

1686-12-01

Henry Ceane, Roger Longworth, December 1, 1686

Henry Ceane

PRINT Identifier: 15966

Find similar works at: <https://stars.library.ucf.edu/printmigrationnetwork-pemberton> University of Central Florida Libraries <http://library.ucf.edu>

This Correspondence is brought to you for free and open access by the Quaker Correspondence at STARS. It has been accepted for inclusion in Pemberton Correspondence by an authorized administrator of STARS. For more information, please contact STARS@ucf.edu.

Citation

Henry Ceane, Plymouth, to Roger Longworth, Barbados, 1686-12-01, vol. 2, pg. 71, Pemberton Family Papers, 1641-1880, 0484A, Historical Society of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, PRINT, 15966, <https://stars.library.ucf.edu/printmigrationnetwork-pemberton/191/>.

This Correspondence is brought to you for free and open access by the Quaker Correspondence at STARS. It has been accepted for inclusion in Pemberton Correspondence by an authorized administrator of STARS. For more information, please contact STARS@ucf.edu.

My Dear

Dhimo 21: 7th 1666

And, beloved friend & Brother Roger Langworth mine of y^e 27th 8th next. Is with me and truly glad to receive of you his from me & had knowne we had to adered to judge Should a written to the King before now to a left that knowne How thing had beene with you since that departure from my Great hath beene excessivly hath standed by & I have prisenment at my miles from home and name of you writen at our sending you out great and our way of good of the Lord who doth wish and in all our excessivly and to all see sustained and refused us so that wee could down and weard not weary and wolke and not fainte for he doth want to In y^e day wee could althought or desired glory to his name for ever his little Remnant who hath found him to be a lower and of shore refuge and sea of himing place by which they have been prepared and up held to this day in which he hath opened the prisoned doors and set his little remnant free so y^e way may serve him in y^e face of y^e nations and declean of his goods to the guardians to some who hath don great thing in our day and brought to pass y^e which wee weard not in expectation the sense of which brought my heart and bowels my spirit before and make say with the good man of old ofore what is man that thou art so mind full of him and y^e some of mouth thou shouldest and appeareth for them and hath worked there durians In despite of their enemies this is that which ~~is~~ is of a remnant and the ground of their Rejoycing y^e of kept them faithfull in which they have been acquainted with his goods and great porters of his young remnant which is more to them than of outdore thing

O my dear friend much is in my heart concerning y^e goods of y^e Lord but knowing thou hast had longer acquaintance with it than my self causeth me to be heard say much more desir ing if we may walke worthy of y^e same all our dayes y^e of may more delight to do it in good and y^e In y^e end of all wee may be wed with that blessed soltarian y^e of y^e blessed of my soldier In her will the King can prepare for all y^e Righteous which will be asufficient Reward for all our labor So my dear friend I should be truly glad to receive of you his from me at all times & if thou goest by y^e prisoned have the dear soltarian of a named one to all our plim friends ad James for both y^e names of Dowler John Shellen Richard youe nicholas pecke any of y^e Dailor James Shillcocke & the family also to dear John Goodson my love is to all friends A secret amongst friend & generally well and nothing quiet many friends being glad to hear of thy health my self dearely desirous to see her dear remembrance to face which with soltarian of my love to the wishing thee health at all at this time of year

Recd from And Brother Henry Leane

Henry Leane
Plymouth
9mo 21. 1686.
to Roger Longworth
Barbadoes.