my Dear

fauld the 24 Day of the mo

I much desire to see thee mee thinkes I am as a widdow be fore my time the thought of us being parted thus is not pleasant not knowing how soon the Lord may parte us, I desire thee donot so intangle thy self no game for I had rather have thy Company then a grate deale of outward riches thou art more now in bondage to busyness then Euer & I have more then ordinary Care if I be not all way all home something happens amiss Last 5 day I went ouer with friends to the meeting then long to have them ouer again with mee on 6 day but some of Burlington were not willing so I staid with them untill first day was ouer & had hopes to see thee but south Hill told mee that he saw thee & that thou was well but very busy I desire thee make hast home for wee all want to see thee & friends aske often for thee & strang at thy long stay, wee are all prily well & so are friends the Children dear love is to thee & so is myne who rests in hopes shortly to see thee. I rather the board hear of & hath a dunlot of myne I would have thee fill it with malasse, Last 7 day Dilat was Drowned in a swamp all things Elrs are well I want a pair of soper shoes ben hath plowd som but nother is in Serton but when fare is dilogent no more but Romanes thy Enderod Louing wife p. pomberton

Bring mee a of good

Thou might do well to write a few lines to R & E: Haddock upon m: & S: Bowers account if thou doth remember my very dear love to thome & to thore brother and Sisters & friends in England my Love to friends in philodelfo Rest thyne p. p.
