Aufstodt. den 1. Oct. 12. 1603.

Rogor Longworth. My Deare and well known friend Lofom J. Dincorly; how in the Trinity, as I have to Lofom J. have been you, being more and dearer than to another, in the season; follows, thy, in Lofom J. tenderly in love thee - Deare friend, I have thy - datet des. 12. refused last week, or my well intention was to have writt to thee last past; but I have partly much business I was putty. I was very glad to receive a letter from thee, I had Longth several weeks for it; and was glad of thy account concerning Trinity which you sent me in that Nation.

J. Decider last; that thou had well been pleased to performe those that for his name, and I shall be glad in the Trinity, that thou shouldst may do thee good, and I shall be glad in the Trinity, that thou shouldst that thou may glorify the name too the comfort of your souls - Amen -

Thy letter which I had before this last from thee, I have answered, and I have partly not longed to have gotten an answer from thee. But if thou hast not received it thou it's lost - things for as part was with friend, blessed be the Lord. I have some matters for himself to do in the Trinity which I will leave to thee. But it may be that thou may do it in good or the next week - Jacob Clair, is yet to marry with J. Wood, with Nookin, the maid of J. Brand's daughter at Amsterdam. and I believe Jan Rueloff and J. Salery's daughter at Amsterdam also to marry, I think that it may be to give her consent to it. Jan Willem of Alkmaar is yet to marry with the daughter of the Mayor at Rotterdam, tenor, but I have not yet heard of it. other more as thing as we have some him, except that in the world are several Comrades and are coming in, and that it is part of the year of the year - that are there, that have many more friends, that are much Comrades more of them is the Mayor of that place, called Knippe.
The Mayor was first last week, and was part of the year; and his daughter is now first - a pretty man - Jacob's that his daughter's husband is Comrade and has many friends.
He was last week, also at Amsterdam - a fair spirit among the his daughter from being a pretty young man, is Comrade and has many more - I have not heard of his not rich of friends - I have answered him, it is part of the year - at Amsterdam is still blessed be the Lord, that thou is in the world - that is a Comrade or has many friends, that has in the Trinity which was last week - at Amsterdam is still, also in the party - friends in the party, and also in the party - but I have not heard of his I will remain in the party.

After this more written appears was written from London that the same with friends of these parts, more than is known

To Isaac Roger. having given thee an account of thing relating the said and friends - this parts - I shall long to hear from thee again - know thou loost England - and also was still again much long after thy arrival in possession of these parts, to hear from thee an confirming our Nation and confirming friends and with had a way -

So, my Isaac friend, my love remains with thee, and I wish myself that the Lord will prosper thy journey, and bring thee home again to us if it be his goodly will - He loves of friends here is out of thee, and in particular of my dear brother. You know of Jan Radloff as well at London - So, with my indiffer love remains more to thee, and friends infer than with thee - in particular to Isaac, Isaac G. a father in Israel. I find with to him last post, under cover of Will. Gibbon - I hope you will have it before this time to thy hands, if not, please send a card dated delivered into him - Wm. Isaac Roger, merchant.

placed to deliver of said the in closed to my friend R. Hayward.

W. G.

Since this above was written, my dear understand from London, that the above has comforted the said Radloff's desire being so.
