Dear friend

Phenias Pemberton my Dear long freely flows towards tho' even from a tender hart in which I salute thee and thy Dear wife. now Dear friend the fresh occasion whereof is the thoughts how the Lord did make thee an Instrument of help unto me in my great Concern for which my hart Praises the Lord and Returns acknowledg<sup>t</sup>. unto thee for thy great love and care which whilst I live I shall never forget. Dear friend I wright a few lines unto thee from the Gouern<sup>r</sup>. to desire thee to Publish our Intentions in wrighting at some place according to Law which I desire thee not to Neglect and that it may beare date from the <sup>11</sup> of this Instant. for I think to be by againe at <sup>10</sup> next my meeting and will Indeaour to bring what thou Speaks to me about. In the meane time ~~thy~~ and whilst I live I Remaine thy friend in love as above
