London = The 20th 4th mo 1680

Dear

father. Truly I have loved to hear by thee may know that this day betwixt 3 & 4 in the after noon I came to London that day I went from home & lay at new castle the 2^d day to Coals hill the 3^d day to Dantbury (after I had stayed the meeting at Courtenay) at night when I was about to go to bed my old dysentery came upon me, & I had fit of vomiting but it was pretty short last night I had by in the hole of this day better I am now pretty well, my ^{ma} carried me extremely well & we comen in good order better my land has been a good company I have done no business as yett I have been wth father since I came better it well I do not know but he will be ready to come for above me I have not ~~the~~ but love to marry to King the his wife & ^{to} ask ^{to} to remember me to Abraham where he goes ^{him} wth I have loved, & that I am thy very son

Thine hart James Bolton
