Dear friend

Southwold 4th 20th of 1st mo 96

Thy's May let thee know & I My Sister & all our Companions have had our health well since we left you & at present are pretty well, we have felt the love of God to us & his power & his in our Meetings, we have been at some dark places & how away yet thy's May be some of have been kindness; with I hope thy's grow, Mind & My Sister's dear love is to thee with thy Children & all friends, desiring thy's May be in a growing state to the glory of his Name, & so our Love & Fellowship may continue & though never so far separated one from another we may be kept near together & may be kept over all thy's world, thank us, & Lord is there to bear up our spirits over all, & we as we keep close to him whose Name is worth of all honour & glory for ever, In to thy's hand & Comitt. thee

And remaine Thine
Thy's Friend

We are like to goe from here to New London & will be to sail upon 2nd day & from thence wee intend to Redd Starve

Thy's
Thank & love is to thee
