STATE HIGH SCHOOLS INVITED HERE FOR SWIMMING CONTESTS

SILVER CUP TO BE AWARDED
WINNING HIGH SCHOOL
TEAM

Time Set For May 1st; Principals of Schools Replying Favorably

The following letter just sent out by the Athletic Director explains a promising new feature in the year's program:

"Rollins College proposes to conduct a Water-Meet for Florida high school girls and boys on Lake Virginia, May 1, 1920. The time of the meet will be from 9:30 to 11:30 a. m. The co-operation of the high school principals is very necessary to make such a meet a success. May we have your co-operation?"

Two beautiful silver cups will be awarded the high school or high schools winning the highest number of points,—one cup to the girls and one to the boys.

"It will be necessary for at least ten high schools to enter to make the meet successful. A maximum of six contestants will be allowed to enter from each school. Can you not send at least one representative? Lake Virginia is a body of water well adapted to this purpose, and it is de-

TOMOKAN DRIVE AMONG ALUMNI STARTED

A big drive for the sale of Tomokans among the alumni is now being started. About 500 cards containing information about the Tomokan have been printed and are being sent to former students all over the United States. Quite a few of the alumni have already written for copies of the annual and it is hoped that upon receiving the cards with the following tidings that many more copies of the Tomokan will be sold:

"The 1920 Tomokan is about to be published. This edition is dedicated to Dr. Ward and will be the most complete Rollins College Annual ever produced.

"The Tomokan will contain many special features including individual accounts of all Rollins men who were in the service. You cannot afford to be without a copy of this product of Rollins boosters for it will not only bring back fond memories but will ever serve you as an incentive to keep the old college booming.

"Write that letter now and enclose your check for $4.00 to insure yourself a copy. The edition is limited to three hundred copies and since we have nearly that number of students the supply will be limited."

Act now before it is too late.

BASEBALL BIG THING FOR REST OF YEAR

First Games Played Here Thursday and Friday

Baseball, king of sports at Rollins, is now again in full sway and holding its own. The fairly large squad under the able coaching of "Chauncey" Boyer, has been practicing faithfully each afternoon on the fresh diamond, in preparation of the fast approaching season. The rough edges, so prominent the first few days of work-out have been gradually rounded off until a fast and snappy team has been developed, in spite of the cold weather and poor baseball conditions.

Although the material has been limited to a certain extent, the outlook is very promising in the opinion of the officials. Manager Branham has worked out an interesting schedule with the best teams of the state. In general, it appears that Rollins will have a better season than for many years.

In the last few days of practice several stars have come to the fore, and the probable lineup is: "Fred-die" Ward, first base; Hagerty, 2nd base; "Don" Vincent, 3rd base; Rowe, short stop; "Dud" Wilson, catcher; "Cheesey" Arrants, pitcher, with Fletcher, Carroll Ward and Shannon in the outfield. It is probable that Arrants and Shannon will alternate on the pitcher's mound, and

GLASSEY DESCRIBES FIRST CONCERT OF MANDOLIN CLUB

Jic Chaffee Has Encounter With Waiter

(By Walt Whitman John Fitz Randolph Glassey, P.D.Q., S.O.S.)

The Orange Belt Line Bus took us to Eustis to raise our little fuss. We arrived in the early evening and dressed ourselves with care, and descended to the dinner to eat what we'd find there. The dinner was a good one but—oh! those waiter's eyes! Ask J. Irvin Chaffee (a man averse to lies) was it the dinner or the eyes that made poor Irvin sick, for we were really worried o'er what might become of "Jic".

We left the dinner to start the performance (for some of the fellows 'twas more nearly a romance). First the mandolins went in our brilliant programme to begin. They played quite well and left the crowd amid applause long and loud. Then the

MISS ROUS ENTERTAINS

Last Sunday, March 6th, Miss Rous entertained a number of guests at her studio, in Pinehurst. Those present were Misses Margaret and Florence Smith, Mrs. Harcourt, Miss Eleanor Coffin, Mr. Perry, Mr. R. W. Greene, Mr. John Glassey, and Mr. H. Sawyer, of Jacksonville. All the guests enjoyed a very delightful time. Miss Rous played a number of selections, after which tea and sandwiches were served.

"LOVELY YOUNG SOUTHERNER"—BRILLIANT MASTERY OF PIANO

Are Enthusiastic Comments of Press
Concerning Miss Rous

The following articles, one from the Atlanta Constitution, and the other from the Jacksonville Times-Union, will testify to the marked success attained by Miss Rous in her lecture recitals, given recently at Atlanta and Jacksonville.

"Unique in Atlanta's brilliant musical season, was the discourse last Tuesday evening by a lovely young Southerner, who had chosen for her subject, 'What Next in Music?'"

"Miss Marion Rous, who was presented by the Music Study Club as one of the regular features of their membership course of educational events, delivered in a manner unusually graceful, a very informative talk on futuristic composers, dealing with the work of Ornstein, Bela-Bartok, Scriabin, Stravinsky, Ravel, Schoenberg, Palmgrenand, and the less ultra-modernists Dohnanyi, Percy Grainger and Cyril Scott.

"Her explanations of their scales, their rhythm, their various points of differentiation from accepted forms was technical enough to be of genuine musical value, and yet so simply and divertingly expressed as to be easily intelligible, even to those of her audience who might not be musicians.

"Her discourse was illustrated by

HIGH SCHOOL WATER MEET

Unique in her situation on one of the most beautiful chains of lakes in Florida, with her campus circling the northern shore of placid Virginia, Rollins holds first place among the colleges of the state in water sports.

Ever since the founding of the I-hoo-est-chay Canoe Club, some five years ago, and that famous first Canoe Club Regatta, interest in competitive water sports has been paramount at Rollins. When Spring begins to wink its eye from behind the skies of Winter and the budding cypresses, and the water lilies beckon round about the shores and the runs are full of flowers and birds, and the ever-present saw grass sways with nesting water fowl,—then especially does the canoeist find it impossible to resist the call of paddle and the sharpened prow. But who can enjoy

TAKING TIME FOR YESTERDAY

"Now" is probably the most emphasized word in the English language in this twentieth century. Young people are continually being warned against looking forward, and against looking back. They are reminded early and late that the only tense that need interest them is the present. Left to itself youth is not especially concerned with yesterday, and that characteristic is intensified by the ceaseless emphasis laid upon living in the present. It is a matter of principle as well as of instinct, to devote one's self to today and let yesterday alone.

And yet the fact remains that a good deal can be learned from yesterday. The republics that have risen to greatness and gone down to ruin have a message for the citizens of the greatest republic the world has ever known. History is more than a record of things past and gone. It is full of guideposts pointing the way to safety, of red lanterns marking the dangerous places. The good American can afford to take time for yesterday.

And what is true of us as citizens, is equally true of us as individuals. We cannot afford to slight yesterday. Its failures show the things to avoid. Its lesson, to profit by its inspiration. Take time for yesterday.—Lake Forest Stentor.

the utmost pleasure of the lakes, the cool depths of the crystal water, if he cannot swim, if he does not feel that he is master of the situation. * * *

Entrance to certain college activities are contingent on the applicant's ability to pass the swimming tests required at intervals during the first of each season by the athletic authorities of the college. As a result of this requirement and of the interest in water sports, most Rollins students are at home either in or upon the water, as witness the singular success of the Annual Founder's Week Regatta, a feature of the year around which attaches perhaps as much interest as any other one activity.

The announcement of the proposed high school water meet to be held at Rollins on the first of May this year, for the first time, is expected by its sponsors to be the beginning of a wider interest in swimming, and water sports in general, among the high school boys and girls of the state. It is hoped to make this contest a permanent part of the annual calendar.

In offering to entertain a maximum of six contestants from at least ten high schools for four days, during which time they would have the "freedom of the lakes" and the use of the fleet of canoes and boats, it seems that Rollins is doing a generous and commendable thing, and it is hoped that she may have the moral support of her sister institutions as well as the active participation of the high schools in making the venture a success that will redound to the credit of the state.

NATIONAL CONVENTION OF Y. W. C. A. AT CLEVELAND

From April 13th to 20th the Sixth Convention of the Young Women's Christian Associations of the United States of America will convene in Cleveland. Twenty-five hundred delegates are expected from the thousand centers located in small and large cities, town and country communities and colleges. From China, Japan, India, South America, Siberia and the countries of Europe where the Y. W. C. A. has established work for girls, speakers and representatives will also come to give a world-wide report of what the Association has accomplished in the past five years. Unusual significance attaches to this Convention as it is the first to be held since 1915. The one called for 1918 was not held, in accordance with the general advice of the Government that all such gatherings be eliminated during the war period.

The Convention will assemble in Masonic Temple on the afternoon of April 13th. All morning and afternoon sessions will be given over to the business of the Convention, to consideration of the many new and perplexing problems the Association faces in a world changed by years of war.

"The face of the world has changed since we met in convention in Los Angeles in 1915," said Mrs. Robert E. Speer, president of the National Board of the Y. W. C. A., in her Call of the Sixth Convention sent out recently to all General Secretaries. "No change is greater than the new expectancy with which a troubled world looks to the mind and spirit of woman. Many problems of the present and future are in her hands. The call to the Sixth Convention is a summons to the members of the Young Women's Christian Association to seek the ways of the most effective service in a world which will never again be the same for women."

Two sections of the Association membership, the student and the industrial, are facing serious questions. Discussion of the basis of membership in a student association and of a Christian order in industry are two of the problems that will engross the attention and the collective thinking of the twenty-five hundred women representing the thousands of Y. W. C. A. members in their home towns.

GREAT WAR TAUGHT VALUE OF METRICS

Congressman La Guardia Says Much Valuable Time Might Have Been Saved

Congressman Fiorello La Guardia, who, as Major in the American Air Service, commanded the fliers on the Italian front, says of meter-liter-gram:

"I still have unpleasant memories of the difficulties experienced during the World War, of the loss of time and confusion, owing to different systems of weights and measures used by various allies. We lost much valuable time in translating specifications, and more errors were caused on this account than by anything else."

Suppose that for this reason the war was lengthened only 2 months, what does this mean? It means this: During every month of the World War 100,000 men were killed; 200,000 were wounded, or missing. Thus 2 months' delay means the needless killing of 200,000 men; the needless wounding of 400,000 more. It means that metric standardization would have saved the world the suffering, the poverty, the destruction of earning power represented by these 200,000 deaths, and 400,000 injuries.

Surely it would not be inappropriate to inscribe somewhere on some monument to heroes of the World War: "Sacred to the memory of those brave men who will never come back, who were needlessly killed because of lack of world metric standardization."—Weekly Metergram.

LECTURE BY DR. TUPPER

At the Baptist church next Monday evening, March 15th, Dr. Kerr Boyce Tupper of Philadelphia, will deliver a lecture on "Our Glorious Day," which should be largely attended by Winter Park citizens and tourists alike. The lecture will be free to the public but an offering will be taken at the close, the entire proceeds of which will go toward paying off the debt on the church parsonage. Dr. Tupper contributes the lecture absolutely free without any compensation to himself.

"Dr. Tupper ranks, as a preacher, with Gunsaulus and Hillis, and, as a lecturer, with Bryan and Conwell."—National Chautauqua Bureau.

After the business of the day the evening sessions will be given over to addresses by men and women internationally known for their leadership in Christian thought. Dr. S. Earl Taylor, head of the Interchurch World Movement, Dr. Robert E. Speer, Secretary of the Board of Foreign Mission of the Presbyterian Church, and Bishop Frank J. McConnell, of the Methodist Church, are among the men who will address the Convention on world questions and the relation of the Y. W. C. A. to them.

A committee on Business to come before the convention has been appointed with Mrs. John R. French, chairman of the executive committee of the National Board, as chairman. Serving with her are Mrs. John D. Rockefeller, Jr., Mrs. Burdette Lewis, Mrs. William Adams Brown, Mrs. Thomas S. Gladding, Mrs. William V. Hayes, Miss Mabel Cratty, Miss Margaret E. Burton, Miss Henrietta Roelofs, Miss Louise Holmquist, Miss Leslie Blanchard, Miss Eliza R. Butler, and Miss Anna V. Rice.

"THE COLLEGE FELLOW—IF—"

If he can adapt himself to any situation,
Whether in school or on his vacation,
If he can be calm when the big boys come
Around to his room to haze him some,
If he takes what they give him with nary a fight,
Without dodging all-comers to get out of sight,
If in athletics he finds a treat,
And doesn't get mad if he meets defeat,
If he can "fuss" 'n everything
Without once mentioning the wedding ring,
If with his "roomie" his "eats" he will share,
Whenever they come, which is often quite rare,
If he can lend his very best clothes,
And refrain from cussing when he bumps his toes,
If he sets aside time to do his work,
And never will his lessons shirk,
If he can remember the folks at home,
And write to them where 'ere he may roam,
If he can be jolly day in and day out,
And find nothing to be overly crabby about,
If in all activities he takes a part,
And enters in each with all his heart,
If he remembers his Christian ideals,
And never to temptation yields,
And if in him there's no streak of yellow,
Why—take it from me—he's an ideal fellow!

—Rhea A. Burgett,
Buchnell University.

Do not pray for easy lives! Pray to be stronger men! Do not pray for tasks equal to your powers. Pray for powers equal to your tasks! Then the doing of your work shall be no miracle. But you shall be a miracle. Every day you shall wonder at yourself, at the richness of life which has come in you by the grace of God.—Phillips Brooks.

MRS. WM. D. STEELE PASSES AWAY

Strong Exponent of Music in Women's Club—General Federation Feels Great Loss

Within the past few days, club women all over the country have been shocked to read of the sudden death of Mrs. Wm. D. Steele, widely known and much beloved chairman of the Music Department of the General Federation.

To those who have had the privilege of her friendship, this news comes as a personal blow. But everywhere that her influence has permeated throughout America, even those to whom she was but a name, will feel a sense of irreparable loss.

None here at Rollins who attended the meeting in Knowles Hall will ever forget her magnetic personality, her burning and enthusiastic idealism, her unselfish devotion to the noblest ideals. The attitude of local women toward the loved art of music can never be quite the same as it was before Mrs. Steele's visit. She infused a new meaning into the word "music", opened vistas of usefulness and beauty undreamed of before, pointed out the way of progress and high achievement along the lines of patriotic service and devotion.

STUDIO TEA AND ART EXHIBIT

(Margaret Sutherland)

One of the annual social events was the Studio Tea given Saturday afternoon, March 3rd, from two to five. Mrs. Evans and Miss Meriwether, assisted by the art students, received. Hot punch and cakes was served to the guests, by girls of the art department.

The walls of the studio and the easels about the room presented a fine display of the work of the art classes, while in the workroom of Miss Meriwether's studio was shown a very beautiful exhibit of hand-made jewelry, baskets, and leather work. Visitors expressed admiration of and showed great interest in the development of the art department of Rollins College.

KAPPA EPSILON DINNER

The girls of the Kappa Epsilon Fraternity were guests at a delightful dinner given by their pledges in the dining hall, Friday evening, March third.

The table was by far the prettiest one that has been decorated in the dining hall this term. Bamboo sticks covered with red and white crepe paper, the Kappa Epsilon colors, extended from each corner of the table to the center. A big red bow formed the top. From these bamboo sticks hung red and white paper butterflies, of different sizes and heights. The table cloth was covered with red and white paper arranged in squares.

The pledges were made useful as hat racks. On entering the hall, the Kappa Epsilon girls threw their wraps on the model hat racks.

The girls had a jolly good time and are looking forward to many similar parties.

Pledges Entertain Charter Members

At 9:45 on Monday evening, the pledges of Sigma Phi entertained the charter members with a bountiful spread in their fraternity room. Covers were laid for nine, although the ninth guest failed to appear on the scene of action. The eight guests made themselves merry with college songs accompanied by ukeleles. After this concert the pledges entered with the food. The menu consisted of chicken salad, sandwiches, coffee, ice cream and cake. The cake was the event of the evening, being a large angel food cake with white frosting. The Greek letters "Sigma Phi" were placed in the center, with green candles.

The pledges made graceful waitresses, but were allowed nothing to eat. Such is the life of a neophyte! They passed quietly to and fro spilling coffee on all sides, but at such a merry party this was not noticed.

When the lights flashed, the old members gave fifteen rah's for the pledges. This was answered with a peppy yell from the neophytes, and the party adjourned. Who will say that they went to sleep? Two cups of coffee before retiring are not conducive to slumbers, and it was far into the wee small hours of the morning before many of them closed their eyes.

FRENCH PLAY TO BE GIVEN BY FRENCH CLASS OF ROLLINS
AT THE FREEMAN HOME

For the purpose of showing the splendid results which may be obtained in French pronunciation and diction from the conversational method of teaching, Madame Glatz is to give a French play, March 15th, at the home of Mrs. W. D. Freeman, on New England avenue.

The play, "Le Retour des Soldats" by Maloubier, is a modern comedy in one act, and is to be given entirely in French. Those taking part are Nina Marsh, Persida Mladenovitch, Nancy Hartzog, Ruth Waldron, Donald Knowles, and Warren Ingram, all members of the third year French class. A Tableau Vivant will be given at the end of the entertainment.

Madame Glatz, whose husband was the president of a large college in the French part of Switzerland, is a Parisian, and was, before coming to Rollins, a teacher at Bryn Mawr College. She is an experienced instructor, having for years made a special study of pedagogy. So practical is her method of teaching, that good pupils studying with her only one year are able to speak with comparative fluency. Private pupils after four months of study, have a good speaking knowledge of the language.

The ready pronunciation and diction of those taking part in this play is a fine demonstration of the correctness of her theory that the conversational method is the only practical method for learning a modern language.

All who can see the performance are assured of a great success. Tickets will be on sale at $2.00.

On Thursday evening of this week, the Girls' Glee Club gave a concert at The Altamonte Hotel, Altamonte Springs. This annual performance at the hotel by the club is one which the guests of the hotel look forward to and back upon with the greatest pleasure, and is one of the "bright spots" in the rather dull and uninteresting lives of the old folks at the Altamonte. In all its performances this year the club, under the able coaching of Miss Waterman, has scored a huge success. Such performances as this and the concert by the Men's Glee Club, at Eustis, are great advertisements for the school. They show that we have here an active student body, and real college life. After all what else but success could you expect from the students with the old Rollins spirit, in the finest Conservatory of Music in the state?

Preparations are now being made for the great Convention, which is to be held on the Campus, under the auspices of the Rollins Conservatory. This is the Convention of Florida Federation of Musical Clubs, to which all musical clubs and organizations are invited to send delegates. Matters of vital importance to music lovers in Florida, will be discussed. There will also be a Young Artists' Contest, in which voice, violin and piano students may take part. Certificates will be awarded to the winners. Full information concerning this contest may be obtained from Mme. Heine Steer-Saxby, 212 Hyde Park Place, Tampa, Fla. Miss Dyer, secretary of the Faculty Club, has sent circulars to all the musical clubs of the state, inviting them to send delegates. Miss Eleanor Coffin, of Winter Park, and a student of the Conservatory for a number of years, has been enrolled for this contest, in the piano department. Miss Coffin is one of Miss Rous's advanced pupils, and her playing has often been enjoyed at the monthly recitals held at the College. She will play a Chopin Waltz, a prelude and Fugue by Bach, and a composition by McDowell.

GIRLS' CAMP AND CONFERENCE WILL BE HELD HERE IN JUNE

The Rollins campus will not be as deserted this summer as might be expected after the close of the school year. Plans are being made for the entertainment of at least three conferences or conventions. The one convening first after the college closes will be the "Y" Camp and W. C. T. U. school for girls and young women. This conference will be held June 15-29, and, although it is held especially for younger women, adults are invited and will have conferences of their own. In order to make this as much a recreational camp as possible for the girls, athletics, concerts, and entertainments will be added to the regular program of lectures. Interesting and attractive folders are being prepared for distribution. These contain numerous cuts of campus scenes and point out the convenient and beautiful location of Rollins, and its recreational facilities.

GLASSEY DESCRIBES FIRST CONCERT OF MANDOLIN CLUB

Glee Club, with sombre faces flushed thru the door and onto the stage they rushed, as though some hidden, mystic power had forced upon them this tragic hour. But lo! at the close of the very first song the audience seeing nothing especially wrong, and applauding with their usual fervor calmed our hearts and strengthened our liver. And so we sang our program, thus taking the honors that were solely due to Miss Susan Dyer.

Then we danced with the maidens fair, most of them daughters of some millionaire, all enjoying ourselves excepting Fletcher (for whom, to be sure, we had ordered a stretcher, since Miss Pat Richards, his bride-to-be, seemed to prefer the company of a handsome gent in a full dress suit who surely could shake a wicked boot. But alas! the tragic tale to tell, the clock upon the twelve spot fell. We kissed them good-night feeling quite frisky (don't worry girls, they were mostly sixty) and started home.

We arrived in Sanford well shaken, tho still en masse, and found that we were out of gas. It didn't take long to fill the tank (for which we do the kind Lord thank) and then, mid snoring harmony superb, we slept our way to the Rollins curb, when some bird piped, "Thank heaven we're thru," we rolled into bed at half past two.

THE RAVENS

—Rollins', Not Poe's.

With uncanny regularity two dusky forms appear each day upon the campus. Two human forms they are, who stalk undeeded and unheeding from one building to another, heads always erect, eyes staring into vacancy, lips tightly compressed as tho, should they ever open, it would be to say, "Nevermore." With broom and mop at half-mast, they pass you in cold, gloomy silence like sentinels of the dead leaving a shadow in their wake. "And my soul from out that shadow, shall be lifted nevermore." Their mission is a serious and earnest one, and evidently they so regard it. It may be that the shadow they cast is the cloud with a silver lining. To Rollins they mean sunshine, cleanliness, and health. They are the scrub women.

"LOVELY YOUNG SOUTHERNER WITH BRILLIANT MASTERY OF THE PIANO"

the playing of a characteristic piece by each composed and in this, she likewise proved the possession of substantial musicianship. So highly satisfying, indeed was her work, in all respects, that the Music Study Club proposes to bring Miss Rous back next season probably for the lecture recital she is preparing on modern British Composers.—Atlanta Constitution.

* * * *

"Another triumph was added to the already enviable record of the Ladies' Friday Musicales when that society presented Marion Rous, pianist and lecturer at the Catholic Club, Thursday afternoon.

A large crowd gathered to hear this gifted young woman, whose artistry was brought to the notice of the Jacksonville public in the music festival last spring. The second hearing, revealed a whole host of attributes, other than the ability to play the piano extremely well. A command of English, a delicate sense of humor, a delightful speaking voice, a high order of intellectuality, a spontaneous charm, and last, but not least—to an aesthetic audience,—a beauty whose freshness will stand the acid test of daylight. The subject chosen for the lecture was 'What Next in Music?'

"Miss Rous endeavored to prepare her audience for the program of modern and ultra-modern compositions which she was to interpret. These warnings together with a clear account of the methods and aims of the futurists, piqued the curiosity of the audience, and prepared them for startling innovations. They were not disappointed. Novelties came thick and fast. The first number, the Isle of Shadows, (Palmgren), had the unique distinction of having no time signature. Against a background like the lapping of water, weird chords from the whole tone scale painted a mysterious picture, indefinite, vague, yet alluring. The second number, The Cathedral, (Ornstein) abounded in harsh dissonances, but the skillful dynamic shading of the performer lent a certain picturesqueness which found favor with the audience.

Repeated recalls showed the enthusiasm which Miss Rous had aroused in her audience by her unique and distinguished manner of presenting her subject, as well as her brilliant mastery of the piano.—Jacksonville Times-Union.

TEN DOLLARS FOR THE TOMOKAN FROM MR. COMSTOCK

Mr. Wm. C. Comstock, of Winter Park has sent ten dollars to the 1920 Tomokan staff to assist in publication. The staff is grateful for this generous and thoughtful donation, and feel that Mr. Comstock appreciates the effort that is being put forth to make the Tomokan a success.

STATE HIGH SCHOOLS INVITED HERE FOR SWIMMING CONTEST

sired to make this an annual meet if the high schools are interested.

"Enclosed you will find the proposed program. Will you bring the matter before your student body for consideration at the first opportunity? We would appreciate word from you as to their decision before March 15th, 1920. An envelope is enclosed for this purpose.

"The contestants will be received at the trains, entertained while in Winter Park, and taken to the trains for their departure. We will expect them Friday evening, April 30th, and they may remain as late as Monday, May 3rd. Girls will be properly chaperoned while here.

"Further information will follow if your school decides to enter the meet."

Replies from several of the principals of high schools in the state have already been received, declaring their belief in the further development of water sports, especially swimming, in the schools of Florida, and consenting to use their influence to send teams from their schools to participate in the interscholastic meet proposed. It is anticipated that in the promotion of water sports lies Rollins' special field.

Following is the program of the interscholastic Swimming Contest:

For Girls.

Relay Race, 4 persons, 40-yards each.

Fancy Diving.
25-Yard Dash.
40-Yard Dash (breast stroke).
75-Yard Dash (free style).
Plunge for distance.

TOMOKAN SUBSCRIPTIONS COM- ING IN RAPIDLY

Early response is being made by the five hundred former students to whom announcements were sent last week regarding the sale of the 1920 Tomokan, the college year book. One of the earliest replies is from Miss June Davis who was here last year. "Being a student of Rollins last year," says Miss Davis, "I am very much interested in the college and like to know what is going on. I enjoy the Sandspur very much and I should like to have a Tomokan. You may put my name down for one and I shall send a check. I know Rollins is 'booming' this year and wish that I might be there to help."

50-Yards, back stroke.
50-Yards, free style.
100-Yards, free style.

For Boys.

Relay Race, 4 persons, 40-Yards each.

Fancy Diving.
40-Yard Dash.
200-Yard Dash (breast stroke).
220-Yard Dash (free style).
Plunge for Distance.
150-Yards, back stroke.
100-Yards, free style.
440-Yards, free style.

Six contestants will be allowed to enter from each school.

Scoring of Points

Places in events shall score as follows:

1st place.....5 points
2nd place.....3 points
3rd place.....1 point

In the relay race, first place shall score, i. e., 5 points, and if the team score is then equal, one point shall be added to the score of the team winning the relay race.

The Biter Bitten

He hugged her in the dark, and kissed her,
And for a moment bliss was his.
"Excuse me, but I thought it was my sister!"
He said; she smiled and cooed: "It is."

Our Telephone System

"I believe," said Schultz, putting aside the telephone, "that I'll go fishing."

"Didn't know you cared for fishing," queried Fosgate.

"I don't, but I'd enjoy being at the end of a line that isn't busy, for a change."

In Biology As Usual

Prof. B.—"This plant belongs to the phanerogan family".

Vesta—"Ah! I see, you are taking care of it while they are away."

The Higher Knowledge

Dr. Vincent—"Well Donald, what have you learned in school today?"

Don—"How to whisper without moving the lips."

Hold That Brick, Freddy

Father—"Well, now that you've seen Frederic, which side of the house do you think he more closely resembles?"

Genial Friend—"H'm—of course, his full beauty is not yet developed, but surely you should not suggest that he looks like the side of a house!"

Recipe for the Blues

Let Cupid take a spoon and stir up something.

Monkey Talk

Prof. B. reports that the female ape says "mookoo," and the male ape replies "wahoo." Evolution doesn't appear to have carried us very far. A chap enjoying the moonlight on Lake Virginia last night said, "who is oo?" and the girl replied, "I's oo's."

An Emergency Excuse

Farmer—"You young rascal, what are you doing up in my apple tree?"

Boy—"Please, sir, I'm frightening the birds away, they're such awful thieves."

Happy Occasion

Mother—"What's the matter, darling?"

Son—"P-p-pa hit-t-t his finger with the hammer."

Mother—"Don't cry about that; you should laugh."

Son—"I-I-I did."

Duke's Troubles

Rowe—"Waiter!"

Waiter—"Yessir."

Rowe—"Take this egg out and ring it's neck."

If your girl is sulky and will not talk—Exciter.

If she gets too excited—Controller.

If she talks too long—Interrupter.

If her way of thinking is not yours—Converter.

If she loves you—Compressor.

If she tries to deceive you—Detector.

If she wishes you to come half way—Meter.

If she will come all the way—Receiver.

that there will be several other shifts from time to time.

"Max" Sloan shows up well, both in the outfield and at second or short and no doubt will prove a great asset to the aggregation. "Red" Palmer, the star football end, is a strong second-string man along with Roberts, Masforroll, McGaughey and Foley.

Full account of the Stetson-Rollins games played Thursday and Friday, March 11 and 12, the opening contests of the season, will be published in the next issue of the Sandspur.

ANOTHER ANTIQUATED CUT SHOWING STUDENTS AT THE DOCK

Alumni News

Word has come from Mr. William A. Reynolds, who was at Rollins a few years ago, that after leaving the army he went to New York City in the service of the International Committee of the Y. M. C. A. but that shortly afterwards became connected with the Foreign Department of the American Express Company. Mr. Reynolds will be sent to the Buenos Aires office of this company in Argentina very shortly. The appointment to South America was secured largely through Mr. Reynold's fluency in Spanish. In a recent letter he says, "I expect to sail for Buenos Aires about the 15th. The company has reserved passage for another student and myself on the 'Vaughan,' which is considered one of the best South American liners. We hope to stop a few days in Rio on our way down. My address in South America will be: Bartolome Mitre 562, Buenos Aires, Argentina."

MRS. EVANS READS PAPER BEFORE WOMEN'S CLUBS

(Margaret Sutherland)

Mrs. Evans, art instructor at Rollins, read a very interesting paper entitled "Art Chat" before an appreciative audience at the Winter Park Women's Club, on Friday, the third of March. This is the second talk Mrs. Evans has given lately in Winter Park, the former being a paper, "Two Days in the Highlands," delivered on February the tenth, before the Fort-nightly Club.
