Ralph Pemberton my most Dear love & Remembrance to you and to your wife and children and to your mother and her wife and children and to your father and mother and to your brother and sister and to your friends and to your servants for your good service you gave him of me

This may satisfy you that I Read your letter which was dated the 22 of the mo 23 - & I have not seen my master since I Read yours but I have sent him a letter about it & I do not question but you will hear from him ere long & our old land Lord Peter Holburn is dead of - 3 - Days sickness but what I Distemper was we do not know it was in his throat & St. Roger Bradsha of hay is dead & your old Land Lord Mr. Hindley of hall of Hindley and your nephew John Thurst & his wife are both dead and as for Septer it has been an extraordinary sharp winter to them soo that I have gotten very little in as yet but I will do my endeavour to get it in as soon as I can but it froze a quarter of a year to gether & most of that time outroom hard soo that most of our neighbours cold Remembrance it froze soo hard before & as for Samuel Mather he is at London and his wife is at home but time and day if she would come to London to him for a night I say before she should want & her would have had felt I should towards paying of debts but she will not go for fear he should sell her she is soo good but stays stilling house & gets behind hand as it is thought & says she will stay but we were of that time will not permit but Thomas Tillloy is very quiet and all this present I have of much custom at this shop as we had when you were here this last year but I first year it was not soo but Thomas Shop it

Iore dyebogd for he has shewd som of his customers & now of few from him & the says <sup>his says he has 3 years of</sup> his wife mads him should yet & would faine have som body to get her a lad — & his Daughter martha if married but not of Rogers som & old Amis hardman if dead and Roger hardman I married man is dead & of for I money which John mason owed it if pay to Nathaniel & Nathaniel sayd he would Return it over to you but I never Red I bond and pay Rememb my love to Phineas and his wife & to Joseph mather & to James Harison and his wife and all his familie and old Richard walker & wife Rememb there dere love to you wth al I Rest of you & neighbours and Roger Filisly is gone to London and I cannot get a pony of him but he says he would send som money down for me & Jetholds if gone I cannot tell whether & gerge Booth if turnd informer and I wst time you write I would have you to write more sharply to them for I doo not heed me and I say what I can to them and I desire you to lett us hear from you of oft if you can And once more ad maste my dear love to you yours J. Red y<sup>e</sup> 23 of th<sup>mo</sup> 3-84

Love to you I Rest you ol friend & servant
From Ratcliffe
