Phineas Pownall

In board the Longmound in high light 20th 21st 11th mo. 1664 In that long which was not but reached out sea & land & remained there over time So I darely salute you in the & third which thought Absent of God's grace to move you heart in life in no often remembered with desire for your good. For friend I doubt not but you will find this comes to hand hand you out of your removal of our dear Brother Robert Haydock from for which (were it not they are satisfied for his gain) would be sorrowful but you promised considered there it was best to mourn with our hope though our loss through your want of him is not small he being an excellent man fitted for your service to which he was appointed of the same & I more glad to see because I know the love to them was great as was his to them By our friend's own it sent the a copy of the I shared my Brother's love from Robert's Brother I am not much estranged to the command of I cannot say much about it shall therefore only say that it is any thing I can be serviceable to the I can be advise where I shall be very ready & willing to serve the. It hath for some time through my own business & my willingness to serve my friends I have to my lot to be more pained than I ought with but I do hope to get clear of it in a little time. I know the great care and the love which is manifested about your chest or box of garments which though not mine yet I think it as dear to my self, and I with my self and very well satisfied there with and I shall in my way shall find me well to reach return; My dear friend & friend with her (who are my dear friend) and well she hath sent to James Brown of your own as a small token to my wife a Black Almond Food which with your salutation of love with mine & my wife's dear love to the & third comes from the I am friend
