Dear and well beloved friend. Amford; Dec. 10th 1666.

Roger Langworth. to you is my Dear Love first remembered unto you in the fellowship of the Trinity of god, in which the Lord has made us meet and I see you unto a better life. So to his glory. Amen. for ever.

Dear Roger, I was returned again from London dated the 30th of Nov.
I was much glad to hear of you and friends; and so was knowne you was too good of us. I hope you should be as former in our family; for mine to more is of the Lord. Jan Claib wife of Landin, has a daughter, Mother and she is a well. Alas! work and his wife gave a son, they are all well. Friends in friendland are well, I hope much in the world, had hopes so many but, has prepared a marriage with gentle widow, the widow's name is, ~~Adrian~~ Jan Janlowe at Farlingham, I see some it will be a pretty couple. at Imler's gooding gift too merry well. I hope much. I dare desire name of lady of Magdalena van Lardar, she is with her some friends, might have out of England too long there. I hope much. I see some was expected first this on the week week at our yearly meeting, which will be 12 days gone. I was expected also have just now on winter out to from freedom. I at Farlingham are thing much alike. Rotton: also. I hope much. I see some mother and mother, she is with her so had she has gone now, but by himself. Friends at Dantish are troubled first, much, with brethren, if they not love for meeting together. They are well and good, beside friends of other places desired to remember their Dear Love unto you. Dear Tho. Green, he is with his son much, to our refreshment in the Lord; name was expected Dear Roger Gadwick, and will: poor at our yearly meeting in the Lord willing or permitting. I was sad expected name will: poor before this time; well they will be merry well.
Dear the want of letters is first, so be for now about 4 weeks I have seen did I for permit well; but for it will go with the business you know of, I was very sad; I have say not much at present; but I have not say that it is further of as it be. The Lord knows what best is; and to give I commit the case. So Dear Roger having given thee some account, I shall be glad, being unwilling to trouble thee to see of with my bad English, committing thee in the protection of the Lord with my self, and at that for give, desiring to have some from thee. and I bid thee, farewell. My wife and wife, I hope much. Jan Radlofs gentle love and their wife, they are love it unto thee first remembered.

Domian galle, Job buried his wife, she is buried at the place where she life things would be well at the burial we were hande desire.

and, I found and remain as fair here we need to be, thy soul and well affectionated friends

Wm. Goodrich.
