Dear Solving wife by these I hope may know I have received line of 23 in fact I am glad to hear of thy welfare, but am sorry to hear of thy An are not well, but I hope I hope to hear more of thy recovery, I am sure it may be well if thou like will & I shall I suppose thou may intend to make Visitation to thy mother I am sure I have heard none of her this long time, I am sure thou has had Halling many from Coppall or there abouts I saw had had them for I do they were but thin was, but if thou like not on better about other deals with him for them if thou can but they are worth not more, as for John Smith, I think I may put them off if thou buy them, for I think I have a custom for those of S. Norris, I saw D. Brooks his park. I John Smith owes me I think 17^s I should not pay him, if he fall on thee thou may pay him out, I do is to have either 1^s or 2^s I know not whether for I never asked him what he had, I shall make inquiry about what he desires, I cannot interest Brooks to send up any goods except it be to William or I am about 10^s and if he have any, if so Coppall have but the money, I shall pay for much for him here I think to signify for much to him, I am sure I still remains very well, I am mostly employed in the service of truth its thought, I & papist will be indulged, I plott resolved on from others, if I may be given all well god with him, my dear love to your father & all your family I friends there away, Susanah & E. Whitehead to thee I you all for that I am sure is well, I am sending little else but I am sure in your unchangeable truth to me my dear I you all for thy very loving husband.
