Mo: 6: Day 16th 1686

Dear Friend James Harrison I have by Rich Long of Row. as by his first letter seen a was his bewitching of vessel is unfit for this voyage. & if she would have taken passage it would have been hard to get brought Do not for but a man is God's love and carefull and offit for an English he would from know something about the night of your wishes bare I desire for we some time to drink & to some sleep I desire if you doe well of you is not more like let Harmer get 2000 bricks for you offer as for you get for him if you be in corn or peas or pork it may doe bring bricks are be troublesome to get from of place

my dear love in yr letter to James Harrison
I have by Rich Long of Row as by his first letter seen a is unfit for this voyage & if she would have taken passage it would have been hard to get brought Do not for but a man is God's love and carefull and offit for an English he would from know something about the night of your wishes bare I desire for we some time to drink & to some sleep I desire if you doe well of you is not more like let Harmer get 2000 bricks for you offer as for you get for him if you be in corn or peas or pork it may doe bring bricks are be troublesome to get

from of place

As for the other letter for James and Henry I intend to doe my God's will against yr spring in your country that yr winter should be I hope God will be to London about a week agoe the 5th and other friends but we nothing of yr God's operations or if he has been in Germany I expect about the time before her some away having answered his yr letter End of yr 4th Mo: 1686: I hope by yr letter so. Carpenter comes things will be more fully and patiently understood there is one Eliz Carter who comes in yr behalf of truth and unity of friends of wch I have th: C. of hope yr will all be helpfull only for in her power being done wom: to the Lord of grace his people for we are many workers by faith full
