Dear friend and Bro: in the vntchangable blessed truth of our god, which is from everlasting to everlasting, our all god blessed, for our, in wth my salutation, onto thee, and in the Cymes of vntforned Low, I deawly embrase thee, for in this Low and life, ~~now~~ we are nearly beloved one vnto another, for it is our all gra-and Low, our Rocks and foundation, and Low stone that binds for our, Christ Jesus, to whom be glory and Honour, for our more, a more my Low is to thy dear wife, and mother in Low with all dear friends, who may inquire after me, I am verie well sworn way blessed be the name of the Lord for our, I have been as far as spiter, and so to Bristall and glouster, and have had good friends, and so have been the last night, and say with ja: Harrison, who is yetty well now of his son he, we have been at the 2000, meeting just now, where we found dear G. f. I desire to hear from you, how you all do, by the first, and whether you have heard from Lo: Haydock, for with my Low vnto you all I take my Low and bids ^{your} fare well in the Lord
