London August 30th 86

I Received yo^r letter: wherein yo^e pretend to give Account of how my Bro. Ralph left what hee had but it is too dark that it wants an Expofitor: And As for a letter of Attorney: I do not think it convenient: butill I receive A true Copy of the will: therefore if I should yo^e to be too just to me As to send it with all speed: And wish all to give me A more partic^l Account for yo^e can give A guess what will come to my share: If yo^e deals sincerely by mee I will show yo^e full Consideration for yo^e troubles I doo very much Admire that my Bro. should leave so much to Another mans wife: And noe wayes Related to him since shee did not think him good Enough: to bee her husband If shee had had news from there: but for her: but I find shee was pollitick to marry heere And then to Run After him shee being A weakly man And Infirmit her self to gett what belong: to his ~~relations~~ Relations: I Expect shee should make good her title by ~~handing~~ handing his true will p^{ro}viding To the laws of England: otherwise mee cannot be satisfisied that shee has any Right to it: my Bro. told us yt he bought 5000 Acres of land of his master which cost him twenty pounds: hee layd out thirty pound more In Iron work And other Conuersion for Building: therefore I Expect shee shall deal sincerely And lett us know what comes his sisters: otherwise I shall give A letter of Attorney to A Kingman of mine that comes to my land And leave him to Examine the matter: In the meane time I Remaine yo^r friend And ser^u David Lloyd

If shee make Expofition And send us something Conspicuous I shall not trouble my self with writing any other answers: if not yett shee shal I shall turne it over to such that will forment her sufficient will can

I thinke it Almost impossible that my Brother should leave so much to a stranger when hee writt so kind a letter to me by ~~through~~ gibe which letter I haue: these from yo^r direct yo^r letter over friend David Lloyd against yo^r dog tauren in druryland
