Lo: fa: The 2nd Dec

my love to the poor Colbourn sent when I was away at Chelms for to lead & oyle & the sent but & I almost think it should have been 12 & therefore have sent 6 more & if he have occasion for it let he may have it if not let him stay by then & we shall take it again he was upon me for the rent when he was here I think to be over that next week it may be 3 or 4 day therefore if possible get him Smith & Han: Colbourn to award what consideration thou must have for thy trouble that we may make an end of it not else but as I think

let every thing be settled about house afore any thing be done in it w^{ch} the door be lock & c^y wals made up
