The enclosed to The Langhorn and James Read having Com^{rs} to hand of Intreats deliver to one of my Country men who for never wronged me the third is for your self were it not for the sake of the goodne from whom I believe it is, I should not be so carefull of it for you are one of those that have unjustly wounded me but god will wound your rough & heavy Scalps in due time vengeance is gods & will repay thy soure face thy downy Countenance thy gant like looks thy heavy hand may be discovered in thine, due time for myself I scorn your reproaches and am invulnerable by sin^g & the worst wish of you is amended by

Philadelphia 5th July, 1674 Pat: Robinson

I returned no answer looking upon it a distracted blast only to let thee see how B B was his way agt ^{me} merely on imagination wth out any cause for both in publick and private I had showed respect to him for his party Sake while B kept wth in any limits of civility
