WEST PALM BEACH TO ENTER WATER MEET

Further advertising of the High School Water Meet is to be carried on by the printing of an attractive folder. This will contain a picture of the handsome cup which will be awarded the winning team, a program of events, and the instructions. Copies of these will be sent to the high schools that have been invited to enter the meet and will do a great deal to spread the news of this big event throughout the state.

Meanwhile the West Palm Beach High School has written saying they would like to enter a team to represent them. This brings the list of entries up to eight.

WIFE OF FOUNDER OF COLLEGE SHOWS GREAT INTEREST IN TOMOKAN

One of the greatest surprises, and most encouraging boosts given the financial management of the Tomokan arrived by mail the latter part of last week in an unsolicited check from Mrs. A. W. Rollins, wife of the founder of the college. The gift was characteristic of Mrs. Rollins' sympathetic nature and broad understanding of student problems. She was recently asked for a photograph of herself by the Editorial Staff of the year book to be placed in the founder's section. Upon her return from Palm Beach to her home in Washington she sent in a generous check, saying she was quite sure it would be of much more service than any photograph of her could be. Of course all those who have seen the charming likeness of the "mother" of the college which hangs over the President's desk, will disagree with her on this point, and will regret exceedingly that the Tomokan for 1920 will not contain her picture.

DR. BURTON SPEAKS HERE NEXT WEEK

ORLANDO AND SANFORD HIGH SCHOOL SENIORS TO BE GUESTS AT BURTON LECTURES

Committee of Girls Busy Selling Tickets in Town and on Campus

Less than a week now remains before Dr. Richard Burton, the celebrated author, will deliver two lectures in Knowles Hall, and from present indications he will be most enthusiastically received by students and townspeople. The committee of girls who have the arrangements in charge, the Misses Elizabeth Yowell, Mae Clock, Pauline Phelps, Helen Hanna, and Jean Wagner, have been busy placing orders for tickets during the past week but there are still a large number of tickets to be sold. The "Burton Evening" of the Delphic Society, held Wednesday evening, served to give those who attended, a better understanding of the evening and in a most pleasant manner. (Continued on page 5)

DR. WARD WELCOMED BY ROLLINS CLUB

FIRST SOCIAL FUNCTION GIVEN BY NEWLY ORGANIZED BODY OF FORMER STUDENTS IN WINTER PARK

Mr. Comstock, Trustee of College, Leads 3 Cheers for President of Rollins

Of much interest to the former students of Rollins College will be the reception given Tuesday night at the Winter Park Country Club to Dr. George Morgan Ward, president of the college, by the recently formed Rollins Club of Winter Park. The reception was in the form of a welcome back to Dr. Ward from his season's pastorate at Palm Beach and was a fitting function for the inauguration as well as for the first president of the club, Miss Clara Guild, who holds the rare distinction of being the first graduate of Rollins College. Miss Guild was the first speaker of the evening and in a most pleasant manner. (Continued on page 6)

ABOUT THE SANDSPUR ENTERTAINMENT

Of course everybody read the write-up last week in the Sandspur about the entertainment to be given soon by student talent, and other kindly-at-heart Rollins sympathizers, for the benefit of the Sandspur.

And, of course, as a matter of long custom, all thoughts of the write-up were immediately laid away on the forgetting shelf—"just another line of hot-air about what was going to happen."

And, of course that was the end of it, as far as the reader was concerned. Absolutely!

All right! now for a shake-down for those poor creatures who imagined for a moment that they were being kidded by an energetic reporter of the Sandspur, who does nothing but write for their amusement, so they think! All you people are entirely off the track. Get back on. There IS going to be an entertainment and a REAL one at that. No hitches, breakdowns, forgotten parts, or anything. It's to be a regular, up-to-date, go-get-em blow-out, full of vaudeville stunts, musical numbers, and clever witticisms. Nothing dead about the bunch that is going to be at the heavy end of the program either. They are alive! Are you?

For further elucidation, take a look at the talent and weep for joy.—"Jic," "Gabriel," "Goofey," "Red," "Bob," etc., etc., etc. among the boys, and "Pat", "Pud", etc., etc., etc., among the girls. Boy, talk about an entertainment what am an entertainment! It will be just like that Broadway show that you want to hurry back up North and see. And then too, this show will be composed of "all-American" stars.

What are you going to be? A kill-joy, a gloom-spreader, or are you going to be a live-wire and a booster? We have the talent, ambish, and pep, now what we want is co-operation by all the students on the campus and off. What does the Sandspur mean to you as a student of Rollins? Well! Show what it stands for in your existence.

The Sandspur now holds the distinction of being the best edited college weekly in the state. Are you going to assist us in holding that rep by just a little co-operation? The staff of the Sandspur doesn't beg for assistance and help—it expects it as a perfect matter of course.

Chancellor Brooks has given us a happy start by offering his services in any way that they may be used. Thanks, Chancellor! Here is hoping that more may "ditto."

MISS DYER HEADS FLA. FEDERATION OF MUSICAL CLUBS

THIRD ANNUAL CONVENTION HELD UNDER AUSPICES OF THE CONSERVATORY; NOTED MUSICIANS AND MUSICAL EDUCATORS HEARD.

Biennial Convention Will Be Held In Tampa Next Year

Delegates from fourteen musical clubs, representing all parts of the state, gathered on the campus in Winter Park to attend the third annual convention of the Florida Federation of Musical Clubs held here under the auspices of the Rollins Conservatory, March 24 to 27. Among the prominent speakers of the convention were: Harold Randolph, director of the Peabody Conservatory, Baltimore, who spoke on "Musical Education in the South"; Mrs. David Allen Campbell, editor of the "Musical Monitor", outlining the work of the National Federation of Musical Clubs; and Dr. Wm. G. Dodd, dean of the Florida State College for Women, who spoke on "The Needs and Possibilities of Music in Florida."

The Young Artists' Contest was a very interesting feature of the Convention. The winner of the vocal contest was Miss Florence Keezel, and of the piano contest, Miss Jessie Pedersen. (Continued on page 2)

DR. HOYT INVITED TO GIVE COMMENCEMENT SERMON

Dr. C. K. Hoyt, professor of Bible and English Literature, has been invited by Principal D. B. Shaver, of the Wauchula High School, to deliver the commencement sermon in Wauchula on Sunday morning, April 18.

The Wauchula High School is one of the most prominent and progressive in the state and each year sends out a large number of graduates. The principal, Mr. Shaver, has made an enviable record for himself in carrying out an important work.

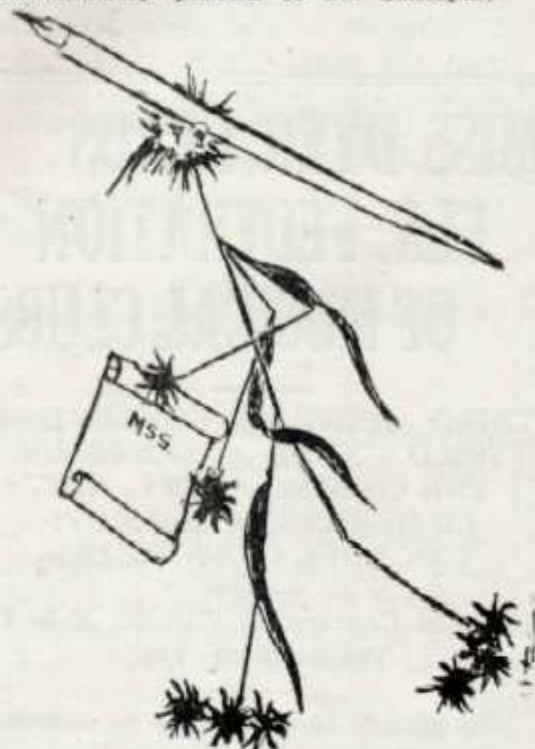

Dr. Hoyt is a popular commencement speaker and will no doubt be received with much appreciation by the people of Wauchula. Dr. Hoyt is a graduate of Hamilton College and the Auburn Theological Seminary. He holds the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity from the University of Omaha and is a scholar by taste, training, and experience. His life work has been Literature. He was formerly Professor of English in Wells College, New York, has contributed to Johnson's Encyclopedia, for several years was a member of the College Board of the Presbyterian Church, and has from time to time contributed to the large magazines. Dr. Hoyt came to Rollins in 1918 and is one of the most popular professors here.

VIVE LE SANDSPUR

Do you ever stop to consider, Saturday noon, when your "lunch" is made happy by the "Spurs," or by the writeup of the last game, or in fact any other writeup in the paper, just how much you owe to the Sandspur staff? Do you realize that it is not just a matter-of-fact occurrence, but a matter of hard work?

Any day during school and after school, if you closely observe "Hal" Hill you will see him dashing here and there trying to keep things moving so that your next Sandspur may be out on time. In one short week they have all the material to collect, editorials to write, eight pages to fill with snappy news, long proof sheets to correct and then take to the press. And in addition to this, they all have lessons to get, just like ordinary mortals!

The Sandspur is one of the most important factors in school life. It brings us all together by its personal items. It furthers college spirit by

SOME GROW, SOME MERELY SWELL

"Some men grow under responsibility, others merely swell" is a pretty true old saying. One man we know will grow. We are not saying who he is, but right now he is mighty busy on the "Tomokan"—and they say our Year Book is going to be a winner.

The Sandspur has had to part with the official presence of one of the best workers on the staff. His name is Lloyd Boyle, and his department, the "Spur" department. As Editor-in-chief of the "Tomokan," Boyle has responsibilities that require all his attention, and then some. Had it been otherwise Boyle would be with us yet—he isn't a quitter and the "Tomokan" work will not last always. His resignation as editor of the Joke Department of the Sandspur is merely that he may give more of his time to the "Tomokan." We will have him back on the staff, in some capacity yet. You can't keep a good man off the Sandspur staff!

The next meeting of the clubs will be at the Biennial Convention to be held in Tampa next year.

History and Purpose of the Federation.

The National Federation of Musical Clubs, of which the Florida Federation is a part, had its beginning at the Chicago Exhibition in 183 when the local musical clubs came together in a program to promote nation-wide interest in music. Today the National Federation has two hundred and fifty thousand members throughout the United States, and has done more for the advancement of American music than any other organization in the country. The Federation has already given over $25,000 in cash prizes to

INTERESTING FACTS ABOUT SERBIAN STUDENT REVEALED IN LETTER FROM MISS MORTON

The following letter from Rosalie S. Morton, Chairman of the International Serbian Educational Committee, inclosed by Miss Morton in a note to Chancellor Brooks, thanking him for the care taken by the college of Vaso Trivanovitch, a Serbian student who stayed here a few days en route to the University of Florida, to President Murphree of that institution, reveals some interesting facts concerning Vaso and his family. Vaso made many friends while here, who were impressed by his readily picked-up knowledge of Spanish, and his eagerness to learn English.

"Vaso Trivanovitch, who comes to you from Cuba, after having spent a few days at Rollins College, comes of an exceedingly good family. One of his uncles has, since the war, been Minister of the Interior of the Kingdom of Serbia, Croatia, and Slovenia. Another of his three uncles was imprisoned by the Austrians for two years, and condemned to suffer horribly. He is very emaciated looking now, and will probably never be able to regain his health, although he has a very brilliant mind. The third uncle is one of the great men of our time. He is Colonel Prebichevitch, who came to America to recruit a regiment of Jugo-Slav soldiers who had come originally from various provinces which Austria had taken from Serbia. Rather than live under the Austrian flag, these men, and in many instances their families as well, had migrated to America. They would not go into the war at the beginning because they would then have been forced to fight on the Austrian side, but when America went into the war they offered their services without pay as Serbo-American volunteers. They were all holding responsible and well-paid positions of various kinds in the United States, but they went and joined the Serbian army on the Salonika front.

"They fought successfully right up to Belgrade, doing a great deal by their heroism, their fortitude, and their ambition to liberate their homes from Austrian rule.

"The man who led and inspired them was the brother of Vaso's mother. When the boy applied to me to come to America or to Cuba to study, I thought he could not stand our northern climate, he was so pale from lack of food. I therefore sent him to Cuba.

"He said on arriving here that although the journey had been rough, he had enjoyed it because he knew where the next meal was coming from while he was on board.

"He has had a very hard experience in Cuba, and I am glad he is now to be in a happier environment. He will specialize in Agriculture, and may very possibly be the future Minister of Agriculture."

All records were broken this year at Harvard when 180 students reported for crew. reports of the games, and the clubs, by up-to-the-minute editorials. It lightens our pathway with humor. It trains its reporters in journalism. A Sandspurless college would be a college with half of its spirit gone. It would be an "institution of learning" only.

Under the inspiration of the editor-in-chief combined with the tireless work of the editors and the staff, The Sandspur is better this year than ever before. For the time, effort, and brains they put into it, they deserve the deep appreciation of the college. Seven big ones for the Sandspur!

American composers. The encouragement and aid given to young performers throughout the country has been of incalculable value in developing American musical art.

The three great purposes of the Federation are:

1.—To make America the music center of the world.

2.—To make music useful in the civic life of America.

3.—To promote and develop American musical art.

They propose to effect these purposes in a nation-wide campaign, now well under way,—a campaign of Education, Philanthropy, Publicity.

The Florida branch of the Federation is now well organized and has had three annual meetings; the first at Miami, the next at Gainesville, and the one this year at Winter Park. Miss Dyer, the new president, is also chairman of the Music Committee of the Florida Federation of Women's Clubs. Miss Dyer is well-known throughout the state for her splendid work in community singing organization during the war and since, and it is her purpose to combine the forces

BACTERIA CHALLENGES SPIDER FOR CHAMPIONSHIP

Besides offering a complete vaudeville show, we are going to feature the bout for the championship of the Flyweight Division of Prize Fighters at Rollins. Mr. David ("Bacteria") Crockett has challenged his brother "Spider" Stephens to a 3-round battle for the Flyweight belt. "Spider" Stephens, the present title holder, states that he will beat the French champ's, Carpentier's, record for a knockout soonest after the starting bell rings. "Bacteria" said when interviewed that after defeating his well-known brother he will tackle Jack Dempsey.—Adv. by Spec. Press Agt. of the Sandspur Vaudeville.

five weeks before final examinations begin. The new staff will be elected at a meeting of the Sandspur Board, which consists of the present Sandspur Staff and the Advisory Committee of the faculty. The election is held at this time of year in order that the new staff may have a chance to become accustomed to the work. To this end the new staff will edit the last five issues of the year, with the assistance of the retiring staff.
In order to maintain the high standard set for the Sandspur, members of the staff must be selected only on the basis of merit, and with this principle in view positions will be filled at the election in April. Journalistic or business ability is necessary to success in some of the positions on the staff, but genius is not requisite. Brains, willingness to learn, together

Persons desiring a place on the staff for next year should manifest their interest by submitting samples of their work to the editors between now and the election, or communicate their desire to a friend on the staff. BIG PROGRESS BEING MADE IN REORGANIZATION OF F. I. A. A.
Interest has been renewed in the F. I. A. A. by the state college and universities and at a series of conferences plans have been made by the representatives of the athletic department to redraft the constitution and by-laws.
Raymond W. Greene, Athletic Director at Rollins and present chairman of the F. I. A. A., spent March 24 at the State University at Gainesville and reports that after a long conference with President Murphree, Dr. Harvey W. Cox, and Prof. Beck, Chairman of the Committee on Athletics, they expressed willingness to support any movement that would lead to raising all athletic standards in Florida.
Last Saturday, Professor J. M. Blair and R. W. Greene met Professor Colton, of Stetson, at DeLand. At this meeting it was decided to make a draft of the constitution and by-laws the next two weeks. There will be a and submit it to the colleges within meeting of the board of directors at DeLand soon after this, when final plans for the association will be made.

GREAT PYRAMID FOUND
MEXICO CITY.—Discovery at Teotihuacan of a third pyramid greater than those to the sun and moon, which have long puzzled archaeologists, and rivaling those of Egypt, is announced here. Experts who have been investigating ruins of forgotten civilization near this city believe that in the new pyramid may be found relics which will be invaluable in the study of the age of the Toltecs.
Archaeologists have for many decades been interested in the two great pyramids located at Teotihuacan, twenty seven miles northeast of Mexico City, the name of which means "City of the Gods" in the Aztec tongue. Confused legends and traditions relative to them throw little light on their history. They were used as burial places and in many ways resemble the pyramids of Egypt.

FIVE O'CLOCK TEA FOR DR. AND MRS. WARD

The Kappa Epsilon Fraternity and alumnae entertained at a delightful afternoon tea at the home of Mrs. LeRoy B. Giles on Lucerne Circle in Orlando, Monday, in honor of Dr. and Mrs. George Morgan Ward.

The tea was especially attractive not only because of its delightful informality but also for the unusual beauty of the decorations of the house and porches. The lower floor was profusely decorated with spring flowers of every variety, artistically arranged, and the spacious north porch, where refreshments were served, was a vista of roses and spring flowers.

The gathering was delightfully entertained with a piano selection by Miss Marion Rous, and an interesting monologue by Mrs. W. W. Glenn.

Mrs. Huston Davis, of Birmingham, Alabama, presided at the coffee table. Before her marriage, Mrs. Davis was well-known in Orlando as Miss Lilly Drennen.

DR. WARD RECEIVES A WARM WELCOME HOME

After the trying trip from Palm Beach, Dr. and Mrs. Ward arrived in Winter Park last Saturday afternoon and are receiving a warm and enthusiastic welcome from the college students and townspeople. Monday afternoon Kappa Epsilon Fraternity gave a charming tea in Orlando for Dr. and Mrs. Ward.

On Monday night, by the time all the week-end students had returned to the campus and word had been passed that Dr. Ward was in town, the students gathered after study hall and marched in a procession down to the residence of Mr. Morse where Dr. and Mrs. Ward are stopping. There followed an old time serenade, enjoyed as much by the students themselves as by those who received this warm tribute. Yells were heard and Rollins songs were sung with more than usual "pep". The serenade is a fine indication of the great loyalty and love that the entire student body has for "Prexy" Ward.

A dainty salad course consisting of chicken salad, orange ice, hot rolls, coffee, almonds, and candy was served.

Those motoring over from Winter Park were: Mrs. Henry Kart, Mrs. Walter Rose, Miss Marion Rous, honorary members; Mrs. Arthur Schultz and Mrs. Kenneth McCulloch, alumnae; and the nine college girls who make up the present chapter, Pauline Phelps, Doris Tilden, Helen Hanna, Mary Knoske, Elizabeth Murphy, Florence Bumby, Jean Wagner, Mary Whitehead, and Idabel Edwards.

Through the courtesy of the Advisory Board of the College of which Mr. Irving Bacheller is chairman, it has been decided to invite the seniors of the Sanford and Orlando High Schools to these lectures, so as to give them the same opportunity of hearing these lectures as is afforded the students of the college. The Orlando girls and boys have been asked to come on next Thursday evening, April 8th, and the Sanford seniors are looked for on the following evening, Friday, April 9th. They will be the guests of the college and will no doubt be glad to take advantage of the opportunity of hearing one of America's most scholarly and polished speakers.

ROLLINS CLUB ORGANIZED IN WINTER PARK

Miss Clara Guild, First Graduate of College, Elected President

Former students living in Winter Park, have founded a Rollins Club, which held its first meeting in the Town Hall Friday, March 26th. A constitution was adopted and the following officers elected: Miss Clara Guild, president; W. H. Schultz, vice-president; C. H. Galloway, secretary-treasurer.

At this meeting plans were perfected for the reception given by this society in honor of Dr. Ward. This reception was given last Tuesday night at the Country Club. Many former Rollins students from Orlando were present.

The Rollins Club of Winter Park is a member of the Alumni Association. An annual meeting of this society and meetings called at the discretion of the president are provided for in the constitution.

Reprint from the "Florida Flambeau," March 20, 1920, reads as follows: "The Rollins Mandolin Club is planning to make a concert tour of the state soon." Just see what our ex-assistant news editor started.

"A SPARK OF MUSIC IN EVERY SOUL"

Says Harold Randolph in Address Before Florida Federation of Music Clubs in Knowles Hall

In his address "Musical Education in the South," Mr. Randolph said, "All of us feel the urge to create something, and this manifests itself in various ways. In the musician it finds expression in a most beautiful and lasting way. The Creative work of the composer is the offspring of his soul, which he cherishes and loves as tenderly as any mother does her child, for it answers his need of self-expression. Music and poetry are very closely allied, and have often been called the twin sisters * * * * "The war revealed music as a most potent factor in upholding morale. Now that it is over, we face the danger of allowing that flame to die down."

Mr. Randolph spoke of the teaching of music, as the most inspiring work a human being can be called on to do, and, thought the music teachers reward is not always so evident as that of the artist, or of the composer, it is equally certain to come, in the satisfaction of knowing that one has helped in the development of beauty in the world. Mr. Randolph expressed the opinion that in every human being there is a spark of music, and the teacher who will concentrate all his or her efforts toward developing that spark, even though the spark may not become a "roaring flame," may reasonably hope to obtain gratifying results. First the teacher should ascertain what the pupil likes. If his taste runs wholly to ragtime, the wise teacher will go about the process of weeding out the bad tastes, rather slowly, replacing them gradually with the good.

To destroy a newspaper, even though it is a week old, shows, in the opinion of the Chinese, a gross lack of character; to crumple a printed advertisement shows the haste of unreason; to toss a book carelessly on the floor shows a tendency toward violence; to tear a printed page shows that you are mentally deficient. It is a sad commentary on the quality of much of our reading that we of the Western world, where illiteracy is rare, have so little reverence for the printed page.—The Stentor.

ing manner told of the appreciation which the former students of the college held for Dr. Ward because of what he did and is doing for them and for Rollins. Mr. Arthur Schultz, who acted as chairman of the occasion, next called on Mr. H. A. Ward, a former student under Dr. Ward when he was president of the college the first time. Mr. Ward gave a reminiscence of the early days a quarter of a century ago when he was on the roll as a student. His accounts of the pranks played on him and others were most amusing. Mr. W. C. Comstock, a present trustee of the college, paid a beautiful tribute to Dr. Ward and led three cheers for the beloved president of Rollins. Dr. Ward was called upon for a few words and told of the dark days of '95 and the "big freeze," when old Rollins had a tough time weathering the storm, but how she finally came out triumphant and has taken the upward path ever since.

Nearly fifty of the former students of Rollins and invited guests were present to welcome Dr. Ward. Mr. Donald Cheney, who is president of the Rollins Club of Orlando, was among those present. An orchestra composed largely of college talent made the evening more enjoyable by its contribution. Refreshments of ice cream and cakes were served.

The Rollins Club was organized on the 26th of the month at a meeting in the town hall. The officers elected were Miss Clara Guild, president; Mr. W. H. Schultz, vice-president; and Mr. Carl Galloway, secretary-treasurer. The reception to Dr. Ward was one of the first things that the club planned after its formation.

BEAUTIFUL POEM INSPIRED BY DR. WARD'S SERMON

Frank Moore Jeffery, Author, Inspired by Washington's Birthday Sermon in Poinciana Chapel

It isn't often that a sermon inspires a poem but then it isn't always possible to hear one sufficiently potential to inspire Homeric verse. But who, having heard "Prexy" Ward, would not love to pen a line or two in order to carry on his wonderful teachings?

During the Palm Beach season Dr. Ward has in his Poinciana Chapel an audience capable of poetic expression and it not infrequently happens that a song is composed and dedicated to him or a poem written. Something of this kind has just transpired, the writer being no other than the famous author and composer, Frank Moore Jeffery, whose name will call to mind at once the beautiful Easter song, "Adoration," which he composed. The following verse, "You Cannot Fight the Right—and Win" was inspired by the second part of the two national sermons commemorating Washington's birthday which were preached on February 22 and 29, 1920, in the Poinciana Chapel, the quotations which rang at intervals throughout the entire sermon, being Dr. Ward's. Those who heard Dr. Ward's address in Knowles Hall early last fall when a memorial service was held for the Rollins men who fell in the Great War will recall that "You Cannot Fight the Right—and Win!" was the theme of his sermon at that time. MISS GREENUP AND MISS ROUSE IN JOINT RECITAL

Opening Concert of F. F. M. C. Features Two Local Artists

M The opening concert of the convention of the Florida Federation of Musical Clubs was brilliantly successful, in the appearance of Miss Lotta Greenup, violinist, and Miss Marion Rous, pianist, both of the Rollins Conservatory.

Miss Greenup played two groups, received with the usual enthusiastic applause. Her breadth of tone, brings out to an admirable degree the beauty and depth of the selections she plays. She gave as an encore to the first group, a Menuet, by Milandre, arranged by Press, the well-known violinist with whom Miss Greenup studied abroad, and the Montevidean Lullaby, by Miss Dyer.

Miss Rous's two groups, were warmly received, being full of the beauty and artistry that characterize her playing, and makes her so popular among music lovers everywhere. She was encored several times.

The program of the evening was as follows:

Andante, from Symphonic Espagnole	Lalo
Miss Greenup
Jig with Variations	Raff
Miss Rous
The Old Refrain	Kreisler
Gyps yAirs	Sarasate
Miss Greenup
Br'er Rabbit	MacDowell
Impromptu in G	Schubert
Caprice Espagnole	Moszkowski
Miss Rous

Mr. Jeffery's, published in the Palm Beach Post, runs as follows:

"YOU CANNOT FIGHT THE RIGHT—AND WIN."

Ye men of State!—a chosen few
Your vast constituents did place—
Who from your father's narrowed way
Have torn fruits tinged with wrong's disgrace.
Here are your Sire's truths hammered in:
"You cannot fight the Right—and win!"

Ye men of power—earth's Captains who
By shrewd endeavor hewed the way
For hordes to yoke earth's treasures vast
To selfish profit day by day,
Right towers the heights—all else is sin!
"You cannot fight the Right—and win!"

Ye men of war that drive to death
The hosts of earth with hellish tools,
That numbers train with gonds of steel,
That marshal good and bad as fools!
List! "Might's not Right!" above your din!
"You cannot fight the Right—and win!"

Ye men of brawn on whom depend
The innocent and meek and mild;
Who for a tithe tie up the food
Of saintly kin and starving child,
Hark! Right is God—not might-locked bin!
"You cannot fight the Right—and win!"

Ye men whom God hath sign-posts placed,
Who of all men should unafraid
Stand forth for Right and point the way!
Who by your silence wrong give aid;
Go back where Truth doth e'er begin:
You cannot veil the Right—and win!

Heed, youth, this admonition just,
Who ride the steeds of reckless Death,
Who gamble with the hosts of hell,
Who sear your souls with poisoned breath;
You build your lives with cankered sin!
"You cannot fight the Right—and win!"

Ye women fair with painted skin
And bodies filled with luxury,
And jeweled while the tinsel rare
But part conceals your mystery.
You gamble Vanity with sin!
You cannot fawn the Right—and win!

The mind unconsciously doth store
The life as in a treasured vault
Of jewels, there they flash like stars
From out the dark to guard assault;
If only evil dwells within
You fought the Right so failed to win!
—FRANK MOORE JEFFERY.

"BASEBALL DOPE"

The college team defeated the town team 4-3, in a practice game of five innings, on the Rollins diamond Tuesday afternoon. Hits were numerous on both sides, but the game in general was much tighter than the one played two weeks ago with the same club. In the final inning several "subs" were given a chance, making the game a bit more humorous to the spectators.

The recently formed Winter Park Business Men's Athletic Club raised $184 by the Tag Day and street dance held last Monday. The street dance at night was most popular as was shown by the great number of people attending, many of whom came from the neighboring towns. After paying expenses for the occasion the club received $107 net.

There won't be so many tired feet after the ball games now, for a new set of bleachers have been installed this week. This event follows a long talk between the Chancellor and the boys of Chase Hall. Who says we aren't getting together?

The team goes to Sutherland, Thursday and Friday, April 8th and 9th to play two games with Southern College.

In a recent Chapel talk, Dr. Ward, struck home with the students when he praised the team for its victory over Stetson. He told the "boys" "he knew they could if they would."

FORMER DEAN OF COLLEGE HONORED

The March issue of the magazine "Hispania," published by the American Association of Teachers of Spanish, contains a bit of news that will be of interest to former students of Rollins. It says, "Professor E. C. Hills, of the University of Indiana, well-known Hispanist and scholar, has just been elected a corresponding member of the Royal Spanish Academy. The honor conferred on Professor Hills is the greatest distinction given by the Royal Spanish Academy to Spanish scholars in foreign countries."

Professor E. C. Hills was Dean of Rollins College from 1896-1901. While here the degree of Doctor of Literature was conferred upon him. He is a profound student of Spanish and is an author of note. Many of his writings are in Spanish and others are on Spanish subjects. Those acquainted with him while he was here will be glad to learn of his success.

YES, THIS ACTUALLY HAPPENED AT DENVER U.

To be dragged out of his bed, have his clothes thrown on over his pajamas and to be packed into a narrow dry goods box was bad enough, the sophomore thought, but when his fraternity brothers nailed the cover on, called the expressman, and had him take the box away it was a little bit too much.

However, even such indignities have their compensations. The box was delivered at Templin hall, the girls' dormitory. The excited girls opened the box after some difficulty, before their astonished eyes the sophomore stepped out. He told them the sad tale, their verdict was that he had been shamefully treated. They tried to make him forget his sorrows by feeding him well before allowing him to return to the fraternity house. —The Lawrentian.

DIRECTOR PEABODY CONSERVATORY IN CONCERT AT KNOWLES HALL

Haroldo Randolph Makes First Appearance Before Florida Audience

Harold Randolph, pianist, who may be spoken of as the Dean of American pianists, made his first appearance before Florida audience in closing concert of the convention of the Florida Federation of Musical Clubs at Winter Park in a program remarkable for its intense interest and variety. As a virtuoso, Mr. Randolph has long stood in the first rank of pianists before the American public, and has lived a life of distinguished achievements. His playing Friday night was marked by a nobility of execution and fine finish of detail. In the Chopin pieces, perhaps the high-water mark of the evening was reached. The F. Minor Fantasia and the C. Minor nocturne, were especially fine. The complete program rendered by Mr. Randolph was as follows:

- Beethoven—Sonata in E Flat, Op. 31, No. 3.
- Allegro.
- Scherez (Allegretto vivace).
- Minuetto (Moderato e grazioso).
- Presto con fuoco.
- Gluck-Brahms—Gavotte.
- Brahms—Ballade in D minor.
- "Why does your brand sae drop wi' bluid, Edward?"
- Schubert-Liszt—"Hark, Hark the Lark."
- Chopin—Fantasia in F minor.
- Mazurka in D minor.
- Nocturne in C sharp minor.
- Waltz in A flat major.
- Etude in F major from Op. 10.
- Etude in A flat (Aeolian Harp).
- Etude in C minor (Revolutionary).
- Etude in G. flat (Black Keys).
- Etude in C sharp minor (Cello).
- Etude in G flat (Butterfly).
- Etude in A minor (Winter Wind).

CO-EDS ASK MEN TO STOP EXCESS USE OF HAIR OILS

Beloit co-eds have circulated a petition as a counter-irritant to one circulated by the men. The petition which the men presented asked that co-eds stop the use of rouge. The co-eds petition asked that, in view of the fact that the war is over, the men stop, or at least moderate the use of oils to keep their hair in place. The petition closed with the words:

"We, the undersigned, promise never to use the horrible, disgraceful, dirty rouge if you men likewise promise to hereafter use the oil on the inside wheels in place of the external surface."—The Lawrentian.

SUPT. SEXTON JOHNSON OF ORLANDO HIGH IN PRAISE OF DR. BURTON'S LECTURE

Superintendent Sexton Johnson, in charge of the public schools of Orlando, who is always enthusiastically behind anything for the promotion of education, is an ardent admirer of Dr. Richard Burton, who will be heard in two lectures in Knowles Hall next Thursday and Friday evenings. Upon reading in the Sandspur of Dr. Burton's engagement here he expressed great gratification that the people in this vicinity were to have an opportunity of hearing this well-known lecturer.

Mr. Johnson said he had heard Dr. Burton a number of times and that in his opinion his visit is an opportunity no one can afford to miss. During the past summer, while Mr. Johnson was taking a special course in the George Peabody College of Nashville, Dr. Burton delivered a series of lectures, and Mr. Johnson says that he was undoubtedly the most popular speaker of the entire summer. In addition to being an excellent orator he has some messages which every thinker should hear.

CURIOUS LOVE LETTERS

The Proposal.

Madam: Most worthy of estimation! After long consideration and much meditation on the great reputation you possess in the nation, I have a strong inclination to become your relation. On your approbation of this declaration, I shall make preparation to remove my situation to a more convenient station to profess my admiration; and if such oblation is worthy of observation and can obtain commiseration, it will be an aggrandizement beyond all calculation of the joy and exultation.

Of yours, SAM DISSIMULATION.

The Acceptance.

Sir: I perused your oration with much deliberation, and a little consternation at the great infatuation of your imagination to show such veneration on so slight a foundation. But after examination and much serious contemplation, I supposed your animation was the fruit of recreation, or had sprung from ostentation, to display your education by an odd enumeration, or rather multiplication of words of the same termination, though of great variation in each respective signification. Now without disputation, your laborious application in so tedious an occupation deserves commemoration and, thinking imitation a sufficient gratification, I am, without hesitation,

Yours, MARY MODERATION.

CONVENTION OF CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR SOCIETIES

From the tenth to the thirteenth of June the Christian Endeavor societies of the state of Florida will hold their annual convention at Rollins. This convention will be of great importance to the College and Winter Park as at least three hundred young people from all over the state will attend.

There will probably be a good many over the three hundred mark, as strenuous efforts are being made to make this the largest convention of Young People's societies ever held in this state. To accomplish this purpose those in charge are offering special inducements. One of these is the very interesting program that has been prepared with speakers of state and national reputation on it. Dan Polling, secretary of the National Christian Endeavor Union, is to be the chief speaker and those that have heard him say that he is full of life and always has lots of interesting things to say.

The state convention held at Quincy, in West Florida, last year was successful in every way and had an attendance of three hundred. The specially convenient location of Winter Park should make it possible for those in charge to succeed in breaking that record. About 160 delegates will be quartered in the dormitories, the rest being entertained in town. All meals will be served in the college dining hall.
