I Recd a few lines from you by John Collyer I gave John to understand some what how things were but have not heard from any of you since now these may inform you that the ballance of the acct I sent you was 11 £ 8<sup>0</sup> 0<sup>0</sup> money but having not gone through things so as I had since done I find there is nothing more so much due for there was several debts w<sup>ch</sup> bal<sup>ance</sup> had contracted on your acct about ~~20 £ 0<sup>0</sup> 0<sup>0</sup> & I have~~ ~~some~~ surreys w<sup>ch</sup> were rents for taking up land & since have pd for severall patents for the same & have severall pounds for the ground but rent of about 20 £ 8<sup>0</sup> 0<sup>0</sup> I find I have found that had you pd for for in the book w<sup>ch</sup> I had not cha: him w<sup>ch</sup> I pd not charge in the acct I sent you there had also about 20 £ more than in the acct been pd about high ways besides ovr taxes not in that acct & there it need yet to lay out some more money about patenting pt<sup>ts</sup> of your land & so or there about yet to take up of full more rent due upon the land only lotts I had a full purpose to have given you the numbers of what more money has been pd on your acct than charged in the former but had forgot it until I was going away who is the bearer of it whom I had the former & I gave w<sup>ch</sup> I know your affair & I remind me of it at his going was will my not to my self opportunity but had not of send my w<sup>ch</sup> you by him but had not time to do so I should at first the had I given thoughts of coming here again if you wold please to make him your attorney or any other friend here who you think good to call me to acct I should will my to do it or be willing to pay the bal<sup>ance</sup> due & to a discharge for I desire to have an end of that concern if I can make any returns to you yet it not safe either on any side you have given or to do it until the acct be ended w<sup>ch</sup> I can not well be until you empower some body to do it with me my love to be that was I feel my dear <sup>love</sup> help to send this away from your friend in the city
