Shine & some redness. I am glad to hear of thy Well faire for good very much wonder what move bottom of these Hanning Manner heard one moved from these fairs & shipped of cotton to thee & I was very much troubled because I knew of goods & shipped from thee & shipped goods have of thy truth and thy brother for the more wants through of goodness of God was kept very quiet & still hoping if thou want lining & should be some satisfaction for it was for long time. All this I undertake now things were between us & I did desire of loved to receive me in tenderness to these words for thy brother sake for I do have to sweeten & to tender & in tenderness to give one another for its nature is there to be good & as was Obide in it will make us too too in of which God almighty performs us to of each of our days: Now as to thy desire in thy letter I never returned my things from thee nor from any for thee & have made often Enquiry After of your goods shipped & I have heard: Therefore I have of any any will be sent now than out some from there therefore I have intended that to pay of money it is due to me & thy very good friend James Harrison & give him undertake to send to thee with what I need thou shalt thy son may have some satisfaction for & figure how may be at it for now write for me & I will be very glad to hear of goods to thee & I may have him your friend George Dorrer & informe thee of what he is & what he is & what I shall be very glad to hear from thee as soon as may be & how thy dear child is & what he is & what
 be & how thy dear child is & what he is & what
 be & how thy dear child is & what he is & what

My dear son in law I have written to thee who am thy friend in my measures & thy affection
