I truly love Abigail and have not for got the comfort of the letter of the 11th of the 11th of the 11th

Dear friends Phineas and Phoebe pemberton my deare love salute you and yours little one hoping you are all well and shall be very glad to heere that dear phoebe is got well and her illness and has her strength with a good if the Lord please to grant it from whom all our benedictions come glory to his name ever all who is worthy, dear friends time is short then the opportunity be large at this; and I cannot well omit dear friend whom I intirely love with love unforsaken I know you know it and want as much to see you as if I had not been so lotly to visit you from whom we got pretty well home thro' many but thro' some difficulty, got to Lizaboth town well whered we staid too night and could not get a passage at last but went to swim our horses over to stattan Island whered we were pretty much bewidered but at last got to the ferry at night whered we waited a time for the boat and forgerd our horses and forgerd us by night which was 3 or 4 miles and next day comd home by an other things as well as we could expect our children well which was chiefst of my care, my friends know you will be glad to heere how we got home this is in short I am in hope I shall be very glad to heere from you and especially to heere that you are all well which is very good of lot I should be very glad to see you here but hardly expect it till next spring and then if you live and have your health I shall very much expect you but in the mean time if you are well and can spare I by all we can have a convenient opportunity I shall be very glad to see her here and shall take good care of her dear friend will do

My dear friends please to remember my love to Margery Somers and let me know whether or no you have any thing from her husband my dear husband's kind love is to you all yours from M.G.
