The 19th mo 1695

My friend

John Swift according to the Court order I sought the records about Conways operation & return & found the Court's ~~order~~ ~~it~~ grounded on a wrong report no operation can issue to do the widow any kindness wth out she by law can recover one for the bond & dollars it self to be the efforts of Philip Conway owned by mark Buttrick & by him I promise since he to answer the severall judgments as sure therefore if she has a bond agt. Conway it is like that must make her whole or I know not what will I have these some Records & papers from Jos: Woods of the management of Court affairs before this last Commission & find that both of the widow & her persons are wronged & abused by the Records not only order but judgments omitted abuses done to the minutes w^{ch} I desire these not only for thy reputation but for the discharge of good Conscience to be satisfied w^{ch} I shall as well as others have just cause to Complain & chiefly to the Court my self to the for redress because I know there chiefly managed things sure my that comm^r wth love I am thy friend P P if these will take on opposition by P Conways order argue wth the Court w^{ch} is all I have to say by your's P Conways order & shall
