And wth belov'd friend Mr. J. Gallatation of in deard love belov'd mortm^d I am glad to hear of thine & friend's welfare & of your constant in fiding whom I have no manner of doubt of, but y^e god will uphold you as long as you are your enemies will be able to persecute. So be it, well deard friend thy business I have not forgotten but have met with some disappointments y^e might have avoided had I not expected to have done better for the
 The case is thus, I am into this province I met with John Brown that is the only one all y^e thou had in this part for anything y^e had know, he wth agur'd me in a little time, but respecting more wth to be heard of for the, I did refuse, I put him to rest, but after it, but now wth to be acknowledged, then I desired to have to do so he wth of a drawing to pay me the same, I was ignorant about it more ago, I do not know if it is all paid y^ett, for I wth it out to another person, who ever draw all on me payable to some y^e will sett y^e have been money, who are coming hither, will pay it them heard when they come, may remember y^e three pound this country money is two pound, and eight shillings, 2-00-00 sterling or English Count, y^e draw in me forward is nothing I know of it wth answer to send thither for skins, being y^e I kept, being grown so deard, by reason of y^e great use y^e is made of them it wth be to no purpose to send them thither, y^e I left him, I see John Brown told him how y^e I had heard from the, I wth much to find out more, he mentioned one man of this y^e to or leaving y^e might a down better, but he was a poor man, he doubted not good wth him, how ever if I should see that way any time I have a mind to try it he will do, I say, remembering I deare love to the tailor & his wife and friends as thou art first, All things relating to truth, & this province is well thro Morris, we had a many yearly meeting in this part, y^e y^e large god, & living now full of y^e is our daily joy, & health to our comfort, which is all at present, but words all of our hearts, I will which have
