STAFF VOTES TO SUPPORT
FLORIDA COLLEGIATE PRESS
ASS'N AS OUTLINED IN
TENTATIVE CONSTITU-TION SUBMITTED

Organization Will Help Florida College Papers Solve Mutual Promlems Thru Co-operation

At a meeting of the Sandspur staff Thursday, March 18, 1920, the tentative constitution of the Florida Collegiate Press Association, now being considered by all of the college papers of the state, was read and discussed. Upon motion, the staff voted approval of the organization and adoption of the constitution in its final form as approved by the other papers concerned. A Press Association Committee was appointed, with Robert Sedgwick as chairman, to consider the details of the work of the F. C. P. A. It is anticipated that the Sandspur will do its full share to get the organization into active existence.

It is unofficially announced that "The Flambeau," Florida State College for Women, and "The Alligator," University of Florida, have approved the Press Association and are now engaged in working out details. "The Southern" has not been heard from, although it is known that the Editor-in-chief, Mr. H. W. Blackburn, is heartily in favor of the proposition, and is, in fact, one of the originators of the plan.

GLEE AND MANDOLIN CLUB TRIP TO DAYTONA

The Glee and Mandolin Clubs of Rollins are planning to give a concert in Daytona at "The Clarendon" on Friday evening, April second. No definite arrangements are announced as yet, but the members of the two organizations are "rarin' to go," and look forward to the proposed trip with much expectation.

The arrangements with the hotel authorities are being made by Royall Klintworth.

TWO DISTINGUISHED LECTUR- ERS TO SPEAK AT ROLLINS NEXT YEAR

Lorado Taft, foremost sculptor of America today, has consented to deliver several lectures at Rollins next year. He is a particular friend of Mr. Bacheller.

Benjamin J. Rosenthal, author of "Reconstructing America," and a friend of Dr. Ward's will speak at Rollins next year on "Social Justice."

Students and Friends of the College
Invited to Lend Their Assistance

To meet the need of a building at Rollins especially adapted to the technical equipment of the Rollins Press and the Sandspur, the staff of the Sandspur has determined to raise money this year to set aside as a nucleus for a fund to be used in the erection of a press building.

The first attempt to carry out this plan, as announced by the Press Building Committee of the Sandspur, will be in the form of a vaudeville show of local talent in the Lyman Gymnasium within two weeks, probably April 3rd. Several side-splitting acts are already being rehearsed and the success of the entertainment seems to hinge now upon the activity of the ticket sellers.

ONLY A MONTH REMAINS BEFORE WATER MEET

ROLLINS WILL PROMOTE WATER
SPORTS WHILE UNIV. OF
FLA. PROMOTES TRACK

No Rollins Students Allowed To Enter
This Year

Such interest is being shown in the Interscholastic Water Meet by the high schools throughout the state that the committee in charge feels that its success is practically assured. Another team has entered, making a total of seven teams that have so far responded. Over a month is left for others to enter so it is expected that several more than the minimum of ten teams will try for the cup. All of the senior high schools of the state have been asked to join in making this a notable event of the year for high school athletics.

A very enthusiastic letter received this week from the Sanford High School states that they are sending a strong team of three girls and three boys to try and "cop" that trophy for "The Celery City."

HOYT REPRESENTS ROLLINS AT INTER- CHURCH CONFER'CE

PROPOSED WORK OF THIS OR-GANIZATION DESCRIBED IN ATTRACTIVE MANNER

135 Delegates In Attendance

A conference of considerable importance of the Interchurch World Movement was held at Jacksonville March 15-17, 1920, with a large number of ministers and churchmen representing most of the denominations in Florida attending. Dr. Charles K. Hoyt, head of the English Department of Rollins, went as the College's representative in place of Dr. Ward, who was unable to attend.

These conferences are being held in every state under the auspices of the national committee of this movement and at the conferences the results of national surveys along religious and sociological lines are given the delegates.

Quoting the words of Dr. Hoyt: "The Interchurch Conference was given to the consideration of methods for the better co-operation of the various denominations in advancing their work in every community. The results of many surveys throughout the country were very graphically pre-

SECOND BOUT; SCORE 9-1

Good Attendance Each Time

Before a record crowd, on the Rollins diamond the initial game of the University of Florida-Rollins series was won by the former team, in a game marked by errors. In spite of the large score finally made by the visiting team, the Rollins boys held them tightly, until the first of the ninth, when with the score 4-3 in favor of Florida, the latter staged a batting rally and with the aid of several poor plays by Rollins men scored four runs in rapid succession, making the final score 8-3.

Rollins lost her opportunity to win the game in the first inning when Rowe screeched a long two-bagger to center, but was called out by Umpire Barze for failing to touch the initial sack. F. Ward flied out to 3rd base. Had Rowe remained on second (Continued on page 6)

AWAIT ANNOUNCEMENT OF F. I. A. A. CONFERENCE AT DELAND

Formal announcement of the outcome of the conference of representatives of the Florida colleges which met at Stetson University this week to take definite action on the Florida Intercollegiate Athletic Association is awaited with interest. Raymond W. Green, Athletic Director, attended to represent Rollins but at the time of going to press the Sandspur had been unable to interview Mr. Greene.

DELPHIC SOCIETY TO HAVE A "BURTON" MEETING

It has been decided by the committee in charge of the Delphic Literary Society's program for this Wednesday, March 31, to make this meeting a "Burton" meeting, in order to stimulate interest in the coming lecture by Mr. Burton, the well-known speaker, on April seventh. Details as to the meeting will be printed in next week's Sandspur. The program as it stands to date is as follows:

Burton—his life, and what his coming means to Rollins—Pauline Phelps. Burton's works—Betty Yowell and Jean Wagner.

The Value of a Revival of Dickens—Helen Hanna and Mae Clock.

The Modern Drama—Helen Hanna and Mae Clock.

This program is, of course, only tentative, and subject to change at any time. The musical part of the program will be omitted at this meeting.

AN APOLOGY

The Sandspur wishes to publicly apologize to the management and guests of the Altamonte Hotel for the misleading reflections cast upon that popular hostelry by an unfortunate and unwitting reference to "the rather dull and uninteresting lives of the old folks at the Altamonte" in our issue of March 13.

To those who know the Altamonte, this reference is at once ridiculous; and those not so fortunate have only to visit the hotel at Altamonte Springs to know that life there is far from dull and that the environment is anything but uninteresting.

We hear complaints because Capt. "Gym" Greene says Rollins Academy students will not be permitted to take part in the Interscholastic Water Meet. Give 'em a chance fellows! We don't want ALL the cups to stay in Winter Park.

"A TIP FROM ONE WHO KNOWS"

Take it from one who knows, everybody at Rollins will want a copy of the "Tomokan" to take home with him at the end of the school year. Why not subscribe now, and give the staff the satisfaction and encouragement that your interest will afford?

If you think that you don't "need" a "Tomokan," then your think tank needs overhauling. Just listen to this: Every year that elapses after you leave school makes the memories of that particular school year more dear, more cherished—unpleasant things are forgotten or remembered only with a smile, and the little things, those sweet associations, loom up like silver lakes in forests of green. And what can be better than the College annual to catalog those events along with the big ones, and keep them fresh in your memory?

Why do you want your friend's picture? Surely you can remember what his face looks like, but, there is a peculiar satisfaction in having his likeness where you can look at it occasionally, recalling the while a host of pleasant memories. Even so will it be with your copy of the "Tomokan." Get it now. If you haven't the money, subscribe anyhow and arrange to have the money by the time the books are published.

Eventually you will want the "Tomokan," so get it now while you can.

The Orlando Morning Sentinel comments as follows:

THE ROLLINS SANDSPUR

"Volume 22, under date of March 20, 1920, of the Rollins Sandspur has just been cleared from the press. J. Harold Hill is editor-in-chief, and he has under him a staff of five associates and five reporters to dig up the news. It is published in the interests of Winter Park and surrounding towns by students of Rollins College. It has been published more or less continuously since 1894, and if you don't think it is a snappy pet of the college look the present edition over and be convinced.

"The motto of the periodical is 'Stick to it.' It's doing that. It's alive for that purpose. If those who own and run it are able to keep it out of Munsey's hand there's a chance it may live forever and a day longer. The present issue covers 12 pages. Looked at from all points of view, typographically and otherwise, the paper meets all requirements. It has lots of humor. If you don't believe this, take a half hour off and con the 'Spurs' department."

Thanks, Sentinel, we are open to offers from Mr. Munsey. We need the money! But lest some of our newer friends receive a wrong impression as to the ownership and purpose of the Sandspur, we call their attention to the following extracts from Article I of the Constitution of the Rollins Sandspur adopted in 1916, the provisions of which article still hold good:

"The Rollins Sandspur is the weekly publication of the student body of Rollins College and shall be run in the special interest of no student organization, person, or individual, but for the best interests of this institution and student body.

"The publication shall not be edited or conducted by any other organization but shall be in itself separate and independent.

"The purpose of the Sandspur shall be: (1) to keep alive and active among the students a spirit of college loyalty; (2) to further class during Founder's Week of this year. It was, in fact, an outgrowth of the convivial spirit of the Sandspur Banquet held Friday evening, February 20, when, after that "feast of reason and flow of soul" the editors of The Flambeau, The Southern, and The Sandspur met to discuss ways and means of co-operation in the common field of college journalism in Florida. Through no fault of his, Mr. Dye, of The Alligator, was not present, and he subsequently communicated his hearty approval of the action of these editors.

It was the opinion of the editors present that much could be accomplished in raising the standard of college journalism in the state, that co-operation between the staffs of the various college papers would result in advantageous exchange of ideas and methods, that the Florida college papers share the same problems and the same ideals, and that they should get together in a constructive program of co-operation. This end could best be accomplished, they decided, through a college press association. In this way the Florida Collegiate Press Association had its beginning.

Miss Marie Bryan, Editor-in-chief of The Flambeau was chosen to act as Secretary pro tem, with instructions to send a copy of the tentative constitution to the papers concerned and to attend to the necessary business of arranging for a permanent organization to go into active work in the school year of 1920-21. Miss Bryan reports that the copies of the Constitution have been sent out and that she is waiting for replies. All reports indicate that the proposal of a college press association will be met by enthusiastic support in every instance and that it only remains for the papers themselves to get busy on matters of detail.

The Constitution of the Florida Collegiate Press Association as it is being submitted in tentative form to the college papers of the state is as follows:

I.—Name

The name of this association shall be the Florida Collegiate Press Association.

II.—Object

The object of this association shall be to promote the interest of college journalism in the state through co-operation of the college publications.

III.—Membership

Section 1. Membership shall consist of the following publications and such others as may be admitted from time to time: The Sandspur, The Flambeau, The Alligator, The Southern.

Sec. 2. Each publication shall be entitled to one vote, but may send as many delegates (to convention) as convenient.

Sec. 3. Other publications may be admitted to this Association by two-thirds vote of the members.

IV.—Officers

Section 1. The officers of this Association shall be a President, Vice-President and Secretary Treasurer.

spirit as the basis of college spirit; (3) to keep the students, alumni, and friends posted concerning all the activities of the college; (4) to further the interests of Rollins College abroad."

DR. WARD RETURNS TO WINTER PARK THIS AFTERNOON

Word has been received from Dr. and Mrs. George Morgan Ward that they will arrive here from Palm Beach this afternoon. They will come up to New Smyrna and make the trip from there to Winter Park by auto, reaching here about four o'clock. For a few days they will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Morse at their beautiful home, "Osceola Lodge" on Interlachen Avenue.

Dr. Ward preached the concluding sermon of the season at the Poinciana Chapel last Sunday morning. The large hotels are practically depleted and the work of the chapel is almost over until next January.

Dr. Ward will receive a most enthusiastic welcome back to Winter Park and especially on the campus where the students are eagerly awaiting his arrival. Due to his prolonged illness he has been absent since the first of last January. It is hoped that the change to Winter Park will be the means of strengthening him and that he may quickly regain his former strength and vigor.

MME. GLATZ MAKES CORRECTION

Madame Glatz would like to correct the statement made in the last Sandspur that the French play, "Le Retour Des Soldats," was given by her third year class in French. Of those taking part in the play three have had only ONE year of French previous to this play, and one has been studying only since last October.

The splendid results in action and pronunciation, clearly show that her conversational grammar method of teaching is absolutely correct and the most practical system. Thus the work of the players is especially commendable, in that they have accomplished so much in such a comparatively short time. Much credit is due Mme. Glatz who has devoted all her time and attention to giving private instruction to the players free of charge.

In the third year class proper, Madame Glatz gives a lecture entirely composed of French Classics and the study of the life and character of French authors, such as Moliere, Racine, Corneille, together with some of the modern authors. But the so-called third year class of this year has studied only conversational grammar and one or two more or less simple modern French books.

Madame Glatz expects to give another play before the end of May when she will present some of the pupils of her first year class who have done remarkable work this year.

Have the Freshmen dedicated their Class Stone or chosen a Class Tree?

Sec. 2. The officers shall be elected at the annual meeting.

V.—Meetings

Section 1. The regular annual meeting shall be held on the second Monday in October.

Sec. 2. Place of next meeting shall be decided at each annual meeting.

Sec. 3. The annual meeting shall be convened by delegates of that publication having the representative last president.

VI.—Dues

The annual dues of each member shall be two dollars ($2.00), payable at the annual meeting.

The flag pole on top of Carnegie Library has been used for various purposes since that day when Ye College Carpenter reared its shining spire into the blue canopy of heaven and "Gabriel" Matlack flung the flowing folds of a new Old Glory to the breeze. It is said that the flag has been seen to float from the pole several times this year.

For several weeks past, Miss Leonard has been giving interesting programs in her studio. The Rollins students were among those invited last Sunday evening. Those present enjoyed a special treat, for Miss Greenup was there to play two violin solos. One of these was the Montvidian Lullaby, composed by Miss Susan Dyer, which won such favor when Miss Greenup played it here some weeks ago, in one of her recitals. Mrs. Dyer read a number of delightful poems composed by Miss Dyer. There were some sonnets, and a delightful composition called "Zamboanga" which is full of vivid description.

A prominent speaker of the Convention was Mr. Harold Randolph, Director of the Peabody Conservatory, Baltimore. He is a Virginian, having been born at Richmond, October 31st, 1861. He entered Peabody Conservatory, studying piano with Nannette Auerbach, and Carl Faelton, and Harmony with Sir Asger Hamerick. He also studied singing with Lucian Odenthal, and at the Conservatory with Pietro Minetti.

In 1885 he became organist at the Roman Catholic Cathedral, remaining in this position until 1890, when he became organist and choirmaster of the Emmanuel Episcopal Church. He gave up this position in 1906. He first appeared as a pianist with the Peabody Orchestra, in 1896, when it played the Chopin E. Minor Concerto. In December, of that year, he played with the Kneisl Quartet, in New York City. He has played with the Boston Symphony, the Philadelphia and Theodore Thomas Orchestras, and many other chamber music organizations, and has given innumerable recitals.

In 1898 he was made Director of Peabody Conservatory, which position he holds at present. He was director, from 1903 to 1909, of the Bach Choir, which consists of picked singers, who gave their first performance in Baltimore, of Bach's "St. Bartholomew's Passion," and Beethoven's "D. Major Mass," besides a number of miscellaneous concerts. He is the first American born and American taught pianist to receive considerable fame.

Student Recital

An interesting program was rendered at the regular monthly recital held last Wednesday afternoon, in Knowles Hall.

The students who took part showed a great deal of progress in their work. Both piano and voice students were heard. Those who played or sang are as follows:

Bach: Prelude and Fugue in G. Minor from "Well-tempered Clavichord," Eleanor Coffin.

Dichmont: "The Heart of Ye," Margaret Coulter.

Schwarwenka: "Moment Musicale," Jean Wagner.

Beethoven: "Rondo in C," Elsa Siewart.

Margaret Lang: "My Ain Dear Somebody," Jean Wagner.

Rachmaninoff: "Prelude in C Sharp

BENJ. C. SHAW, '19

One of the most recent graduates of Rollins to succeed in the teaching field is Mr. Benjamin C. Shaw, formerly of Ormond, now a teacher in the High School of Hackensack, N. J. Ben entered college in 1914 but graduated a year late because of the time he spent in the navy during the World War.

As a student Ben was original and well-liked by all. He probably wrote more stories for the Sandspur than any other one student has ever contributed and they were all interesting and above the ordinary level of composition. During his sophomore year he was President of the Canoe Club in which sport he took especial delight. He also introduced the "jigger-

Y. W. C. A.

The Y. W. C. A. meeting was held Tuesday evening in Cloverleaf as usual. The devotional part of the meeting was led by Winifred Stone. Margaret Smith was then introduced as the speaker of the evening. Miss Smith was a Red Cross nurse during the war and gave many months of service "over there." Her talk, on some of her experiences, was a most interesting one, and it was a great privilege to hear such a talk by one of our own girls. In closing Miss Smith said that she wished to emphasize the words of Dr. Jenkins: "Let us not forget the war and the great service that our boys gave, to save their country and its principles of democracy."

goon" idea here.

Mr. Shaw is now instructor in History and English in the High School of Hackensack, N. J. It is one of the largest schools of that state, having 900 students and 47 teachers. Referring to his work recently, he said: "Teaching is certainly a great work, even if we do get less money than the butcher, the baker, and the candlestick maker." Being so near New York he is able to take advantage of the cultural opportunities of the great metropolis and is evidently enjoying a very happy year.

BRILLIANT BASKETBALL DINNER

Foremost among the social events of the season was the dinner given by Miss Idabel Edwards for the basketball team, on Saturday evening, March 20.

The banquet was held at the Virginia Inn. The unique favors of dolls dressed in basketball suits, the charming little bouquets of pansies, everything was indicative of a royal good time. After a delicious six course dinner, Pauline Phelps, the retiring captain, made a short speech of welcome to the 1920-21 captain, Frances James. Miss James responded with a short toast, followed by one from the coach, Miss Edwards.

The dinner was brought to a conclusion with fifteen rahs for Miss Edwards.

Those present were Pauline Phelps, Dorothy Richards, Mary Knoke, Mary Salisbury, Helen Hanna, Margaret Sutherland, Frances James, Helen Waterhouse, Loanna Schorer, and Miss Edwards.

SPREAD FOR "PAT" RICHARDS

For a time spreads were so popular in Cloverleaf that there was really no great excitement in attending one. Not so with the one given Thursday evening by Margaret Coulter in honor of her roommate, Pat Richards. There had not been a spread in Cloverleaf for a long time, hence this one was especially enjoyed. It was all the girls could do to resist eating some of the delicious food before lights flashed for recreation period.

Sara Wight and Gertrude Davies kept the crowd in laughter by their original songs and ukelele pieces, while Thelma Carter gave a good imitation of one who has had a little too much of Hotard's punch. Everyone had a jolly time and the honoree received wishes for many happy returns of the day.

Those enjoying Margaret's hospitality were: Elizabeth Murphy, Uarda Robinson, Gertrude Davies, Kathryn Sims, Margaret Sutherland, Mabel Townsend, Sara Wight, Pauline Phelps, Helen Hanna, Mae Clock, Thelma Carter, Hazel Watts, Alice and Helen Waterhouse, and Mary Whitehead.

DR. HOYT REPRESENTS ROLLINS AT INTER-CHURCH CONFERENCE

sented on the screen; and with the facts there assembled, the several churches of each community, if they should wish, can together accomplish far more than they have ever done separately. The response of the men present from all parts of Florida was the same as it has been in all preceding conferences in other states—an almost unanimous and enthusiastic adoption of the effort. The whole movement centers in the individual community, the Interchurch organization simply helping in supplying such assistance as may come from the combined research of a body of devoted and able experts. Probably nothing of more promise has been attempted in the past than this effort to unite voluntarily the consecrated services of the various churches of the land."

The statistics collected by these surveys were shown on the screen and their importance impressed on the delegates. Another feature of the conference was the illustration of familiar songs on the screen as they were being sung. Denominational conferences were held and plans made for future action.

The Interchurch World Movement had its beginning at a meeting held in New York City, December 17, 1918. This meeting was in response to a call of the Foreign Missions Board of the Southern Presbyterian Church. The 135 persons attending agreed that the times demanded the co-operation of all churches for the purposes of increasing their efficiency. Since then extensive surveys have been made, publicity has been given to the movement, and conferences of various kinds have been held. The delegates to the Florida conference at Jacksonville returned with a better understanding of the sociological condition of the country and with the desire to better conditions in their own communities.

DR. WARD'S LAST SERMON IN PALM BEACH THIS SEASON

(Taken from the Palm Beach News, March 20)

The Reverend Doctor Morgan Ward will preach his last sermon of the season in the Poinciana Chapel on Sunday morning. The attendance last week was far beyond any previous season and is a tribute of the esteem in which Dr. Ward is held by the entire community. The eloquence and human interest in Dr. Ward's sermons attract not only the hotel guests and cottage colony of Palm Beach, but throngs of winter visitors from nearby resorts avail themselves of every opportunity to hear his helpful and inspiring sermons. Palm Beach is fortunate to have for its spiritual adviser a man of such profound erudition and magnetic personality as Dr. Ward. The phenomenally large congregations at the Poinciana Chapel this season illustrate the reverence and regard which is generally held for this beloved pastor.

We wonder what fair maiden will be crowned Queen of the May—It's time to be thinking about that. Girls, a word to the wise. Be sweet, look pretty, and smile!

'GATORS DEFEAT ROLLINS IN BOTH GAMES

he could have easily scored on Hagerty's single to center. With a tally still in view Hagerty stole second, but died there when Shannon flied out to catcher. Again in the second inning Rollins lost a big chance. Wilson, who had singled to center field attempted an impossible steal to second and was caught early there. Vincent reached first on a single to second base but was caught between first and second when he tripped in an attempt to steal. C. Ward ended the frame with a fly to center.

Florida's first tally came in this inning, when with only one down Getson poled a three bagger to deep left and scored on Byrd's single.

At this point Shannon, Rollins' twirler, tightened, and with the excellent support of his teammates, kept the Florida men from even reaching first.

Rollins evened the card in the last of the fourth. Again with one down, Hagerty, Rollins' husky second baseman, stretched a clean two-bagger to deep right and went to third on Shannon's sacrifice bunt. Both men were safe. Shannon stole second and Hagerty came home on Wilson's single to right field and Shannon went to third. Another run seemed sure, but Vincent fanned and C. Ward was out at first, short to first.

Rollins jumped into the lead in the following inning when Arrants singled to third, Fletcher was hit by pitched ball and F. Ward singled to first. With the bases full Hagerty brought Capt. Arrants home on fielders' choice, forcing Ward out at second. The inning closed when Shannon flied out to first.

Up to the seventh inning, this standard of playing was the best ever and Coach Boyer's charges seemed to have the edge on the Florida team, showing much better team work. However, every thing seemed to go wrong at once, when in the first of the seventh the "Alligators" cut lose. Ogilvie tapped to Shannon, but reached the sack on the latter's poor throw, and scored on Madison's three-bagger, tying the game. Here Getsen and Byrd were hit by pitched balls, filling the bases. Madison scored when catcher Wilson let a ball get by him. Getsen attempted to score when Wilson went after the ball slowly, but a throw to Shannon caught him as he slid home. In trying to catch Gray who was going to second during the play, Byrd tallied. Liddon ended things for Florida, when he flied out to third. Score 4-2.

In the same inning, Rollins brought in another run. With two gone, F. Ward singled to right and promptly stole second. Ward scored on Hagerty's neat hit to center, but Rollins' hopes died when Hagerty was caught stealing second.

Florida's rally in the ninth proved the undoing of Rollins, and the entire team seemed to lose the marked steadiness of the preceding innings. Rollins was unable to do anything in its final chance at bat and the game closed 8-3 in favor of the "Gators."

Hagerty, Vincent and F. Ward starred for the local team and Getsen and Capt. Hardee for the visiting club.

ROLLINS LOSES SECOND GAME

"Gators" Again Victorious Over Local Club. Score 9-1

Once more the Blue and Gold was forced to go down in defeat before the nine from Gainesville, in the series of two games staged on the Rollins diamond, Wednesday and Thursday afternoons. In spite of the determined efforts of the local club to make up for the first loss sustained the previous day, luck seemed to be out of the question and the final score resulted in a 9-1 victory for the visiting team.

Florida cinched the game in the initial frame when five men scored in rapid succession and strengthened its hold in the following four innings when four more scattered runs were brought in. However, at this stage of the game Pitcher Arrants, hitherto hit freely, struck his stride and held the game firmly in hand, for the remaining innings.

Rollins only score came in the fourth. Hagerty singled to center and went to second on Wilson's crack to second baseman, who fumbled. Both men were safe. Here Hartman, Florida's husky twirler, attempted to catch Hagerty at second, but threw wild and Hagerty was able to score easily.

The contest was marked throughout by heavy hitting and innumerable errors.

"In the Heart of the City"

PERSONALS

Mrs. E. J. Cleave, mother of Bert Cleave, a former student at Rollins and at present a freshman at the University of Virginia, is in Winter Park for a while and is stopping at the Seminole. Mrs. Cleave has been spending the winter at the Royal Poinciana Hotel in Palm Beach.

Easter Russell spent last week-end at her home in Fort Pierce.

Harriet Maltbie was a visitor on the campus Tuesday.

Helen Hanna is spending the week-end in Tampa.

Mr. Lucius Knowles, of Worcester, Mass., whose father was the donor of the hall at Rollins, which bears his name, came to Winter Park on Tuesday from Palm Beach, where he has been spending the winter. Mr. Knowles was at one time, the owner of almost the entire town of Winter Park, when he fell heir to what was known as the Knowles Estate, which contained the greater part of the property now incorporated in the town. At present, Mr. Knowles is the head of several large cotton mills in his state.

Kathleen Brady returned from her home in Sanford after several weeks visit.

Bertha and Anna Gram spent several days last week at their home in Moore Haven.

Charles Ward, who has been in Arcadia taking examinations to West Point Military Academy, returned to the campus Tuesday.

One of the largest real estate transactions that has taken place in Winter Park, was made last week when the famous Alabama Estate passed from the ownership of F. E. Sherman, of Bar Harbor, Maine, to J. Kronenberger, of Cleveland, Ohio.

Mae Clock, Dorothy Richards, and Mabel Townsend were guests of Mrs. Chauncey Boyer, in Orlando, last week-end.

A new Serbian boy has arrived on the campus. He has been attending the University of Cuba, the past three months.

Mrs. Arthur Schultz entertained the Kappa Epsilon girls with a delightful tea at her home Friday afternoon.

Betty Barr, a 1918 graduate of the Academy, has made Tri Delta Fraternity at Branau College, Gainesville, Georgia. Her home is in Orlando.

Frank Palmer spent the week-end at his home in Eustis.

Charles and Eddie Fohl were guests in Eustis for the week-end.

The following girls went out Monday morning for a canoe breakfast: Elizabeth Murphy, Loanna Schorer, Mary Whitehead, Helen Hanna, Pauline Phelps, Thelma Carter, Miss Edwards, and Mary Salisbury.

STUBBS ENTERTAINS AT FAREWELL PICNIC

Ellis Stubbs was the excellent host at a stag picnic held near his home in Winter Garden on Monday evening, March 22. For a long time a week-end stag party had been planned by Ellis and a few others, but on account of the "flu" epidemic here, it was judged impractical. It was felt, nevertheless, that some outing of the sort should be "pulled off" before Ellis' departure for Massachusetts.

Upon invitation of Mr. Stubbs to have the picnic near his home, and to enjoy some of his chickens, a "gang" was called together, a collection was taken for food, and cars were solicited for carrying the crowd out to Winter Garden. After a great deal of delay, and speculation on the part of the fellows as to whether any means of travel would appear upon the scene, four of the cars promised for the occasion were launched on the road to Winter Garden.

Alas! Only the blessed reach the promised land. For further information as to those who never reached Winter Garden, see Don Vincent, "Smut" Fletcher, "Stan" Fosgate, or either or both of the two Potters. Suffice it to say that the weary souls who remained behind on the road received their share of the chicken—and not much else. Incidentally, Dick Potter's car arrived back in Winter Park at 5 a. m.

When the various Fords and Chevrolets, after several incidents, finally reached Winter Garden, the chicken, ham, and coffee were made to fulfill their supreme mission in life. Songs were sung, accompanied by the mandolin. A rousing cheer was led by "Skid" Shannon, treasurer of the party, and a start for home was made.

All hope that Ellis has not left school permanently, and that he will often be seen on the campus. Those present were:

"Skid" Shannon, MacGaughey, Charles Ward, Bell, Sullivan, Sedgwick, Klintworth, Earl Haight, Aubrey Haight, Taylor, Grady, Dow, Robbins, Evans, J. E. Sadler, Markwood, Wilson, Foley, Wynn, both Brileys, Brock, and the belated party in the Potter machines, Dick and Paul Potter, Vincent, Fosgate and Fletcher.

Freddy—"Do you like my mustache?"

Lee—"Not so very well at first."

Freddy—"Perhaps it will grow on you."

Lee—"Oh, Frederic, how absurd!"

CLEVER SHOW BEING PLANNED BY STUDENTS

Mr. Glassey is in charge of the arrangements of the vaudeville show, and he asks that students having any "lunatic" ability that they are willing to display please see him as soon as possible.

It is hoped that the entire student body will get in behind this campaign and make it a signal success. Mr. Frank Palmer, Chairman of the Press Building Committee, will be glad to receive suggestions and assistance in the carrying out of this campaign from any member of the college or its friends who think well of the object for which the committee is working.

It will be remembered that the nucleus for the Rollins Press, now in successful operation, was donated by the Tomokan staff of 1917.

Spring Fever

There is no cheer,
Work is so drear
When the air's clear,
Now that spring's here.

Go to bed late—
Chapel at ten
Oh, how we hate
Rulings of fate.

If I could sleep,
Get up to eat,
Go back to sleep,
Life would be sweet.

See the green grass,
Pretty girls pass,
Must go to class,
Hear the profs. gas.

Dreams gloom dispel,
—Alarm-clock's bell!
Evil thoughts swell
Gee, ain't it hell? L. F. B.

Tommy—"Don't wipe your mouth on that napkin."

J. H. H. (who hasn't shaved for a week)—"Why?"

Tommy—"You'll wear a hole in it."

Jack—"I claim to be a self-made man."

Agnes—"Well, that relieves some one of a terrible responsibility."

As some Rollins Academy students have misunderstood the rulings and think that the Academy is to be allowed to compete with the high schools in the meet, those in charge wish it to be understood that no Academy student will be permitted to enter. This action has been taken to avoid misunderstandings that might arise with outside teams.

The visiting teams will be entertained by the college and several things of interest have been arranged to make their stay at Rollins pleasant.

The attempt of the Athletic Department of Rollins to establish an annual water meet for the state high schools should receive the hearty co-operation of these schools. It is surprising that a state having all the beautiful lakes that Florida has should not stimulate interest in aquatics. This is a big step in that direction. Situated as Rollins is in a central location and on a chain of inland lakes it makes an ideal place for such an event to be held. The State University has its annual Interscholastic Track Meet to stimulate interest in track athletics. Rollins, the oldest state college, is promoting another branch of athletics—aquatics, and, being on the shores of Lake Virginia, is admirably suited for this purpose.

Fair one—"Stan calls me revenge."
Rare one—"Why?"
F. O.—"Because revenge is sweet."
