My deare I am in haste but Informe thee that thou must not expect me untill about the time the friends will be at our meeting & thou I hope to be at home should be glad to have how vnrle I am doing & that all of us will at home here is sent for Big mayors a work cloe from his bro: at new England I have the the boxes, I have now bought the negro we have been so long about Altho I wife & all now willing to part with her but desire to have her a few weeks untill they can have one she grows very bigg cannot go I think about 3 months so thy: Ben: may expect a wife shortly but him be very diligent & careful in buying & that will be our advantage for me to trust him with more, I have G: Biles had disappointed thee about oates, I ~~was~~ have S: Brakes had some to sell & I think M Baker will let thee have some, I shall pay them here if thou hast not money by thee I have him sent thee M Baker a book, for Jos: Ben: said a knife, so thou: had sent the one to bro: is a little book for P: ^{latter} give little pig a ^{1/2} knife out of my box, in the closet on the west of ~~plithons~~ ^{have} a little book for M Bigall send no more to me more till I give order I am well have been since I came here sam: Carpenter but home last night tell w^m Biles I shall let of his cloe I have not yet got looks my deare him & his wife here is some paps sent for thy wth friends see them but loose them not one sent before to w^m Biles I have a letter ~~delivered~~ to him by a ~~letter~~ ^{letter} for Big mayors from his brother ~~delivered~~ my deare love to thee & all our friends I am thyne in obedience
