Roger Langmores. Amsterdam 3. 2. 1606.

My Dear and well beloved friends.

This dated the 17. 3. out of Dublin. My fears removed, and more with glad to hear of thy well being. I was very by this thy majesty and friends that was and friends for as also with thyself the more of the Lord; I hope thy fast words my friends after the date of thy letter. And have had several friends in the morning for, upon our yearly meeting, as Dear Roger Gauduch, for for his with Jan Clement at the Frederickstadt, or Gauduch, and Linder, where as is well with friends, blessed be the Lord; know for out of, or Jacob Gauduch and the brother for the father's friend, have been for at our yearly meeting also with friends. Dear William for has also been for - and my friends had such good meetings as never before - . With and friends grants of a good report amongst many, the the gaining to it is as it but little; but if we have more to the Lord, so is able to prosper his own work in his own time - .

And was very glad to hear that things were so well with friends in Ireland at the yearly meeting; that there was such love as for him and brotherly love amongst them; by this thy majesty and friends that it was also with us for at our yearly meeting, blessed be the God, Master of the Lord - . With friends at Rotterdam, or Gouda, or Alkmaar, or Amsterdam, and Gouda, or Linder, or Linder, as things also with well, though the more of the Lord; brother Gauduch, Mary's brother has led down the body, never above 14. days - . and friends have been with him - . at Dantzick as friends for quiet, though the goodness of the Lord; they and friends of several places have desired to remember their love to thee - . we also several friends in this City, and my friend Hans has been with us to thee, and I am many more shall be glad to hear if the Lord put it in thy hand to have and give us a visit again, and stay with us this winter - . the house is never adding in thy Chamber, if the weather should be hard, and have

Make it warm & soft. And as I told before, I shall be very glad of this company if the Lord please to order it so, and also under Amstels bedchamber, will be glad - I desire to eat and drink often of thee, under that fast friend and opportunity -

Concerning Dorothy's matter. I have now spoken to her as fit is, I think this goes for England, to stand on good. And so, I have a good mind that she should see for and have her conversation with her - so, I commit it to the Lord with my self to the Lord, for I may and order it according to his good pleasure -

In Dorset; and ordered her, I good and valued her and bid her, farewell, farewell.
