Phindus

I would wish to know what thou hast done at our house how things are there & how our words are taken & how the town is & how afterwards to go to wigwag for I want to know of you & think or thou mightest be the house & be ready to go over yet if thou think there be no need to go let me know for I want to know I want yet whether it might not do well to let it be built the other with the thy & wife I desire to know no more but my love to you all who are thy father & the 3 of the ^{no} be I want to see you to their mother we want to know

C. bogwag & wormfoot we have not much of the town nor no sanding on thou want me for the wife by the ranching that Phindus want of was here for of that it might be in the of the sanding
