Dear Sir, your favor of the 28th recd. and was very glad, that you recd my letter.

Now, it is no use, for me to make excuses, because, I did not treat you right, also, not to write to you after I left Tampa.

At that time, I got a position to travel for a house in St Louis, and surely I expected to make a good thing out of it, but I soon found out, that I got the worst of it, and therefore I used that money, I had on hand, to send to you as before - over from that time on, whenever I thought, that I soon could have the amount to spare again, to send it you, then in a general sum, something happened again.

I enclose now $$20.00$, and I will send you an itemized Bill and balance as soon as possible.

• Hoping that you will pardon my offenses to you, and please let me know, how much interest there is, on about $$38.00$

A obliged

yours Very Truly
