Dublin the 9th mo. 1780

Dear ly belov'd lest that by James Lumels Mary Battersby brother should miscarry, I do here by acquaint the that our dear friend Brogr may look it fallen the spectacle at Carrick verry & do suppose it the first because he had it when in this city it began on him when he was not well where of I acquainted the in myno of post he was so the it was I he wou'd not recover but since then some friends have been to visit him from a bout longain & do wish the hope he may get through it, I had & have a desire to see him but because we had not a letter this day of post it thought he doh recover thro' <sup>some</sup> questionable whether I may find him if I should go I think begining of the next week to be the out side of my stay here if wind & shipping serve & I do not go to work it I have done my business all ready, not the but am thine in true love leave love to father's mother little ones & friends & I love it to you write none after this Amos to thy hand thine the 3
