I am glad to hear of all your welfare tell pipp: y^e had must give answer for y^e money he had lent for bon white head, his & his wife's love is to you, so is Susanah deare direct what good to John Harvey at Blackwell-Hall, & he to pay y^e Carrier, & I shall take care about them like wife I was about well for Sam: parr, & I don't not have any And I pay for carrying it to y^e farm, & for y^e no brooke, & likewise Tho: Maydon proffered me by John Batorby for y^e c after ward not take it now the best well is falling if thou please Let Henry see if he could gett one park at Manchester for 9 or 9th 10 or thereabouts or if Sam will take y^e c sett himself with one if he cannot stay awhile, & if thou want money draw upon me for y^e well, & I will have thee pay with Sumar y^e I suppose Joseph Coppark may have sent thee about 15th & tell James Sumar y^e I was with his Aunt I deluded his loaken, & send another for him to with one shilling good about 8th or 9th which may be marked 06 c if thou send I think will find me word whether they be 20 yards or but is long p^{er} English Sumbar is at 8 of y^e large size, & french is a little larger then formerly y^e price is 10th tell me know how well thy my deare love is to you all, & tell me know how Obigall doth, all things relating to health are well. My love is to thee, & may send thee some food but she said none last som^e its late & so I shall conclude at present, but remaine thy very loving Husband bid R. B. praise his Arm: James Clarison & be sure not to high & let him sort them & distinguish them by marks, well farewell
