GREETINGS FROM PRESIDENTS OF THE MUMMIES - ZENITHS CLUBS

As Presidents of the Mummies - Zeniths Club, we wish to welcome and bring greetings and felicitations from our fellowclub members to the incoming Freshmen.

We want you to love our College as we do—holding highest always its ideals. As members of the Mummies - Zeniths Clubs, we like to feel that not only a worthy fel claim membership with us and aspire to live upon the summit of life as it is lived here at Bethune-Cookman College, but all young people should be imbeded with this spirit.

To those of you wha may not know about the Mummies-Zeniths Clubs; the clubs were organized at Bethune-Cookman College, by a group of young people who desired to promote brotherly and sisterly love and cultural conduct on the campus.

The name Zenith was chosen because it symbolizes the culminating point of prosperity, the highest peak of all celestial striving, and the utmost goal of human yearning.

THE FUNDAMENTAL AIMS ARE:

- 1—To promote higher scholarship, not only among its members, but among all of the students who inhabit the campus.
- 2—To raise the social standard of the campus and to encourage young peoples' natural desire for harmony in dress.
- 3—To foster this desire for natural harmony in accordance with their personality and their financial status.
- 4—To keep students ever mindful of honest, clean and spiritual living.

SINCERITY, rather than PRETENSE is summed up in our motto — "TO BE RATHER THAN TO SEEM."

May your stay on the campus for the academic year 1946-1947 be a pleasant one, and we assure you that the members of four clubs stand ever ready to be of service to you in becoming adjusted to our campus life.

THE PROGRAM

1 The program is designed to translate in a concrete and tangible manner the purpose of the College into a way of life and living. That purpose is to help the student to develop an integrated personality, to build his life roundedly and symmetrically.

Education in its broadest sense, the production of useful changes, is the objective around which every function of the College is organized. Development of the student according to his individual capabilities is, therefore, the guiding motive. To achieve this objective the College has formulated and works within the following departments.

Teacher Training Department
Vocational Training Department
Secondary Education Department
Business Administration
Home Economics

REGULATIONS GOVERNING THE USE OF HARRISON RHODES MEMORIAL LIBRARY

LIBRARY HOURS

8:45 A. M. - 12:30; 1:30 P. M. - 4:45 P. M.

7:30 P. M. - 9:30 P. M.

Saturdays 8:45 P. M. - 12:30 P. M. Closed All Day
Sunday

REGULATIONS

1. Of first importance in a library is the matter of proper decorum. Considerate silence is requested of all persons using the library. When you are entering or leaving the reading rooms kindly do so in the quietest way possible. There are always fellow students about you who are studying and would appreciate a "minimum of clatter."
2. The Library is not the place for conversation. A conference room is available for the use of students whose instructors have made group assignments. Permission for use of the conference room is obtainable from the Librarian.
3. Reserved books are to be used in the Reserve reading room. Reserve books may be carried out at 9:30 P. M. for over-night use and are due the following morning at 8:55 A. M. No book is to be carried from the library without being properly charged.
4. Books in the Reference Room are on open shelves readily accessible to you. They are to be used in the Reference Room at all times, and each book should be returned to its proper place on the shelf, before the user leaves the room.
5. Books in the Negro Collection and Fiction Books are housed in the Reading Laboratory just at the rear of the main library. Fiction books may be borrowed at the circulation desk for a period of two weeks with the privilege of renewal if the book has not been requested.
6. Special stack permits allowing entrance to the stacks are available to certain upperclassmen who may have a definite need for such a privilege. These permits are issued by the Librarian who reserves the right to withdraw the permit if such privilege is abused.

7. The use of periodical indexes will save you much time by directing you to information found in periodicals.
8. The card catalog is an index to the library, books arranged by author, title, and subject, alphabetically. On the upper left hand corner of the catalog card you will find the Dewey decimal call number.
9. A fine of twenty-five cents is charged for the first hour, or fraction of an hour, that a reserved book is kept overdue, and five cents for each additional or fraction of an hour. Two cents per day is charged for all overdue books drawn for two weeks.
10. Familiarize yourselves with the library rules and keep them. It is necessary to do this, in order to protect the rights of all borrowers as well as the library.
11. Please do not hesitate to ask for assistance when you need it.

WE WELCOME YOU TO THE RESOURCES OF
OUR LIBRARY.

DINING HALL REGULATIONS

1. Each student is admitted into the dining room with his meal ticket.
2. The dining hall has two entrances, the campus entrance which is used only by young women and the street entrance which is used by the young men. Any student using the wrong entrance will be asked to leave the dining hall and use the right one.
3. The doors of the dining hall will be locked fifteen minutes after the last bell. We urge you to come to your meals on time.
4. Before each meal students repeat in unison the following words:

Christ is the Head of this House, the unseen
Guest at every meal and the Silent Listener at every conversation.

After these words the grace is sung:

MORNING GRACE

Come with the Morning hour
Come let us kneel and pray
Prayer is the Christian's pilgrim staff
To walk with God all day A . . . men

NOON GRACE

Be present at our table Lord
Be here and every where adored
With food divine, may we be fed
And satisfied with living bread. A . . . men

EVENING GRACE

GENERAL INFORMATION

1. All students, boarding and city, will report, men and women, respectively, to the Directors of Cookman and Curtis Hall presenting there your admission cards. In the event you do not have an admission card, you should report immediately to the Dean's Office, White Hall, second floor.

2. Report to the Business office, presenting admission card, and pay Freshman Week Fee, $1.00. At this time, boarding students will also pay the $0.50 keep deposit fee. Keep these receipts with you. They will be your admission ticket to all tests.
3. Having paid your Freshman Week Fee, report again to the dormitories for room assignments.
4. The testing program is set up for your benefit, in order that instructors may come to know you better and thus instruct you better. DO NOT FEAR these tests. They have no bearing on your classification. Come to the tests equipped with a supply of sharp pencils. You will not need to bring paper. REPORT TO ALL TESTS and to ALL ACTIVITIES on TIME. This refers to all students, city and boarding. No student will register until he has taken all the tests.
5. On Wednesday, September 11, all students who are to receive Industrial Aid must report to the Business Office, White Hall, first floor, Business Manager, to receive their work assignment card.
6. Students are reminded that official permission in writing must be secured before they will be allowed to live in the city with persons other than father or mother.
7. For further information regarding any items in this book or on any subject in which you have doubts, see your catalog, then if you are still at a loss, seek your dormitory director, advisor or Dean of the College.
8. All students are permitted to shop in town. FRESHMEN Women must be accompanied by an Older student, or faculty person, and must go in groups of two or more.
9. Freshmen Girls shop on Tuesday. Freshmen girls may also shop on Saturday, if necessary, with permission from the Matron.
 - (a) Students should return to the campus by 5:30 P. M. for the supper period.
 - (b) The route to town:
Campbell Street to Volusia Avenue, and return the same way. Students may ride the Bus if they so desire.
10. Students are not permitted to ride in automobiles, except with the special permission of the Dean of Women.

11. Sunday Social Hours—All Students:
Curtis Hall Lawn and Quadrangle—5:00 - 6:30.
(b) Watch Bulletin board for Social Hour in Dormitory.

THE COLLEGE HYMN

Dear Alma Mater, thou Beloved,
We pledge our lives to thee;
Thou art results of toil and pain
And tears came in a stream;
Dear Alma Mater, thou art all and all the world to me
Thou'rt the answered prayer of a dream.

Oh God to protect dear B.-C. C.
Crown her with love and cheer,
We'll ever sing thy praise to thee
It makes us strong and bold.

All hail to thee, dear B.-C. C.
All hail to thee, all hail
Hail thee; Maroon and Gold.

P. R. Roberts

——:o:——

COLLEGE SONG

—1—

Gladly we ather thy praises to sing
Loudly and clearly our voices shall ring;
Truly rejoicing our Dear B.-C. C.
Thy name forever in honor shall be.

—2—

Years may divide us, tho' far we may roam
Our thoughts shall turn to our beautiful home
Loving and serving where e'er we may be,
Our lives shall prove our devotion to thee.

CHORUS

Oh, B.-C. C. so dear and so true
Thy praise we're singing, our love bring to you
God bless and keep us e'er faithful and true;
Loyal forever, B.-C. C. to you.

GENERAL INFORMATION

1. All students, boarding and city, will report, men and women, respectively, to the Directors of Cookman and Curtis Hall presenting there your admission cards. In the event you do not have an admission card, you should report immediately to the Dean's Office, White Hall, second floor.

2. Report to the Business office, presenting admission card, and pay Freshman Week Fee, $1.00. At this time, boarding students will also pay the $0.50 keep deposit fee. Keep these receipts with you. They will be your admission ticket to all tests.
3. Having paid your Freshman Week Fee, report again to the dormitories for room assignments.
4. The testing program is set up for your benefit, in order that instructors may come to know you better and thus instruct you better. DO NOT FEAR these tests. They have no bearing on your classification. Come to the tests equipped with a supply of sharp pencils. You will not need to bring paper. REPORT TO ALL TESTS and to ALL ACTIVITIES on TIME. This refers to all students, city and boarding. No student will register until he has taken all the tests.
5. On Wednesday, September 11, all students who are to receive Industrial Aid must report to the Business Office, White Hall, first floor, Business Manager, to receive their work assignment card.
6. Students are reminded that official permission in writing must be secured before they will be allowed to live in the city with persons other than father or mother.
7. For further information regarding any items in this book or on any subject in which you have doubts, see your catalog, then if you are still at a loss, seek your dormitory director, advisor or Dean of the College.
8. All students are permitted to shop in town. FRESHMEN Women must be accompanied by an Older student, or faculty person, and must go in groups of two or more.
9. Freshmen Girls shop on Tuesday. Freshmen girls may also shop on Saturday, if necessary, with permission from the Matron.
 - (a) Students should return to the campus by 5:30 P. M. for the supper period.
 - (b) The route to town:
Campbell Street to Volusia Avenue, and return the same way. Students may ride the Bus if they so desire.
10. Students are not permitted to ride in automobiles, except with the special permission of the Dean of Women.

THE COLLEGE HYMN

Dear Alma Mater, thou Beloved,
We pledge our lives to thee;
Thou art results of toil and pain
And tears came in a stream;
Dear Alma Mater, thou art all and all the world to me
Thou'rt the answered prayer of a dream.

Oh God to protect dear B.-C. C.
Crown her with love and cheer,
We'll ever sing thy praise to thee
It makes us strong and bold.

All hail to thee, dear B.-C. C.
All hail to thee, all hail
Hail thee; Maroon and Gold.

P. R. Roberts

COLLEGE SONG

—1—

Gladly we ather thy praises to sing
Loudly and clearly our voices shall ring;
Truly rejoicing our Dear B.-C. C.
Thy name forever in honor shall be.

—2—

Years may divide us, tho' far we may roam
Our thoughts shall turn to our beautiful home
Loving and serving where e'er we may be,
Our lives shall prove our devotion to thee.

CHORUS

Oh, B.-C. C. so dear and so true
Thy praise we're singing, our love bring to you
God bless and keep us e'er faithful and true;
Loyal forever, B.-C. C. to you.
