Dear D.D

Burington 27th of mo: 1686 unto thee and thy dear wife doth our Lord in the unchang-able truth of god freely extend it shall at this time your Remembrances being very fresh in our minds it is without in all openness of heart and freedom of spirit these few lines to recommend to you our dear friends whose welfare as our own we dearly desire and your prosperity every way we heartly wish for the Lord knows in the hearing of your good news by rejoys you being near unto us in the heavenly truth and seen in the previous life that fades not away well in the Lord in whom all our fresh springs is do we dearly salute and embrace you our very lives greet you again and again and with love in the openings of life we salute you over and over hoping to you that we saw it will be as refreshing to us who freely give whose answering lifes motion in the truths way mis not of the sweet reforms of love from the fountain of divine love well dear heart our hearts is open and freely open towards you in the opening of love and life we your friends in our measures from god rescued are livingly refreshed whilst our hearts are open to enjoy you in the fulness of the gospel is our spirits enlarged these few lines to recommend to you though in them is little more but a fresh salutation of true and cordiall love which is what it ever was and remains to be what it now is to you know as it is whose apostles we are known & read by you for our say and heard doth our Lord abound and work to you money about you being often in our minds and with you your lovely offspring upon whom be the blessing of god multiplied for ever more our dear Lord salutes your dear father and mother and all dear friends as if we named them to whom if you find favour you may express it as to dear John woods his wife and the dear James Rattif his wife and family and the woods when you see them give them the salute tion of our dear Lord also dear William Farley and his dear wife not forgetting our old friend Thomas Jorrey and his wife and family and to all friends at in the wisdom of god you may see meet to mention our dear Lord and dear hearts by this know we at this time are indifferent well so is our Chi-dren hopes the same concerning you and yours and all faithful friends in these parts the Lord be with you and them and the blessings of a full cup be multiplied upon our dear friends in the Lord Jesus Christ in whom onst more we dearly salute and yours desiring the Lord may be with you and renew his blessings upon you often then the morning is renewed to the and you may to his praise and honor and to your endless living comfort and joy in the Lord and one in another, so dear friends by these words stand thus I told in which manner refreshed and glad to hear of your well fare but was very sorry to hear that y<sup>e</sup> bills I desired upon that which any one a strating to that for I never met them so I have come and as for the three pound that was to be paid to John Haskinson I have it in my hand for that was never any that called for it as yet so now I request if the do not to pay it till I hear from that I have sent your son from Shores had proposed to have sold more but could not get them in Redynose I have sent of goods to Lidya Shores wait for a long with them to thy hand and ordered her to pay that if more plus of our paying her self I propose to send thy father Harrison some Stokes if I could get them in Redynose if this do not come I desire that to signy by the same to him her order more to by them of John fells but her is broke and gave a ways sound after you left Court so I sent in to the north for some if the will but kick in kind low to them and there Mother if she can buy any more she: Barbara and spoke to him her is very desirous of his money but she it is 26. 5 goods and charge her was a bit worth so I told him I would spoke to her and not would take care to pay him as for with Crowson if one of his she pay him I spoke to John Clarke but her said very list only her stranges her has not heard from her and that her said but yet very few dollars in the goods I sent to Lidya comes to 32. 6 out of which let her pay her self 18 which she will send her press and Christ at and then she may repay the other to her which is 14. 6 I have to I desire that to pay the self too pr of Shores for 11
