TENTH EDITION
EDITOR'S NOTE

The Editor-in-Chief of the B.-C. Book 1943-44 extends greetings to the students, faculty, and the members of the Advisory Board of Bethune-Cookman College. It is hoped that you, who have been a part of the campus life as students, teachers, friends, and members of the College Staff, will find this book a means of retaining vividly in your memory friends and scenes that have grown dear to your hearts. To the friends of this institution, may these pages increase your interest in us, and serve as a source of information and pleasure.

Sincerely yours,

Alexander A. Hawkins, Editor-in-Chief

FOREWORD

Upon entering college, every student is confronted with innumerable questions concerning the customs, traditions, and happenings of the campus. He may want to know what the academic and social requirements are; he may wonder what activities are sponsored by the institution, or, he may desire to seek membership in one of the social clubs and to know what its aims and activities are. The B.-C. Book is especially designed and printed to serve as a sort of encyclopedia of Bethune-Cookman College, supplying for the new student all data that may be of value to the one seeking information needed. We sincerely hope that through the years to come the B.-C. Book will continue to be of service and interest to those seeking to keep alive the memories of knowledge gained and friends made at our dear Alma Mater.

PRESIDENT'S CONTRIBUTION TO THE
B-C BOOK

Young people today are faced with the responsibility of not only doing their maximum to win the war but of contributing their fullest in the building of a peace that will be just and lasting. To meet this dual responsibility which emphasises skill and competence on the one hand, and a liberal education imbued with the Christian philosophy of life on the other hand, requires the total development of the individual. To provide this total development, Bethune-Cookman College has translated its philosophy—which gives major emphasis to serving the needs and interest of each of its students and providing opportunity for them to develop fully within their individual potentialities and possible contribution to a democratic society—into a concrete program of action. Through this program the student seeks to develop fully his physical, mental, social, spiritual and vocational power.

Those who take full advantage of the offerings of the College are well prepared to make their contribution to the winning of the war and the building of the peace that will follow. Students who complete their course at the College and go on for higher education, or enter life's school—go with our choicest blessings, and continued guidance and direction; those who come to the College to prepare themselves for a rich and effective life that they might be able to meet satisfactorily the challenges of the day, receive our most sympathetic understanding and helpful guidance.

James A. Colston
In all of its thinking and practices the college must start and end with the student. Consideration must be given to the student's responsibilities to the group, his relationship to organized institutional activities, and the rights and privileges which he holds in common with others. The focus of effort and attention must never be moved from the student, from the component factors of ability that make up his potential contribution, from the elements of personality which he brings to every performance, from the personal motives and attitudes which determine his pattern of beliefs and conduct, and his ultimate value to society. One of the hardest battles to win in education is the battle for the student. It is the fight to keep the student from being absorbed in the process of dealing with the whole or total situation. Out of rapidly changing socio-economic conditions and developing educational research, is emerging a new concept of education. Today we pay more attention to cooperation, sharing, planning, thinking, and acting together. The result is a college built on cooperative democratic planning and acting in all aspects of the program, and a situation in which all individuals affected by the educative process increasingly share and contribute to the program in terms of their needs, interests, abilities, competencies, and opportunity.

THE HISTORY OF BETHUNE-COOKMAN COLLEGE

Cookman Institute was founded in 1872 by the Rev. Dr. S. B. Darnell. It was the first institution for the higher education of Negroes founded in the State of Florida, and for a long time was the only school of its kind in the State. In point of service no other institution of its kind in Florida equals it. During its half century of service it has maintained a uniformly high standard morally, spiritually and intellectually, for the young men and women who have come under its influence.

The high standard of its work and ideals and the emphasis placed upon thoroughness in scholarship and Christian character, have given Cookman Institute a sure and abiding place in the hearts and affections of the great mass of colored people in the State of Florida. They love and honor “Cookman Institute” still.

On October 4, 1904, in a little rented cabin, with five girls, a dollar and a half in capital, a vision of the future, and a firm faith in God, the Daytona Normal and Industrial Institute for Negro Girls was established by Mary McLeod Bethune.

The first payment of five dollars on the present site, then an old dumping ground, was raised by means of concerts and festivals. This unsightly spot became in a short time a clean, wholesome place upon which to build, and is now looked upon as one of the most desirable sites in the city of Daytona Beach.

In July, 1923, the Daytona Normal and Industrial Institute was taken under the auspices of the Board of Education for Negroes of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and Cookman Institute was merged with it; the institution thereupon becoming co-educational and the name being changed to Bethune-Cookman College.

Bethune-Cookman College holds membership in the National Association of Deans and Registrars in Colored Schools and the American Association of Collegiate Registrars.

The Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools rate Bethune-Cookman as a class A Junior College.

Since 1931 graduates have been eligible to receive Florida State certificates.

The college holds membership in the American Association of Junior Colleges; the Association of Secondary Schools and Colleges for Negroes.

Beginning in 1923 the Bachelor of Science degree in Elementary Education was awarded to students who met the requirements of the institution.

Bethune-Cookman College has expanded its program so that students are now able to receive the Bachelor of Science degree in Secondary Education with majors in Business Administration; Science; Social Science, and English.

PURPOSE

Bethune-Cookman College exists for the: (1) providing of the very best possible training for the development of teachers; (2) assisting its students to lay a broad foundation in general education for the later specialization by introducing them to, and acquainting them with the major areas of human knowledge; (3) providing the information and skill necessary for doing the common and inevitable things they must do in the shop, the home, the field and the office, and (4) thus, through the stated curricula, a wisely chosen faculty, the college organization and extra-curricular activities, to send into the world Christian Men and Women, physically fit, possessed with scholarship and fine moral idealism. The philosophy of the college is to serve the needs and interests of its students in such a manner as to enable them to recognize, face, and solve personal-social problems; and to provide optimum opportunity for the development of personal potentialities in terms of each individual's personality and contribution to a democratic society.
THE COLLEGE CAMPUS

Bethune-Cookman is truly the college beautiful. It is located at the corner of McLeod and Second Avenues within two blocks of the business center, churches and theatre. Stately, well-kept buildings surrounded by nature in her most resplendent glory make it a joyous place in which to live. Majestic oaks, swaying palms, green shrubbery and grasses, and beautiful flowers form scenes of beauty all about the place. There are sixteen spacious, comfortable modernly equipped buildings on the campus.

The first unit of the new Harrison Rhodes Memorial Library was dedicated on March 1, 1942. It is modern in every detail and adds immeasurably to the general appearance of the campus. The new N. Y. A. trades building has also been added to the growing number of units of the college physical plant. It is well equipped and spacious.

ATHLETICS

Athletics are divided into two groups, Intramural and Inter-Collegiate. Intramural athletics are managed by students and are under the direct supervision of the Department of Physical Education. This type of athletics aims to stimulate mass participation. Approximately 85% of the students are participants.

Inter-Collegiate athletics are supervised by the Department of Physical Education. They are in no sense over-emphasized but are encouraged for recreational, health-giving and character-developing values. Participants in these activities are given special physical attention.

Bethune-Cookman's "Wild Cats" have at various periods attained enviable positions in the athletic world. Male and female teams sponsored by the "Boosters Club" of Bethune-Cookman College, participate in weekly games with other local basketball teams. In the tournament held at St. Augustine, Florida, the "Wild Cats" made a very creditable showing.
RELIGIOUS SERVICE
At Bethune-Cookman College, Christ is indeed the "Head of the House," and the motto, "Our Whole School For Christian Service," is the ultimate determination in all plans and activities. Men and women of all denominations are accepted. Emphasis is placed upon Christianity rather than denomination.

THE ALUMNI
Bethune-Cookman College has an outstanding group of alumni scattered over the country as graduates of Cookman Institute and Bethune-Cookman College. Many occupy enviable positions as doctors, lawyers, clergymen, school teachers and business men and women.

CLASS ATTENDANCE AND ABSENCES
Students are expected to attend regularly all the courses in which they have been duly registered. No instructor has the authority to excuse from his class a student in attendance, and it is his duty to report all absences to the Dean's Office at the end of each week.

Class Absences: The number of absences granted shall not exceed in any one course the number of hours of credit which that course bears, e.g., in each three-hour course, three absences during the quarter may be granted. However, in the case of protracted illness and other contingencies, a large number of absences may be granted at the discretion of the Dean and instructors under whom the student has classes. In all cases the absences should be made up by special requirements on the part of the instructors concerned.

No student will be allowed to be absent from a class more than one-fifth of the recitations of that course of that semester if he is to receive credit for the course.

Each absence incurred just before or after the Thanksgiving, Christmas or Easter holiday will be counted two absences, excused or unexcused, as the case may be.
The standards of the college must be preserved. In order to do this, strict adherence to rules must be had by all. Rules of punctuality and attendance will be rigidly enforced. Any student wishing to register in a course after the first three weeks will have to get the consent of the Dean and the Instructor. Under no condition will a college student be allowed to register after the end of the first month of school.

No student will be allowed to drop a course without the consent of the Dean and the Instructors concerned. Courses dropped without permission will be marked failure and will be so recorded on the academic record of the student dropping the course.

A student may be asked to withdraw for no other reason than that he is not meeting standards.

GRADUATION

The successful completion of sixty-four (64) semester hours of work including required courses of the junior college entitles the student to a diploma from the Junior College. A minimum of 64 grade points is required.

The official transcripts of work done in other institutions must be evaluated by the registrar. Candidates may not be registered for graduation who have not complied with these requirements. Candidates for graduation must do at least sixteen hours of work in residence before they are eligible for graduation, and the last eight hours must be done in residence immediately prior to receiving the certificate and junior college diploma.

In addition to meeting all the requirements for the undergraduate certificate, candidates for the graduate certificate will complete 128 semester hours of college work with no course grade lower than "C" and will include in the 128 hours the courses listed required by the college.

COLLEGE FORUM
During the winter the college conducts an open forum for the educational development of the students and Negro citizenry of the community. The forum was made possible only through the generosity of Dr. Robert Shailor Holmes. The exercises are held in the college auditorium on Monday evenings during January, February and March. A number of outstanding speakers appear and topics of unusual interest are discussed. This year the college forum was sponsored by the Student Christian Organizations; the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A. The speakers included:

FORUM SPEAKERS

January 24, Dr. Wilhelm Solzbacher: "Youth of Europe—Today and Tomorrow."

January 31, Mr. Charles Winthrop Copp: "Teacher and Prisoner in Japan."

February 7, Mr. J. Anton de Haas: "Is a Just Peace Possible."

February 14, Dr. William Trufant Foster: "Post-War Prospects of Private Enterprise."

February 21, Dr. L. M. Berkhead: "Intolerance is a Racket."

February 28, Dr. Wing-tsit Chan of China: "China in the War and After."

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

Student Government Day

In early spring a day is set and observed as Student Government Day. On this day the institution is left entirely to student leadership. Every administrative office from the President's desk down, is filled by students. The object of the idea is to promote a sense of responsibility in the student.

THE STUDENT COUNCIL

In order that the student body may have a conscious voice in those phases of administrative policy that affect their campus activities most directly, and in order to create greater enthusiasm, interest and cooperation in working for the highest morale and general welfare of the institution, the Student Council has been established. This body is made up of representatives of the various academic groups, elected by their classmates and approved by the administration. Guided by faculty sponsors, the Council serves as a mouthpiece of the student body at large to present grievances, propose legislation and cooperate generally with the faculty in promoting the best interests of the institution.

ORGANIZATIONS

Student Activities

The chief business of the institution is to study; but a sufficient number of organizations are fostered and encouraged to give the student an opportunity to develop powers for the furtherance of his own plans and ideals.

THE CAVALIERS CLUB
Colors — Red and White
Motto: “We are supposed to lead; therefore, we must lead.”

This club is composed of a group of select young men. The club is well organized and its members play an important part in the activities of the college.

The aims and beliefs of the Cavalier Club are best expressed in its creed:

“We believe in the bright future of fraternal life at Bethune-Cookman College; we believe in the Cavaliers-Cavalettes, that they shall attain unequalled heights in the promotion of scholarship, fraternal, social and recreational spirit on the college campus.”

RELIGIOUS SERVICES

At Bethune-Cookman College, Christ is indeed the "Head" of the House," and the motto, "Our Whole School for Christian Service," is the ultimate determination in all plans and activities. Men and women of all denominations are accepted. Emphasis is placed upon Christianity rather than denominationalism.

Every effort is exerted to make the spiritual atmosphere of the campus real, deep, and abiding experiences. Sunday School, daily chapel and mid-week prayer meeting are required exercises.

Bethune-Cookman College was conceived in faith and dedicated to the idea of salvation through service. In all courses at Bethune-Cookman College students are taught to accept Christ as the central fact in all experiences and the source of all truth.

THE COLLEGE FINANCE COMPANY

The Beginning Accounting Class, in an effort to live up to the policy of the College in regard to functional education, has as one of its projects the operation of a loan corporation on the campus known as the "Collegiate Finance Company." This loan company, with a capitalization of $25.00, (twenty-five

"THE WILDCAT"

"The Wildcat" is the college campus paper which disseminates the thoughts and activities of the student group. This organ plays a significant part on the campus because of its practical information.

MUSIC

Among extra-curricular activities the music department holds a very unique position under the direction of two very competent instructors the College Chorus, of forty voices, includes in its repertoire: Spirituals, Jubilees, and Classics. At least once each week the entire chorus is heard in recital.

Because of the shortages that naturally come as a result of war conditions it is almost an impossibility for the entire choral group to travel to various cities for recitals, so a special group of singers in the regular group form what is known as the "Special Group," the singers who travel to various cities to fill the musical engagements. It is this group that is heard weekly over WMFJ — Daytona Beach's radio station.

The A Capella choir receives much prominence. An attempt is made to study the best choral selections, so that the visitors to the Sunday afternoon Community Meetings may enjoy a "Feast of Good Music."

ALMA MATER

Words: Mrs. Frances Keyser
Music: Josie W. Roberts

Gladly we gather thy praises to sing,
Loudly and clearly our voices shall ring,
Truly rejoicing, our Dear B.-C. C.,
Thy name forever in honor shall be.

Chorus:
Oh, B.-C. C., So dear and so true
Thy praise we're singing, our love bring to you,
God bless and keep us e'er faithful and true;
Loyal forever, B.-C. C., to you.

Years may divide us, tho' far we may roam,
Our thoughts shall return to our beautiful home;
Loving and serving wher'er we may be,
Our lives shall prove our devotion to thee.

COLLEGE HYMN
Words and music by Paul R. Roberts
Dear Alma Mater, thou beloved,
We pledge our lives to thee;
Thou art result of toil and pain
An tears came in a steam,
Dear Alma Mater, thou art all and all the world to me,
Thou'rt the answered prayer of a dream.

O God, protect dear B.-C. C.,
Crown her with love and cheer.
We'll ever sing thy praise to thee, it makes us strong and bold.
All Hail to thee, dear B.-C. C.!
All Hail to thee, all hail!
Hail thee, Maroon and Gold!

—Amen.

Because of the shortage of manpower, and because of the great need for the production of farm products, the girls of Bethune-Cookman College have organized a club which they call the "New Farmerettes" of Bethune-Cookman College. This club is under the sponsorship of Prof. L. E. Fort, who is director of Agriculture of Bethune-Cookman College.
The general aims of the "Farmerettes" club are as follows:
1. To supplement the far mlabor of the College
2. To can the surplus farm products
3. Create a better spirit toward farming
4. Improve scholastic standards among the girls and women
5. Develop a more friendly relationship among all students.
6. Farm for freedom
It is the desire of the club "New Farmerettes" to have each college in this state to form such an organization.

The Farmerettes are composed of the following officers:
