Doa. phi. vpho. pomb. ponkoth 10. th 7 1695.

And welbored in it sood, which is hoir of all the blessing of our heavenly father for life & glory yō: and in abiding love & comfort salute yō: both, who are often remembered by me, and every comfort of yō: is sweet to me thereby I know yō: are near to y^r Lord and I to y^r faithful among his people I need no further burden then to tell yō: in my life and savor y^r sweetness of yō: spt: in all ing love whilst the key of y^r glory, of y^r most high order shall downing the vinty keys upon our spt: in y^r crown of light in which we enjoy, and are enjoyed one of another, though as to the outward part, and in y^r word so frequently wash one another, and in the same manner with our spirits, together when with words, now charmed, & demonstration thereof, and passing, or keeping, between us. yet they also are additional at times to y^r increasing of our mutual consolation, and of the Doa. phi. I am over glad, yō: are glad, though some times thou hast child and as thou sayst, I am over glad, though some times thou hast had but it to tell for to be angry with thee I may not, I that tell thee to be offended with thee, therefore I should provocation with a smile of friendship, not losing y^r friend should differ, if thou should chide again, I know no better way to answer thee but give thee love that our unity may be increased, our friendship, our fellowship ever be augmented & enlarged, so shall our communion always one with another live and to one another we at all times be comforted in y^r Lord, as we were whilst outwardly near have been since far, and I believe shall be whilst we live to y^r praise of him who hath called us by his grace my wife with me do daily salute yō: both, she loves yō: as I do, I usually give her y^r love in love and so yō: make a note of this, I love yō: by salute all yō: and it is sincerely to all faithful friends Doa. phi. at my return from Holland aft. might have a year travell in water, England, Holland & so on; the next day aft. I came to London I met wth they doa. smit. Thomas Jarry & Doa. Griffith Owen, who were also come to London y^r night before as well as I; I was glad with y^r of our anoth, and together magnified y^r good providence of god, our all good meeting, we had together in London, where aft. some time I left them, & Griffith wife on 1st day last they were all home, where wth us from our meeting, we were glad of them, sweetly comforted & rejoiced with them, Griffith showed me 2 bills as thou had more oned in thy last, the one I put at sight, y^r oth? I forgot not of we shall say more before I close, I was comforted in thy love tell thy life & love being truly comforted in both, And shall now make known to several parts of thy last, and first coming to work, what at first I proposed and all along kept to was to pay him twenty pound, and to have a general release to Aquil, y^r 2^d & 3^d of Jan. Harrison from all claims both due to him or set of money, demands, gathering, or account wth sood, which release both ample & full, signed sealed delivered by one witness, Izaak Aldm. to Ralph Malt. & Ralph Malt. duly attested, I took wth I pay twenty pound but if y^r goverall release of me, think it not safe to send it but if y^r Jarry, & S. J. Jarry, think to send a copy of it, examined & attested by them to be true copy, this goverall release takes away all his claims both at common law & equity, both y^r beginning of y^r word to y^r day of its date, so y^r will not make any claim to or his two, or any else in or make
