50 YEARS OF DEPENDABLE SERVICE TO ORLANDO

It is generally recognized that twenty-five years of continuous business existence is a good recommendation as to stability and reliability for any organization, business, concern or firm, and when we state that Curtis & O'Neal Company has faithfully served the local public as insurance agents for a period of fifty years, it is a fact and a record in which we are justified in feeling a deep pride.

The Curtis & O'Neal Company was organized in 1887 and we have met all the requirements of our patrons during the good and lean periods for the past fifty years, being on the alert to extend to our clients the various new coverages as they were adopted and promulgated by our companies from time to time. We are better equipped today to serve the insuring public than at any time during that long period. The friendships formed and continued through half a century of constructive and happy business relations are much cherished and we are deeply grateful for their substantial contribution in making it possible for us to celebrate our Golden Anniversary.

Writing all lines of insurance, we represent the companies listed below.
