies, and the AROTC program offers a minor in Military Science.

The Honors Program in the College of Engineering and Computer Science

The engineering and computer science leaders of tomorrow must not only have impeccable technical credentials, but must also be able to provide strong leadership within the general community in which they live. With this in mind, the Honors Program in the College of Engineering and Computer Science offers outstanding undergraduate engineering and computer science majors an enriched educational, technical, professional, and cultural experience that significantly augments the basic curricula. Honors students comprise academically superior students who commit, upon acceptance into the program, to do broad as well as advanced work in a chosen area.

The objective of the Honors Program is to provide exceptional students with an opportunity to express their creativity and problem-solving abilities through challenging coursework and participation in research projects. In addition, the program exposes students to a wide variety of issues dealing with the role of engineers and computer scientists and the impact of the profession on society. Honors students also participate in several programmed activities, such as lectures by distinguished scholars, engineers, and public figures, as well as visits to local and regional industries and to governmental and military research facilities.

There are two programs available to eligible CECS students: 1) the University Honors Program (see the section on the University Honors Program found in The Burnett Honors College section of this catalog); and 2) the Honors Undergraduate Thesis Program (HUT).

The Honors Undergraduate Thesis Program

The College of Engineering and Computer Science Honors Undergraduate Thesis program is designed for two types of students: 1) Highly qualified students who did not participate in the University Honors Program and would like to have the experience of an Honors curriculum, and 2) University Honors program students who desire to continue the Honors curriculum beyond what the University Honors Program offers. The centerpiece of the Honors Undergraduate Thesis program is the opportunity to undertake independent research as an undergraduate under the guidance of a faculty member in his/her major. The Honors Undergraduate Thesis Program represents a minimum of six credit hours of work. Technical elective credit varies by CECS program. Students should consult with the department of their major. These six credit hours consist of three credit hours of Honors Directed Readings (4903H), plus three credit hours of Honors Undergraduate Thesis (4970H). Optional credits of Directed Readings and Thesis may be taken if required by the project and approved by the supervising faculty.

The latter will result in an undergraduate thesis which will describe the research done by the student. The student will defend his/her thesis before a committee of faculty in the field as part of an oral examination covering the honors work. A sponsoring faculty member is required to supervise the undergraduate thesis.
In order to be admitted to the Honors Undergraduate Thesis program, the student must:

1. Have at least 60 credit hours, including at least 12 graded, upper division credit hours at UCF.
2. A minimum UCF or overall GPA of at least 3.40.
3. Exceptions to the eligibility criteria may be made by the College Honors Committee in individual cases, upon submission of an appeal and recommendation by a sponsoring faculty member to the Office of Honors Research.

To successfully complete the HUT program and receive said designation, the student must successfully defend the thesis and graduate with a minimum 3.2 GPA at UCF. No exceptions to this policy will be made for graduation. Successful candidates will be awarded an Honors in Engineering/Computer Science mention on the diploma and transcript, representing satisfactory completion of the program.

Application for admission to the Honors Undergraduate Thesis Program must be obtained from the Office of Honors Research in the Burnett Honors College. Students in the College of Engineering and Computer Science must consult Dr. Manoj Chopra, Engineering 1, Room 107. For more information about The Burnett Honors College programs, please visit their homepage at honors.ucf.edu.

The LEAD Scholars Program in the College of Engineering and Computer Science

Engineering and computer science students may also participate in the LEAD (Leadership Enrichment and Academic Development) Scholars Program (see the section on the LEAD Scholar Program found elsewhere in this catalog).

Additional Information on UCF Baccalaureate Engineering and Computer Science Programs

Information on each UCF engineering, computer science, and information technology program follows, and more current information on the departments can be found on the College home page at cecs.ucf.edu, and on the home pages of each department. The College of Health Professions and Sciences is home to nationally recognized academic programs, innovative research and exciting community-outreach programs focused on health and wellness. The College is part of UCF’s Academic Health Sciences Center, along with the College of Medicine and College of Nursing. There are four departments and schools housed in the College of Health Professions and Sciences: the School of Social Work, the School of Communication Sciences and Disorders, the School of Kinesiology and Physical Therapy and the Department of Health Sciences. Through course work, field experience and interprofessional education, our students develop high-demand skills in healthcare and cultural competency for work with diverse populations.

General Requirements for the Bachelor's Degree

Undergraduates enrolled in the College of Health Professions and Sciences must fulfill all University degree requirements, including those for general education, as well as the requirements of the degree program. The College offers both open-access and limited-access/restricted programs.

Open-Access Programs:

- Communication Sciences and Disorders (B.A./B.S.)
- Health Sciences (B.S.) - Health Promotion Track

Limited-Access/Restricted Programs:

- Social Work (B.S.W.)
- Health Sciences (B.S.) - Pre-Clinical Track
- Kinesiology (B.S.) – Exercise and Sport Physiology Track
- Kinesiology (B.S.) – Strength and Conditioning Track

Acceptance by or registration at the University does not constitute admission to limited-access or restricted programs. Students pursuing these limited-access/restricted majors will be classified as "Pending" until they satisfy program specific admission requirements. A separate application must be made to the appropriate limited-access program.
Additional information regarding prerequisites and admission requirements may be found in this catalog.

The UCF College of Medicine through its Burnett School of Biomedical Sciences (BSBS) offers the fourth largest undergraduate program in the university, B.S. in Biomedical Sciences, that meets the admission requirements for
The BSBS is an integral part of the College of Medicine, making it a research-intensive medical school where cutting-edge medical research spans the entire spectrum from laboratory bench to bedside. The BSBS is home to quality programs in the biomedical sciences as well as vigorous research programs focused on cancer, cardiovascular, neurological, and infectious diseases. The UCF College of Medicine is a forward-looking medical school with a culture based on partnerships and collaboration. The college's medical and biomedical programs capitalize on UCF's existing strengths in biological sciences, modeling and simulation, engineering, optics and photonics, psychology, chemistry, film and digital media, business, and nursing.

The mission of the Burnett School of Biomedical Sciences is to provide quality undergraduate and graduate programs in the biomedical sciences and build vigorous research programs. In addition to conducting cutting-edge research in biomedicine with potential application to curing major diseases, the BSBS is committed to helping develop a technology-based industry in Florida. Active partnerships formed with other units such as the College of Optics and Photonics, the College of Engineering and Computer Science and the Nanoscience Technology Center will facilitate interdisciplinary research and education programs in the innovative application of photonics, bioinformatics and nanoscience to biomedical problems.

The BSBS is educating over 3,000 undergraduate majors including Biomedical Sciences, Biomedical Sciences - Neuroscience Track, Biotechnology, Molecular and Cellular Biology, Molecular Microbiology and Medical Laboratory Sciences. The BSBS also offers master's degrees in Biomedical Sciences and in Biotechnology, as well as an interdisciplinary doctoral degree in Biomedical Sciences. The current graduate enrollment is approximately 135 masters and doctoral students. The college also offers an M.D. program. The M.D. program enrolled its first class in August 2009 and has increased the number of admitted students annually to a level that produces 120 medical graduates each year. The current enrollment is approximately 491 M.D. students.

In addition to multiple facilities on the main Orlando campus, the college has facilities that are an integral part of the growing medical city at Lake Nona. The UCF Health Sciences Campus at Lake Nona includes a 170,000-square-foot medical education building and the 198,000-square-foot Burnett Biomedical Sciences building. The M.D. program is offered in the medical education building, which features the latest in lab and classroom technology. The state of the art research laboratories in the Burnett Biomedical Sciences building provide expanded research opportunities for undergraduate and graduate students. Advising for undergraduate programs is located in HS2 room 335 (Main Campus).

College of Medicine Vision, Mission and Goals

UCF College of Medicine Vision

The University of Central Florida College of Medicine aspires to be the nation's premier 21st century college of medicine.

The UCF College of Medicine will be a national leader in education, research, and patient care, recognized for supporting and empowering its learners and faculty to realize their passion for discovery, healing, health, and life, and for its ability to create partnerships to transform medical education, health care, and research.

UCF College of Medicine Mission

The University of Central Florida College of Medicine educates and inspires individuals to be exemplary physicians and scientists, leaders in medicine, scholars in discovery, and adopters of innovative technology to improve the health and well-being of all.

Our patient-centered mission is achieved by outstanding health care and services, groundbreaking research, and leading edge medical and biomedical education in an environment enriched by diversity and partnership.

UCF College of Medicine Goals
Goal 1: Excel in Medical and Biomedical Education

Goal 2: Excel in Research and Discovery in: Biomedical Sciences, Medical Education, Health Care, and Population Sciences

Goal 3: Provide Outstanding, Innovative, Patient-Centered Care While Transforming Health Care Delivery

To achieve excellence in each of these goals, identify and develop a diversified, self-sustaining infrastructure in an environment that fosters community, diversity, partnership, and collaboration.

The College of Nursing is the 11th college to be established at the University. It was established as a Department of Nursing and graduated its first class in 1981. The college has achieved prominence as an innovator in nursing education, responding to a changing population with complex health care needs. The faculty of the college values access to education and embraces opportunities to utilize advanced technology, innovation and creativity to provide graduates with the highest quality education at the baccalaureate, master's and doctoral levels.

Today's challenging health care environment provides unique opportunities for nursing. Nurses are needed more than ever to provide evidence-based patient care, serve in leadership roles, teach, engage in research, and influence policy.

The mission of the College of Nursing at the University of Central Florida is to prepare nurse leaders and patient advocates through excellence in education, research and service. The University of Central Florida College of Nursing will be a 21st century leader in innovative nursing education, research and practice that impacts the health of a global community.

The College of Nursing offers a Bachelor of Science in Nursing (BSN) degree, the basis for professional nursing practice. The program has four tracks: traditional, accelerated second degree, concurrent and RN to BSN. The traditional, accelerated second degree, and concurrent tracks prepare students for initial licensure as a registered nurse. The traditional program is also offered at the Cocoa and Daytona regional campus sites. Students with a prior baccalaureate or higher degree from an accredited institution of higher education (meeting university transfer eligibility requirements) are eligible for the Accelerated Second Degree BSN option. The Concurrent ASN to BSN program is a partnership between selected Florida College System institutions and UCF College of Nursing to allow simultaneous enrollment in both associate and baccalaureate nursing programs. The BSN graduate is prepared to provide comprehensive care in a variety of acute, community, and rehabilitative settings. The program emphasis includes clinical nursing practice, health promotion and maintenance, and preparation for assuming leadership roles. The baccalaureate curriculum provides the foundation for graduate study in nursing.

The RN to BSN track offers registered nurses with an associate degree or diploma in nursing an opportunity to earn a BSN. Each applicant is reviewed individually and guided to prevent repetition of previous coursework. Contact the College of Nursing for specifics on the RN to BSN program. Courses are primarily online with some face-to-face classes offered at Valencia West and Melbourne campuses.

The goal of the Master of Science in Nursing (MSN) degree is to prepare advanced practice nurses to assume leadership positions in a variety of healthcare settings. Program tracks include Nurse Educator, Nursing Leadership and Management, and Nursing and Healthcare Simulation. Minimum hours for the degree are 36-46 hours of graduate work depending on the major. An evidence-based scholarly project is required. Students must be a licensed Registered Nurse to enter this program. A certificate in Nursing Education is available for students with a bachelor's degree in nursing or a related health field. An interdisciplinary certificate in Healthcare Simulation is available to non-nurses. Nurse practitioner specialty area certificates are also available for APRNs.

The Doctor of Philosophy in Nursing (PhD) program prepares nurse scientists to assume positions as nursing faculty, leaders in the application of innovative technologies to nursing education and clinical care, executive leaders in health care systems and scientists who contribute to the body of nursing knowledge through research.

The Doctor of Nursing Practice (DNP) prepares nurses at the highest level of practice for the current health care environment based on a strong scientific foundation for practice; flexibility and emphasis on evidence-based practice, leadership, and organizational analysis; and analysis of practice including completion of a residency project during the capstone clinical residency year.

The College of Nursing BSN, MSN, and DNP, programs are accredited by The Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE). The BSN Program is approved by the Florida Board of Nursing. All programs are limited access and require a separate application to the College of Nursing.

General Requirements for the Bachelor's Degree

- Programs in the College of Nursing are upper division, limited access programs.
- Acceptance by or registration at the university does not constitute admission to the College of Nursing.
- Application must be made to the appropriate program in Nursing.

Additional information regarding prerequisites and minimum grade point averages may be obtained from the college.
The College of Nursing Office of Undergraduate Student Services assists undergraduate students in understanding matters relating to college and university requirements and procedures, as well as coordinating orientation, registration and graduation certification. Students interested in pursuing limited access programs are encouraged to meet with advisors in the college to take the appropriate prerequisite requirements. Questions concerning university and college academic policies should be directed through this office.

College Mission

CREOL, The College of Optics & Photonics is a world-renowned graduate college for optical science and engineering education and research. Its mission is to: Provide the highest quality education in optical science and engineering, support the educational needs of undergraduate and graduate students, serve the continuing educational needs of industry, and enhance optics and photonics education at all levels; Create and disseminate new knowledge and innovations in optics and photonics by conducting, presenting, and publishing cutting-edge fundamental and applied research; Aid in the development of the State of Florida and the nation's knowledge-based and technology-based industries, and create, foster, and sustain mutually beneficial research collaborations and partnerships with industry.

College Organization

The College of Optics and Photonics (COP) was formed in 2004, as a result of the great success of CREOL (the Center for Research and Education in Optics and Lasers), which was established in 1986 to provide the highest quality education in optics and lasers, conduct scholarly fundamental and applied research, and aid in the development of Florida's high technology-based industries. The College has offered MS and PhD degrees in Optics for many years and now offers the degree of Bachelor of Science in Photonic Science and Engineering in collaboration with the College of Engineering and Computer Science (CECS).

CREOL has become an internationally recognized institute with 35 faculty members, 60 PhD level research scientists, 154 graduate students and 140 undergraduate students. The faculty are recognized as being among the best in the optics/laser/photonics field, with two-thirds holding the rank of Fellow in major national and international professional societies. It is housed in a state-of-the-art 116,000-square-foot building dedicated to optics, photonics, and laser education and research on the main campus. This facility houses 90 research laboratories equipped with over $55 million in state-of-the-art equipment. A portion of the building functions as the UCF Photonics Incubator, an extension of the award-winning UCF Business Incubation Program. The undergraduate lab is outfitted with the latest equipment and technologies in a dedicated space for undergraduate students.

The research activities, through centers such as CREOL, the Florida Photonics Center of Excellence (FPCE) and the Townes Laser Institute, span the spectrum from basic science to prototype development. The faculty and research staff pursue joint research projects with industry, academia, and government laboratories, and are always seeking new opportunities to work with industry to expose students to the industrial environment and to help in technology transfer.

The faculty engage in research and education in fields utilizing radiation at wavelengths ranging from millimeter waves and THz to UV and X-rays. This includes several photonic technologies:

1. Lasers
2. Optical fibers
3. Semiconductor and integrated photonic devices
4. Nonlinear and quantum optics
5. Imaging, sensing and display

These technologies have applications in industry, communication and information technology, biology and medicine, energy and lighting, aerospace, and homeland security and defense. Design of optical systems, which has been the core of optical engineering, remains to be a principal component of the discipline, and advanced topics such as nanophotonics, attosecond optics, metamaterials, plasmonics, and biophotonics, have been embraced as areas of strength and future growth. These programs are supported by over $15 million of research grants and contracts annually from numerous federal and state agencies and industry.

Bachelor of Science in Photonics Science and Engineering Description

Optics and photonics technologies are central to modern life. For example, they are needed to make and inspect the integrated circuits in nearly every electronic device we use. They are used in high-efficiency lighting, displays, and the harvesting of solar power. Optical fibers have enabled the Internet. Lasers are essential to precision manufacturing and metrology. A plethora of medical applications including clinical diagnosis, surgery, and genome mapping utilize photonics technologies. Photonics plays an important role in the US and Florida's economy, with over 270 photonics companies in Florida, employing over 5,000 engineers. The B.S. degree in Photonic Science and Engineering will enable students to analyze and design optical and laser systems for a broad set of applications including manufacturing, healthcare, telecommunication, defense, security, and entertainment. PSE students are required to complete a senior design project in which students work on a small design team.

The Bachelor of Science in Photonic Science and Engineering is accredited by the Engineering Accreditation Commission of ABET, https://www.abet.org.

Mission

The mission of the Bachelor of Science in Photonic Science and Engineering is to educate students in the fundamental skills, knowledge, and practice so they can apply their knowledge, analyze, and design technologies in a productive and ethical manner that will lead them to positions within the Photonic Science and Engineering industry, or to prepare them for advanced course work or degrees within Optics and Photonics.

Program Educational Objectives

1. Graduates will grow in their role as photonic scientists and engineers in society leading to leadership within the profession.
2. Graduates will make a meaningful impact on profession while behaving ethically and taking into account environmental and economic issues.
3. Graduates will pursue professional and personal development in their areas of interest, through such endeavors as graduate studies, service to the profession, or participating in training opportunities.

Student Outcomes

1. Graduates have an ability to identify, formulate, and solve complex engineering problems by applying principles of engineering, science, and mathematics.
2. Graduates have an ability to apply engineering design to produce solutions that meet specified needs with consideration of public health, safety, and welfare, as well as global, cultural, social, environmental, and economic factors.
3. Graduates have an ability to communicate effectively with a range of audiences.
4. Graduates have an ability to recognize ethical and professional responsibilities in engineering situations and make informed judgments, which must consider the impact of engineering solutions in global, economic, environmental, and societal contexts.
5. Graduates have an ability to function effectively on a team whose members together provide leadership, create a collaborative and inclusive environment, establish goals, plan tasks, and meet objectives.
6. Graduates have an ability to develop and conduct appropriate experimentation, analyze and interpret data, and use engineering judgment to draw conclusions.
7. Graduates have an ability to acquire and apply new knowledge as needed, using appropriate learning strategies.

Advisement

The Photonic Science and Engineering Bachelor's degree is jointly offered with CECS. General questions about the PSE program can be directed to the Associate Director in the College of Optics and Photonics by email at undergrad@creol.ucf.edu or visit CREOL 108B.
Additional Information on UCF Baccalaureate Photonic Science and Engineering Program

Current information about the UCF Photonic Science and Engineering can be found on the College website at creol.ucf.edu, including information about the joint program with the College of Engineering and Computer Science.

This program has potential ties to professional licensure or certification in the field. For more information on how this program may prepare you in that regard, please visit creol.ucf.edu/academics/undergrad/mission-educational-objectives-abet.

The College of Sciences educates and conducts research in physical, life, social, and behavioral sciences. The college houses the Departments of Anthropology, Biology, Chemistry, Mathematics, Physics, Psychology, Sociology, and Statistics; and two schools: the Nicholson School of Communication and Media, and the School of Politics, Security, and International Affairs. In addition, the college houses the following service and research centers, institutes and initiatives:

- Arboretum
Undergraduates enrolled in the college must fulfill all University degree requirements, including those for general education, as well as the requirements of the degree program. To be certified for graduation, most programs require that a student achieve at least a “C” GPA (2.0) in the courses of his or her major and/or minor. Please see the requirements within each degree's "Additional Requirements" or "Departmental Exit Requirements" for more information about grade and GPA requirements. Some academic units also require a minimum grade in specified courses and/or in portions of the program of study. Consult the program requirements and a major advisor for specific policies. For programs with a foreign language graduation requirement, American Sign Language is not considered a foreign language and will not satisfy the requirement unless specifically permitted within the major. See the "Foreign Language Requirements: Graduation" for specific degree requirements.

There is no preferred major for those students interested in enrolling into a law program. Law schools accept superior students with a good liberal arts or science background, regardless of major field. A Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Science degree with an emphasis in theory and critical thinking is typically suggested. The quality of undergraduate education for the legal profession, according to the Association of American Law Schools, is grounded in three basic skills and insights: comprehension and expression in words, critical understanding of the human institutions and values with which the law deals, and the creative power of thinking. Law schools require that applicants take the Law School Admission Test (LSAT). To understand more about how your chosen major will prepare you for a law program, as well as information about the LSAT, careers, and law schools, please contact either the COS Pre-Law Advisor or an advisor from within the Office of Pre-Health and Pre-Law Advising.

Prehealth Professions

While there are specific courses that students need to master to enroll into a medical program, there is not a required major for admission into a medical program. The College of Sciences offers many of the courses that fulfill admission requirements for health-related professional schools and medical schools. Students are encouraged to seek advisement from the university’s Office of Pre-Health and Pre-Law Advising.

The College of Sciences Advising Services (COSAS) is the primary office for undergraduate academic advisement for the College of Sciences. COS students will have at least two advisors, one within COSAS and one within the department or school of their major. New students to COS should meet with their COSAS advisor upon entry to UCF and their department advisor by the end of their first term at UCF. COSAS assists students with degree requirements, policies, and procedures as well as coordinates orientation, registration, readmission, and graduation. COSAS advisors also work with students at risk of, and currently on, academic probation as well as students with low major GPAs. Questions concerning university and college academic policies and requirements should be directed to COSAS. Questions concerning the specific requirements within a major or minor should be directed to the department offering the program. For additional information about COSAS, please visit the College of Sciences Academic Advising catalog page and our website at sciences.ucf.edu/cosas.

Program Academic Learning Compacts

Program Academic Learning Compacts are the expected student learning outcomes of UCF degree programs. These outcomes encompass three areas: 1) discipline-specific knowledge, skills, attitudes and behaviors; 2) communication; and 3) critical thinking. Each program is assessed based on these student learning outcomes. The Academic Learning Compacts for every UCF program are found at oeas.ucf.edu/academiclearningcompacts.html.

The College of Undergraduate Studies provides students with a robust and individualized course of study through its Interdisciplinary Studies degree program. The college confers academic degrees that include Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Science in Interdisciplinary Studies (IDS), Bachelor of Arts IDS - Diversity Studies Track, Bachelor of Science in Environmental Studies and Bachelor of General Studies in Integrative General Studies. It also serves as a partner to UCF's colleges and units in their curricular planning, collaborates with faculty curricular oversight, works with faculty and administrators to assure the strength of university-wide programs such as general education, and advocates for an undergraduate education that offers an outstanding learning experience to UCF students.

Rosen College of Hospitality Management

Dean: Dr. Youcheng Wang
Rosen College of Hospitality Management Campus (RCH) 231 hospitality.ucf.edu
407-903-8000
rchminfo@ucf.edu
The hospitality industry is the second largest employer in the United States and represents the majority of the economy's rapidly growing service sector. Because of its unique location in the premier tourist destination in the world, the Rosen College of Hospitality Management is ideally situated to prepare students for leadership careers in the hospitality industry and beyond. Whether the student is interested in entering lodging, food service, travel and tourism, financial management and technology, theme parks, vacation ownership resorts, golf management, senior living management, event management or entertainment management, the Orlando and Central Florida area offers extraordinary opportunities.

More than 75 million tourists visit Orlando each year, an international destination with over 400 hotels with 120,000 rooms, 20,000 vacation ownership units, 5,300 restaurants, 176 golf courses, over 100 theme parks and attractions, 12 regional shopping malls, a top-ranked international airport, the second largest convention center in the nation, and a multitude of sport and entertainment venues. As the most visited location in the United States, Orlando's hospitality & tourism industry is the region's largest employer, supplying approximately 449,000 jobs with wages exceeding $14 billion annually.

The educational mission of the College is to provide students with the knowledge, skills and abilities to identify opportunities and challenges in the hospitality industry and beyond, and to apply creative decision-making techniques in response to those opportunities. Hospitality is relevant to every business, so students will benefit from an education that is transferable to both private and public entities that value the customer experience.

The curriculum is designed to prepare students for a broad range of managerial roles across various industries. It provides both academic preparation and practical experiences that students need to enter and succeed in their careers. Students also can experience the world of work in hospitality through internship requirements and extensive contact with leading hospitality executives in the Central Florida area. There are five undergraduate degrees offered, including Bachelor of Science degrees in Hospitality Management, Event Management, Entertainment Management, Senior Living Management, and Lodging and Restaurant Management.

The college also houses the Linda Chapin Eminent Scholar Chair in Tourism Management, the Visit Orlando Endowed Chair of Tourism Marketing, the William C. Peeper Preeminent Professorship in Destination Marketing, the CFHLA...
Preeminent Chair Professor within the Hospitality Services Department and the Dick Pope Sr. Institute for Tourism Studies which was created and funded by the travel and tourism industry in Central Florida. The Institute conducts research and gathers information that helps the entire Orlando area hospitality industry better understand and serve its many guests from around the world.

Distinctive Benefits

- A state-of-the-art facility located in the heart of the tourism district in Orlando, Florida with convenient on-campus housing.
- Access to global hospitality organizations that serve one of the world's premier tourist destinations.
- Extensive ties to top leaders in the Orlando area hospitality industry.
- A large number of scholarships provided through the generous support of the industry.
- Outstanding faculty from 17 different countries.
- A highly engaged faculty with vast industry knowledge and connections.
- A work requirement that provides students with practical experiences in the hospitality industry.
- Outstanding internship opportunities.
- A modern food production laboratory and beer and wine laboratory completely equipped to provide students with experience in food preparation.
- Multiple endowed chairs and professorships.

Responsibilities

Academic advising is a process that assists students in the clarification of life goals and the translation of these goals into educational plans. It provides assistance to students as they explore educational opportunities and develop educational plans and objectives. Academic advising connects students with the University by bringing meaning to its mission, its curriculum and to the learning environment that is the University community. Academic advising is committed to assisting and supporting students with developing their educational, career and life goals. It provides access to campus resources and coordinates the integration of all aspects of student life into learning experiences. It is an individualized avenue of communication that assists students in the planning and decision-making process.

Although academic advisors provide assistance, it is the student's responsibility to know the university policies, procedures, requirements, and seek out assistance when needed. There are a variety of academic advising systems available at UCF in each of the colleges, schools, and the Division of Student Learning and Academic Success.

Freshman (First Time in College - FTIC)

Academic advising is one of the most important services provided at UCF and can impact a student's successful progression to graduation. Every incoming freshman is assigned a professional first year academic advisor within the university's colleges and schools, and link students to advisors in various academic programs.

New FTIC Students can expect to:

1. Attend a mandatory UCF Orientation that will provide:
   1. Initial academic advising in a group setting and preparation for the first term, including schedule planning and registration
   2. An assessment of high school grades, entrance and placement test scores, and AP, dual enrollment, CLEP credit or other forms of college-level credit;
   3. An awareness of expectations for success at UCF; and,
   4. Information about key academic policies and important deadlines.
2. Connect with their academic advising office according to various academic programs within the college.
3. Connect with their academic advising office according to the following designated priority order:
   - Knights Major Exploration and Transition Center - for all undeclared and major exploring undergraduate students. Advisors and coaches help students explore and select areas of study that suit their academic interests and post-graduation plans. (TCH 133)
   - Academic Services for Student-Athletes (ASSA) - for Division I student athletes (WDSC 110)

These offices provide students with general education advising, academic exploration for undeclared students, academic support, registration assistance, and on-going information about University policies and procedures throughout the first year experience.

4. Participate in programs and advising activities that will promote a successful transition from high school to the
The Burnett Honors College

New students will:

Attend the UCF Orientation designated for The Burnett Honors College. At this time students meet with Honors staff and learn about The Burnett Honors College courses and GPA requirements, and register for Honors and non-Honors classes.

Continuing students will:

1. Contact the department of their major and meet with their advisor in the department during the first two months of any semester to review progress and plan a program of study;
2. Meet with their advisor in the department of their major prior to registration;
3. Contact the Office of Honors Advising (BHC 109) and based on the recommendation from their academic advisor and the requirements for University Honors, an Honors Advisor will assist with Honors course selection;
4. Continue to register for classes online;
5. Check their "Fee Invoices/Schedule" to ensure accuracy of class schedule; and,
6. Attend any mandatory Honors advising appointments.

College of Arts and Humanities

Students with a declared major in the College of Arts and Humanities (CAH) should meet with their major advisor concerning major requirements and with their assigned CAHSA advisor regarding all other requirements. Students in CAH will be assigned a CAHSA advisor, who will serve as their primary contact throughout their career in CAH. CAHSA advisors will request to meet with their assigned CAH advisees every spring and fall semester. Students are also encouraged to contact their assigned CAHSA advisor via email, as needed. Advisor assignments and their contact information can be found in the my.ucf.edu student center. CAHSA is located in Trevor Colbourn Hall (TCH) room 159 and students can also access additional information on CAHSA's website at: cahsa.cah.ucf.edu.

New students will:

1. Receive information from their assigned CAHSA advisor prior to orientation and meet with their assigned CAHSA advisor in a group setting during Orientation to discuss college policies and procedures;
2. Meet with a major advisor during orientation to discuss major requirements, plan their class schedule, and learn more about the majors offered;
3. Register for classes during orientation at a central location with the help of their assigned CAHSA advisor;
4. Check their "Fee Invoices" to ensure accuracy of their class schedule; and,
5. Create their Knights Email account.

Continuing students will:

1. Meet with their assigned CAHSA advisor as requested each fall and spring semester. Students will receive an invitation to their Knights Email account to schedule their CAHSA advising appointment through our online appointment scheduling system, myKnight STAR. The CAHSA advisor will assist each advisee in updating their Pegasus Path plans to support progression towards four-year graduation for FTIC students and two-year graduation for transfer students;
2. Meet with their major advisor in their department or school to review their academic progress and to create a plan of study for subsequent semesters. Review this plan each term with their major advisor and prior to registration;
3. Review and update their Pegasus Path plan and review their myKnight degree Audit at least every term and understand all degree requirements;
4. Regularly check and respond to emails received to their Knights Email account and respond to prompts to complete CAHSA and major advising sessions each semester.

Graduating students will:

1. File the online intent to graduate form by the posted deadline for the semester in which they intend to graduate. Please note that the deadline for filing is always the semester prior to the semester in which students intend to graduate.
2. Complete the CAH graduation webcourse after submitting the online intent to graduate application and prior to the posted deadline for filing the intent.
3. Maintain current contact information and regularly check their Knights email account, myKnight degree audit, and webcourse content.

College of Business Administration

The College of Business Administration (CBA) strives to provide its students with the highest quality academic advising and career coaching. The Office of Professional Development (OPD) assists prospective and current business majors develop an educational plan that meets their career goals.

New students will:

1. Be classified as a 'pre-major' until admission to the major requirements are met and a change of major request has been processed. 'Pre-major' students have enrollment access to CBA non-restricted classes and do not have enrollment access to CBA restricted classes;
2. Meet college Advisors in a group setting during Orientation to discuss admission to the major requirements, college policy, procedures, expectations, and degree programs;
3. Review degree requirements at Orientation using the Degree Audit and CBA literature to better understand degree requirements and the various components of their Degree Audit;
4. Submit all requests to evaluate transfer courses for equivalency to UCF courses during their first term of enrollment at UCF. General Education coursework is evaluated for equivalency by Academic Services, while the Business Common Program Prerequisites and all business coursework is evaluated for equivalency by the College;
5. Meet with a Career Coach in the OPD (BA2, Room 101), to understand the career options of their major; and,
6. Meet with the Advising Team in the OPD (BA2, Room 101), to review academic progress and develop or update an academic plan.

Continuing students will:

1. Meet with the Advising Team to review academic progress and develop or update an academic plan. Degree requirements and course prerequisites should be reviewed prior to registration each term;
2. Meet with a Career Coach as directed by activities in the college's Career Professionalism curriculum;
3. Register for courses in myUCF at their scheduled appointment time. All changes to the student's class schedule must be completed by the end of the add/drop/swap period;
4. Be classified as 'pre-major' until admission to the major requirements are met and a change of major request has been processed. 'Pre-major' students have enrollment access to CBA non-restricted classes and do not have enrollment access to CBA restricted classes;
5. Meet with the Advising Team during the term prior to their anticipated graduation term as needed; and,
6. File the electronic "Intent to Graduate Form" by the end of the term prior to the term in which graduation is intended.

Students placed on 'Lack of Progress' (LOP) due to Major and/or College of Business Administration GPA concerns will:

1. Have a "hold" placed on their subsequent registration; and,
2. Meet with the dedicated LOP Coordinator to review the student's academic situation and develop a plan of action; and,
3. Complete the CBA Academic Standing webcourse and any subsequent requirements.

College of Community Innovation and Education

New students will:

1. Meet college advising representatives in a group setting during new student orientation to:
   - Review degree program requirements including General Education Program Requirements.
   - Discuss College of Community Innovation and Education admission requirements needed for enrollment in upper-level classes.
   - Plan an appropriate first-semester class schedule.
   - Understand expectations and responsibilities associated with a career in education and service to the public.
   - Set up and regularly check their Knights Email account.
2. Be advised by the College of Community Innovation and Education's Undergraduate Affairs professional advisors on the main campus in Education Complex Room 110 or in Downtown Campus Union West second
3. Be advised also by discipline specific advisors/faculty advisors in their academic departments;
4. Be assigned an advisor by their first semester of enrollment. Students can find their CCIE assigned advisor by login into their MyUCF Student Center; and
5. Purchase and utilize the Student Learning & Licensure platform, if an education major, at the beginning of the first semester of enrollment in the College of Community Innovation and Education, based on program requirements.

Continuing students will:

1. Set up an appointment with their academic advisor upon acceptance to their major, or the Undergraduate Affairs office, if a "Pending" major, to discuss academic progress and review and update Pegasus Path plan through myUCF each term prior to graduation. Review this plan each term with an advisor prior to each registration period;
2. Review their degree audit through myUCF;
3. Register at scheduled appointment time in myUCF. Students must complete any changes to their schedules by the end of the university published add/drop deadlines;
4. Utilize the Student Learning & Licensure platform based upon Education major program requirements;
5. File an online "Intent to Graduate Application" by the end of the term prior to the term in which graduation is intended for each major and undergraduate certificate; and
6. Be enrolled and complete the CCIE Graduation web course after submission of the online intent to graduate application.

College of Engineering and Computer Science

New students will:

1. Meet with the Engineering and Computer Science Academic Affairs representative in a group setting during Orientation to:
   1. Review the College of Engineering and Computer Science (CECS) academic policies and procedures
   2. Plan an appropriate first term schedule;
2. Meet with a faculty advisor in the department of their major to:
   1. Understand the career options of the major
   2. Discuss degree program requirements; and,
3. Be advised in the CECS Academic Affairs Office (ENG1 107) if Undecided Engineering majors. Students are encouraged to seek advisement on determining a major as soon as possible. Failure to declare a major by the end of the first year may result in a delay of graduation.
4. Set up and regularly check their Knights Email account.

Continuing students will:

1. Meet with an advisor in the CECS Academic Affairs Office or the department of their major during each term. Computer Science majors will be assigned a faculty advisor once they have passed the Computer Science Foundation Exam. Until that time, Computer Science majors will be advised by the CECS Academic Affairs Office or Computer Science Undergraduate Advising Office in HEC 345;
2. Set up an appointment with an advisor to review your academic progress and to develop an academic plan with the Pegasus Path tool. Review this plan each term with the advisor prior to registration;
3. Use the flow diagram or four-year plan received during Orientation to progress through the degree requirements;
4. View a Degree Audit, the registration appointment time, and search for classes (once the class schedule is available) through myUCF at my.ucf.edu;
5. Register at the scheduled appointment time in myUCF, or in person in the CECS Academic Affairs Office (AAO). Complete all schedule changes by the end of the published Add/Drop period;
6. Participate in the college designated intervention plan if you have been placed on an engineering or computer science advisement hold. An intervention through the CECS Academic Affairs Office will be required each semester a student is on advisement hold; and,
7. File the "Intent to Graduate" through myUCF and meet with an advisor for graduation check in the CECS Academic Affairs Office or in the major department by the last day of classes of the term prior to the term in which the student intends to graduate.

College of Health Professions and Sciences

New students will:
Meet college advising representatives in a group setting during Orientation to:

1. Discuss degree program requirements;
2. Understand career options of the major program of study;
3. Plan an appropriate first-semester class schedule; and
4. Be advised by the College of Health Professions and Sciences (CHPS) Office of Student Academic Services in the Health Sciences Building II Room 115 if they are a freshman/sophomore CHPS major. All other admitted CHPS majors will be advised by their department academic advisor.

Continuing students will:

1. Meet with an academic advisor in the CHPS Office of Student Academic Services or their department advisor each semester prior to registration, and before the beginning of the term to ensure their schedule is appropriate;
2. Meet with their academic advisor in the department of their major to select appropriate program courses and check progress toward graduation;
3. Review a Degree Audit through myUCF frequently to check progress toward course requirements;
4. Review and update Pegasus Path plan through myUCF each term prior to graduation; and
5. File the "Intent to Graduate Form" through myUCF and meet with an advisor in the CHPS Office of Student Academic Services or in the major department by the end of the term prior to the term in which graduation will occur.

College of Medicine - Burnett School of Biomedical Sciences

New students will:

Meet with the Burnett School of Biomedical Sciences (BSBS) College of Medicine Undergraduate Student Advising (COMUSA) advisors in group settings during Orientation to:

1. Discuss degree program requirements;
2. Understand career options of the major program of study;
3. Be directed to an appropriate academic/faculty advisor for help with information and guidance for medical/health professional or graduate programs admission requirements; and
4. Plan an appropriate first semester class schedule.

Continuing students will:

1. Meet with an advisor in the College of Medicine Undergraduate Student Advising (COMUSA) office in HS2, room 335 every semester to check progress toward graduation and selection of program courses, and to check on possible career and research opportunities;
2. See an advisor in the College of Medicine Undergraduate Student Advising (COMUSA) office if pending major for limited-access Medical Laboratory Sciences program during the first few weeks of each semester to check progress toward eligibility for application to the major;
3. View a Degree Audit, registration time, and search for classes (once the class schedule is available) through myUCF;
4. Register for courses at the scheduled appointment time. Complete all schedule changes by the end of the published add period;
5. File the "Intent to Graduate" through myUCF and meet with an advisor for graduation check in the College of Medicine Undergraduate Student Advising (COMUSA) office, by the end of the term prior to the term in which graduation will occur; and,
6. Pre-health professional students: See your COMUSA advisors and BSBS faculty and consult with the Office of Pre-Health and Pre-Law Advisement.

Pre-Health Professional Planning

Pre-professional advisement deals primarily with understanding the requirements for successful application and admission to health professional schools.

Admission to a health professional school is highly competitive. Pre-health professions students are expected to be high achievers, and to obtain good grades with heavy loads and rigorous course combinations.

Most professional schools expect applicants to present at least a "B" average and to carry a minimum of 15 credit hours each term, with the exception of Summer term.
Each student is urged to carefully select a degree-granting major in our program. This will not only allow one to become more competitive for admission, but also to prepare for an alternate career in the event admission to a professional school is denied. Any degree-granting program may be selected as a major for pre-health students; however, the biomedical science major meets all admission requirements for health professional schools including medicine, dentistry, veterinary, pharmacy, physician assistant, etc. Our BS programs provide our students with a solid background to excel in health professional school programs. All students seeking admission to health professional schools should enroll in SLS 2311C - Overview of Select Medical Careers, in their first year at UCF and seek additional guidance from Office of Pre-Health and Pre-Law Advisement.

Additionally, prudent use of elective hours in the curricula will permit other appropriate pre-health professions courses to be obtained to help prepare for specific admission exams.

All pre-health professions students are strongly encouraged to participate in the activities of one or more of the student health related organizations and become involved in community service and career shadowing.

Curricula Guidelines

All pre-health professions students are strongly encouraged to enroll in SLS 2311C - Overview of Select Medical Careers the first semester they are enrolled. This course provides a broad exposure to the various four-year health professions. In addition, the entire pre-professional process (academic preparation, applications, admission tests, interviews, admissions, scholarships, etc.) is explained in depth.

All pre-health professions students should complete the following science courses (many of which are applicable to the GEP) to meet the variable requirements of the Florida medical schools:

Students should work with their major's advising office and the Pre-Health and Pre-Law Office on the schedule planning of these prerequisites.

Dates of Importance

All students should be aware of registration deadlines and test dates for their specific admissions exam (DAT, MCAT, OAT, GRE, etc.). In addition, most four-year health professions schools subscribe to professional application services (AMCAS, ADDSAS, ACOMAS, etc.), thus require completion of a thorough application packet provided by the various application services.

College of Nursing

New students will:

Meet college advising representatives in group settings during UCF Orientation to:

1. Discuss degree program prerequisite requirements;
2. Understand Nursing admission requirements;
3. Understand career options of the major program of study; and,
4. Plan an appropriate first term class schedule.

Continuing students will:

1. If accepted into a nursing program, attend a College of Nursing orientation and see a faculty advisor during the first few months of each semester to review program courses and check progress toward graduation.
2. If a nursing pending major, see an advisor in the College of Nursing, Undergraduate Student Services, during the first few weeks of each semester to check progress toward eligibility for application to the major.
3. If an undecided nursing major, see an advisor in the Knights Major Exploration and Transition Center (KMETC) during the first few weeks of your first summer and fall semesters to check progress toward eligibility toward the nursing pending major.
4. Attend an Information Session to learn about the unique admission requirements for each BSN program track;
5. View a myKnight Audit through myUCF each semester; and,
6. File an “Intent to Graduate” online through myUCF by the end of the term prior to the term in which graduation will occur.

College of Optics and Photonics

New students will:

1. Meet with the Photonic Science and Engineering Academic Affairs advisor in a group setting during Orientation to:
   1. Review the College of Engineering and Computer Science (CECS) and College of Optics and Photonics (COP) academic policies and procedures;
   2. Plan an appropriate first term schedule
2. Meet with an advisor in the department of their major to:
   1. Understand the career options of the major;
   2. Discuss degree program requirements

Continuing students will:

1. Meet with an advisor in the COP Academic Affairs Office, CREOL A213;
2. Submit a change of major in myUCF when pending requirements have been completed;
3. Use the flow diagram or four-year plan received during Orientation to review degree requirements. Updates posted to www.creol.ucf.edu;
4. View a Degree Audit, the registration appointment time, and search for classes (once the class schedule is available) through myUCF at my.ucf.edu;
5. Register at the scheduled appointment time in myUCF. Complete all schedule changes by the end of the published “Add” period;
6. Meet immediately with the advisor if you have been placed on an advisement hold. An intervention through the COP Academic Affairs Office will be required each semester a student is on advisement hold; and,
7. File the “Intent to Graduate” through myUCF and meet with an advisor for graduation check in the COP Academic Affairs Office, by the last day of classes of the term prior to the term in which the student intends to graduate.

College of Sciences

Advising Hours: Monday through Thursday 9-5; Friday 9-12
College of Sciences Building (CSB) 250 sciences.ucf.edu/cosas/407-823-6131
cosas@ucf.edu

College of Sciences majors must meet with an academic advisor within the department or school of their major and/or an advisor in the College of Sciences Advising Services (COSAS) to ensure students have the tools to be successful in their major and academic goals. To ensure this,

New Students will:

1. Meet in a group setting during Orientation with representatives from the College of Sciences to discuss college policies and procedures;
2. Have two primary advisors, one in the department or school of their major and one in COSAS;
3. Meet with their department or school advisor to discuss major requirements;
4. Meet with an advisor in COSAS or the major in their first semester to discuss degree requirements;
5. Refer to COSAS for any questions pertaining to General Education requirements, college-level test credit such as AP, IP, AICE, and CLEP; Gordon Rule, university credit hour requirements, university policies and procedures, prerequisite enforcement process, etc.;
6. Complete their Pegasus Path before finishing their first semester (seeking assistance from COSAS if and as needed);
7. Check their "Fee Invoices" to ensure accuracy of their class schedule

Continuing Students will:

1. Contact the department or school of their major and meet with a faculty or professional advisor during the first two months of any semester to review progress and plan a program of study;
2. Refer to the department or school of their major any questions about major requirements in the myKnight Audit;
3. Meet with their department or school academic advisor prior to registration and before the beginning of the term to ensure their schedule is (and is still) appropriate;
4. Access the class schedule and myKnight Audit online at the Student Center: my.ucf.edu;
5. Resolve any HOLDs placed on their account that may prevent registering for classes;
6. Check to be sure they are meeting all prerequisites/corequisites of courses they plan to take. Note:
   - Regardless of which college the student may be in, COS enforces prerequisites/corequisites of COS courses through the registration system and notifies students not meeting prerequisites before the start of each term.
   - If necessary, COSAS administratively drops students not meeting prerequisites for COS courses and may require proof of prerequisite completion to remain enrolled if prerequisite was taken somewhere other than UCF;
7. Register for classes through the Student Center: my.ucf.edu. Note:
   - Special assisted registration (e.g., overrides, independent study, thesis) for COS courses must be handled in COSAS.
   - All registration must be completed by the published deadlines (see the semester deadlines in the UCF Academic Calendar);
8. Refer to COSAS any questions that pertain to GEP, CLEP, AP credit, Gordon Rule, university credit hour requirements in the myKnight Audit or Pegasus Path;
9. Refer to COSAS any questions about university or college policies and procedures
10. Check their "Fee Invoices" to ensure accuracy of their class schedules; and,
11. Continue to check their Pegasus Path to ensure accuracy and take advantage of the relevant co-curricular and signature experiences.

Students placed on probation due to low UCF GPA will:

1. Have a "HOLD" placed on their subsequent registration;
2. Be required to complete an online webcourse.
   1. Students who continue on probation will be required to complete the webcourse and a mandatory workshop prior to the withdrawal deadline.
   2. More information can be found at COSAS: Academic Probation
3. Design a plan of study with an advisor within the department of their major for the upcoming semester; and,
4. Submit the plan of study within the online webcourse prior to the withdrawal deadline of the current semester and prior to registration for the subsequent semester.

Graduating students will do the following during the term PRIOR to the graduating term:

1. Review COS graduation instructions;
2. Complete the on-line graduation application on myUCF within the dates specified in the UCF Academic Calendar for the semester of graduation;
3. Complete COS graduation form at sciences.ucf.edu/cosas (click on "Graduation" button); and,
4. Check their Knights Email account for further instruction. Graduating students may be required to see a COSAS advisor to review status.

College of Undergraduate Studies

Students interested in declaring a major in Interdisciplinary Studies (IDS) must meet with an advisor in the College of Undergraduate Studies - Interdisciplinary Studies Advising to complete the major declaration process by selecting their IDS areas of study and minor. Students interested in declaring a major in IDS Diversity Studies Leadership Track, Environmental Studies, or Integrative General Studies may submit a major change request through the myUCF portal. It is strongly recommended that all students meet with an advisor in the College of Undergraduate Studies - Interdisciplinary Studies Advising to review academic requirements for their major and degree.

New students will:

1. Meet with an advisor in College of Undergraduate Studies - Interdisciplinary Studies Advising during Orientation to complete the declaration process for Interdisciplinary Studies (IDS), IDS Diversity Leadership Studies Track, Environmental Studies or Integrative General Studies degree and discuss policies and procedures, degree program requirements, and plan an appropriate first semester class schedule;
2. For Interdisciplinary Studies (IDS) and any other majors with a declared minor or certificate: Meet with an advisor in the department of their minor or certificate to review the program's requirements;
3. Refer any questions pertaining to general education requirements, AP and CLEP credit, Gordon Rule, and other policies and procedures, as appropriate, to Academic Services;
4. Register for classes online.

Continuing students will:

1. Meet with an advisor in College of Undergraduate Studies - Interdisciplinary Studies Advising prior to registration and/or before the beginning of each term to review progress, select courses, and address any questions pertaining to the program;
2. Review the class schedule, myKnight Degree Audit and register online during their scheduled appointment time at my.ucf.edu;
3. For Interdisciplinary Studies (IDS) and any other majors with a declared minor or certificate: Meet with an advisor in the department of their minor or certificate to review progress;
4. Check their Fee Invoice to ensure accuracy of their class schedule.

Students on academic probation due to low UCF GPA will:

1. Have a "HOLD" placed on their subsequent registration; and;
2. Attend a mandatory meeting with an advisor in College of Undergraduate Studies - Interdisciplinary Studies Advising to discuss UCF's academic probation policy, academic progress, success strategies, and campus resources available to help students in need of support (academic or otherwise).

Graduating students will do the following during the term PRIOR to the graduating term:

1. Review graduation instructions available on the College of Undergraduate Studies website;
2. Complete the online graduation application on myUCF within the dates specified at calendar.ucf.edu;
3. Check their Knights Email account for further instructions. Graduating students may be required to see an academic advisor to review status;
4. For Interdisciplinary Studies (IDS) and any other majors with a declared minor or certificate: Meet with an advisor in the department of their minor or certificate to confirm that the requirements have been met.

Rosen College of Hospitality Management

New students will:

Meet college advising representatives in group settings during orientation to:

1. Discuss degree program policies and curriculum requirements;
2. Understand major options and programs of study;
3. Explore available student success resources and the importance of the knights Email account for notifications;
4. Plan an appropriate first semester class schedule; and,
5. Review and learn how to interpret the myKnight Audit and utilize advising resources tools through myUCF and webcourses.

Continuing students should:

1. Utilize the "Rosen College Undergraduate Advising Guide" Webcourse as a resource to enhance degree completion;
2. See an Internship Faculty Advisor for assistance in interpreting and utilizing the experiential learning PREP modules;
3. View degree requirements according to catalog year and course prerequisites prior to schedule planning;
4. Schedule an appointment to see an Advisor prior to registration each term to review degree requirements and to make sure you are on track for graduation;
5. View a Degree Audit through myUCF and contact a program advisor in the Office of Student Services regarding concerns; and,
6. File an "Intent to Graduate" online through myUCF by the deadline published in the UCF Academic Calendar the semester prior to the term in which you plan to graduate.

UCF Connect Centers

Success Coaches are available at 12 UCF Connect locations to guide, to support, and to provide academic advising for strategic completion programs and destination programs at respective locations. The coaches also serve as points of contact for DirectConnect to UCF students at the locations to provide a seamless transition for prospective students.

Introduction

The Division of Student Development and Enrollment Services (SDES) engages students in the total collegiate experience – from identification, recruitment, matriculation, and investment, to successful progression, graduation, and employment in a global workforce. This is accomplished by providing opportunities for enriched student development, leadership growth, experience-based learning, values education and civic engagement which lead to overall student success. SDES affirms that the student who comes to UCF should not be the same student who graduates from UCF. We embrace the tenets of the UCF Creed – Integrity, Scholarship, Community, Creativity, and Excellence as a framework for developing student learning outcomes to facilitate transformational learning.

Goals of the division are to:

- Promote student progression to graduation, graduate and professional school, and productive employment.
- Create opportunities for students to develop and strengthen leadership skills.
- Assist students to further develop purpose, integrity, ethical practices, and civic responsibility.
- Embrace diversity and inclusiveness.
- Foster student engagement in the Central Florida citi-state and the global community.

Director and Assistant Athletic Director: Tara G. Helton
Wayne Densch Center for Student-Athlete Leadership (CSAL)
assa.sdes.ucf.edu
407-823-5896
The Office of Academic Services for Student-Athletes, which is housed within SDES, works in collaboration with the Athletics Department to assist student-athletes in their efforts to establish and achieve their personal, professional and academic goals. In addition, ASSA ensures student-athletes understand NCAA Division I, American Athletic Conference and UCF academic eligibility rules and requirements.

ASSA services include:

- Providing transition services that promote the academic success of student-athletes.
- Guiding student-athletes in their selection of meaningful and appropriate major and minor fields of study.
- Assisting student-athletes with course registration, understanding of policies and procedures, and tracking progress towards degree completion.
- Organizing study halls, learning assistant meetings, and tutorial services.
- Directing student-athletes to utilize the full spectrum of other university services.
- Preparing student-athletes in their career planning and development.
- Assisting student-athletes with educational impacting disabilities including learning assessments and accommodations.
- Providing student-athletes with computer access and services.

Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS)

Director: Karen R. Hofmann
Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS)
caps.sdes.ucf.edu
Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS) serves currently enrolled UCF students seeking assistance with developmental and mental-health related concerns by offering a wide variety of services and programs free of charge. CAPS mission is to enhance the lives of students by reducing the impact of mental health and phase of life challenges, elevating resiliency, and minimizing the interruption of their academic pursuits by providing high-quality culturally competent, clinical, and outreach services and a nationally renowned training program. CAPS is composed of professional staff including licensed (and licensed eligible) psychologists, mental health counselors, social workers, and graduate level counselors-in-training who provide a safe and confidential environment in which students can explore and resolve personal concerns and issues. CAPS is open Monday through Thursday, 8 a.m.-6 p.m. and Friday, 8 a.m.-5 p.m., during fall and spring semesters and Monday through Friday, 8 a.m.-5 p.m., during the breaks and summer semesters.

CAPS offers:

- Initial Assessments and recommendations.
- Short-term individual and group therapy options.
- Couples therapy (*both need to be UCF students).
- Outreach presentations and workshops and a variety of topics.
- Consultation to faculty, staff, parents, and students.
- Referral services to community and campus resources.
- Walk-in appointments available daily.
- Crisis intervention and mangement
  * Crisis afterhours hotline: 407-823-2811 Press #5
  * Connect with CAPS on Social Media (Facebook, Instagram, Twitter, YouTube)

*Programs are offered via telehealth (on-line video conferencing) due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

Creative School for Children (CSC)

Director: Suzette Turner
Creative School for Children I (CSC1)
csc.sdes.ucf.edu
407-823-2726
csc@ucf.edu

The Creative School for Children is an Educational Research Center for Child Development, providing quality early learning experiences for children ages 6 weeks to 5 years old, including the Florida Voluntary Pre-K (VPK) program. CSC is accredited by the National Association for the Education of Young Children (NAEYC) and has earned the Florida Gold Seal. The learning environments in the CSC classrooms are facilitated by highly skilled, degreed teachers who offer a wide variety of experiences through the implementation of Creative Curriculum, Project Approach and Conscious Discipline. Daily hands-on and minds-on activities are provided in creative play, music, language, motor skills, science, math, and dramatic play. Planned on-campus field trips and special family programs are part of the annual schedule. UCF students volunteer, observe and complete their internships, along with university faculty conducting educational research at CSC. The school enrolls children of university students and employees as well as community members.

First Year Experience (FYE)

Director: Ryan Newton
Howard Phillips Hall (HPH) 216
fye.ucf.edu | orientation.ucf.edu
407-823-5105
fye@ucf.edu

First Year Experience is committed to providing a success transition to UCF for new students and their families. FYE assists entering freshmen and transfer students by supporting their academic, institutional, and social well-being transitions to UCF. Every incoming freshman and transfer student is required to attend an Orientation session prior to registering for classes. Undergraduate students have the opportunity to serve in leadership roles with FYE as Orientation Leaders (OLs). FYE also oversees the Pegasus Parent Program, which aims to provide parents and family members of UCF students with important information about UCF and its resources. Family Weekend is an integral and exciting part of the Pegasus Parent Program and occurs every fall semester during a home football game weekend.
• Fraternity and Sorority Life (FSL)

Associate Vice President: Kerry Welch

fsl.sdes.ucf.edu
407-823-2072
ucfgreek@ucf.edu

The Fraternity and Sorority Life office is committed to providing excellence in active advising of fraternity and sorority leaders that will create lifelong bonds through the principles encompassed in fraternal values. FSL fosters an inclusive environment and commitment to student growth, academic excellence, civic engagement, leadership development, positive relationships, and risk-reduction education. It encompasses small group living and more importantly, developmental programming for individuals, chapters, chapter alumni boards, house corporation officers, and collegiate governing boards (i.e., Panhellenic Council (PAN), Interfraternity Council (IFC), National Pan-Hellenic Council (NPHC), Diversified Greek Council (DGC), and the Greek Council).

FSL can offer students a "home away from home," a scholastic support system, networking opportunities, an organization for community service, transferable skills for management and leadership development, and a foundation for long-lasting friendships. You can follow what's happening within the Greek community via our Facebook page or on Twitter. Currently, there are 49 fraternities and sororities on UCF's campus with more than 4,000 active Greek students. Greek organizations give college men and women a chance to excel in any area they choose and include students of every race, religion, culture, and background. Students are encouraged to take a closer look at UCF's Greek community through participation in fraternity or sorority recruitment. It is important to be familiar with each council's specific recruitment or new member intake process. For details, visit fsl.sdes.ucf.edu and select "Councils." We encourage you to familiarize yourself with all of the councils to better understand the diversity of the Greek community and what each council has to offer.

• Housing and Residence Life (HRL)

Executive Director: April Hicks Konvalinka Housing Administration Building (HAB) 123 housing.ucf.edu
housing@ucf.edu

The Department of Housing and Residence Life offers housing on the Orlando campus, the Downtown campus, and the Rosen College of Hospitality Management campus for regularly enrolled students paying tuition and fees for a minimum of nine credit hours. Living on campus is strongly encouraged for first-year students, and limited space is available to upperclassmen and graduate students. Eligibility information can be found on our website. Incoming first-year students may apply for housing immediately after being offered admission to the university. The online application process is available through myUCF. As there is not enough on-campus housing for all students, those desiring to live on-campus should apply as early as possible. Application periods include academic-year agreements (fall/spring) with a separate application for summer or 11.5 month annual agreements (fall/ spring/summer). Many types of housing are available, ranging from suite-style shared-bedroom residence halls to luxury apartments with private bedrooms and bathrooms. Many first-year students who apply for academic-year agreements will receive assignments in shared-bedroom suite-style residence halls. Private bedrooms in apartments are guaranteed only in the Towers at Knights Plaza located on the Orlando main campus, NorthView, located adjacent to the main campus or the Rosen College of Hospitality Management Student Apartments, located at the Rosen Campus. UnionWest at Creative Village on the Downtown campus features suites and apartments with both private and shared rooms. More information on the different housing options, rates, floor plans, etc., is available online at housing.ucf.edu.

Several different meal plans are available through UCF Dining Services. Information about meal plans is available online at http://www.ucfdining.com.

• LEAD Scholars Academy (LSA)

Director: Stacey Malaret
Ferrell Commons (FC) 165
lsa.sdes.ucf.edu
407-823-2223
leadscholarsacademy@ucf.edu

The mission of the LEAD Scholars Academy is to establish an environment that will provide comprehensive leadership education, development, and civic engagement opportunities for the UCF community. Through collaboration and partnerships, the LSA incorporates established leadership models to create professional, academic and experiential opportunities that challenge, empower, and educate students to become social change agents and encourages citizenship in a global society.

The primary vision for the area is the development of an intentional and comprehensive program that targets specific groups, as well as provides campus-wide opportunities for students regardless of their class standing and/or level of involvement experience. Leadership programs will vary in duration from an extended program that may last several weeks or years to a one-day workshop. The focus is to provide a variety of programmatic options that recognize students have different needs, time constraints, and levels of interest.

The LSA first-year program provides academic, service and experiential opportunities for students that combine in and out of classroom challenges in both an academic and co-curricular environment. The application process for this program is open to all first time in college students prior to the beginning of their UCF career. Those accepted into the program have achieved student success.

All UCF students may participate in the LSA through various experiential tracks including civic engagement, women's leadership, multicultural leadership, the virtual leadership academy, global leadership, Latinx Leadership, LEAD with Pride and the Clinton Global Initiative University program.

Additional programs are developed throughout the year to provide leadership enhancement and empowerment opportunities for UCF students. Through programming, networking, mentoring, personal development or experiential training, UCF students learn the skills needed to hold various leadership positions on campus and within their chosen career.

Multicultural Academic and Support Services (MASS)

Director: Wayne Jackson
Student Union (STUN) 154
mass.sdes.ucf.edu
407-823-2716
mass@ucf.edu

The Office of Multicultural Academic and Support Services provides comprehensive academic support, cultural enrichment, consultation, and referral services that promote the retention and graduation of multicultural and First Generation college students. MASS offers personalized advising and support; monitors academic progress; sponsors a six-week summer ACCESS Program, coordinates the Brother to Brother and Sister to Sister Programs, the Knight Alliance Network (for Foster Care alumni), Multicultural Transfer Student Programs and also provides guidance to DACA and Dreamer students. MASS serves as the focal point of operations in addressing the specific needs, issues, and concerns that confront multicultural and First Generation college students at UCF.

Student Neighborhood Relations (SNR)

Student Neighborhood Relations is dedicated to assist UCF students and community property owners with creating and maintaining pleasant housing experiences for UCF students who live off campus. Our staff provides tools, resources, and information to UCF students in search for off campus housing and to understand their rights as a tenant and the terms of their lease. We also expect and encourage all UCF students to honor the UCF Golden Rule both on- and off- campus. We are also a resource to local property owners looking to list rental opportunities to UCF students and/or address matters in their neighborhood that impact UCF students. For more information please navigate this webpage's links, the Knight's Guide to Living Off Campus or reach out to us directly with your questions.

Office of Student Involvement (OSI)

Director: Shane Juntunen
Student Union (STUN) 208
osi.ucf.edu
407-823-6471
The Office of Student Involvement (OSI) supports student success and enhances the campus environment by focusing on our core principles - Connect. Involve. Impact. - through quality programs, services, student leadership opportunities, and intentional environments.

Begin your journey by joining one of our Agencies or over 670+ Registered Student Organizations across all UCF Campuses. Take the initiative to join a committee, apply for a leadership position, build friendships, and increase your marketability. Our agencies coordinate events and provide programming and services enjoyed by thousands of students every year.

Office of Student Rights and Responsibilities (OSRR)

Ferrell Commons (FC) Suite 227; 407-823-4638

The Office of Student Rights and Responsibilities (OSRR) promotes a campus climate of integrity, civility, accountability and student well-being by providing a wide array of resources, education, and support services for the university community. OSRR is comprised of: Student Conduct, Integrity and Ethical Development and Student Care Services. OSRR also oversees the Golden Rule Student Handbook, The UCF Creed and Title IX reports perpetrated by a student on a student.

Student Conduct and Academic Integrity (SCAI)

Director: Michael Gilmer
Ferrell Commons (FC-G) 227
scai.sdes.ucf.edu
407-823-4638
scai@ucf.edu

Student Conduct and Academic Integrity (SCAI), a division of the Office of Student Rights and Responsibilities, provides educational opportunities that foster individual growth, ethical development and personal accountability while promoting the core values of the university: integrity, scholarship, community, creativity, and excellence. Student Conduct and Academic Integrity handles complaints against UCF students and student groups (but not faculty or staff). The complaint must indicate a possible violation of one or more of the Rules of Conduct or Organizational Rules of Conduct located in the Golden Rule Student Handbook. The Golden Rule Student Handbook may be viewed at goldenrule.sdes.ucf.edu.

Student Care Services (SCS), a division of the Office of Student Rights and Responsibilities, offers guidance, resources, and support for UCF students who are experiencing distress impacting their academic success and/or overall well-being. SCS staff work directly with students providing wrap-around support and referrals to appropriate campus and community resources. Student Care Service's ultimate goal is to ensure UCF Knights understand and have access to the resources available to support them throughout their collegiate experience. Student Care Services is committed to the safety and well-being of the UCF community and integration of education and care through a case management approach. SCS also oversees the UCF Cares initiative, which encompasses an umbrella of care-related programs, resources and education all dedicated to fostering a caring community of Knights.

Social Justice and Advocacy is responsible for providing oversight to the Multicultural Student Center and LGBTQ+ Services. The mission of SJA is to promote an equitable campus environment where all are assured that diversity, in its many forms, is valued. We support efforts to increase equal access to campus resources and opportunities while cultivating inclusiveness throughout the campus community. SJA advocates to decrease obstacles that prevent students from succeeding at UCF. SJA, MSC and LGBTQ+ Services provides programming and initiatives to advocate for a socially just campus community.

The Office of Student Accessibility Services facilitates campus access and reasonable accommodations for students with disabilities. Such access may include, but are not limited to, classroom accommodations (including examination accommodations), alternative format text materials, captioning/interpreters, and information and referral to campus and community services. Reasonable accommodations are available to, but not limited to, students with ADHD, hearing and visual impairments, chronic health conditions such as Crohn’s disease, physical disability and/or health-related impairment, psychological and/or psychiatric disability, specific learning disability (such as dyslexia), speech impairment, or other disabilities. After admission to the university, students who want to explore reasonable academic accommodations should connect with SAS. Students can meet with a consultant in-person, by phone or via Zoom. Students should not worry about having the "right" documentation at the time of the meeting. Any documentation needs can be discussed during the initial conversation. The most up-to-date initial contact procedures can be found at sas.ucf.edu. Students are encouraged to come to SAS and explore the possibilities and options without feeling a need to commit to utilizing any resources. The student determines how to proceed based on the information presented and personal preferences. All information is confidential and will be used only to coordinate accommodations with appropriate UCF personnel.

Student Union (STUN) 346
studentgovernment.ucf.edu
407-823-3291
sgafrontdesk@ucf.edu

The Student Government’s purpose is to represent student views on issues affecting UCF and to promote progressive changes that improve campus life. In advocating better communication and understanding among the UCF family, SG also approves the allocation of Activity & Service Fee (A&SF) funds to student-life focused departments, students, and registered student organizations (RSO). Funded areas include the Office of Student Involvement, Student Union, Recreation & Wellness Center, Multicultural Student Center, Sports Clubs Council, Student Legal Services, and OSI Agencies.

Services include Universal Knights, free scantrons, and spin scooters to name a few. SG also coordinates its efforts with the Florida Student Association in lobbying for students’ rights at the local, state, and national levels. SG structure is modeled closely after the United States federal government system in that it contains three branches: Executive, Legislative, and Judicial, including an Election Commission.

The Executive branch, composed of the Student Body president, vice president, and cabinet oversees the daily administrative operations of SG. The Legislative branch funds registered student organizations (RSOs) and also passes bills and resolutions benefiting the student body. The Judicial branch oversees and takes part in hearings concerning constitutional, legislative, and student rights issues. The Election Commission helps administer elections for student body president and vice presidential candidates as well as senate. All students are encouraged to take an active role in SG.

For information about how to become involved with SG, or how your student organization can receive funding, contact the SG office.

Student Health Services (SHS)

Health Center & Pharmacy (HC) 101
studenthealth.ucf.edu
407-823-2701

Student Health Services is a department within the UCF Academic Health Sciences Center. SHS has a very large outpatient clinic system that is committed to providing excellent healthcare to students and is accredited by the Accreditation Association for Ambulatory Health Care.

The student health center is located on the main campus, with satellite clinics located at UCF Downtown, the Rosen campus, and the Health Sciences Campus at Lake Nona.

The health fee is included in tuition and helps to offset medical costs. Students can see a health care provider with minimal out-of-pocket charges. Patients are financially responsible for items not covered by the health fee. These include access fees, clinical procedures, x-rays, laboratory services, medical equipment, prescriptions, non-prescription medications, vaccinations, dental services, and physical therapy. When charges occur, students can elect to use their health insurance coverage or pay out-of-pocket. All students are asked to verify their health insurance at the time of an appointment.

SHS staff assist students with filing in-network insurance claims. If using out-of-network benefits SHS will provide the proper documentation and students are responsible for self-filing a claim with their insurance company. SHS assists with referrals to in-network community specialists or services.

Services are designed with students' needs in mind. Staff includes sports medicine physicians, psychiatrists, dentists, primary care physicians, physician assistants, advanced practice registered nurses, dietitians, pharmacists, nurses, substance use disorder counselors, laboratory and radiography technicians.

Specialty services offered by Student Health Services include dental, psychiatry, sports medicine, gynecology, substance use disorders, lab, X-ray and physical therapy. Appointments are available both in-person and via telehealth for student convenience.

The SHS Dental Center is housed within the main campus student health center and is a state-of-the-art facility offering preventative, restorative and cosmetic services. Charges are discounted for students. Services can be billed to PPO and Indemnity plans. Insurance benefits will be based on the coverages obtained by the subscriber.

The main campus student health center houses a fully functioning pharmacy that provides the products and convenience that you expect, tailored for the unique needs of our patients. We accept prescriptions from both our internal providers, as well as others outside in the community. Our Pharmacy participates in over 100 prescription plans. When SHS is closed, any enrolled UCF student may call a free 24-hour nurse helpline. The nurse helpline phone number and other important resources are listed on the SHS website. For potentially serious or life-threatening conditions, students should call 911.

The Office of Undergraduate Admissions coordinates the admission and enrollment of all undergraduate first-time-in-college, transfer, non-degree, and non-Florida public institution transient students to UCF. The office's primary mission is to identify, recruit and enroll talented, diverse and academically qualified students who will contribute to and achieve growth and success at UCF.

Office hours are: Mondays and Thursdays from 9 a.m.-6 p.m.; and Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Fridays from 9 a.m.-5 p.m.

Veterans Academic Resource Center (VARC)

Addition Financial Arena (ARNA) 4202
varc.sdes.ucf.edu
407-823-2707
varc@ucf.edu

The Veterans Academic Resource Center, or VARC, is the one-stop solution for your needs as a student veteran. We provide lobby/lounge area, dedicated professional staff, and study space, as well as programs and events designed specifically for student veterans' needs. We also offer limited services for our active duty, dependent, and other military affiliated students. The VARC is located at the UCF Knights Plaza/Addition Financial Arena and is open Monday through Friday from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., excluding university closures and holidays.

The goals of the Student Resource Specialists and the Veterans Academic Resource Center overall, are to: Ensure that you understand and have access to all of the available resources, on and off-campus; Help you succeed by providing study spaces and support from peers and staff; Help UCF faculty and staff understand your unique needs as a student veteran; Provide you with the tools you need to stay on track and finish your degree.

Another component of the VARC is Veteran Services. The VARC's School Certifying Officials (SCOs) provides assistance to all veteran students and eligible dependents who are using VA educational benefits. The office offers information and direction concerning entitlements, filing claims to the Department of Veterans Affairs, certifying enrollment at the university each term to receive VA educational benefits, and deferring tuition and fee payments. Consult the VARC early in the admissions process regarding necessary paperwork to start using your benefits.

For students using Post 9/11 GI Bill® (Chapter 33) and VA Vocational Rehabilitation and Employment (Chapter 31), our tuition policy complies with 38 USC 3679(e) which means Post 9/11 and Vocational Rehabilitation and Employment students will not be charged or otherwise penalized due to a delay in VA tuition and fee payments. For eligibility consideration, anyone using Post 9/11 GI Bill benefits must submit a VA Certificate of Eligibility (COE), proof of application for these benefits (confirmation number from VA), or a 22-1995, 22-5495 or proof of submission of these documents to the VA (confirmation numbers). Please consult with VARC staff, or visit the varc.sdes.ucf.edu, for information on what forms you personally will need. Any Veteran using Vocational Rehabilitation (Chapter 31), will need confirmation from their Vocational Rehabilitation Counselor, or a copy of their Authorization/PO# from their counselor. Please see 38 USC 3679(e) for complete details.
GI Bill® is a registered trademark of the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs (VA). More information about education benefits offered by VA is available at the official U.S. government website at www.benefits.va.gov/gibill. To maintain eligibility for VA education benefits, students must adhere to the policies and procedures for VA educational benefits as noted on the GI Bill website (http://www.benefits.va.gov/gibill).

UCF, being a member of SOC (Service Members Opportunity College), provides credit for various military training and education. Credit is awarded only for accredited schools and courses recognized by UCF. Transfer credit is awarded per the recommendations of the American Council on Education (ACE) Guide, based upon courses and/or training listed on the DD Form 214, SMARTS, ARTS, or other official military record. U.S. Air Force veterans must coordinate with the Community College of the Air Force to provide official CCAF transcripts to the Office of Undergraduate Admissions. Transfer credit is awarded per the recommendations of the American Council on Education (ACE) Guide, based upon courses and/or training listed on the Joint Services Transcripts [https://jst.doded.mil/]. U.S. Air Force veterans must coordinate with the Community College of the Air Force to provide official CCAF transcripts to the Office of Undergraduate Admissions.

Students eligible for VA educational benefits are also eligible for a VA deferral of tuition and fees. The VA Deferment due date is contained in the Academic Calendar (calendar.ucf.edu). Students are ultimately responsible for their Tuition and Fees, and will incur a $100 late fee if tuition and fees are not paid by the Deferral Due Date.

Undergraduates in Fall and Spring, must carry at least 12 credits to be considered Full-time; 9-11 credit hours to be considered ¾ time, and 6-8 credits to be considered ½ time. For Chapters 30, 35, and 1606, students will receive benefits paid directly to them, based on their status. Five credits or less, will be reimbursed at the cost of the tuition and fees. Post 9/11 (Chapter 33) recipients will receive a tuition and fees paid to UCF dependent on their eligibility, and a housing allowance based on their status. However, to receive ANY housing allowance, a student using Chapter 33 benefits must be considered MORE THAN half time, meaning 7-8 credits. Please check with the VARC staff for clarification or more information regarding this subject. Please check the VARC website for Summer Term course load facts and information.

Students currently enrolled at UCF and another institution may receive VA educational benefits, after completing the appropriate Transient Form and consulting with the VARC. Veterans and eligible dependents who desire to change their major, or pursue a dual major, dual degree, or add a minor may receive VA educational benefits but must obtain approval from DVA before taking any of the applicable courses. This includes a minor in military science. Note: Some majors may have extra elective hours that can be used for courses for a minor or another major.

Benefits will be terminated for individuals who are disqualified, excluded, suspended, or expelled from the university. If reinstated by the university following disqualification or suspension, the veteran or eligible dependent must contact the VARC to have their VA educational benefits re-activated.

Veterans and eligible dependents also may draw VA benefits during the periods of eligibility while on Cooperative Education assignments. Payment is received during both the on-campus and off-campus work terms. Contact the VARC for more specific benefit information on Cooperative Education.

UCF is designated as a VA “Yellow Ribbon” institution. Yellow Ribbon funds can only be used in conjunction with the Post 9/11 GI Bill, and to help defray the out-of-state tuition. Please go to varc.sdes.ucf.edu/benefits-programs for more information.

The C.W. Bill Young Veteran Tuition Waiver Program is available to any honorably discharged veteran of the U.S. Armed Forces, U.S. Reserve Forces, or the National Guard who is not considered a Florida resident for tuition purposes but who resides in Florida while attending UCF. This waiver may also be used by eligible dependents who are using GI bill benefits that the veteran transferred to them. Please go to varc.sdes.ucf.edu/benefits for more information and application requirements.

Introduction

The new Division of Student Learning and Academic Success will focus on providing services that will help students to know more and do more. We are enthusiastic about our future as we move to maximize the dynamic and vibrant resources within the division and the college. In doing so, we are building a brighter future for current and future Knights who will continue to contribute much to our society — locally, regionally, nationally, and globally.

Academic Advancement Programs

Director: Michael Aldarondo-Jeffries
aap.ucf.edu
407-823-0101

Academic Advancement Programs (AAP) prepares UCF students — particularly underrepresented, low-income and first-generation college students — to pursue graduate school. AAP works in collaboration with faculty, staff, local and national partners to provide a range of graduate school preparation programs and services. Students have the opportunity to participate in a variety of initiatives designed to increase their awareness and knowledge of the graduate school application process, graduate funding, summer research programs and fellowship opportunities.

EXCEL

Director: Melissa Dagley excel.ucf.edu
407-823-6230

EXCEL strives to increase the number of students receiving baccalaureate degrees in STEM disciplines from UCF. The program enhances EXCEL students' experiences during the first two years of college through improved student learning in math and science courses, block housing shared by STEM-focused students, a tutoring center, and early engagement in research experiences. EXCEL participants also work in cohorts, making it easy for them to team up with study partners in required courses that may have several hundred students.

Experiential Learning
Director: Quynh Dao Dang
explearning.ucf.edu
407-823-5000

Experiential Learning (EL) provides students with the opportunity to apply what they are learning in the classroom to real-world settings. In collaboration with UCF colleges and faculty, employers and community leaders, EL prepares students for academic and career success through experiential learning courses such as internships, co-ops and service-learning opportunities. Through these experiences, students gain essential skills, such as leadership, communication and critical thinking.

The Knights Major Exploration and Transition Center (KMETC) is an advising office and resource for all undeclared and major exploring undergraduate students. Advisors and coaches help students explore and select areas of study that suit their academic interests and post-graduation plans. Once students choose a degree program, the team connects them with the appropriate college advising office. KMETC advisors and coaches will continue to serve as a resource office for students throughout their academic career. Additionally, they help undergraduates acquire skills to transition to a university setting and connect them with university resources.

Office of Data and Strategic Projects

Trevor Colbourn Hall (TCH) 133
academicsuccess.ucf.edu/phpladvising
407-823-0101

Pre-Health and Pre-Law Advising (PHPL Advising) guides and supports students interested in pursuing careers in the health and legal professions. These courses of study are beyond a baccalaureate degree and take place in professional school settings such as law school, medical school, dental school, pharmacy school, veterinary school, optometry school, podiatry school, chiropractic school, physician assistant programs, physical therapy programs, occupational therapy programs and public health programs. PHPL advisors guide students through the multiple aspects of their preparation and application with the ultimate goal of helping them become a competitive professional school applicant.

Registrar's Office (RO)

University Registrar: Brian C. Boyd
The Registrar's Office, with a commitment to quality service and leading-edge technology, provides timely and accurate enrollment information and access for students, colleges and departments, effectively meets student administrative needs, ensures complete records management from registration through graduation and archived data stores. The office maintains the integrity of student permanent academic records and implements procedures in accordance with university policies through campus-wide communication, collaboration, and leadership. In addition, the Registrar's Office is responsible for management of efficient utilization of classroom resources, readmission, transient student admission, residency reclassifications, NCAA Division I initial and continuing eligibility, the Knights Graduation Grant Initiative, Commencement, and publication of course offerings, Commencement programs, and the online Undergraduate Catalog.

The Registrar's Office upholds State of Florida and UCF policies and regulations regarding the academic record changes of undergraduate students, the degree audit program and the university-wide undergraduate graduation requirements.

The office reviews petitions for academic record changes such as medical withdrawals, late adds/drops, late withdrawals, and college petitions for waivers of UCF degree requirements. Academic Services administers the myKnight Audit for undergraduate degree programs. Additionally, it reviews lower level transfer credit for satisfaction of General Education requirements, Gordon Rule writing and foreign language proficiency requirements.

Student Academic Resource Center (SARC)

Director: Rebecca Piety

academicsuccess.ucf.edu/sarc/

407-823-5130

sarc@ucf.edu

The Student Academic Resource Center (SARC) provides high-quality programs and services that enable UCF students to achieve their academic goals. Programs include Supplemental Instruction (SI), Peer Tutoring, Academic Coaching and Engagement (ACE), and Academic Success Workshops.

Supplemental Instruction (SI) provides a series of weekly study sessions for students taking historically difficult courses. SI leaders attend class lectures and provide interactive study groups to help students develop effective ways to learn the course material, helping them succeed in the course and become independent learners.

SARC provides free small group and one-on-one peer tutoring to students enrolled in undergraduate courses associated with the current UCF semester's schedule. Peer tutoring sessions include Accounting, Statistics, Biology, Chemistry, Organic Chemistry, Physics and Human Physiology. Group peer tutoring is drop-in, and no appointment is necessary. One-on-one tutoring is scheduled, and students can learn how to make an appointment through SARC's website. Students should refer to SARC's website for the semester schedules for both SI and tutoring.

The Academic Coaching and Engagement (ACE) program facilitates academic success among UCF students by providing one-on-one, ongoing peer coaching. Academic coaches help students develop important academic and life skills such as organization, time management, study skills, and goal setting, which are necessary to ensure satisfactory academic progress. Students can also get tips on how to be successful in an online course, including navigating Webcourses and understanding course modalities. ACE coaches are available to meet with students regularly throughout the semester to check in on their progress, stay accountable for the goals and action plans devised in previous sessions, and become more engaged in campus life. Academic Success Workshops are designed to enhance common study skills such as test-taking strategies, time management, and motivation. SARC also offers study skills assessments and online resources available 24/7 to help students become successful at the college level.

UCF Abroad
Interim Director: Wayne Bowen

studyabroad.ucf.edu

407-882-2300

UCF Abroad provides access to high impact, international experiences for students interested in studying or interning outside the United States as a portion of their degree program. UCF Abroad participants are exposed to new environments, new customs, and in many cases new languages in an effort to broaden their perspectives and develop the skills necessary to set them apart in the global workplace. Self-discovery, self-confidence and cultural awareness are a few of the additional benefits to studying abroad. UCF Abroad offers a comprehensive portfolio of programs to accommodate all areas of study and a broad spectrum of student budgets.

UCF Connect

connect.ucf.edu

UCF Connect, which is part of the Division of Student Learning and Academic Success, is a partnership-driven unit designed to strategically support transfer student success through its DirectConnect to UCF® and Transfer Connect programs. The team extends UCF’s reach to communities in and beyond Central Florida by providing access to quality higher education for students who might not otherwise have the opportunity to pursue educational opportunities because of time, distance, preference, or life circumstances.

UCF Success Coaches are available in UCF Connect locations and virtually providing comprehensive support to prospective and current transfer students, from first contact all the way through to graduation at UCF. Connect with a Success Coach at connect.ucf.edu/success-coaches.

The Central Florida Higher Education Consortium, branded as DirectConnect to UCF®, is a unique partnership between UCF and College of Central Florida, Daytona State College, Eastern Florida State College, Lake-Sumter State College, Seminole State College, and Valencia College. This agreement provides entry for A.A. and A.S. graduates to UCF as an enhancement to the Florida state-mandated 2 + 2 agreement. Students entering UCF as a DirectConnect to UCF student are admitted according to the UCF policies when A.A. or A.S. degrees are awarded. Learn more about DirectConnect to UCF at directconnect.ucf.edu.

The Transfer Connect program supports all transfer students from enrollment to graduation. The program provides transfer students with academic guidance and one-stop transfer resources to succeed. Transfer students will also have access to the Transfer Center, a hub for all transfer students to get assistance, meet with their Success and PeerKnight Coaches, access opportunities and educational experiences, and interact with fellow transfer students. Visit connect.ucf.edu/transfer-connect for more information.

UCF Connect offers an opportunity to complete a number of programs through the UCF Connect Centers. Strategically located within an 80-mile radius of the UCF Orlando campus, the UCF Connect Centers partner with the six DirectConnect to UCF state colleges, fostering seamless and convenient advancement from completion of an A.A. or A.S. degree to upper-level division work on a baccalaureate degree. With close proximity to Orlando, resources are available at UCF and the UCF Connect Centers, such as admissions, registration, financial aid, advising, student clubs and organizations, accessibility services, veteran's affairs, "smart classrooms," libraries, computer labs, and more. Accessible academic programs vary by location. For the most current information on any of the UCF Connect Centers, check the website at connect.ucf.edu.

The Office of Undergraduate Research (OUR) provides students with the opportunity to engage in academic research, scholarship and creative work. Working closely with faculty, these students gain knowledge and build skills, such as critical thinking, communication and problem-solving. This experience prepares them for success in graduate and their career. For students interested in research, OUR provides peer mentoring, a "How-To" workshop series, and structured courses. They also have the opportunity to present their work at an annual on-campus event.

UCF Global is the organizational division on campus dedicated to international outreach and opportunity. Its quest is to transform lives by providing access to high impact, international experiences across the UCF and global community and to serve as a model of excellence for innovation, partnership, and services. This is accomplished through the administration of our English language programs along with multiple compliance units offering support services to international students, faculty, and staff.

Additionally, UCF Global facilitates compliance with federal immigration regulations and provides immigration advising and assistance to the international students and scholars at the University of Central Florida. UCF Global also works with UCF departments to facilitate the hiring of international faculty and staff, process H-1B employment visas, and ensure tax compliance on payments made to international vendors.

Support is provided to the international population on campus in its adjustment to a new academic and cultural environment by providing a wide range of services and programming. Services include admissions guidance, interpreting immigration regulations, explaining employment options, issuing travel authorization signatures, and end of year tax filing guidance. Programming includes orientation, welcome week activities, employment and tax workshops, holiday celebrations, and International Education Week events. From orientation to graduation, UCF Global strives to enhance the overall educational experience at UCF for its international students and scholars and to increase cultural awareness and understanding on campus.

Intensive English Program

global.ucf.edu/IEP

Since 1987, the Intensive English Program (IEP) has served as a home away from home for thousands of international students who want to study English in the United States. People from all over the world join the IEP because of the high-quality intensive English curriculum, a world-famous location, and high-impact cultural experiences. Students gain the English skills necessary to communicate and operate in the United States. During their time here, they connect with a diverse community of international students in a beautiful American city. After completing their studies, students continue onward by pursuing higher education at UCF and advancing in their careers with a strong command of the English language.

The Intensive English Program is a course of study designed to improve the English language skills of prospective undergraduate or graduate students at UCF. UCF Global also hosts non-academically bound individuals interested in improving their English skills for personal or professional development. This program includes Grammar, Reading, Writing, Communication Skills, and elective courses including English testing preparation.

Online English Program

global.ucf.edu/OEP

The Online English Program (OEP) is modeled after UCF Global's highly successful and well known Intensive English Program. The OEP offers a high-impact curriculum with academic and vocational content created to meet learner needs, and enhance language acquisition in core language subjects. This self-paced innovative online curriculum allows for students seeking an excellent education from a distance to have the same experiences as those on campus, but with more flexibility. Each session, students will engage in combined courses addressing six language skills: Reading, writing, grammar, listening, speaking, and pronunciation. Students also benefit from participation in one-on-one conferences with instructors two times per week. This program is designed to enhance personal development while allowing a more affordable learning option.

Pathway Programs

global.ucf.edu/pathways

UCF Global's Pathway programs combine intensive English studies with undergraduate courses, providing access for students planning to pursue a degree at UCF. Students are immersed into English-language learning while completing undergraduate courses.

This experience is personalized by individual student needs, and provides tailored coursework based on area of study and priority access to academic courses with dedicated sections. Additionally, students can easily adjust to life in the U.S. with UCF Global's academic tutoring, career and personal support from trained advisors, and cultural events.

UCF Global offers three unique programs designed to cater to individual student skill sets and help them reach their fullest potential. A placement test will determine which level is best suited for each student.

- UCF Global Achievement Academy III (3 terms) is recommended for students wanting intensive English-language learning while completely academic courses.
- UCF Global Achievement Academy II (2 terms) is recommended for students who want some English-language support while completing academic courses.
- UCF Global Achievement Academy I (2 terms) is recommended for high-achieving students seeking assistance with academic and cultural transition.

We want you to enjoy all that America's second largest university has to offer. If you or someone you know would like to get involved with UCF Global, please email ucfglobal@ucf.edu or call 407-823-2337.

Self-supporting Degree Programs

UCF Continuing Education Self-supporting Programs are graduate degree programs offered in partnership with UCF colleges and departments to address post-professional workforce demand. Tuition and fees are based on the actual cost of program administration. Programs may be offered online or at a location that does not utilize state funding. Funding is based on the revenues collected. Programs receive approval from the UCF Board of Trustees. Students enrolled are provided ongoing support by personal success coaches. These programs include, Master of Nonprofit Management Online, Master of Research Administration, M.S. in Data Analytics and M.S. in Healthcare Systems Engineering, as well as graduate certificate programs in Health Information Administration and Research Administration.

Market-rate Degree Programs

UCF Continuing Education Market Tuition Rate programs are fully self-supporting graduate degree programs offered in partnership with UCF colleges and departments and are driven by market needs. These programs, which include M.S. in Healthcare Informatics, Executive Master of Health Administration, Master of Social Work and M.S. in Professional Engineering Management, are operated as stand-alone programs or cohorts offered fully online or at a location not utilizing state funding. Tuition cost is based on the market rate of similar programs nationwide. Programs receive approval from the UCF Board of Trustees and the Florida Board of Governors. State funds are not used to facilitate these programs. Funding is based on the revenues collected. Students in these programs receive individual support from personal success coaches.

UCF Continuing Education Non-Credit Programs

UCF Continuing Education offers a wide variety of services to support conferences, meetings, camps and events for students, working professionals, jobseekers and domestic and international businesses, as well as local, state and federal governments. Our custom and corporate training programs, which are available in person or online, are individually tailored to enhance professional skillsets at all levels while increasing individual and workforce effectiveness. Training programs include management and leadership development, negotiation, change management, emotional intelligence, strategic planning, teambuilding, project management and other relevant topics.

Introduction

Student Learning and Academic Success strives to help undergraduate students achieve timely graduation and be successful, productive, and impactful in making the world a better place. We strengthen the links between academics and student success by serving as undergraduates' go-to source for advising, academic support resources, and high-impact practices.

Undergraduates are at the heart of all that we do. We're here to support you from orientation to graduation. We'll help you explore majors, register for classes, develop study skills, prepare for graduate school, participate in internships and undergraduate research, and declare your intent to graduate.

The division also includes UCF Connect and its nationally recognized program DirectConnect to UCF, that guarantees admission to students who have earned an associate degree or articulated degree from one of six partner state colleges.

Student Learning and Academic Success is dedicated to helping every Knight know more, do more, and be more.

The Registrar's Office, with a commitment to quality service and leading-edge technology, provides timely and accurate enrollment information and access for students, colleges and departments, effectively meets student administrative needs, ensures complete records management from registration through graduation and archived data stores. The office maintains the integrity of student permanent academic records and implements procedures in accordance with university policies through campus-wide communication, collaboration, and leadership. In addition, the Registrar's Office is responsible for management of efficient utilization of classroom resources, readmission, transient student admission, residency reclassifications, NCAA Division I initial and continuing eligibility, the Knights Graduation Grant Initiative, Commencement, and publication of course offerings, Commencement programs, and the online Undergraduate Catalog.

The Registrar's Office upholds State of Florida and UCF policies and regulations regarding the academic record changes of undergraduate students, the degree audit program and the university-wide undergraduate graduation requirements.

The office reviews petitions for academic record changes such as medical withdrawals, late adds/drops, late withdrawals, and college petitions for waivers of UCF degree requirements. Academic Services administers the myKnight Audit for undergraduate degree programs. Additionally, it reviews lower level transfer credit for satisfaction of General Education requirements, Gordon Rule writing and foreign language proficiency requirements.

Residency Reclassification

The offices of Undergraduate Admissions and the College of Graduate Studies determine first term at UCF residency for tuition purposes for all newly admitted undergraduate and graduate students. Thereafter, the Registrar's Office will review student requests for changes in residency for undergraduate students. The College of Graduate Studies will review student requests for changes in residency for graduate students. The Registrar's Office does not review student requests for residency reclassification to be effective with the student's first term of enrollment, only for subsequent terms.

To request an undergraduate residency review, the student must submit a completed "Residency Reclassification Application and Affidavit" and all supporting documents to ResidencyReview@ucf.edu. This form is available online at https://registrar.ucf.edu/residency-reclassification/. This form must be accompanied by copies of all documents that support the student’s Florida residency claim. Residency reclassification requests are subject to Florida Statute 1009.21, F.S., State Board of Education, Rules 6A-10.044 & 6A-20.003, and Board of Governors regulation 7.005. In addition, University policy requires students requesting residency reclassification to provide documentation establishing that they have income or personal sources to meet the financial obligations of attendance and living expenses. Contact the Registrar's Office at 407-823-3100 or ResidencyReview@ucf.edu for additional information regarding all residency reclassification requirements.
When building a case for Florida residency for tuition purposes, the student must submit documents from a variety of categories. Students may consult the Registrar's Office before submitting the reclassification request and supporting documents. The submission of documents in itself does not qualify the student for Florida residency for tuition purposes. The Registrar's Office will evaluate all submitted documents and available information and will render an eligibility determination. No single document shall be conclusive.

When seeking residency reclassification, students should understand that merely living in or attending college in the state of Florida does not automatically establish residency for tuition purposes in Florida. The student who comes to Florida to enroll in a Florida post-secondary educational institution as an out-of-state resident and continuously enrolls in a Florida institution normally will not meet the Florida residency requirement for in-state tuition regardless of the length of time enrolled. Living or attending a post-secondary educational institution in Florida merely evidences physical presence. The student must provide documentation verifying that he or she has formed significant legal ties to the State of Florida. This documentation must establish that the Florida residence constitutes a bona fide domicile rather than serving the purpose of maintaining a mere temporary residence or abode, incident to enrollment in an institution of higher education. Evidence establishing legal ties to states other than Florida may disqualify the student from Florida residency for tuition purposes. All determinative documents must be dated at least 12 months before the first day of class for the term in which residency is sought.

Undergraduate students entering the second term of enrollment at UCF or later who believe that they qualify for Florida residency must submit the “Residency Reclassification Application and Affidavit” and all documents to ResidencyReview@ucf.edu. The absolute deadline for this Application and ALL COPIES accompanying documentation proving Florida residency for tuition purposes is one week (7 calendar days) before the first day of classes for the semester in which the student seeks reclassification. Please refer to the Academic Calendar for specific dates. Approved residency reclassification will not be applied retroactively to previous terms.

The Registrar's Office may require additional documentation beyond that initially submitted by the undergraduate student (or the claimant) before it can render a reclassification eligibility determination and it will not complete its review of the residency reclassification application until both the student and the claimant have submitted all requested documents.

All readmitted undergraduate students are required to submit copies of documents (more may be requested) such as driver’s license, vehicle registration, and/or voter registration, to verify that they qualify and to update residency information on file. Requests for proof of residency for UCF undergraduate students looking to transfer or become transient students at another institution must be submitted to ResidencyReview@ucf.edu.

UCF is authorized to make discretionary judgments as to residency within the bounds of the law and in reaching this professional judgment will evaluate all documents submitted and information available. Students who feel an erroneous decision was made regarding their residency reclassification may request an appeal in writing to the UCF Residency Appeals Committee through the Registrar’s Office.

Student Academic Resource Center (SARC)

Director: Rebecca Piety
TCH 117; 407-823-5130
Email: sarc@ucf.edu
acadeчисsuccess.ucf.edu/sarc

The Student Academic Resource Center (SARC) provides high-quality programs and services that enable UCF students to achieve their academic goals. Programs include Supplemental Instruction (SI), Peer Tutoring, Academic Coaching and Engagement (ACE), and Academic Success Workshops.

Supplemental Instruction (SI) provides a series of weekly study sessions for students taking historically difficult courses. SI leaders attend class lectures and provide interactive study groups to help students develop effective ways to learn the course material, helping them succeed on the course and become independent learners.

SARC provides free small group and one-on-one peer tutoring to students enrolled in undergraduate courses associated with the current UCF semester's schedule. Peer tutoring sessions include Accounting, Statistics, Biology, Chemistry, Organic Chemistry, Physics and Human Physiology. Group peer tutoring is drop-in and no appointment is necessary. One-on-one tutoring is scheduled, and students can learn how to make an appointment through SARC's website. Students should refer to SARC's website for the semester schedules for both SI and tutoring.

The Academic Coaching and Engagement (ACE) program facilitates academic success among UCF students by providing one-on-one, ongoing peer coaching. Academic coaches help students develop important academic and life skills such as organization, time management, study skills, and goal setting, which are necessary to ensure satisfactory academic progress. Students can also get tips on how to be successful in an online course, including navigating Webcourses and understanding course modalities. ACE coaches are available to meet with students regularly throughout the semester to check in on their progress, stay accountable for the goals and action plans devised in previous sessions, and become more engaged in campus life. Academic Success Workshops are designed to enhance common study skills such as test-taking strategies, time management, and motivation. SARC also offers study skills assessments and online resources available 24/7 to help students become successful at the college level.

UCF Global Building 139
407-882-2300
studyabroad.ucf.edu

UCF Abroad provides access to high impact, international experiences for students interested in studying or interning outside the United States as a portion of their degree program. UCF Abroad participants are exposed to new environments, new customs, and in many cases new languages in an effort to broaden their perspectives and develop the skills necessary to set them apart in the global workplace. Self-discovery, self-confidence and cultural awareness are a few of the additional benefits to studying abroad. UCF Abroad offers a comprehensive portfolio of programs to accommodate all areas of study and a broad spectrum of student budgets.

UCF Connect

connect.ucf.edu

UCF Connect, which is part of the Division of Student Learning and Academic Success, is a partnership-driven unit designed to strategically support transfer student success through its DirectConnect to UCF® and new Transfer Connect programs. The team extends UCF’s reach to communities in and beyond Central Florida by providing access to quality higher education for students who might not otherwise have the opportunity to pursue educational opportunities because of time, distance, preference, or life circumstances. UCF Success Coaches are available in UCF Connect locations providing comprehensive support to prospective and current transfer students, from first contact all the way through to graduation at UCF.

between UCF and College of Central Florida, Daytona State College, Eastern Florida State College, Lake-Sumter
State College, Seminole State College, and Valencia College. This agreement provides entry for A.A. and A.S. graduates to UCF as an enhancement to the Florida state-mandated 2 + 2 agreement. Students entering UCF as a DirectConnect to UCF student are admitted according to the UCF policies when A.A. or A.S. degrees are awarded.

The new Transfer Connect program supports transfer students from non-partner institutions. From enrollment to graduation, the program provides these students with academic guidance and resources. Transfer Students will also have access to the Transfer Center, a hub where students can obtain information, receive advice about transitioning to UCF, and interact with fellow transfer students.

UCF Connect offers an opportunity to complete a number of programs through the UCF Connect Centers.
Strategically located within an 80-mile radius of the UCF Orlando campus, the UCF Connect Centers partner with the six DirectConnect to UCF state colleges, fostering seamless and convenient advancement from completion of an
A.A. or A.S. degree to upper-level division work on a baccalaureate degree. With close proximity to Orlando, resources are available at UCF and the UCF Connect Centers, such as admissions, registration, financial aid, advising, student clubs and organizations, accessibility services, veteran's affairs, "smart classrooms," libraries, computer labs, and more. Accessible academic programs vary by location. For the most current information on any of the UCF Connect Centers, check the website at connect.ucf.edu.

academicsuccess.ucf.edu/our

The Office of Undergraduate Research (OUR) provides students with the opportunity to engage in academic research, scholarship and creative work. Working closely with faculty, these students gain knowledge and build skills, such as critical thinking, communication and problem-solving. This experience prepares them for success in graduate and their career. For students interested in research, OUR provides peer mentoring, a “How-To” workshop series, and structured courses. They also have the opportunity to present their work at an annual on-campus research showcase and publish in the Pegasus Review, UCF's Undergraduate Research Journal.

Associate Director & Assistant Dean: Dr. Manuel Rivera

9907 Universal Blvd., Suite 239
Orlando, FL 32819
407-903-8210

The purpose of the Dick Pope Sr. Institute for Tourism Studies is to improve the quality of the tourism product while increasing the benefits of tourism for the industry, state of Florida and local communities. The Institute was established for the purpose of (1) conducting proprietary and public domain research, (2) promulgating information to the public at large about the contributions of the hospitality and tourism industry, especially along economic, sociological, environmental, and quality-of-life dimensions, and (3) carrying out credit and non-credit educational activities. Research includes the collection, development, and dissemination of information relevant to the tourism and hospitality industry in the areas of: marketing, consumer behavior and visitor satisfaction, feasibility studies, economics, motivation, and forecasting. Some of the Institute's patrons include destination management organizations, tourism promotion agencies at the state and local levels; tourism development commissions; professional associations; and private enterprises such as attractions, hotels, resorts, restaurants and other food-service establishments, ground and air transportation companies, travel agencies and tour operators, and other related businesses. The Institute devotes significant efforts to educating the public about the tourism industry on state and national levels, as well as its contribution to the social and economic welfare of the community at large.

The Florida SBDC at UCF is part of the statewide Florida SBDC Network which is designed to promote economic development by responding to the needs of the small business community. Assistance is provided through no-cost individual consulting, training & workshops and access to market research resources. Areas of specific attention for small businesses include:

- Pre-Venture/ Start-Up
- Finance
- Operations
- Technology
- Market Expansion & Revenue Growth
- Accounting
- Management
- Business & Strategic Plan Development

Additional programs for leaders of growing businesses are also offered as follows: Advisory Board Council, CEO XChange, Export Marketing Plan Services, Growth Acceleration Services, Small Business Institute®, and Strategic Workshop Series, in addition to Government Contracting Services offered by the Florida Procurement Technical Assistance Center at the University of Central Florida (Florida PTAC at UCF).

The FSDBC, as part of the Office of Partnership and Innovation at the University of Central Florida, serves eight counties in the Central Florida area including the central office in Orlando and ten satellite offices located at Daytona State College, Eastern Florida State College, Seminole State College, Kissimmee Chamber of Commerce, City of Palm Coast Business Assistance Center, three Lake County Business Opportunity Centers and Sumter County's Office of Economic Development.

The Florida Space Institute provides unique, practice-based educational opportunities, combined with space science research and the resources to design, build, and test small satellites, instruments, and payloads. Using these resources FSI supports UCF and other member schools, as well as other educational and commercial customers. FSI provides opportunities for student involvement in real-world space programs. FSI is a State of Florida Institute headquartered at UCF, but has 10 member schools statewide. FSI is located at Research Park, Orlando, which is adjacent to the UCF main campus. Typical research areas include small satellite innovations, planetary science, instrumentation development, space weather, and space power, driving engineering solutions with science requirements.

FSI hosts one of the nine US research teams of NASA's Solar System Exploration Research Virtual Institute (SSERVI), called the Center of Lunar and Asteroidal Surface Science (CLASS). The teams participating in the Solar System Exploration Research Virtual Institute (SSERVI) will address scientific questions about the moon, near-Earth asteroids, the Martian moons Phobos and Deimos, and their near space environments, in cooperation with international partners. FSI's faculty are also leading a NASA mission called Global Observations of the Limb and Disk (GOLD). GOLD will fly an ultraviolet (UV) imaging spectrograph on a geostationary satellite to measure densities and temperatures in Earth's thermosphere and ionosphere.
FSI conducts its educational activities through the NASA Florida Space Grant Consortium (FSGC). FSI administers FSGC, a NASA sponsored state wide higher education program, led by the UCF. Through FSGC, FSI provides opportunities for students to participate in hands-on space-related projects like the Hybrid Rocket Competition, Florida Undergraduate Satellite Design Competition (FUNSAT), senior design projects and participation in NASA competitions. FSGC also provides fellowships, scholarships, internship and research experiences for students.

The Institute for Economic Forecasting strives to provide complete, accurate and timely national, state and regional forecasts and economic analyses. Through these analyses, the institute provides valuable resources to the public and private sectors for informed decision making.

Dr. Sean Snaith and the Institute for Economic Forecasting have brought UCF tremendous national recognition. The IEF prepares a comprehensive, quarterly forecast of the Florida economy and 12 metropolitan areas, as well as a comprehensive, quarterly forecast of the U.S. economy. Information from the forecasts is included in exclusive panels, including USA Today Survey of Top Economists, Livingston Survey, Survey of Professional Forecasters, Reuters and Bloomberg monthly survey.

Institute for Simulation and Training (IST)

ist@ist.ucf.edu

The Institute for Simulation and Training (IST) was established to conduct research and develop technology that advances the state of the art in affordable and effective human-centered simulation capabilities and training systems. In April 1985 a State of Florida resolution recognized the institute as part of a Center of Excellence for Simulation and Training. Driven by a proven record of research achievement, IST has developed unique qualifications and is positioned to provide the enabling technologies and technical talent necessary to research new ways to model human activity, improve human-agent interaction, and educate the next generation of scientists and professionals. IST is housed within the School of Modeling, Simulation, and Training (SMST) which was established in 2018 to formally recognize the exceptional growth and success of the institute and its Modeling and Simulation Graduate Program.

IST laboratories, work space, and administrative offices occupy major portions of the Partnership II, III, and IV buildings located in the Central Florida Research Park, adjacent the UCF campus. The park also is home to major simulation and training agencies from all branches of the U.S. military. The institute is a research and academic arm of the world's largest concentration of simulation and training for industry, government, health care, and entertainment.

IST's research staff of more than 200 scientists, engineers, and students conducts basic and applied research for a broad range of training devices and programs. Research teams focus on applied research and technology, human/systems integration, and information systems technologies. Research areas include:
The institute annually employs more than 100 graduate and undergraduate students in a variety of research and support positions. For many outstanding graduates, work experience at IST becomes a launching pad to a career in the simulation industry. A significant number of existing professionals, both in government and industry, enroll in modeling and simulation graduate and certificate programs to continue their advanced education and hone their research skills. IST actively assists UCF in the development of simulation-related curricula. First in the nation with a master's degree in simulation systems, the university in collaboration with IST also offers a truly multidisciplinary Ph.D. in Modeling and Simulation. Both master's and doctoral programs accept applications from graduate students in computer science, digital media, psychology, engineering, mathematics, business, and other related disciplines. Also available at the graduate level is the Graduate Certificate in Modeling and Simulation of Behavioral Cybersecurity, an interdisciplinary modeling and simulation approach to cybersecurity with a particular emphasis on the behavioral aspects of cybersecurity and cyber operations.

The institute includes in its efforts development of research projects with potential commercial applications and adaptation of military technology to civilian markets. IST communicates the results of its research through seminars, conferences, publications, and workshops. In cooperation with UCF, the University of South Florida, and University of Florida, and with considerable participation from area industry and economic development organizations, IST promotes economic growth in the modeling and simulation industry throughout the Central Florida High Tech Corridor.

Institute for Sport and Social Justice (ISSJ)

Director, Special Programs and Events: Suzi Katz Business Administration II (BA2) 113
sportandsocialjustice.org
407-823-3555

Vision: to create worldwide social justice through the power of sport.

Mission: The mission of the Institute for Sport and Social Justice is to use the power of sport to effect positive social change. We educate and empower individuals and organizations by inspiring values-based thinking leading to actions that promote social responsibility and equality.

Core Values:

Diversity and Inclusion

We believe diversity and inclusion serve as a catalyst to promote fairness, equity, and justice.

At the ISSJ, we harness the power of diversity and inclusion to capitalize on individual and collective strengths and help teams, staffs, and organizations reach their full potential. Respect and appreciation of difference are the founding principles of diversity and inclusion. As advocates of fairness and equality, the ISSJ hopes to build a global awareness and cultural competence through the power of sport. We strive to be on the cutting edge, proactively working to understand who is being excluded.

Education

Education has the power to transform lives and empowers people to make a difference.
The ISSJ embraces the principle that everyone has a right to be educated, and has a duty to use what is learned to improve society. Since its inception, ISSJ member institutions have offered opportunities for athletes to complete their degrees even after eligibility has expired. In addition to our advocacy for traditional education, the ISSJ educates and empowers people by raising awareness of social justice issues and by offering strategies and solutions for overcoming them.

Social Justice

The ISSJ is committed to peace and justice by raising awareness and developing strategies for dealing with social justice issues worldwide.

The ISSJ aims to provide the education, tools and strategies for dealing with these issues and empowers individuals to take action for those without a voice. We challenge sports leaders and athletes to embrace leadership roles by supporting everyone's basic human rights, and confronting all forms of discrimination, hate, and violence, while advocating for those who are underrepresented.

Ethical and Moral Leadership

The ISSJ's unshakeable vision for sport driven social change demands that we challenge ourselves, and others, to aspire to the highest standards of ethical and moral behavior.

Ethical and moral actions are the foundation that enables individuals, organizations, and leaders to gain leadership credibility. The beliefs and actions of leaders have significant impact on their respective organizations and, as such, effective ethical and moral leadership blends humility with determined professional will. The ISSJ's ambitious goals for sport driven social change can only be accomplished through tireless commitment to ethical and moral behavior. Thus, we dedicate ourselves to advocate for ethical and moral leadership through the power of sport.

The Power of Sport

The global impact that sport has on society reminds us that teamwork and unity transcend the fields of competition, and has the irrefutable power to positively change people's lives.

We apply the lessons of "the huddle" to illustrate how divergent interests and beliefs can unite under a shared vision and common goal. We believe sport has an immense impact on societies across the globe. Sport has been known to galvanize communities large and small. By harnessing this power and public influence, the ISSJ continues to promote social change domestically and around the world. Changing lives through the power of sport.

Since 1989, students and faculty of University of Central Florida have benefited from its membership in Oak Ridge Associated Universities (ORAU). ORAU is a consortium of 96 colleges and universities and a contractor for the U.S. Department of Energy (DOE) located in Oak Ridge, Tennessee. ORAU works with its member institutions to help their students and faculty gain access to federal research facilities throughout the country; to keep its members informed about opportunities for fellowship, scholarship, and research appointments; and to organize research alliances among its members.

Through the Oak Ridge Institute for Science and Education (ORISE), the DOE facility that ORAU operates, undergraduates, graduates, postgraduates, as well as faculty enjoy access to a multitude of opportunities for study and research. Students can participate in a number of programs covering a wide variety of disciplines including business, earth sciences, epidemiology, engineering, physics, geological sciences, pharmacology, ocean sciences, biomedical sciences, nuclear chemistry, and mathematics. Appointment and program length range from one month to four years. Many of these programs are specially designed to increase the numbers of underrepresented minority students pursuing degrees in science- and engineering-related disciplines. A comprehensive listing on these programs and other opportunities, their disciplines, and details on locations and benefits can be found in the ORISE Catalog of Education and Training Programs, which is available at http://see.orau.org, or by calling the number...

ORAU's Office of Partnership Development seeks opportunities for partnerships and alliances among ORAU's members, private industry, and major federal facilities. Activities include faculty development programs, such as the Ralph E. Powe Junior Faculty Enhancement Awards, the ORAU Events Sponsorship Program, the ORAU Travel Grants Program and the Lindau Meeting of Nobel Laureates and Students.

Student Account Services is here to serve the students who attend the University of Central Florida by maintaining accurate financial records and communicating with students concerning their accounts.

The Student Account Services office is responsible for:

- Tuition and Fee Assessment/Refunds
- Processing Payments
- Overdue payment and institutional loans collection (Loans and Collections)

Schedule of Fees

Note: 2021-2022 tuition and fees had not been established at the time of this publication. Rates for the 2021-2022 academic year will be available in July 2021 at studentaccounts.ucf.edu/tf-tuitionratescurrent. Fees are subject to change without notice.

Tuition and Fees: Tuition and fees are established by the State Legislature and the University Board of Trustees and are subject to change without notice. Fees are affected by residency status. Tuition and fees are charged per semester or term for main campus, regional campus, and continuing education courses. Tuition is assessed on a per credit hour basis. Students classified as zero-hour registration students are assessed one credit hour at the Florida Resident Tuition rate at the course level for which the student is registered.

Tuition Fee Invoice: A student's Fee Invoice will show all tuition and fee charges, payments and deferments associated with the term, and courses in which the student is currently enrolled. The Fee Invoice will not show fees such as housing, meal plan, library, parking, etc. Tuition Fee invoices are available 24/7 on the web my.ucf.edu, and from the student's college advising offices. Students should review their current Tuition Fee Invoice prior to making a payment. Tuition Fee invoices are not mailed. The Tuition Fee Invoice should be reviewed once after initial registration of courses and also after making any changes to the initial registration to ensure that the fees are adjusted accordingly.
Fee Payment Deadlines: All University tuition and fees must be paid by the published dates. Tuition and fees not paid or deferred by the payment deadline for each term will result in late fees and may result in the cancellation of all classes. Refer to the Academic Calendar each term for the fee payment deadlines.

Limited Non-Degree Enrollment Classes: Payment guidelines for Limited Non-Degree enrollment classes can be found on the "Registration Form for Non-Admitted Students." It is the student's responsibility to officially drop from courses to avoid additional financial obligations.

Student Financial Responsibility Statement

Registration at UCF requires students to acknowledge the following financial responsibility statement:

The following agreement includes details on your responsibilities related to, but not limited to the following:

You are responsible for paying for any course for which you are enrolled in at the end of UCF's drop period. If your account becomes delinquent, you agree to reimburse UCF for the fees of any collection agency, which may be based on a percentage of the delinquent account balance.

Fee Responsibility: By registering for courses at UCF, I promise to pay the university the principal, and any late fees, fines or penalties, by the due dates stated on my student account and in applicable university catalogs and/or websites. I understand that withdrawal for each term begins after the drop deadline and that I remain fee liable for any class from which I withdraw. I understand that non-attendance does not constitute a drop or withdrawal. I also understand that notifying my professor, advisor, or other university representative does not constitute a drop or withdrawal. If I withdraw from courses with the intent of not returning to UCF, I must also drop courses for any future terms or I shall be fee liable and receive a grade.

Payment of Fees: If payment is made by check (electronic or paper) and the check is not honored by my bank, I agree that a returned check fee will be charged to my student account. If I expect financial aid to pay all or part of my financial obligations to UCF, I understand that it is my responsibility to meet all requirements for aid disbursement to my student account. I authorize UCF to use the financial aid to pay for all education costs charged to my student account in accordance with federal guidelines. I understand that it is my responsibility to ensure that all requirements of grantors, lenders, employers, and other third-party payers are met on a timely basis. I understand that despite my expectations for payment from financial aid or other sources, I am ultimately responsible for all charges incurred. I understand that my financial aid may be adjusted due to my student eligibility and/or student status (e.g., part-time, full-time). In connection with any such adjustments, I agree to repay UCF any amounts that the university pays, on my behalf, to lenders or other financial aid providers and that such amounts constitute an educational loan from the university.

Bankruptcy: UCF is an institution of higher education. As such, certain financial obligations are considered to be an educational loan offered for the sole purpose of financing an education and therefore is a non-dischargeable debt, pursuant to United States Bankruptcy Code section 523(a)(8).

Official Notification: I understand that UCF sends electronic notifications (emails) to my official Knights e-mail account to communicate important updates and that I am responsible for taking action on correspondence sent to this address.

Note: The Fall 2020 Financial Responsibility Statement had not been established at the time of this publication.
Payment Procedures

Payment must be received or postmarked no later than the fee payment deadlines as specified on the Academic Calendar. The primary form of payment of most account holders is online through the E-pay system via the myUCF portal. Students can pay using a check or a credit card in this system. Payments cannot be transacted by telephone.

Acceptable forms of payment:

- Personal Checks
- Credit Cards (Acceptable credit card types are Visa, American Express, MasterCard, and Discover). Please review the Student Account Services website at studentaccounts.ucf.edu/payment-methods for current payment information.
- E-Pay - my.ucf.edu - E-Check (Personal Check) or Credit Card
- A nonrefundable convenience fee will apply per credit card transaction.
- Payments made at any time on the published fee payment deadline will be considered on time.

E-Pay process:

- Sign in the myUCF portal as usual then click on the link for Student Self Service; this will open your Student Center page. Use the right scroll bar to scroll to the Finances section. You will find the My Account section.
- Click on the link for the Tuition Fee Invoice. Select the current term (i.e. Summer 2020, Fall 2020, or Spring 2021). The Fee Invoice will provide you your schedule, the charges, the Amount Due and deferrals. Annotate the Amount Due as you will need that amount once you are on the E-Pay system.
- Scroll down to the bottom of the page and click on the Due Charges/E-Pay link to make a payment.

Mailed payments: (Please do not send cash)

- Include student's name and UCF ID# on personal checks or money orders (make check payable to University of Central Florida)
- Address payments to:

  University of Central Florida
  Student Account Services
  Attn: Payment Processing
  P.O. Box 160115
  Orlando, FL 32816-0115

Payment Drop – 24-Hour Depository at main campus (located on Reflecting Pond side entrance of Millican Hall) (no cash)

Other Forms of Payment

Tuition and fees may be partially or completely paid by financial aid, Florida Prepaid, tuition waivers, or departmental grants. The student is responsible to pay any amount that is not covered by these types of payments by the due date on his or her fee invoice.

Financial Aid

See Student Financial Assistance for rules and procedures.

All fees not deferred by financial aid are due by the due date on his or her fee invoice.

For information regarding Florida Prepaid College Plan or Tuition Waivers, please refer to the Student Account Services website at studentaccounts.ucf.edu.

UCF Payment Plan

The UCF payment plan is a 2-payment design in which the student pays $15 upfront to be allowed to pay only 50% of the total tuition bill by the regular payment deadline, therefore avoiding a late payment fee, and being dropped for non-payment. The student is then responsible for paying the remaining 50% by the Payment Plan deadline on Students receiving financial aid, Florida Prepaid, waivers, or third party payments already have an extended payment deadline and will not be eligible for the UCF payment plan.

Florida Prepaid

UCF Student Account Services will automatically defer tuition and fees and bill Florida Prepaid (FPP) up to the maximum billable amount based on the number of credit hours enrolled. Students with active FPP deferrals will see the Estimated FPP showing on their Fee Invoice for the term. Please note that no FPP Plan will cover 100% of the fees associated with the tuition assessed. Student Account Services use an automated system to identify students with active FPP accounts, which eliminates the need to turn in a FPP Card.

Tuition and Fees for Senior Citizens

Persons 60 years of age or older who meet Florida residency requirements may register to audit classes on a space-available basis without payment of tuition and application fees. Registration is on a space-available basis; see the appropriate term's Academic Calendar calendar.ucf.edu for registration dates and times. The tuition fee waiver cannot be used for courses that require increased costs (such as thesis, dissertation, and directed individual study). A "Florida Residency" Affidavit is required to establish Florida residency. A completed "Student Health History" form must be filed prior to registration. Inquiries should be directed to the Registrar's Office (Millican Hall 161; Telephone: 407-823-3100).

Refund of Fees

A refund of fees will be processed under the conditions noted below. The student must submit a written appeal for a refund or other appeal action to the University within six months of the close of the semester/term to which the refund or other appeal action is applicable. Any debts to the University will be deducted from the refund, up to the full amount.

Full Refund Eligibility

The following conditions allow a full refund: 1) A class is dropped prior to the end of the Drop period; 2) Cancellation of a course by the University.

Partial Refund (25%)

25% of tuition and associated fees assessed, adjusted for waivers, is refundable when the student withdraws completely from the University prior to the end of the fourth week of classes during a 16 or 17 week semester, or as designated by the university for summer sessions.

Exceptional Circumstances

Refunds for exceptional circumstances may be available for certain Administrative Record Changes of courses. Up to 100% of tuition and registration fees are refundable if due to circumstances determined by the University to be exceptional, including, but not limited to, sickness, death, involuntary call to military service, or University administrative error. If approved, a Late Withdrawal does not result in a refund of tuition and fees. Please visit the Academic Services website for more information.

A written appeal for a refund or other appeal action must be submitted to the University within six (6) months of the close of the semester to which the refund or other appeal action is applicable.

Direct Deposit

Students are strongly encouraged to establish direct deposit with the University. Direct Deposit prevents delays due to lost checks or change of address. All refunds from students' accounts can be direct deposited into the student's checking account to any U.S.A. bank in the federal system. Funds are usually available within 24-48 hours after disbursement, and enrollment only takes a few minutes. To enroll, sign in at https://my.ucf.edu and click on Student Self Service. Go to the Student Account Services link, then click on Direct Deposit and follow the instructions.

Past Due Accounts
All financial obligations to the University must be met. Failure to meet obligations can result in the withholding and denial of registration, diploma, transcripts and readmission to the University. The services of a professional collection agency and recourse to the courts may also be invoked if deemed necessary. All costs of collection, including attorney’s fees, are the responsibility of the debtor.

Do not assume your registration will be canceled if you fail to pay fees or attend classes. Tuition deferrals, for example, will prevent class cancellation for non-payment.

Late Fees

Late Payment Fees apply to students who do not pay their fees (or obtain a full fee deferment) by the payment deadline. The Late Payment Fee is $100 per term minimum.

Late Registration Fees are charged to students who enroll following the close of the regular registration period for the term, who re-register, or who enroll for the first time that term during Late Registration and Drop/Swap and Add period. The Late Registration Fee is $100.00 per term minimum.

Late Payment DNP (Drop for Non-Payment) Fees are charged to students who are dropped for non-payment of courses. The DNP Fee is 100 per term minimum.*

*Summer term is divided into sessions, and the late fees are charged per session.

Florida Residency for Tuition Purposes

At University of Central Florida, three offices are responsible for the review of residency for tuition purposes under Florida Statute 1009.21, F.S., State Board of Education, Rules 6A-10.044 & 6A-20.003, and Board of Governors Regulation 7.005. The offices of Undergraduate Admissions and Graduate Studies determine residency for all first-time-on-campus students; thereafter, the Registrar's Office will review student requests for changes in residency for Undergraduate Students. The College of Graduate Studies will review student requests for changes in residency for graduate students. A first-time-on-campus student will be classified according to the information he or she includes on the application for admission, providing that no other information is available that calls into question the information contained on the application.

To qualify as a Florida resident for tuition purposes in accordance with State regulations, the student must be a United States citizen, resident alien, parolee, Cuban national, Vietnamese refugee, or other refugee or asylee so designated by the United States Citizenship and Immigration Service,

And

Have established a legal residence in this state and maintained that legal residence for 12 months immediately prior to the term in which they are seeking Florida resident classification. The student's residence in Florida must be a bona fide domicile rather than for the purpose of maintaining a mere temporary residence or abode incidental to enrollment in an institution of higher education, and should be demonstrated as indicated below (for dependent students, as defined by Internal Revenue Service regulations, a parent or guardian must qualify),

And

Submit the following documentation (or in the case of a dependent student, the parent must submit documentation) prior to the first day of classes for the term for which resident status is sought:

1. Documentation establishing legal residence in Florida (this document must be dated at least one year prior to the first day of classes of the term for which resident status is sought). The following documents will be considered in determining legal residence:
   1. Declaration of Domicile (Note: the Declaration of Domicile will support a claim of residency for tuition purposes only after a period of 12 months from the date that the Clerk of the Court notes that the declaration was sworn and subscribed to them.)
   2. Proof of purchase of a home in Florida in which the student resides;
   3. Proof that the student has maintained residence in the state for the preceding year (e.g., leases,
2. Documentation establishing bona fide domicile in Florida which is not temporary or merely incidental to enrollment in a Florida institution of higher education. The following documents will be considered evidence of domicile even though no one of these criteria, if taken alone, will be considered as conclusive evidence of domicile:
   1. Declaration of Domicile;
   2. Florida voter registration;
   3. Florida vehicle registration;
   4. Florida driver license or Florida identification;
   5. Proof of real property ownership in Florida (e.g., deed, tax receipts) where you reside;
   6. Verification of permanent employment, fulltime (30 hours/week x 52 weeks) in Florida by the employer, employment records, or other employment-related documentation (e.g., W-2 paycheck receipts), other than for employment normally provided on a temporary basis to students or other temporary employment. The document must show 12 consecutive months of Florida employment prior to the first day of classes of the term for which the student requests Florida residency;
   7. Proof of membership in or affiliation with community or state organizations or significant connections to the State;
   8. Proof of continuous presence in Florida during periods when not enrolled as a student;
   9. Proof of former domicile in Florida and maintenance of significant connections while absent;
   10. Proof of reliance upon Florida sources of support;
   11. Proof of domicile in Florida of family;
   12. Proof of admission to a licensed practicing profession in Florida;
   13. Any other factors peculiar to the individual that tend to establish the necessary intent to make Florida a permanent home and that the individual is a bona fide Florida resident, including the age and general circumstances of the individual;
   14. Proof of graduation from a high school located in Florida.
3. No contrary evidence establishing residence elsewhere;
4. Documentation of dependent/independent status (notarized copy of most recent IRS tax transcript)
   Or
   Be married to a person who has been a legal resident of the State of Florida for the required 12-month period and relinquish legal ties to any other state,
   Or
   Be a member of the Armed Forces on active duty stationed in Florida, or a spouse or dependent, or active drilling members of the Florida National Guard,
   Or
   Be a member of the full-time instructional or administrative staff of a state public school, Florida College System institution, or university in Florida, a spouse or dependent,
   Or
   Military Personnel (and spouse/dependent children) not stationed in Florida whose home of record or state of legal residence certificate is Florida,
   Or
   Be a dependent and have lived three years with an adult relative, who has established legal residence in Florida,
   Or
   Be a person who was enrolled as a Florida resident for tuition purposes at a Florida institution of higher education, but who abandoned Florida residency and then re-enrolled in Florida with 12 months of the abandonment,
   Or
   Be a full-time Latin American or Caribbean student who receives scholarships from the federal or state government,
   Or
   Be a United States citizen living on the Isthmus of Panama who has completed 12 consecutive months of college work at the Florida State University Panama Canal Branch, or a spouse or dependent,
   Or
   Be a graduate student of the Southern Regional Education Board's Academic Common Market attending Florida's state universities,
   Or
   Be a full-time employee of a state agency or political subdivision of the state when the student fees are paid by the state agency or political subdivision for the purpose of job-related law enforcement or corrections training,
   Or
   Be a U.S. Citizen who is a McKnight Doctoral Fellowship recipient,
   Or
   Be a qualified beneficiary under the Florida Pre-paid Postsecondary Expense Program per s.240.551(7)(a),
Or

Be an active duty member of the Canadian military residing or stationed in this state under the North American Air Defense (NORAD) agreement, or a spouse or dependent,

And

Submit a statement as to the length of residence in Florida and their residency qualifications under the above criteria. Students requesting Florida residency for tuition purposes shall apply to the appropriate admissions office if they have not yet enrolled, or to the Registrar's Office if they already are enrolled.

Tuesday, Wednesday, Friday: 9 a.m. - 5:00 p.m.
Hours subject to change during holidays, semester breaks and changes in university operations.

The Office of Student Financial Assistance is dedicated to supporting UCF's mission and goals through the efficient delivery of student aid. The office provides UCF students with a comprehensive offering of financial assistance options to support student success and the attainment of a university degree. Financial aid guidance is available in a variety of formats including in-person, virtual, phone and email counseling services. More information on the types of financial aid available to students and financial aid policies can be found in the Financial Aid Guide.

Student Rights and Responsibilities

Students have the right to full information about the financial aid programs available at UCF, our application procedures, aid deadlines, and the criteria used to determine a financial aid package. Students have the right to appeal decisions made by the Office of Student Financial Assistance. Students also have the right to equitable treatment of their financial assistance applications. Although each student's case is analyzed individually, eligibility standards are applied uniformly without regard to race, gender, religion, creed, national origin, or disability. All students' records are confidential.

It is the student's responsibility to review and understand all information and instructions, meet all deadlines, and provide all information and documentation accurately. Errors and omissions can cause delays and prevent students from receiving assistance. Misrepresentation is a violation of federal regulations.
Student Eligibility

To receive aid from most federal and state financial aid programs, students must meet certain requirements. All students are encouraged to complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) annually, before December 1, to determine eligibility. The FAFSA results are required for many programs. The federal processor, using a standardized formula, calculates financial need. Those results are then forwarded to the schools that were identified on the application. UCF must be listed on the FAFSA in order to receive the data. UCF’s Federal School Title IV code is 003954. Regulations are subject to change at any time.

Application Priority Date

All students must apply or reapply annually for financial aid. To be considered for the full range of financial aid available, students should complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA)/Renewal FAFSA by mid-February. The processed results of the FAFSA must be received by UCF no later than December 1 to meet the university’s application priority date.

- If the priority date is missed, students should apply as soon as possible after that date to be considered for the financial aid that is still available, such as the Federal Pell Grant, Federal Direct Stafford Loan, and Federal Direct PLUS Loan;
- Students should not wait to be admitted to UCF before applying for financial aid; however they cannot be offered a financial aid package until they have been admitted to the university;
- Federal Pell Grants and Federal Direct Stafford Loans are available on a year-round basis. Students may apply for financial aid in advance of any term and receive aid from these programs, if eligible;
- Students enrolling in the fall semester should submit all requested documents by the May 30th priority deadline for timely review and processing of their financial aid file. However all students should have a completed financial aid file at least 60 days prior to the beginning of any given semester. Students who apply late for aid should be prepared to cover their own living expenses, out-of-pocket, well into the term;
- A broad range of scholarships is available with diverse criteria. Please review the Scholarship page found on the website for additional information.

Application Procedures

- The FAFSA can be filed electronically at http://www.fafsa.gov;
- Using the IRS Data Retrieval Tool found within the FAFSA is the most accurate, and secure method of providing the required federal tax information. Applicants who use the unchanged data generated by the IRS Data Retrieval Tool will not be required to provide federal tax return transcripts from the IRS to the financial aid office. Students who are selected for verification who did not use the IRS Data Retrieval Tool, or changed data after using the tool, may be required to submit IRS tax return transcripts to verify tax information.
  Signed copies of tax forms and the appropriate schedules may be submitted, in lieu of tax transcripts.
- Information provided on the Student Aid Report (SAR) should be reviewed thoroughly;
- Review all correspondence, follow instructions on the Student Aid Report (SAR), and follow through within 5 – 10 business days. Delays can result in negative consequences;
- Federal regulations require that some students be selected for verification, a process that requires a student's file receive additional review. If selected, students will be required to provide documents supporting the information submitted on the FAFSA. Subsequent requests for data may be necessary after initial submissions are reviewed. Prompt response to requests will expedite completion of this process;
- Students selected for verification are advised to submit all requested documents by the May 30th verification priority date for timely processing. Students should have a completed financial aid file no later than 60 days prior to the beginning of a semester.
- Late or incomplete submission of documents can result in delayed disbursements or possible loss of eligibility for aid.
- Offered federal funds and other need-based financial aid are considered estimates until verification is complete and all necessary corrections have been made.

Specific Eligibility Requirements and Conditions for Receiving Financial Aid

- Students must be accepted and classified as degree-seeking at UCF in an eligible program of study. Only courses toward degree requirements count for financial aid purposes;
- Students must maintain UCF’s Standards for Satisfactory Academic Progress (See ucf.edu/financial-aid/policies/satisfactory-academic-progress for more information);
- Students are required to inform the Office of Student Financial Assistance of any additional sources of aid they expect to receive beyond those listed on the award notification or award information provided on the Student Center on myUCF. Any subsequent awards or income may require a revision of the financial aid package. This includes, but is not limited to, any private scholarships or third-party tuition payment/waivers;
- Students may not receive aid in excess of their Cost of Attendance (See uc.edu/financial-aid/cost for more information);
- Students must not be in default on any federal educational loan or owe repayment on a federal grant at this or any other institution;
- Students must provide all information requested for the completion of their file. If selected, verification must be completed within specified deadlines and prior to the receipt of all federal and most state and institutional funds;
- Students must notify the Office of Student Financial Assistance of any changes in their housing status, household size, or family members in college from that listed on their FAFSA;
- Students must reapply annually for federal financial aid;
- Students must accept, reduce or decline offered loan(s) on the myUCF View Financial Aid screen.
- First time borrowers must complete an online Entrance Counseling and Master Promissory Note (MPN) for a Federal Direct Stafford Loan at UCF;
- Students must be U.S. citizens or an eligible non-citizens, (e.g. resident aliens). Eligible non-citizens include a permanent U.S. resident with a Permanent Resident Card (I551); a conditional permanent resident with a Conditional Green Card (I-551C); as well as some I-94 classifications;
- Students must have a high school diploma, GED certificate, or completed secondary school through homeschooling as defined by state law;
- For need based programs, students must show financial need as determined by the FAFSA;
- Applicants who were assigned a male gender at birth must be registered with Selective Service, if applicable.

Program Eligibility Charts

To ensure enrollment in sufficient hours for the various financial aid programs, please refer to the Program Eligibility Charts on the website, under Receiving Aid (See uc.edu/financial-aid/resources/program-eligibility-charts for more information).

Helpful Hints

- Apply early to be considered for the full range of financial aid available each year by completing the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA)/Renewal FAFSA. The processed results of the FAFSA must be received by UCF from the federal processor by December 1 to meet the university's application priority date;
- Use the IRS Data Retrieval Tool located within the FAFSA application. Applicants who use the unchanged data generated by the IRS Data Retrieval Tool will not be required to provide federal tax return transcripts from the IRS. Students who are selected for verification who did not use the IRS Data Retrieval Tool, or changed data after using the tool, will be required to submit IRS tax return transcripts to verify tax information. Signed copies of tax forms and the appropriate schedules may be submitted, in lieu of tax transcripts.
- Students selected for verification are advised to submit all requested documents by the May 30th verification priority deadline for timely processing. Students should have a completed financial aid file no later than 60 days prior to the beginning of a semester.
- Start a folder to save financial aid information and photocopies of all documents filed and received. Include student's name and UCF ID on all documents submitted. (Do not submit originals; documents will be shredded after scanning.)
- Students should activate their Knights Email account and check it regularly to avoid missing important and critical information from the Office of Student Financial Assistance and the university;
- Complete all items necessary to apply for both a Federal Pell Grant and a Federal Direct Stafford Loan, even if it doesn't seem advantageous at the time. The law requires that students be considered for a grant before a loan is offered.
- Respond promptly to all information requests; late or incomplete submission of documents can result in delayed disbursements or possible loss of eligibility for aid.
- Financial aid counseling services are available in a variety of formats;
- Comprehensive financial aid information can be found on the website: www.ucf.edu/financial-aid.

School Costs

Estimated student budgets have been developed as a guide to help students anticipate their costs at UCF. Please refer to the website at uc.edu/financial-aid/cost for the estimated Cost of Attendance. The Cost of Attendance is not a bill. It is considered estimated charges a student can expect to incur upon enrolling in classes at the university.

Financial Aid Programs Available at UCF

Financial aid comes in many forms, such as grants, scholarships, employment, loans and waivers. Detailed information on the type of aid offered at UCF can be found on the financial aid website, under types of aid.

Grants are considered gift aid and do not have to be repaid. Only undergraduate students who have not previously received a bachelor's degree and who demonstrate financial need may be eligible for federal and state funded grant programs. Awards are based on the amount of available funds and the number of eligible applicants. To be considered for grant awards, students must meet eligibility requirements and have a valid FAFSA on file at UCF.

Scholarships are awarded based on various criteria, including financial need, campus/community activities, leadership positions, academic success, and work experience. Scholarships are designed to reward, encourage, and assist students in pursuing academic excellence and leadership roles.
Federal Work Study is designed to provide students who demonstrate financial need a chance to earn money while pursuing a degree. Individual departments hire students while the Office of Student Financial Assistance determines the eligibility, award amount, and pay rate.

Loans are borrowed funds that must be repaid. They provide undergraduate students with an opportunity to invest in their future. Undergraduate students must enroll for at least six hours at UCF in UCF classes to be considered for federal loans. First time Federal Direct loan borrowers are subject to a maximum time period (measured in academic years) to receive Federal Direct Subsidized Loans. Students may not receive Federal Direct Subsidized Loans for more than 150% of the published length of their academic program. This time limit does not apply to Direct Unsubsidized Loans or Direct PLUS Loans. Visit our website for details.

Financial Aid Notification

Financial aid summaries for first time UCF students are sent electronically in early March, while email financial aid notifications are sent to continuing students who meet Satisfactory Academic Progress standards in April. Initial awards may be amended due to factors such as contingent admission status, less than half-time enrollment, lack of academic progress, changes needed due to verification, incomplete files, receipt of additional resources, etc.

Financial aid packages are based upon the student's financial need, the amount of available funds, the number of UCF students who qualify for aid, and the date the student completes the application process. The amounts listed via financial aid summaries are estimates based on full-time enrollment. For purposes of financial aid, enrollment is based solely on classes that count toward degree completion.

Federal, institutional and state funded aid require admission to UCF to be finalized with no contingencies and students must be classified as degree-seeking.

Verification, if required, must be completed. Students must meet the Standards for Satisfactory Academic Progress. If all eligibility is met, financial aid funds may be disbursed.

It is the student's responsibility to be aware of minimal requirements for each program, which can be found on the Program Eligibility Charts on the website. When requirements are no longer met, awards will be adjusted as necessary and will update on myUCF. All awards are subject to change.

Deferment of Tuition and Fees

Deferments allow students to extend payment of tuition and fees beyond the published due date, which is generally two weeks after the term begins. The fee invoice reflects the deferred due date for tuition and fees. Students given a deferment are advised that their tuition and fee charges must be paid by the due date noted on the student's fee invoice, which is the deferment date. The deferment process occurs automatically if the student is meeting all general eligibility requirements and has enrolled in sufficient hours for the financial aid program/s. Please refer to the Program Eligibility Charts on the website for more information. Students should use myUCF to obtain up-to-date information. In order for loans to defer tuition and fees, students must accept the offered loan on myUCF View Financial Aid screen. In order to have access to accept loans, all required items on the To Do List must be submitted. Students must drop classes prior to the end of Drop/Swap and Add in order to not be fee liable for those classes. If students do not drop their classes, a financial aid deferment may keep the classes active even if they never attended.

Confirmation of Academic Engagement and Disbursements

Timing of disbursements is contingent upon students meeting all conditions for receiving aid. Disbursement of financial aid begins the second week of the semester and continues each week thereafter. During the first week of classes students are required to confirm academic engagement in each of their courses. This is done through either the student completing an academic activity that has been established by the faculty member or by faculty physically taking attendance. Students may complete the academic activities after the first week of classes but they may receive a later disbursement of aid for those courses. At the end of the Drop/Swap and Add period, awards are adjusted based on the student’s enrollment and confirmation of academic engagement. The week following, the disbursement process is initiated by moving students’ awards to the student's account. Once funds are disbursed to the Office of Student Account Services, the disbursement record is posted on myUCF under “View My Account” on the Student Center. Charges appearing on the student's account will be deducted at that time. Any remaining financial aid will be processed as a refund with the exception of any Federal Direct PLUS Loan for Parents, which will be disbursed to the parent at their mailing address. If charges remain on the account after disbursements, or if subsequent charges are made to the student's account, it is the student's responsibility to ensure they are paid. Students signed up for direct deposit should allow up to four business days for funds to show in their bank account. For refund checks that are being mailed, students should allow at least a week to receive their check at their current mailing address reflected on myUCF.

Students should be aware of the disbursement process so that they are prepared to use their personal savings for anticipated expenses such as books and supplies at the beginning of the term. The Short Term Advance (STA) for Books or the Textbook Purchase Program is available for students to help with these expenses. The STA application is available in the form section of the financial aid website approximately a month prior to the start of each term, so that funds may be available as early as two weeks before the first day of classes. For additional information regarding these two programs, visit ucf.edu/financial-aid/receive/funds-for-textbooks.

Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP)

Federal regulations require the University to establish Standards of Satisfactory Academic Progress as a general eligibility requirement for financial aid. A student must maintain satisfactory academic progress in a course of study regardless of whether the student previously received financial aid or transferred in from another institution.

To meet the standards adopted by the University of Central Florida, a student must:

- Maintain a minimum cumulative GPA of a 2.0 at the undergraduate level.
- Complete a minimum of 67% of all credit hours attempted including transfer hours.
- Graduate within the number of hours allowed by the Satisfactory Academic Progress policy. Students are allowed a specific number of attempted hours based on their classification. This includes transfer hours accepted toward the degree plus all UCF hours (see chart below).

<thead>
<tr>
<th>Classification</th>
<th>Maximum Hours Allowed For Completing Degree</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Undergraduate</td>
<td>180 Attempted Hours</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Second Undergraduate</td>
<td>70 Attempted Hours</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Graduate Certificate</td>
<td>27 Attempted Hours (includes all hours taken while classified as a graduate certificate student)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Masters</td>
<td>70 Attempted Hours</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Specialist</td>
<td>100 Attempted Hours (including all graduate level hours)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Doctoral</td>
<td>120 Attempted Hours (including all graduate level hours)</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

Students who do not meet the GPA and/or percentage completion SAP standards will be placed on financial aid warning for the next semester. At the end of that semester, students must either meet the standards or aid will be canceled for future terms until student either meets the standards or the student has an appeal approved placing them on financial aid probation with an academic plan on file demonstrating the requirements for the student to get back on track towards graduation.

Repeated course/s, including the original attempt, will be counted towards the completion ratio and maximum time frame requirements.

For detailed SAP policy information, please refer to the Office of Student Financial Assistance website at ucf.edu/financial-aid/policies/satisfactory-academic-progress.

Re-establishing Eligibility after Cancellation

Any student with extenuating circumstances, (i.e., death of a relative, an illness or injury of the student, etc.), who is placed on cancellation status may appeal to the Financial Aid Review Committee for reinstatement based on his/her special case.
If the student was canceled for the failure to complete 67% of the attempted hours and since cancellation, has brought up the percentage to a minimum of 67%, the student will be reinstated during the end of the semester review process. If a student was canceled for not meeting the GPA requirement, they will be placed back on a reinstated status once their GPA has been brought up to the required level during the end of semester review process.

To appeal, the student must:

- Complete the Satisfactory Academic Progress Appeal Form; (available at ucf.edu/financial-aid, under Forms).
- Include a detailed statement that explains the extenuating circumstances that prevented or resulted in the student not meeting the SAP standards.
- Attach documentation supporting specific circumstance(s) to the appeal form;
- Meet with an Academic Advisor and have the advisor complete an Academic Plan for Financial Aid;
- Submit the appeal, supporting documentation, and academic plan to the Office of Student Financial Assistance. After a thorough evaluation of the written request and all supporting documentation, the Financial Aid Review Committee will notify the student of the decision by email communication or the student may view the updated status on myUCF, under View Financial Aid Status.

For detailed SAP policy information, please refer to the Office of Student Financial Assistance website at ucf.edu/financial-aid/policies/satisfactory-academic-progress.

Satisfactory Academic Progress Probation

Students who submit a SAP Appeal that is approved will be placed on Financial Aid Probation, and will be continued on Financial Aid Probation status as long as they successfully comply with the prescribed academic plan that is submitted as part of the SAP Appeal. Progression will be monitored during the probationary period at the beginning and end of each semester to ensure the student is following the prescribed academic plan and successfully matriculating through their program of study. Disbursements will not be made for a semester unless it is verified that the prior review (if applicable) was acceptable and student is in the proper classes for the term in question. All probation students must successfully complete a minimum of 67% of the credit hours that they attempt each semester. In addition, students on probation for GPA and/or completion ratio must make positive progression in the appropriate area(s).

Transfer Students

Transfer students should pay close attention to priority filing dates. If a FAFSA for the year in question has already been filed, request that the federal processor forward the information to UCF, School Code 003954, by utilizing Part II of the Student Aid Report and adding the UCF School Code to the online FAFSA, or calling the Federal Student Aid Information Center at 1-800-4 FED AID. The To Do List on myUCF will indicate any required forms.

Transfer students expecting to receive the Florida Bright Futures Scholarship at UCF are required to contact the Florida Department of Education Office of Student Financial Assistance (OSFA) to transfer their scholarship from their previous institution to UCF. Students can call OSFA at 1-888-827-2004 or log onto the Bright Futures Scholarship website at https://www.floridastudentfinancialaidsg.org/home/ApplyHere.asp to transfer the scholarship to UCF.

Independent Students

For the 2020-2021 aid year, students will be classified as independent for financial aid purposes if the answer to one or more of the questions below is yes:

- Were you born before Jan. 1, 1998?
- As of today, are you married? (Also answer "Yes" if you are separated but not divorced.)
- At the beginning of the 2021–22 school year, will you be working on a master's or doctorate program (such as an M.A., M.B.A., M.D., J.D., Ph.D., Ed.D., graduate certificate, etc.)?
- Are you currently serving on active duty in the U.S. armed forces for purposes other than training? (If you are a National Guard or Reserves enlistee, are you on active duty for other than state or training purposes?)
- Are you a veteran of the U.S. Armed Forces?*
- Do you now have—or will you have—children who will receive more than half of their support from you between July 1, 2021, and June 30, 2022?
- Do you have dependent(s) (other than your children or spouse) who live with you and who receive more than half of their support from you, now and through June 30, 2022?
- At any time since you turned age 13, were both your parents deceased, were you in foster care, or were you a dependent or ward of the court?
- As determined by a court in your state of legal residence, are you or were you an emancipated minor or does someone other than your parent or stepparent have legal guardianship of you, as determined by a court in your state of legal residence?
- At any time on or after July 1, 2020, were you determined to be an unaccompanied youth who was homeless or were self-supporting and at risk of being homeless, as determined by (a) your high school or district homeless liaison, (b) the director of an emergency shelter or transitional housing program funded by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, or (c) the director of a runaway or homeless youth basic center or transitional living program?

Transient Enrollment

Students who have been approved to take classes at another institution while attending UCF might have those hours counted toward meeting financial aid requirements for some programs at UCF. Courses taken elsewhere must meet some major or general education requirements to be calculated as part of student aid eligibility. Transient enrollment will not meet eligibility criteria for institutional aid programs, such as UCF Grant, UCF Scholars Award or Pegasus Scholarships. Check the Program Eligibility Chart for detailed requirements for each program. Students who expect to receive funds under any of the federal loan programs must enroll for a minimum of six undergraduate hours at UCF in UCF classes to meet eligibility requirements.

UCF students attending a Florida public community/state college or university must complete the Transient Student Admission Application through Florida Shines at https://www.floridashines.org/.

UCF students attending any college or university other than a Florida public institution must submit the following documents to the Office of Student Financial Assistance on or before the withdrawal deadline of the term in which aid is to be disbursed:

1. Transient Notification Form for Financial Aid for Out of State and Private Institutions.
2. A copy of the Fee Invoice and Class Schedule from the transient (host) Institution.
3. A copy of the Transient Student Approval Form with required signatures from Academic Advisor, Academic Services (if required) and UCF Registrar's Office.
4. A completed Consortium Agreement Form signed by the transient school's Financial Aid Office.

Students who are enrolled in transient hours must make arrangements to pay tuition and fees at the visited school since there is no system for deferral of those tuition and fees. In addition, it is the student's responsibility to ensure that the visited school promptly provides the UCF Registrar's Office with academic transcripts at the conclusion of the term, confirming that the attempted hours are completed. This will help avoid Satisfactory Academic Progress problems.

Students may not receive financial aid from two institutions for the same semester. Students must decide which of the two institutions is the primary school at which they are degree seeking and apply for aid there. Any inaccuracy will result in a mandatory repayment to one of the two schools for the overpayment.

Over Awards

An over award occurs when a student's award package has exceeded either the unmet need or Cost of Attendance. To prevent over awards, students are required to notify the Office of Student Financial Assistance of any potential awards not already listed on the student's financial aid award summary on the Student Center in myUCF. In the event of an over award, the student's award package is reduced to eliminate the over award, which may result in a repayment to the institution of the over award. This includes late scholarship notifications that may occur during the academic year. Students are advised to discuss the impact of receiving scholarship funding after other financial aid funds have disbursed with the financial aid office.

Refunds and Return of Title IV Funds

Students should be aware that if they completely withdraw (officially or unofficially) from the university after having received financial assistance, they may be required to repay a portion of that assistance. Students who received Federal Direct Stafford Loans should also know that the Registrar's Office is required to notify the National Student Loan Data System (NSLDS) of student withdrawals. This may change their loan deferment status with their loan servicer(s).
Professional Judgment

There are some cases when the federal methodology used to determine a student's eligibility does not reflect the student's current situation. In these cases, special circumstances may be taken into consideration. Students with extenuating circumstances (i.e. loss of employment, divorce, death of parent/spouse, etc.) should contact the office to review their specific situation with a counselor. If a student presents extenuating circumstances, an appeal can be submitted to include support documentation for review. The appeal will be reviewed and a decision will be made through the Professional Judgment review process. Detailed information can be found at: ucf.edu/financial-aid/receive/professional-judgement.

Repeated Coursework

Federal regulations state that students may only receive federal financial aid funding for one repetition of a previously passed course. As a result, any repeated course/s that the student enrolls in (current or future terms) cannot be used in the calculation of his/her enrollment level for financial aid purposes for that particular term, regardless of whether or not financial aid was received for the course(s). The repeated course(s), including the original attempt, must be counted towards maximum time frame and hours completion ratio requirements for Satisfactory Academic Progress purposes, which can impact a student's financial aid eligibility. For detailed information, visit ucf.edu/financial-aid/policies/repeat-coursework.

Maximum Time Limitation on Direct Subsidized Loan Eligibility

There is a limit on the maximum period of time an undergraduate student can receive Direct Subsidized loans. First time Federal Direct loan borrowers on or after July 1, 2013, are subject to a maximum time period (measured in academic years) to receive Federal Direct Subsidized Loans. In general, students may not receive Direct Subsidized Loans for more than 150% of the published length of their program of study. This time limit does not apply to Direct Unsubsidized Loans or Direct PLUS Loans. Visit our website for more information.

Excess Hours Surcharge

In 2009, the Florida Legislature implemented Section 1009.286, Florida Statutes to encourage students to complete their baccalaureate degree as quickly and efficiently as possible and established an excess hours surcharge. The bill requires universities to add a surcharge to each credit hour taken in excess of the total number of credit hours required to complete the degree being pursued. The amount in excess of the total hours is calculated based on a percentage defined in statute and is referred to by UCF as baseline hours limit. The amount charged per credit hour is a calculated amount referred to as the excess hour surcharge.

The financial aid office cannot increase students cost of attendance as a result of being charged the excess hour surcharge nor can federal financial aid be used to pay for this charge. State, institutional, and private funding can, however, pay this charge. The excess hour surcharge is a state statute and should not be confused with the federal SAP standards. Students are encouraged to meet regularly with their academic advisors to map out a timely completion of their degree. For more information, please refer to registrar.ucf.edu/excess-hours.

The Office of Undergraduate Admissions at the University of Central Florida coordinates the admission and enrollment of all undergraduate first-time-in-college, transfer, non-degree, and non-Florida public institution transient students to the university. The office's primary mission is to identify, attract, and enroll talented, diverse, and academically qualified students who will contribute to, achieve growth and success at, and benefit from attending the University of Central Florida.

The Office of Undergraduate Admissions seeks to attract students who are motivated, creative, and committed to academic excellence. The office will accomplish this through personal contacts, strategic communication, information management, and targeted recruitment. The office is dedicated to providing quality customer service through effective teamwork and through the development of collaborative partnerships with both internal and external communities.

The office administers several programs for prospective students and parents, including daily tours and information sessions, "Knight for a Day" open houses, area receptions for admitted students, and high school and Florida College System institution visits by admission representatives. It also provides the opportunity to meet one-on-one with an admission representative on campus. Please visit our website for further information. Office hours are Monday/Thursday 9 a.m.-6 p.m. and Tuesday/Wednesday/Friday 9 a.m.-5 p.m.

Campus Visit Experience

Information sessions and campus tours are available through our "Campus Visit Experience". All freshmen (First-Time-In-College: FTIC) and transfer prospective students and their families are encouraged to participate. The Campus Visit Experience, which includes both an information session and tour of the campus, begins at the Duke Energy UCF Welcome Center at 10 a.m. and 2 p.m., Monday through Friday, except holidays. Reservations can be made by visiting our website at admissions.ucf.edu. "Transfer To Be A Knight" information sessions are held for prospective transfer students on select days throughout the year. Visit admissions.ucf.edu/transferknights for more information. Special requests may be accommodated and can be requested by visiting our website.

Admissions representatives are available to discuss particular concerns about admission to the University. You may contact the Office of Undergraduate Admissions at 407-823-3000 or visit us at our website. Information sessions and campus tours are also available for students interested in our UCF Downtown Campus and our Rosen College of Hospitality Management Campus. Go to https://www.ucf.edu/admissions/undergraduate/visit/ to schedule a visit.

Application for Admission

All interested applicants should complete the University of Central Florida "Undergraduate Admissions Application" online at admissions.ucf.edu and submit the $30 (in U.S. Currency), non-refundable application fee. First-Time-In-College (FTIC) students can also apply using the Common Application at http://www.commonapp.org. Students should apply several months in advance of an anticipated start date and provide a completed file by the published application deadline. Questions concerning admission requirements and applications can be forwarded to admission@ucf.edu.

Applications for admission can be submitted up to one year prior to the start of the term desired. The application deadlines are May 1 for the Fall semester (July 1 for Transfer students), November 1 for the Spring semester, and March 1 for the Summer term. The priority deadline for most financial assistance and scholarships is December 1. Information regarding University housing can be found at housing.ucf.edu. Applicants can apply for housing once they are offered admission to the University. Requests for housing are subsequently reviewed according to the date of the receipt of the housing application. The University does not discriminate based on race, color, ethnicity, national origin, religion, non-religion, age, genetic information, sex (including pregnancy, parental status, gender identity or expression, and sexual orientation), marital status, physical or mental disability (including learning disabilities, intellectual disabilities, and past or present history of mental illness), political affiliations, veteran status (as protected under the Vietnam Era Veterans' Readjustment Assistance Act), or membership in any other protected classes as set forth in state or federal law.

Applicants should understand that this Undergraduate Catalog outlines minimum requirements to be considered for admission and that admission to the University is competitive. The satisfaction of minimum requirements does not guarantee admission. Conversely, Florida Department of Education policy allows the University to admit students to any semester as exceptions to the minimum requirements. The Office of Undergraduate Admissions and the Admissions and Standards Committee are responsible for the admission of all undergraduate students under this exception policy.

Applicants must submit official transcripts from each educational institution attended to the Office of Undergraduate Admissions. Applicants must likewise submit official score reports for credit earned from each appropriate testing agency (e.g. AICE, AP, CLEP, or IB). To be considered official, supporting admissions documents must be received directly from the issuing institution or testing agency. All final supporting documents must be received by the Office of Undergraduate Admission no later than six (6) days after the first day of classes.

Note: Furnishing false or fraudulent statements in connection with an application for admission or residency declaration may result in disciplinary action, denial of admission, loss of financial aid, and invalidation of credits or degrees earned.

Those enrolled students who have not submitted official completed records by the deadline will be placed on administrative hold. Students with these incomplete records will not be permitted to register for a future term until all official transcripts and other required documentation have been received. If, upon review of final transcripts, student records are not satisfactory, they may be placed on academic probation, have their admission status revoked, changed to non-degree or transient status, may become ineligible for financial assistance, and may, in some cases, be withdrawn from the University. In addition to the required documentation mentioned above, students must have a satisfactory conduct record at all schools attended.

The University of Central Florida participates in the National Council for State Authorization Reciprocity Agreements. More information regarding geographical authorizations and restrictions is available at registrar.ucf.edu/restrictions.

Reactivation

Students who have submitted an application for admission to UCF as a degree-seeking student and do not attend, may reactivate the original application within one year of the term for which they first applied. To update the application, students should complete the Reactivation Form by the published application deadline date. This form can be found online at admissions.ucf.edu/forms. This process reactivates the application only; additional official credentials may be required. Admission for one term does not guarantee admission for a future term.

Limited Access Programs

Admission to the University does not guarantee admission to a limited access program. Some majors at the University limit the number of students who may enroll. Limited access status occurs when student demand exceeds available resources (e.g., faculty, instructional facilities, equipment) or when specific accrediting requirements apply. Criteria for admission are selective and include indicators of ability and indicators of performance, creativity, or talent to complete required work within the program.

Orientation

All first-time undergraduate degree-seeking students are required to attend orientation prior to enrollment. Orientation information is emailed to all FTIC students offered admission who have submitted their enrollment deposit and to all transfer students offered admission to the University. Information regarding orientation may also be viewed on the website at orientation.ucf.edu.

Admission Categories

Students may submit applications to the University for one of the following categories:

1. Freshman (First-Time-In-College: FTIC)
2. Dual Enrollment/Early Admission (includes early admission and dual enrollment, on- or off-campus)
3. Transfer*
4. Second Bachelor's Degree
5. Transient (one term enrollment only, not from a Florida public institution)
6. Non-Degree Seeking (not including students who have already earned a bachelor degree)
7. Limited Non-Degree Seeking*
8. Special Non-Degree Seeking (includes students participating in specific non-degree seeking programs including ROTC, Study Abroad only, Marching Band only, and Rosen College exchange programs)

*Transfer students with 60 semester hours or more may also designate one of many UCF Connect sites as well as a UCF Online-only program. Please refer to the application.

Students applying as transient from a Florida public institution should apply through Florida Shines at http://www.floridashines.org.

Students who have already earned a bachelor degree and wish to attend as non-degree seeking should follow the procedure through our Graduate Admissions Office located at admissions.graduate.ucf.edu/nondegree_applicants.

*Please see the "Academic Regulations and Procedures" section of this catalog for this admission category.

Freshman Applicants

Any FTIC student who meets minimum admission requirements as stated in Florida Board of Governors Regulation 6.002 is encouraged to submit an application. Meeting these minimum requirements does not guarantee admission. An applicant's total high school record (including grades, test scores, educational objective, quality of courses completed, essay, and personal achievements and honors) will be considered in the selection process. The University reaffirms its Equal Educational Opportunity (EEO) commitments and seeks to increase diversity among the student body.

High School Diploma

Freshmen who are applying for admission to the University are required to have a standard high school diploma (or the equivalent) or a General Equivalency Diploma (GED).

Entrance Examination Scores

All FTIC applicants for admission must submit test scores from the SAT Reasoning Test, redesigned SAT (rSAT) or the ACT. UCF superscores both the SAT and the ACT.

High School Academic Units and Grade Point Average

All applicants must have earned a minimum number of high school academic units (year-long courses that are not remedial in nature) to be considered for admission. A grade point average (GPA) will be computed only on academic courses. Plus(+) and minus(-) will not be included in the high school GPA recalculation. Grades in International Baccalaureate (IB), Advanced Placement (AP), Cambridge Advanced International Certificate of Education (AICE), honors and dual enrollment courses will be given additional weight in the computation of the academic GPA. The high school academic unit requirements are as follows:

Applicant Eligibility

As stated in Florida Board of Governors Regulation 6.002, an FTIC student shall be considered as meeting minimum SUS eligibility requirements in one of the following ways:

1. A 3.00 or higher high school grade point average (GPA) on a 4.00 scale as calculated by the university, presenting an official SAT and/or ACT score, and meeting all high school academic unit requirements above.

2. A 2.50-2.99 high school grade point average (GPA) on a 4.00 scale as calculated by the university, presenting an official SAT and/or ACT score, meeting the requirements for college-level placement per Board of Governors Regulation 6.008 below and all high school academic unit requirements above.

Each state university reserves the right under Florida BOG regulation 6.002 to establish admission criteria that exceeds Florida BOG minimums.

- Admission to the University is limited by space availability. The degree of competition for space depends on the number and qualifications of those who apply for admission. To increase the chance of admission, high school students should present credentials that are stronger than the minimum requirements for consideration as listed above. If the number of qualified applicants exceeds the number that the University is able to enroll, a waiting list will be established.
- A student applying for admission who does not meet established requirements may bring to the University other important attributes or special talents and may be admitted if, upon appeal and in the judgment of the Admissions and Standards Committee, the student can be expected to do successful academic work. The University will provide appropriate advising for each student admitted under this alternative.
- Students who have been enrolled in dual enrollment courses will be required to have a minimum "C" average (2.0 GPA) for all completed dual enrollment course work.
- A student must demonstrate competency of foreign language or American Sign Language equivalent to the second high school level or higher (Spanish 2, Haitian Creole 2, etc.) or at the elementary 2 level in one foreign language or American Sign Language at an undergraduate institution to be offered admission.

Dual Enrollment/Early Admission Applicants

High School students who have demonstrated exceptional academic ability may be permitted to enroll as university students while completing their high school programs. There are three types of dual enrollment programs:

1. Early Admission is for students who have typically completed their junior year in high school and would like to enroll at the University as full-time students for their senior year of high school to complete their high school graduation requirements. Students must submit an application for admission by the published application deadline date. In addition, the following information is required:
   - official copy of high school transcript(s);
   - official copy of SAT Reasoning Test, redesigned SAT (rSAT), or ACT; and
   - Completed Early Admission/Dual Enrollment Authorization Form

2. Dual Enrollment On-Campus is for students who desire to dual enroll on a part-time basis, taking one or two courses on campus, while completing their high school course work. Students must submit an application for admission by the published application deadline date, as well as all items listed above. Additional documentation may be required.
3. Dual Enrollment Off-Campus is for students whose high schools sponsor on-site courses at specific high schools. Students earn both high school and college credit for successful completion of course work. Each respective high school selects students who are eligible to participate in these programs. Contact your high school guidance office for detailed information.

Transfer Applicants

Any Transfer student who meets minimum admission requirements as stated in Florida Board of Governors Regulation 6.004 is encouraged to submit an application. Students should apply online at admissions.ucf.edu and arrange to have official transcripts sent from all colleges attended. The Office of Undergraduate Admissions computes a grade point average (GPA) for each institution attended, as well as a cumulative GPA on all college courses attempted. This computation does recognize plus or minus grades and only recognizes grade forgiveness when it is used as part of an awarded statewide articulated Associate in Science degree or an Associate in Arts degree from a Florida public institution. Applicants must have a cumulative minimum GPA of 2.0 as well as a minimum GPA of 2.0 and be in good standing as a degree-seeking student at the last institution attended to be considered for admission to UCF. Meeting these minimum requirements does not guarantee admission.

Transfer students are required to complete at least 30 hours in residence at UCF to earn a bachelor's degree. In addition, students must complete 48 hours in residence at UCF to be eligible to receive baccalaureate honors recognition at the time of graduation.

Transfer Applicants with Fewer Than 60 Credit Hours

Transfers with less than 30 transferrable semester hours: Must minimally meet all requirements listed in the Freshman Applicants section above. They must also have at least a 2.0 GPA on a 4.0 system for all college-level academic courses attempted and be in good standing (minimum 2.0 GPA) and eligible to return as a degree-seeking student to the last institution attended. Meeting these minimum requirements does not guarantee admission.

Transfers with 30 or more but less than 60 transferrable semester hours: Must minimally have successfully completed (C or higher) at least one English Composition course and one college level mathematics course that consists of three (3) semester credit hours, as well as demonstrated foreign language competency equivalent to the second high school level or the elementary 2 level at an undergraduate institution. They must have at least a 2.0 GPA on a 4.0 system for all college-level academic courses attempted and be in good standing (minimum 2.0 GPA) and eligible to return as a degree-seeking student to the last institution attended. Meeting these minimum requirements does not guarantee admission.

Transfer Applicants with an A.A. Degree from a Florida Public Institution

Admission of Associate in Arts (A.A.) degree graduates from Florida College System institutions and Florida state universities is governed by the Articulation Agreement between the state universities and Florida College System institutions of Florida, as approved by the State Department of Education. The agreement states: The associate in arts degree is the basic transfer degree of the Florida College System institutions. It is the primary basis for admission of transfer students from Florida College System institutions to upper division study in a state university. Every associate in arts graduate of a Florida College System institution shall be granted admission to an upper division program consistent with Section 1007.23, F.S. Admission to each student's preferred public postsecondary institution or program is not guaranteed.

Any student admitted without demonstrated competency in a foreign language or American Sign Language equivalent to the second high school level or the elementary 2 level at an undergraduate institution must satisfy the admission requirement prior to graduation. Florida College System institution Associate in Arts graduates are guaranteed the following rights under the Statewide Articulation Agreement (State DOE Rule 6A-10.024):

1. Admission to one of the twelve state universities, except to "limited access" programs (programs that have additional admission requirements);
2. Acceptance of at least 60 credit hours by the state universities toward the baccalaureate degree;
3. Transfer of equivalent courses under the statewide Course Numbering System;
4. Acceptance by the state universities of credit earned in accelerated programs (e.g., CLEP, AP, PEP, Dual Enrollment, Early Admission, and International Baccalaureate);
5. No additional General Education Core requirements;
6. Advanced knowledge of selection criteria for limited access programs; and
7. Equal opportunity with native university students to enter limited programs.

Should any guarantee be denied, students have the right of appeal through the Office of Undergraduate Admissions and the Admissions and Standards Committee.

Transfer Applicants - More Than 60 Hours, Have Not Received an A.A. Degree from a Florida Public Institution

Undergraduate transfer applicants who desire to be admitted as upper division students must have met, at least, all of the following requirements:

- A minimum of a 2.0 GPA and 60 credit hours of academic course work;
- The English and Mathematics requirements of the Gordon Rule; and,
- Demonstrated competency at the elementary 2 level in one foreign language or American Sign Language at an undergraduate institution. This requirement applies to those students without the required demonstrated proficiency equivalent to the second high school level.

Meeting these minimum requirements does not guarantee admission.

Second Bachelor's Degree Applicants

Second Bachelor's Degree applications are processed by the Undergraduate Admissions Office or the Registrar's Office. Guidelines for which office students should make application to are outlined as follows:

- Students who have never attended the University of Central Florida as degree seeking undergraduate students must apply to the Office of Undergraduate Admissions. Students should complete the undergraduate admissions application online at admissions.ucf.edu.
- Students who have previously attended the University of Central Florida as a degree-seeking undergraduate student should apply through the Registrar's Office. These students should follow the Readmission procedure located online at registrar.ucf.edu/readmission-application.

Credits from a Previous Baccalaureate Degree

Graduates from other accredited institutions of higher education (meeting university transfer eligibility requirements) who apply for admission to work toward a second undergraduate degree must meet the regular requirements of the university (as defined in the "Undergraduate Degree Requirements" section of this Undergraduate Catalog). Students must meet all transfer GPA requirements. A baccalaureate degree or higher from another accredited institution of higher education (meeting university transfer eligibility requirements) satisfies the General Education Program requirements and also provides exemption from the foreign language requirements for admission and graduation.

Note: A baccalaureate degree or higher from a non-US institution with fewer than the equivalent of 120 credit hours will not automatically be credited as a baccalaureate degree. Students will be classified according to the number of semester credit hours earned rather than as a second-degree seeking applicant. A baccalaureate degree from a non-US institution will not automatically satisfy the General Education Program requirements. If a baccalaureate degree from an accredited institution of higher education (meeting university transfer eligibility requirements) includes credit from a non-recognized institution, the credit from the non-recognized institution may not be included as transfer credit. This would result in the transfer of less than the total number of credit hours awarded within the baccalaureate degree.

Transient Student Applicants

A student in good standing with a minimum 2.0 GPA at the last accredited institution of higher education (meeting university transfer eligibility requirements) attended who desires to enroll for one term at UCF may be considered for admission as a transient student. Such enrollment terminates at the end of one term and does not presuppose degree-seeking admission to the University. A transient student must submit an official transcript from the last institution attended. Transient student applications must be received by the appropriate application deadline. If a student's last school of attendance is a Florida public institution, they must apply through the Florida Shines website at http://www.floridashines.org. Transient students are not eligible to receive financial aid. Registration is permitted on a space-available basis. Meeting the minimum GPA requirements does not guarantee admission.
Non-Degree Seeking Applicants

A student who wishes to attend UCF, but not work toward a degree and has not already earned a bachelor's degree, must apply to the Office of Undergraduate Admissions as a non-degree seeking student. Non-degree seeking applicants must follow the same procedure and must meet the same admission requirements as transfer applicants. Please see the details on the previous page for transfer applicants. Meeting minimum admission requirements does not guarantee admission.

A student who has already earned a bachelor's degree and wishes to attend as non-degree seeking should follow the procedure through our Graduate Admissions Office located at application.graduate.ucf.edu/#/.

International Applicants

The University of Central Florida is authorized under federal law to enroll students on non-immigrant visas. All international candidates applying for admission to UCF must submit a University of Central Florida Undergraduate Admissions Application online at admissions.ucf.edu. Because of additional processing time needed for non-immigrant students joining UCF on F-1 or J-1 visas, those students should submit the application and all required academic documentation by the international application deadlines, as follows: Fall: March 1; Spring: September 1, and Summer: January 1.

The following items will be needed in order to review an application for admission. Specifics regarding which documents are required for freshman and transfer students can be found on our International Applicants page: admissions.ucf.edu/apply/international.

- UCF admission application with the required $30.00 non-refundable application fee (credit card or e-check online, check or money order in U.S. currency). The online application is available on our website at admissions.ucf.edu. First-Time-In-College (FTIC) students can also apply using the Common Application at http://www.commonapp.org.
- Students who attend/have attended an international secondary school must submit official transcripts, graduation certificates, and/or exam results of all secondary work to UCF. If you have questions regarding required documentation, please refer to the reference guide by country at ucf.edu/admissions/undergraduate/wp-content/uploads/sites/4/2018/11/Intl-Secondary-School-Credentials-Country-Reference-Guide-v.-1.0.pdf. All documentation submitted in a language other than English must be accompanied by a literal translation performed by a certified translator at the issuing institution, government agency, or by a translator certified by the American Translators Association https://www.atanet.org/clients/client_certified_translation.php.
- Official AP, IB, AICE, CLEP, CAPE, and GCE A/AS Level score reports for exams taken. CAPE and GCE AS/A-Level examinations results, not granted by Cambridge Assessment International Education, will need to be submitted for evaluation by one of these agencies: Josef Silny & Associates or World Education Services.
- If the student has attended any international universities, an English translation and evaluation of work completed at each institution will be necessary. Transcripts should be sent to one of the agencies below for a course-by-course evaluation. Please note that if 60 or more transferable credit hours have been earned at a post-secondary institution, it will not be necessary to submit the secondary school records and SAT/ACT scores. In specific instances, for applicants with 30 to less than 60 transferable credit hours, it may also be unnecessary to submit these documents as well. Please go to admissions.ucf.edu/30-or-more-fewer-than-60/ for more information.
- Demonstrated English proficiency can be evidenced by one of the following:
  - proof that the student is from a country where English is the only official language
  - establishing that a prior bachelor's, master's or doctoral degree was earned from an accredited institution of higher education (meeting university transfer eligibility requirements) in the United States
  - establishing that a prior bachelor's, master's or doctoral degree was earned from a country where English is the only official language, or a university at which English is the only official language of instruction
  - submitting a qualifying score on the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) or International English Language Testing System (IELTS). Qualifying scores for undergraduate applicants are a TOEFL computer-based score of 220, a TOEFL internet-based score of 80, a TOEFL paper-based score of 550, or an IELTS score of 6.5
  - presenting a minimum 520 EBRW rSAT score or 480 Critical Reading SAT or 20 ACT (English section)
  - completion of 4 years of English at a secondary school in the U.S.
  - completion of the English Language Institute's (ELI) level 8 or higher with a grade of a "B" or better... completion of EAP 2851 with a grade of a "C" or better or placement into ENC 1101 an onsite assessment by UCF ELI faculty qualified to administer English proficiency assessment and determining that the student is English proficient at the university level

Results of the SAT Reasoning Test, redesigned SAT (rSAT), or ACT will be required if the student has earned less than 30 credit hours of college credit and may be required if the student has earned at least 30 but less than 60 transferrable semester hours. Information regarding these examinations may be obtained from the College Board (SAT) at http://www.collegeboard.org (UCF code: 5233) or from ACT at http://www.act.org (UCF code: 0735). While there are no specific minimum score requirements for these examinations for admission, they are used in conjunction with other required credentials, and students should prepare sufficiently to achieve the highest possible score on these exams.

F-1 applicants must complete and submit required financial and immigration documents with UCF Global by the term specific deadline, including financial documents indicating financial support to cover educational and other expenses for the first year of study. These documents can be found online at https://global.ucf.edu/international-students-scholars-%20and-professionals/international-admissions/undergraduate/.

Educational Translations and Evaluations

Foreign diplomas must meet the requirements specified in Florida Statutes, section 229.814. UCF will accept evaluations of academic credit from these agencies:

Josef Silny and Associates
World Education Services

Mandatory Health Insurance for International Students on F and J Visas

Each international student on a F or J visa offered admission and dependents of J visa students shall, prior to registration for classes, submit proof of required health insurance coverage to UCF Student Health Services to comply with the State of Florida mandatory health insurance requirement for F and J students. Minimum coverage limits are posted on the Student Health Services website at studenthealth.ucf.edu. Use the link for International Students that directs you to information specific to the UCF-endorsed health insurance plan that meets all the State of Florida requirements. Proof of insurance coverage must be submitted to Student Health Services via the online submission system and may not be submitted via email.

The University reserves the right to refuse registration to any international student on F or J visa who fails to comply with this insurance requirement or who is unable to supply satisfactory proof of insurance. The University also reserves the right to withdraw from classes any international student who fails to maintain insurance coverage, cancels insurance coverage while still enrolled as a student, or avoids in any way the responsibility to comply with the insurance requirement. For questions, call UCF Student Health Services at 407-823-6295 or go to their website noted above.

Non-Academic Admission Clearances

Florida Board of Governors Regulation 6.001 (7) authorizes universities to refuse admission to applicants due to past misconduct. The University further requires the Vice President For Student Development and Enrollment Services or his/her designee to review all applications disclosing information regarding any prior criminal conviction or conduct problem at another institution and to make a decision as to whether the admission of this applicant will be in the best interest of the University. This statement describes the procedure and assigns responsibility for the review of these applications for admission. Applicants who fail to disclose any prior criminal conviction or conduct problem at another institution and such fact is subsequently discovered by the University, shall be denied admission or readmission, or may receive any other academic and/or disciplinary action prescribed by the University, including but not limited to academic dismissal.

Transfer Credit: All Applicants

All grades from an accredited institution of higher education (meeting university transfer eligibility requirements) in transfer courses that are normally part of a baccalaureate degree program are shown on the student's permanent UCF record. Effective Fall 2001, the University recognizes a grading system of plus or minus. In addition, grade forgiveness is honored only if it has been awarded as part of an AA or a specific statewide articulated AS degree from a Florida public institution. Credit is not awarded based on job descriptions, life experience, course work that is non-academic, or transfer course work from within a baccalaureate degree earned from an accredited institution of higher education that does not meet university transfer eligibility requirements.
Accredited Institutions

For the purposes of this Undergraduate Catalog, "Accredited Institutions" means those colleges and universities accredited by any of the following seven associations:

- Middle States Commission on Higher Education (MSCHE)
- New England Association of Schools and Colleges, Commission on Institutions of Higher Education (NECHE)
- North Central Association of Colleges and Schools, Higher Learning Commission (HLC)
- Northwest Commission on Colleges and Universities (NWCCU)
- Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges (SACSCOC)
- Western Association of Schools and Colleges, Accrediting Commission for Community and Junior Colleges (ACCJC)
- Western Association of Schools and Colleges, Senior College and University Commission (WSCUC)

The accreditation status of all foreign institutions must be evaluated through either Josef Silny and Associates, Inc. or World Education Services.

All college-level credits earned for which official transcripts or evaluations have been submitted will be compiled into the Transfer Credit Evaluations page in the myUCF portal. Some transfer credit may not be applicable toward graduation course requirements. The Transfer Credit Evaluations page will be the basis for constructing a Degree Audit, which applies earned credits to the intended degree program. The Degree Audit provides the student with an assessment of which degree requirements have been met and what remains to be satisfied. Although all college-level course work transferred from an accredited institution of higher education (meeting university transfer eligibility requirements) or the equivalent on an international evaluation from WES or JS&A is shown on the Transfer Credit Evaluations page and the UCF transcript, applicability of the course toward a degree requirement is determined by the college/school/department of the major that owns the course.

General Education Transfer Credits

Transfer students from a Florida College System institution or state university may satisfy the General Education Program requirements of UCF by completing the general education program prescribed by that institution. Transfer applicants with incomplete general education programs will have their credits evaluated on a course-by-course basis.

Transfer courses from a Florida state institution must have been Gordon Rule eligible at that institution during the semester when the course was taken. Transfer courses from out-of-state and private institutions must be evaluated for equivalency to a UCF Gordon Rule course.

When the transfer course work is evaluated for equivalency (usually during the first semester at UCF), course descriptions and other information to provide a sufficient basis for evaluation may be requested. Substitution requests for college or major requirements are to be submitted to the college advising office.

Credits from Private and Out-of-State Institutions

Transfer credit from private junior and senior colleges and out-of-state institutions will be evaluated on a course-by-course basis. Each student must submit the necessary petition(s) to the appropriate college/school/department of the major that owns the course to determine which courses will transfer with regard to degree progress at UCF.

Transfer courses that meet the requirements of the General Education Program and the Gordon Rule are determined through the process described in the "Undergraduate Degree Requirements" chapter of this Undergraduate Catalog. Petition procedures vary by college. Generally, the petitioning of transfer courses for satisfaction of college and major requirements should be done during the second full term of the student's residency at UCF, so that the accepted transfer courses are understood clearly by the student and the faculty advisor early in the student's tenure at UCF.

Credits from Military Service School Courses

Completed military service school courses may be evaluated on the basis of the recommendations of the American Council of Education (ACE) when official credentials have been properly presented. While credit may be granted when courses are equivalent to those offered by the University, recommendations by the ACE are not binding upon the University. Even though military records may have been evaluated by another accredited institution of higher education (meeting university transfer eligibility requirements), it is important to have official credentials sent to UCF for evaluation. Credit is not awarded for basic training. More information about Special Provisions for Veterans and Active Duty Military Students can be found here.
The University

The University of Central Florida is one of the nation's largest universities with more than 70,000 students and is located in one of the most dynamic communities in the nation — the Orlando metroplex. UCF's 1,415-acre main campus has about 600 acres set aside for lakes, woods and an arboretum.

With 13 colleges offering more than 230 degree programs, UCF is an academic and research leader in many fields, including optics and photonics, modeling and simulation, engineering, computer science, business, education, life sciences, hospitality management, digital media, and others. The College of Medicine, which graduated its first M.D. students in 2013, is the centerpiece of Medical City in Lake Nona — bustling with future doctors learning about the latest advances in healthcare, patients receiving high-quality care, and scientists seeking cures for cancer and other diseases.

Students attend classes on UCF's main campus in east Orlando, as well as at UCF's College of Medicine, UCF Downtown, the Rosen College of Hospitality Management and 15 satellite facilities throughout Central Florida. We confer more than 17,000 degrees annually, leading all other universities in Florida. Minority enrollment has reached an all-time high of 49 percent, and one of four UCF students is the first in their family to attend college.

Innovation and Value: UCF is ranked among the nation's top 20 most innovative universities by U.S. News & World Report, and the Carnegie Foundation classifies the university as a "highest research activity" institution, which is the foundation's top ranking. UCF is recognized as a best-value university by Kiplinger and the Princeton Review and one of the nation's most affordable colleges by Forbes.

Attractive Amenities: The 45,000-seat Bounce House stadium and the 10,000-seat Addition Financial Arena opened in 2007 on the campus. Nearby, Knights Plaza includes residence halls and various restaurants and retail shops that cater to students, employees and area residents.

UCF’s Recreation and Wellness Center features a three-story climbing tower, an indoor track and fitness equipment. The Student Union offers computer labs, study lounges, ballrooms and meeting rooms, popular eating establishments and a shopping mall. A state-of-the-art health center supports a full-service clinic with on-site professionals, X-ray capabilities, pharmacy, dental clinic, medical laboratory and physical-therapy services.

The Career Services and Experiential Learning building features private interview rooms, including a boardroom-style suite where cameras can record students' practice interviews.
At Technology Commons, students can test and purchase the latest computer products and produce podcasts and video presentations. A performing arts center provides music and theatre students with high-tech classrooms and rehearsal spaces.

National University to Watch: The new UCF Downtown campus in conjunction with Valencia College opened in Fall 2019. This innovative campus serves more than 7,000 students for learning and internship opportunities.

Overall, UCF ranks 46 undergraduate, graduate, and online programs and areas among the top 100 in their fields nationally, according to U.S. News & World Report. The Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation cites UCF as an example of what the future of higher education should look like. In 2018, Gates wrote that the university is succeeding by "reducing costs, boosting its graduate rate and expanding access for low-income and first-generation students."

UCF Online and Online Courses

For students looking for convenience and flexibility, UCF offers a wide selection of undergraduate majors, minors and certificates that can be completed entirely with online courses. Almost all programs have in-person course options but UCF Online provides an option for students who are interested in taking online courses exclusively. Students who choose UCF Online may not enroll in classes with scheduled in-person meetings. This includes classes coded P (in-person) instruction), RS, and M (Mixed-mode/reduced seat time).

Students enrolled as a UCF Online student are exempt from some campus-based fees and are restricted from the corresponding campus-based services such as the Recreation and Wellness Center and Student Health Services. UCF Online students do have access to all academic and support services such as financial aid, advising, library services, and career services. UCF Online students also have the support of a dedicated staff of success coaches specifically trained and enabled to meet the needs of students without regular access to UCF's physical campuses. See www.ucf.edu/online for more information. Visit ucf.edu/online/bachelors to view the full list of programs that are currently offered entirely online.

The University of Central Florida has been approved by Florida to participate in National Council for State Authorization Reciprocity Agreements. The reciprocity agreements allow for the open delivery of academic credit-earning activities in participating states, including academic field experiences such as internships or practicums. More information is available at registrar.ucf.edu/restrictions.

Online Courses

UCF offers more than 1,000 online courses to any student enrolled at UCF every semester. The online course materials and methods have been developed by UCF faculty members to maximize the learner's achievement of course and program objectives and to provide students with convenient and flexible learning opportunities.

Support for all students in online courses is available at cdl.ucf.edu/support/student/. Online courses are identified in the Class Schedule Search available at my.ucf.edu. In the Additional Search Criteria section, use the drop-down list next to Mode of Instruction to search for the values described below.

Instruction modes may be modified by attributes as described below. When using the class search feature in myUCF, view the Class Details section of the course to see which attributes apply. More information on course modalities and attributes is available at cdl.ucf.edu/support/student/modalities/ The online instruction modes are:

WORLD WIDE WEB (W): These are courses conducted via web-based instruction and collaboration. Some courses may require minimal campus attendance or in-person/proctored examinations.
VIDEO STREAMING (V): These are courses delivered over the web via streaming digital video which may be supplemented by additional web activity, projects or exams. Courses with the “live” attribute will have scheduled class meetings via video conferencing.

LIMITED ATTENDANCE (RS): Courses are primarily online in a blended format combining required in-person and online elements. In-person classroom activities may use up to 20% of the instructional time during the semester. Courses with the “live” attribute will have scheduled class meetings via video conferencing.

MIXED-MODE/REDUCED SEAT TIME (M): These courses include both required classroom attendance and online instruction. Classes have substantial activity conducted over the web, which substitutes for some classroom meetings. Courses with the “live” attribute will have scheduled class meetings via video conferencing.

Personalized Adaptive Learning (PAL): This is a class attribute that may apply to any type of course (e.g. P, W, M, RS). In a PAL course, a portion of the overall online content is delivered via an adaptive learning system that customizes objective-driven content and assessments to create a personalized learning path for each student according to their knowledge, skills, and learning needs.

UCF Downtown

(in partnership with Valencia College)
500 W. Livingston St.
Orlando, FL
407-823-3573
ucf.edu/downtown/

UCF Downtown, in partnership with Valencia College, brings more than 7,000 students to live, learn and work in downtown Orlando, creating a game-changing campus in the heart of our great city. Opened in Fall 2019, this transformational campus provides innovative education for high-demand fields that integrate with industry and places thousands of students within walking distance of jobs and internships.

The following Undergraduate Degree Programs can be completed at this location:

- Communication and Conflict (B.A.)
- Digital Media (B.A.)
- Emergency Management (B.A./B.S.)
- Health Informatics and Information Management (B.S.)
- Health Services Administration (B.S.)
- Human Communication (B.A.)
- Legal Studies (B.A./B.S.)
- Nonprofit Management (B.A./B.S.)
- Public Administration (B.A./B.S.)

Central Florida Research Park

The Central Florida Research Park, adjacent to the main UCF campus, is a University-related research park established as a result of legislation passed by the Florida Legislature in 1978. The Research Park is a cooperative... effort between UCF, the Orange County Research and Development Authority, and the Orange County Board of County Commissioners (which appoints the members of the Authority). The governing body of the Research Park is the Orange County Research and Development Authority.

The objectives of the Central Florida Research Park are in keeping with the legislative action that enabled its creation "to encourage and promote the establishment of research and development activity combining the resources of institutions of higher learning, private sector enterprise involved in pure or applied research, and state or federal governmental agency research."

The ultimate goal of University-related research parks is to establish an academic/industrial community. The University and officials of the Central Florida Research Park believe that the potential for the establishment of close ties between the University and industry will create an environment conducive to the location of research-oriented industry in the Research Park. This activity will enrich and support the academic, teaching, and research programs of the University. The University, in turn, can provide the necessary expertise and human resources to enhance the research and development activities required and planned by Research Park residents.

The Central Florida Research Park consists of over 1,000 acres of land. Businesses desiring a "university relationship" can purchase or lease land in the Research Park on which to construct a facility or can lease space for office, office/lab, or light manufacturing activities.

Research Park tenants are involved with the University of Central Florida through sponsored research, using faculty as consultants, and using graduate and undergraduate students for intern programs and part-time employment. Research Park tenants can also contract with the University for use of the library, computer resources, and laboratory facilities. Cooperative projects range from technical research to developing business plans and employee training programs.

- For help using library resources and materials, the Research and Information Desk, https://library.ucf.edu/about/departments/reference/, located on the main floor of the John C. Hitt Library, is open most library hours. Individual appointments can also be made for in-depth research consultations. These appointments provide students one-on-one time with a librarian, https://ucf.libcal.com/appointments/main.

- Ask Us is a virtual reference service that answers questions submitted through chat, text, IM, email, or phone at (407) 823-2562 or toll-free at (866) 271-7589, https://library.ucf.edu/ask/.

- The University Libraries supports the development of information literacy skills through the use of Information Literacy Modules, https://infolit.ucf.edu/. The modules provide online, just-in-time instruction for students on topics such as citing sources, evaluating websites, and plagiarism.

- Librarians have created subject-specific research guides, https://guides.ucf.edu, to help students identify resources within their discipline. Students also can access step-by-step tutorials demonstrating research strategies using library resources, recordings of research skills webinars, and a variety of other resources, https://vimeo.com/ucflibraries.

- The citation management tool EndNote is available for FREE from the UCF Libraries. Librarians also can provide assistance with Zotero and Mendeley. Citation management workshops are offered each semester, https://guides.ucf.edu/citations-endnote/workshops.

- Another key service for Graduate Students is Interlibrary Loan, Document Delivery and UBorrow. The UCF Libraries will pull books and scan articles that are owned by the library, as well as borrow materials from other libraries. For more information, call (407) 823-2383 or visit the ILL website, https://library.ucf.edu/ILL.

In collaboration with the University’s Office of Student Accessibility Services, students are eligible for Document Delivery assistance at each location by appointment by contacting the Circulation Desk. The John C. Hitt Library offers several reading and listening aid devices, including a workstation equipped with MAGic and JAWS software, and a Sorenson Videophone. More information is available at https://library.ucf.edu/services/accessibility-services.

Special Collections & University Archives houses the Libraries’ unique and rarest items from the 12th century to present day. Other Libraries

The Curriculum Materials Center (CMC) is located on the first floor of the Education Building. While the library collection primarily serves the School of Teacher Education students and faculty by providing representative PK-12 curriculum materials, all are welcome to use this inviting space to study, access computers, or use the Production Lab that hosts a laminating machine, 3-D printer and scanner, and GlowForge laser cutter. For more information visit the CMC web page at https://library.ucf.edu/cmc or call (407) 823-2791.

The Universal Orlando Foundation Library is located at the Rosen College of Hospitality Management on Universal Boulevard. The library is open to the entire UCF community as well as to hospitality industry professionals.
Its unique collection covers all facets of the hospitality and tourism industries. The library provides a wide array of services and resources, including desktop PCs, wireless devices for checkout, group study rooms, research assistance, library instruction, and interlibrary loan. For more information, visit https://library.ucf.edu/Rosen or call (407) 903-8100.

The Downtown Campus Library is located on the second floor of the Dr. Phillips Academic Commons in downtown Orlando. The library serves primarily UCF and Valencia College Downtown Campus students but is open to all users. The print collection focuses on the UCF and Valencia programs offered at the Downtown Campus, and Interlibrary Loan is available. The library has desktop computers, printing/copying/scanning, and offers research assistance and library instruction. For more information, visit http://library.ucf.edu/downtown or call (407) 235-3720.

UCF Connect Libraries

Significant Connect Campus library collections and services are available through State College partner libraries on the Cocoa, Daytona, Sanford-Lake Mary, Valencia Osceola, and Valencia West campuses. Limited collections and services may also be available at Leesburg, Ocala, Palm Bay, South Lake, and Valencia East campuses, but UCF students and faculty are advised to call ahead to these locations to verify library hours and services. All locations provide online access to library and university resources. A team of UCF Connect librarians also provide a wide range of services, either virtually or in person, including research assistance, library instruction, and more. For information about each campus library, please see: http://library.ucf.edu/about/libraries/

University Ombuds Office

Ombuds Officer: Shreya Trivedi
Millican Hall (MH) 247
407-823-6440
ombuds.ucf.edu

The Ombuds Office is an informal, impartial, independent and confidential resource for all members of the University community. It is not an office of notice of wrongdoing and cannot participate in any formal grievance or appeal process. The office provides assistance and guidance regarding concerns related to the University. These services are available to every member of the University community: students, staff, faculty, and others. Any type of concern may be brought to the attention of this office: academic, financial, housing, consumer, work-related, or personal. The University Ombuds Officer, as a neutral facilitator, will listen to concerns and assist visitors by developing a range of options in an informal attempt to achieve resolution. Referral and direction to appropriate individuals and offices and clarification of University policies and procedures are services provided by the office. All proceedings in individual cases will be held confidential by the Ombuds Office unless otherwise authorized by the complainant, or otherwise required by applicable law, including without limitation, Chapter 119, Florida Statutes. The University Ombuds Office is located in Millican Hall, Suite 243, Room 247. Appointments may be made by calling 407-823-6440.

UCF Public Safety and Police

Chief of Police: Carl Metzger
3610 Libra Drive, Building 150
Orlando, FL 32816
407-823-5555 or 911 for emergencies police.ucf.edu

The UCF Police Department (UCFPD) has a big job in keeping UCF's campuses safe.

Established in 1973, UCFPD currently employs about 80 sworn law enforcement officers who provide police services on the main campus and at UCF Downtown, Rosen College of Hospitality Management and the UCF College of Medicine, as well as at two university-affiliated housing communities.

UCFPD is an accredited, full-service police department with the mission of reducing crime by providing a safe environment for students, faculty, staff, and visitors through the application of community policing. This means hiring officers and staff who fit our university; providing them with the finest training, equipment and leadership; and partnering with the campus community to achieve our safety and security goals.

Crime is a reality everywhere, including UCF. To combat this, UCFPD offers several crime prevention programs for the community, including providing safe transportation after hours, self-defense classes, free property registration and two designated parking spots in front of the Police Department for safe e-commerce exchanges.

UCF Alerts will notify the UCF community of an emergency — such as severe weather, criminal activity, an active shooter or a bomb threat — and provide general instructions. Depending on the nature of the emergency, follow-up alerts will contain more detailed information.

More frequent updates will typically be shared on social media on UCFPD and UCF's Twitter accounts, @UCFPolice and @UCF. Current UCF students, faculty and staff are automatically enrolled to receive UCF Alerts, and contact information can be updated via myUCF.

For more information about public safety at UCF, visit ucf.edu/safety.

Information Technologies and Resources

Vice President and CIO: Matthew Hall
Millican Hall (MH) 331D
407-823-6778
itr.ucf.edu

The Division of Information Technologies and Resources has University-wide responsibility for planning, implementation, and support of information technology and the allocation and administration of space. Units within the Division include the Library, UCF IT, Information Security and Space Administration. The services and resources of each unit are described in the following sections.

Information Security Office

Associate Vice President & Chief Information Security Officer: Chris Vakhordjian
College of Sciences Building (CSB)
407-823-3863
infosec.ucf.edu

The Information Security Office (InfoSec) promotes best practices through security awareness, online resources, targeted workshops, regular security awareness programs, as well as by publishing policies, standards, and guidelines. InfoSec designs, implements and maintains an information security program that protects the confidentiality, integrity, and availability of the University's data, information systems, processes, and services.

InfoSec collaborates with UCF IT, administration, faculty, staff and students to develop security policies, standards, and best practices to help protect university and personal assets.

InfoSec and the Security Incident Response Team (SIRT) are available to facilitate and provide guidance with any computer security incidents that affect university IT resources or threaten the availability, confidentiality, and integrity of university information. All security incidents involving restricted data or confidential information must be reported immediately to SIRT at sirt@ucf.edu, or through the UCF IT Support Center at 407-823-5117.

Space Administration

Director, Space Planning: Christy Miranda-Perez
Space Administration facilitates the university's space request and allocation process, maintains an accurate space inventory for internal and external reporting purposes, and provides analyses and information that support the instructional, research, and administrative space needs of the university and its respective colleges and divisions. SA works closely with UCF Facilities Planning and Construction and the Registrar’s Office.

UCF IT

Associate Vice President & IT Chief Operating Officer: Michael Sink
College of Sciences Building (CSB)
407-823-2711
it.ucf.edu

As the main provider of information technology resources, UCF IT provides all telecommunications services (voice and data), enterprise administrative systems and support to the UCF community including:

- Campus telephone system
- Campus local area network
- Campus wide area network
- Campus wireless network
- Cable TV
- Computer labs (e.g., Technology Commons I and II)
- Technology Product Center
- Data center operations and system administration
- Email
- Document imaging services
- Enterprise administrative data processing services
- PeopleSoft ERP (SA/HR, Portal, CRM) development
- Identity management/domain services

Technology Commons is a centrally located hub for students to study, create and play. Students can meet in groups in one of three collaboration rooms, take advantage of the computer labs and rental equipment available, or browse the Technology Product Center, the official UCF computer store, for recommended computer needs with educational pricing. Also, located in Technology Commons is the Student Support Desk. Stop by for any technology related or general issues.

Students can get help from UCF IT by phone, email, live chat, technical support ticket, or knowledge database: visit it.ucf.edu/student-support for all these options.

Intercollegiate Athletics

Vice President and Director: Terry Mohajir
Roth Athletics Center
UCFKnights.com

The University of Central Florida, a member of the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA), Division I, competes in 16 sports and is a member of the American Athletic Conference. UCF's intercollegiate sports for men include baseball, basketball, golf, football, soccer and tennis. Women's sports include basketball, cross country, golf, rowing, soccer, softball, outdoor and indoor track and field, tennis and volleyball.

UCF's athletics teams are successful on the field, in the classroom and in our community.

The Knights have a record-setting streak of 29 consecutive semesters with a department grade-point average of 3.0 or better.

Currently in their 10th season of membership in the American Athletic Conference, the Knights have won AAC titles

During the past seven years, UCF student-athletes have contributed a total of more than 40,000 hours of community service in the Central Florida region and around the world.

Graduation Rate Disclosure

The completion or graduation rate is the rate at which full-time, certificate-seeking or degree-seeking undergraduate students who are enrolling for the first time at the institution, and who have not previously enrolled at any other institution of higher education, graduate from their programs. The 6-year graduation rate for the Summer-Fall 2015 full-time cohort is 74.9 percent. The retention rate for Summer-Fall full-time 2020 students is 91.8 percent. The information is public and available for review on the Institutional Knowledge Management website.

Addition Financial Arena, The Venue and Knights Plaza

The Addition Financial Arena is the largest entertainment and sports facility in East Orlando. With seating for 10,000 fans, it is home to UCF Men's and Women's basketball, university and high school graduation ceremonies, and a diverse lineup of world-famous entertainers, beloved family shows and festivities rivaling any in the country.

Nestled on the north side of the Addition Financial Arena, The Venue is a more intimate space showcasing special events and UCF Women's Volleyball.

Knights Plaza, a living-learning community on the north end of UCF's main campus is the home of the Addition Financial Arena and The Venue, features an exciting mix of student apartments, garages, services, shops and dining. Come early and stay late. Parking and Transportation Services

Director: Kris Singh Visitor and Parking Information Center (VPI) parking.ucf.edu
407-823-1371
krishna.singh@ucf.edu

The Parking and Transportation Services department offers a variety of transportation options to, from, and around the campus.

The UCF Shuttle provides transit needs for students residing in 22 off-campus apartment communities, as well as numerous locations in the Central Florida Research Park. Normal operating hours range from 6:30 a.m.-10 p.m. UCF also has an intra-campus shuttle service called Pegasus Express that operates continuously from 7 a.m.-7 p.m. during the fall and spring semesters, and from 7 a.m.-4 p.m. during the summer terms.

An inter-campus transportation service is provided between the UCF main campus and the Rosen College of Hospitality Management. It makes 10 round-trip runs between 6:45 a.m. and 9 p.m., Monday through Friday, during the fall and spring semesters, and six round-trip runs between 8 a.m. and 7 p.m. during the summer semester. Service is also provided between UCF main campus and the Health Sciences Campus. Shuttles provide 14 round trips between 7:20 a.m. and 10:45 p.m., Monday through Friday. The latest addition is an inter-campus service between UCF’s main campus and the UCF downtown campus. It makes 16 round trips between 6:30 a.m. and 10:30 p.m. Monday through Thursday, and 14 roundtrips between 6:30 a.m. and 8:30 p.m. on Fridays. Arrivals and departures can be tracked via UCF mobile application or m.ucf.edu/shuttles/routes.

These services are complimentary to all UCF students, faculty, and staff members, and operate on all class days, including exam weeks. Please refer to the webpage at parking.ucf.edu/Shuttle.html or call 407-823-2131 for detailed information.

In addition, three LYNX bus routes, Links 13, 434 and 104, serve the UCF campus from Oviedo, Downtown Orlando, Valencia College, and East campus. UCF students, staff and faculty can ride Lynx’s buses free to any destination in Central Florida with the simple showing of their UCF ID. Commuters may connect to most anywhere in the Greater Orlando area. The LYNX buses normally operate at 30 to 60-minute intervals. Route maps may be obtained at the UCF Visitors and Parking Information Center and the information kiosk at the Student Union.

Further details, including rates and information on special passes, may be obtained by calling LYNX at 407-841-8240, or from their website, http://golynx.com.

Founded in 1969, the UCF Foundation, Inc., is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization that encourages, stewards and celebrates charitable contributions from alumni and friends to support the University of Florida.

Led by a volunteer board of directors and staffed by more than 130 professionals including development officers, information experts, accountants, communicators and more, today's foundation works with donors to the University of Central Florida to help them maximize the impact of all philanthropic gifts. Gifts are used to fund student scholarships, invest in faculty excellence, construct new facilities and expand important programs.

Directed by a volunteer board and staffed by more than 100 professionals, including fundraising officers, information experts, accountants, communicators and more, the foundation works to inform and engage current and prospective donors in strengthening UCF through private philanthropy.

In June 2019, UCF completed a multi-year fundraising effort — IGNITE: The Campaign for UCF. Focused on three key areas — student success, academic excellence, and growth and opportunity — the support of alumni, friends and corporate partners helped the university to raise more than $531 million over an eight-year period.
In 2022, UCF Advancement created a unique opportunity for donors to co-invest with UCF in creating endowments for programs that support student success, scholars’ programs and faculty excellence: the UCF Challenge. Leveraging the $40 million gift made in 2021 by MacKenzie Scott and Dan Jewett, the university co-invests with donors for qualified endowments of $250,000 or more to create immediate impact while the endowment is established. The UCF Challenge initiative is one example of the strategic approach used to advance UCF through philanthropy.

Glossary
A.A.: Associate of Arts degree. A degree designed for transfer to an upper division college or university. A Florida A.A. degree satisfies General Education (GEP) at all Florida SUS Schools.

Accreditation: certification that the college/school or program has met established standards and is nationally recognized by appropriate accrediting agencies.

ACT: American College Testing program is used for undergraduate admission purposes.

Add: online procedure used to alter class schedules after registration. During this time, students can adjust their schedules through myUCF (my.ucf.edu) by adding courses.

Arts and Humanities: College of Arts and Humanities (CAH).

A.S.: associate in science degree. A broad-based degree designed to prepare students to enter a wide variety of careers.

ASSA: Academic Services for Student-Athletes.

Audit (course): to attend classes without receiving academic credit.

Audit (degree): computerized summary of progress toward completion of degree requirements to be used with academic advising and registration. Available from myUCF at my.ucf.edu. (See also "Degree Audit").

BA: Business Administration. This abbreviation appears in the listing of courses and refers to the College of Business Administration (CBA). Also see Bachelors Degree.

Baccalaureate or Bachelor's Degree: completion of all University and major graduation requirements as certified by the University (i.e., B.A. is the Bachelor of Arts degree, and B.S. is the Bachelor of Science degree).

BHC: Burnett Honors College.

Breaking Catalog: loss of eligibility to follow graduation requirements in a specific catalog.

BSBS: Burnett School of Biomedical Sciences within the College of Medicine.

Business: College of Business Administration (CBA).

CAH: College of Arts and Humanities.
Catalog: resource for UCF academic policies and procedures, college/school and degree requirements, course descriptions and faculty listings. It is published annually and its contents are subject to change. Available online at catalog.ucf.edu/index.php.

Catalog Year: the edition of the University catalog that governs graduation requirements for a particular academic year.

CBA: College of Business Administration.

CCIE: College of Community Innovation and Education.

CECS: College of Engineering and Computer Science.

CHPS: College of Health Professions and Sciences.

Certificate: special program of study supplemental to a major.

CI: consent of instructor.

Class Schedule Search: a component of the online myUCF system (at my.ucf.edu) that lists courses and class sections offered each academic term.

College: collection of related academic departments. There are thirteen colleges at UCF: Burnett Honors College (BHC), Arts and Humanities (CAH), Business Administration (CBA), Community Innovation and Education (CCIE), Engineering and Computer Science (CECS), Graduate Studies, College of Human Professions and Sciences (CHPS), Medicine (COM), Nursing (CON), Optics and Photonics (CREOL), Sciences (COS), Undergraduate Studies, and Rosen College of Hospitality Management (RCHM).

COM: College of Medicine.

Common Course Numbering: the statewide course numbering system (SCNS) uses a course designation that consists of a 3-letter prefix and a 4-digit number and when necessary a one-letter laboratory (L) or lecture/laboratory (C) suffix.

Common Program Prerequisite: the State of Florida has identified Common Program Prerequisites for all University programs. These prerequisites must be completed by all students entering that field of study, must be accepted by all state universities and must be applied towards the degree.

CON: College of Nursing.

Contact hours: number of hours students meet in class.
Continuous Enrollment: enrollment not interrupted by non-attendance for either consecutive Fall and Spring terms, or consecutive Spring, Summer term, and Fall.

COS: College of Sciences.

CR: co-requisite is an additional course in which you must enroll during the same term as the primary course you desire to take.

Credit Hour: A unit of measurement representing the amount of work associated with courses. One college credit is based on the learning expected from the equivalent of fifteen 50-minute periods of classroom instruction. UCF’s complete definition is published in the policy section of the catalog.

CREOL: College of Optics and Photonics.

Degree Audit: a computerized degree audit that lists courses completed toward major and degree requirements.

Diploma: official certificate displaying earned degree, major and baccalaureate honors.

Directory Information: certain information concerning students that may be released to anyone upon request. Directory information at UCF includes: name, current mailing address, telephone number, date of birth, major field of study, dates of attendance, enrollment status, degrees and awards received, participation in officially registered activities and sports, athletes' height and weight.

Disqualified: a student on academic probation who fails to achieve a minimum 2.0 UCF GPA during a subsequent term is disqualified. A student who is disqualified may not enroll at the University for two terms following disqualification. Readmission after two terms is not automatic.

Distributed Learning, Center of: serves as the central agent for online learning at UCF, providing leadership in distance learning policies, strategies, and practices.

Double Major: awarded when the student concurrently satisfies requirements for two majors.

Drop/swap: a student may drop or swap a course(s) during the official Drop/Swap period. A dropped course will not appear on the student's permanent record. Students are not fee liable for dropped courses.

Elective: any course not required as part of the General Education Program or as part of your major/minor.

Engineering: College of Engineering and Computer Science (CECS).

Email: primary official means of communication with students regarding University business and information.
Enrollment: the act of registering in classes. This may be done through myUCF at my.ucf.edu and, in limited circumstances, at the colleges' advising offices.

Enrollment Certification: an official University document that provides a student's enrollment history including status, dates enrolled, and degrees awarded, available online at my.ucf.edu in Student Self Service.

Equipment Fee: a charge associated with some majors to cover the use and replacement of equipment.

Excess Credit Hour Surcharge: a surcharge to each credit hour taken in excess of the total number of credit hours required to complete the degree being pursued. The amount in excess of the total hours is calculated based on a percentage defined in statute and is referred to by the University of Central Florida as baseline hours limit.

Excluded: a student readmitted following disqualification who fails to achieve a minimum 2.0 GPA during a subsequent term is excluded from the University. Students are not eligible for readmission after exclusion. See "Readmission" for details.

Fee Invoice: a printout of courses for which the student has registered that lists each specific course, its meeting time(s) and day(s). The amount of tuition and fees due for all courses registered and the payment deadline date also is indicated. Available online at my.ucf.edu in Student Self Service.

Freshman and Sophomore Courses: lower level courses with common course numbers ranging from 1000-2999 (e.g., ENC 1101 - Composition I). Generally, freshmen should enroll in 1000 and 2000 level courses.

FTIC: abbreviation for "First Time In College," referring to those students who currently are in their first term as a UCF college student after high school.

Full-Time Course Load: for undergraduates, a minimum of 12 credits in the fall and spring and summer terms.

FYE: First Year Experience.

GEP: General Education Program: Specific courses required for all UCF degree programs providing skills and knowledge in general subject areas essential to continued learning and success, not only in college but throughout the student's life.

Gordon Rule: requires students to complete four composition courses (12 semester hours) and two courses (six semester hours) of mathematics at the level of college algebra or higher. Each course must be completed with a grade of "C-" (1.75) or better.

GPA: Grade Point Average: the average number of grade points per semester hour attempted. GPA is computed by dividing the total number of grade points assigned by the total number of semester hours attempted, less hours resulting from NC, W, WP, S, U, and I grades.
Grade Forgiveness: refers to when a course taken at UCF is repeated, and for grade point average purposes, the grade earned in the first attempt is replaced by the grade earned in the second attempt at UCF (may be used only twice in the student’s academic career).

Grade Point Deficiency: for readmission purposes only, this term is defined as the number of UCF credit hours earned with a "B" (3.0 GPA) grade that a student requires to raise his or her UCF cumulative grade point average to 2.0. A student's grade point deficiency is calculated when the student applies for readmission.

Health Form: documentation of immunity for measles and rubella, as well as consent for treatment at the University Health Center (must be completed and returned to Student Health Services prior to the first registration).

Hold: also called a "negative service indicator", this is a block on activity for transcripts, grades, diploma, or registration because of financial or other obligations to UCF.

Incomplete: grade assigned by the instructor when a student is unable to complete a course due to extenuating circumstances. Must be completed in 12 months or by graduation, whichever comes first.

Junior and Senior Courses: upper level courses with common course numbers ranging from 3000- 4999 (e.g., ENG 3311, Advanced Expository Writing).

Kiosk: stand-alone PCs located in UCF public areas providing access to student records and general information.

KMETC: Knights Major Exploration and Transition Center

Limited Access: a major that has additional admission requirements (e.g. early application date, a separate application, or specific GPA requirements). Certain academic programs designated as "limited access" only guarantee admission to a limited number of applicants.

Lower Level Courses: courses with a number of 1000-2999 (not less than 1000).

Major: group of related courses that constitute a focused program of study in a specific area of knowledge.

MASS: Multicultural Academic and Support Services

Material and Supply Fee: a charge associated with some courses to cover items consumed within the class.

Matriculation: enrollment and attendance your initial term at UCF. Can be as an admitted, degree-seeking student or as a non-degree seeking student.

MEP: Major Exploration Program to assist students who are undecided about a major.
Minor: a complement to a bachelor's degree program/major requiring at least 18 credit hours in a field.

mySchedule Builder: a course scheduling tool designed to allow students to plan their class schedules around their life commitments. It allows students to review and compare every possible class schedule.

myUCF: the UCF/student information portal online at my.ucf.edu. myUCF is a powerful, security-encrypted, personal identification and Password access information system that will facilitate a variety of transactions in which students will engage at UCF. In myUCF, students may obtain a list of current holds, change the Password, sign up for a Knights Email account, telephone number, and permanent/mailing addresses; search for courses each term; register, drop/swap and add courses each term; withdraw from courses following the close of Late Registration and Drop/Swap, print the "Degree Audit," obtain the registration appointment day and time for each term, print a "Fee Invoice," pay fees by credit card, gain access to financial aid and accounts receivable information; obtain the term final grades, and a list of current courses.

NID: Network IDentification number that students use to log in to web courses, UCF computer labs, and myUCF or the UCF Information Kiosks.

Overall GPA: cumulative GPA of UCF and transfer course work.

Password: a series of four to eight characters and numbers chosen by the student that is associated with the NID (Network Identification Number). Each time you use the NID to enter myUCF, you also will enter your password.

Pending Status: category assigned to students who desire to enter limited or restricted access programs. Typically, students are required to complete the GEP and all major pre-requisites prior to admission into the desired limited access program (Department will change student's status upon acceptance into the program).

PR: prerequisite refers to a specific course that must be taken and passed prior to enrolling in the primary course the student desires to take.

Probation: action taken when a student's UCF overall GPA drops below 2.0.

Readmission: reapplication to the Registrar's Office after an absence of two or more terms.

Registration: the process of enrolling in classes. This may be done through myUCF at my.ucf.edu and, in limited circumstances, at the colleges' advising offices.

Repeat Surcharge: additional fee applied when a student enrolls in the same course three or more times.

Restricted Access: a major that has additional admission requirements (e.g. early application date, a separate application or specific GPA requirements). There is no limit to the number of students who can be enrolled. Students meeting the specified requirement(s) normally will be admitted.
Restricted Electives: a specified group of courses within a major from which students must make selections.

Retention: a term used to describe students' continued enrollment at the University until successful completion of their educational goals.

RCHM: Rosen College of Hospitality Management.

SARC: Student Academic Resource Center, provides academic support programs, including supplemental instruction, tutoring, academic advising, and various other programs and services to students.

SAT: Scholastic Assessment Test is an assessment used for University admission purposes.

Satisfactory Academic Progress: a general eligibility requirement for financial assistance (see the "Student Financial Assistance" section of this Undergraduate Catalog).

Second Bachelor's Degree: awarded when the student meets the requirements for both degrees and earns a minimum of 150 credit hours.

Section: refers to one of several offerings of the same course scheduled at different days of the week and hours of the day. For example: There may be 40 different sections of ENC 1101 offered within a term.

Sequence: a series of courses within the same subject area. Generally, the student takes these courses in numerical order (e.g., PHY 2053C then PHY 2054C). Students should consult the advisor before registering out of sequence.

STEP: State Tuition Exemption Program

SUS: State University System. All twelve Florida public universities are part of the SUS.

Term: the academic year at UCF is divided into segments called "terms" (also called "semesters"). Each lasts approximately 16 weeks. Some universities break the year into fourths and call them "quarters." UCF is on the semester system; however, we usually speak of "Fall Term," "Spring Term," or "Summer Sessions."

Term GPA: grade point average (GPA) on work attempted during any given term.

Third Attempt Charge: see "Repeat Surcharge."

Track: one of two or more significant variations in a degree program or major. Approximately 50% of the courses in one track differ from the courses required in other tracks.
Transcript: official academic record from the Registrar's Office.

TSD: Accelerated education opportunities.

TSR: Transfer Summary Report is a listing of all coursework transferring to the University for credit. A preliminary TSR is generated at the time of acceptance. A final TSR is processed after all final transcripts have been received by the Admissions Office.

Transient Student: a UCF student enrolled in courses at another accredited institution recognized by UCF, or a student from another accredited institution recognized by UCF enrolled in courses at UCF.

UCF Connect Campus System: UCF Altamonte Springs, UCF Cocoa, UCF Daytona Beach, UCF Leesburg, UCF Ocala, UCF Palm Bay, UCF Sanford/Lake Mary, UCF South Lake, UCF Valencia East, UCF Valencia Osceola, and UCF Valencia West.

UCF GPA: grade point average (GPA) on all work attempted while in attendance at UCF.

UCF ID: (UCF IDentification number): personal seven-digit number required as a unique identifier for each student.

UGRD: College of Undergraduate Studies

Upper Level Courses: courses with a course number of 3000-4999.

VARC: Veterans Academic Resource Center providing GI Bill educational benefit certification and academic support programs, including supplemental instruction, tutoring, academic advising, career advising, student accommodation services, counseling services, and various other programs and services for student veterans.

Withdrawal, to Withdraw from a Course: to formally request an official departure from one or more courses during the first half of the term or session through myUCF (my.ucf.edu) or at the Registrar's Office. Students who withdraw from a class are still responsible for tuition and fees for that withdrawn course.
