ROLLINS BREAKS EVEN IN GAMES WITH STETSON

DOUBLE HEADER PLAYED ON DELAND DIAMOND—SCORE
FIRST GAME 7-6; SEC-
OND 8-3

Enthusiastic Crowd of Rollins Rooters
Arrants Pitched Air-Tight Ball

The first game was one of the weirdest exhibitions of baseball the writer has ever seen. Neither team derived any great amount of credit as the mental lapses on both sides were fast and furious. Both pitchers were inclined to be wild and were hit freely. Shannon, however, distinguished himself by his superb fielding of ground balls. He collected 7 assists in this manner, all hard chances. Johnny Rowe and Freddie Ward each enjoyed an excellent day with the willow. The game was interesting from the partisan standpoint as the lead see-sawed every few innings and the result was always in doubt until the ninth when Stetson won on Zip Hagerty's poor throw to first, with a man on third. The story of defeat lies, however, not so much in this one bobble as in the fact that Rollins had ten men left on bases whereas Stetson had but six, and that Rollins twice got a man to second with no one out and was unable to score him either time, while Stetson scored two of her runs after the first two men had been retired in as many innings.

Rollins took what appeared to be a safe lead of four runs in the very first inning when, with one down, F. Ward singled sharply to left and went clear to third when Gardiner pegged Hagerty's sacrifice hit into right field, Zip taking second on the throw. Shannon stopped one of Kicklighter's curves in his ribs and with the bases full, Wilson sent a crashing double into right center scoring Freddie and Hagerty. Vincent flied to Chalker back of first base and when the Stetson first sacker threw over his catcher's head in an attempt to head off Shannon, Wilson also scored. Cheesy then walked but died when Turner scooped up Carroll Ward's boulder and stepped on second for the final out.

Stetson cut the lead to two, in her half. Gardiner went to second when Freddie Ward got his feet crossed and let Johnny Rowe's wide throw get by him. Murray doubled over Carroll Ward's head scoring Gardiner.

NEW PLANS FOR MAY DAY

Festival Probably Will Be Presented
In the Afternoon

It was announced in last week's Sandspur that the annual May Day program would be held on the evening of May 3rd; but because of unexpected difficulty in obtaining Japanese lanterns for the procession and other decorative purposes, it may be necessary to present the program on the afternoon of that day. Positive announcement of the hour will be made through these columns next week. Be sure to watch for it.

Meanwhile the various committees, under the efficient direction of Miss Bellows who, for a number of years past, has successfully managed this delightful affair, are perfecting their plans for a splendid entertainment.

There is every indication that this year's May Day will be the best ever, and it is hoped that a very substantial sum will be realized for sending delegates to the annual conference of Young Women's Christian Associations at Blue Ridge, N. C.

STUDENTS
Remember that the high school students who will arrive on the campus Friday are OUR guests and that the impressions of Rollins that they carry away with them will depend upon the way in which we treat them while here. Let's lay aside our own cares for those few days and show them a good time, thus making the Water Meet a real success.
*****

INTERSCHOLASTIC WATER MEET

The list of entries in the High School Water Meet that will be held on Lake Virginia is practically complete as the applications were to have been in by April 20. There are ten high schools that have definitely entered teams to represent them in the meet. They are: Daytona, Winter Park, Sanford, Orlando, Winter Garden, West Palm Beach, St. Petersburg. ## "TRUE BLUE"

(A story with a local setting)

"Son", said the old man as he took his pipe from his mouth and gazed into the open fireplace where the ashes of the last fire of the winter lay cold and forgotten, "I was wondering who you are going to take to the May Dance up at the college Saturday. Is it Louise?"

Jim looked up from the table where he was doping out a dance schedule that would include only Louise, Martha and maybe Priscilla,—he wasn't sure that he cared about her, she wasn't specially popular.

"Yes, dad, she's a wonderful dancer, and I'm to have all but three dances with her, including the intermission!"

"That's fine son, but isn't this a school dance, and aren't there more girls than boys in the college this year? I'm sure there are, and what about those who will not have a fellow, do they have to sit out all the dances, or stay away all together?"

"Well, what of it dad? It's their hard luck. You can't expect me to dance with all of them!"

"I know, son, but I was at your last dance up there sitting in the gallery, and it seemed to me that something of the old time chivalry was lacking. You know I used to go to Rollins when I was a young man. In those days the boys tried to dance with all the girls—the dances were democratic but dignified and everyone had a good time and there were practically no 'wall flowers.' I don't know just what it is but there seems to be a different atmosphere surrounding the dances that you have up there now. It doesn't seem to me that every one has a good time, or at least not so good a time as they might have. I wonder if it is not partly due to thoughtlessness on the part of some of the students, and perhaps to a wee bit of selfishness on the part of some others.

"Now in the nature of things there will be some of the fellows who can't dance so well, and there will be girls who are just learning; then there will naturally be a few boys and girls who go about a good deal together and who dance well and have a mighty fine time with each other. I don't know, son, but it seems to me that the good dancers and those members of little friendly cliques haven't enough regard for the 'stags' and 'wall flowers,' and for the beginners; perhaps they haven't realized that a little of the spirit of noblesse oblige attaches to their position. Why not try to dance a little with all the girls and persuade the backward fellows to come out and dance? Offer them dances with your partner, surely she will be glad to help—and you remember how embarrassed you felt when you were learning."

"I don't believe you have any dancing school up there, and your school dances ought to be conducted in such a way that all those who attend will not only have a pleasant time, but will carry away with them the right impressions of how gentle people conduct themselves. And where pray, would you look for model conduct if not at a college dance or ball? If there is a sting carried away in anyone's heart, your dance has not been a complete success. Everyone ought to have the best kind of a good time. But they can't do it unless everyone tries to see that everyone else has a good time. And after all, the real test of good breeding is unselfishness, and thoughtfulness of others."

I tell you this, son, not to be preaching but because I want you to think about it. I may be wrong. But I have

SOCIAL COMMITTEE PLANNING DANCE FOR SATURDAY

TO BE GIVEN IN COMPLIMENT TO THE CONTESTANTS OF WATER MEET

Mrs. W. C. Temple Elected General
Chairman at Social Committee
Meeting

Plans are under way for a big dance in the Lyman Gymnasium on May first, in compliment to the contestants in the Interscholastic Water Meet. At a meeting of the General Social Committee, with Chancellor Brooks presiding, including representatives of the Trustees, Faculty, Y. M. C. A., and Y. W. C. A., plans for the dance were talked over, and committees appointed to attend to details of the event. Mrs. W. C. Temple, of the Trustees, was unanimously elected General Chairman of the Dance. DR. HOYT DELIVERS BACCALAUREATE ADDRESS FOR WAUCHULA HIGH SCHOOL

Last Sunday Dr. C. K. Hoyt, head of the English Department of Rollins College, delivered the Baccalaureate address to the graduating class of the Wauchula High School.

The exercises were held in the large auditorium of the Baptist church which was crowded to capacity. The graduating class numbered eighteen, ten girls and eight boys.

After general musical exercises which showed exceedingly good preparation the speaker of the evening was introduced.

The subject chosen by Dr. Hoyt was "Have Dominion," a text from the first chapter of Genesis. Dr. Hoyt stated that the audience was very inspirational and seemed quite responsive.

The Wauchula High School is large and growing, the junior class having twenty-nine members.

Dr. Hoyt came back from his trip enthusiastic about the beauty of that part of Florida, the future of the state, and the future of Rollins College.

The people of that community are for the most part not college people but they have become prosperous and press the intention of sending the younger generation to college.

SANDSPUR ELECTION

Students are reminded that the Sandspur Board will meet Friday evening, April 30, for the purpose of electing a Staff of the Sandspur for the year 1920-21, said Staff to take office the following week. Suggestions or nominations should be submitted at once.

"Unassuming yet mighty, sharp and pointed, well-rounded yet many-sided, assiduously tenacious, yet as gritty and energetic as its name implies, victorious in single combat and therefore without a peer, wonderfully attractive and extensive in circulation; all these will be found upon investigation to be among the extraordinary qualities of The Sandspur."

ST. PETERSBURG SELECTS SWIMMERS

St. Petersburg, April 14.—The girls to be sent to Rollins College, Winter Park, to attend the first annual interscholastic aquatic meet May 1, from the St. Petersburg High School have been selected. They are:

Misses Bertha Phiel, Lulu Wupperman and Ruth Thomas. Each is more than an expert swimmer, Miss Phiel being the champion woman swimmer of St. Petersburg, and Misses Wupperman and Thomas, just a shade behind Miss Phiel.

A boys' team will also be selected if possible, there being many expert swimmers among them. The only drawback is that the best swimmers are not financially able to make the trip.—Tampa Times.

COLLEGE ENTRANCE EXAMINATION TO BE HELD IN JACKSONVILLE JUNE 21-26

The college office is in receipt of information relative to the examinations to be held by the College Entrance Examination Board at the Duval High School Building, Jacksonville, June 21-26, next. All circulars, including a sample application blank, are on file in the office and may be referred to by any who may be interested in taking the examinations. The fee is $6.00 which must accompany the application.

Messrs. Ginn & Co., Atlanta, are offering, in this connection, several volumes containing examination questions asked in previous years, from 1911-1919.

"SACRED SKEETERNITY" LAUNCHED UPON ITS CAREER

Among the unchartered organizations coming into prominence upon the Rollins campus is the newly-formed "Sacred Skeeternity." Its purpose is merely for pleasure and fellowship, and already new members have been initiated or pledged. Last Sunday afternoon a trip up to Mud Lake was enjoyed by the Skeeters, and in the evening a feed consisting of the legs of a frog, shot by Skeeter Chaffee during the expedition, was offered the members. The regular badge which consists of a tin curtain hanger (sacred) worn on the lapel of the coat has made its appearance several times lately. The Skeeters at present are: Sedgwick, Palmer, Chaffee, Potter R., Potter P., Phillips, Tompkins. The membership is limited to thirteen students, and one faculty adviser. The Skeeternity is opposing the recently formed Overall Club, on the grounds that overalls cost $3.00 per pair, now due to the high cost of living, whereas they will cost less as soon as this fad has vanished, and that therefore it is aiding the high cost of living to purchase such a novelty; that the founders of the club are men who can easily afford this expense, without feeling the loss of the money; that the overalls, if worn all the time easily soil, and hence cleanliness, which is next to Godliness, is prevented; and that the feeling of self-respect, which pride in personal appearance engenders, is almost entirely lost when clean, neat-looking clothes are not worn.

I Never Saw the Other Kind

Jean—"You have to admit that you like talkative women better than the other kind."

Jerry—"What other kind?"

Safety First

Agnes—"Are all the men in Colorado your size?"

Glassey—"No, I'm just a sample. If you like me go to Colorado and get a real man."

Agnes—"They say that it sometimes pays to take the demonstrating car."

Sh! Mum's the Word

Slowly they moved toward each other, one as pale as a ghost, the other a blushing red. The green beneath them was as soft as felt and they moved noiselessly. The distance grew less. There was a hushed silence. They met. They kissed.

Then a voice: "Darn it; I'd have made that shot with a little more English on that ball."

STUDENT'S OPINION

WAKE UP

Just now, toward the close of the term, Rollins students should be pulling together with all their heart and strength to keep Rollins the grand old college it is. We owe it to our Alma Mater, we owe it to Dr. Ward, we owe it to ourselves. When we leave Winter Park on the third day of June, we want to go away knowing that we are leaving the dearest and best old school on the face of the map, and we want to feel that we are parting from loyal, good fellows.

Can't we get together a little closer these last few weeks, boys and girls? Can't we lay off the silly gossip that only harms each one of us? There has been a great deal of it floating thru Cloverleaf. Are we going to allow a few selfish students who enjoy hurting other's character to dominate the whole college?

After all Dr. Ward has done for us, it seems that we could at least put these last few weeks thru with a good "bang". Don't sit around and be a parasite. Remember that if each single one of us does not do his very best, we will all fail to show our love for old Rollins. If you are on a committee, get to work! There are several of us who have a notion that our presence is not necessary at the meetings of the various organizations. If you are on the Sandspur Staff, go to the meetings. If you represent your fraternity in Pan Hellenic by all means go to the meetings. Don't yawn and say, "Oh, I am so tired, I can't go. Really, you won't need me." This attitude and such expressions show just what sort you are. We don't want you lagging along and crabbing. Brace up, folks, and help Rollins. It needs your support, your loyalty.

If you are a fraternity man or girl you are expected to do even more things than a non-frat student. Are you going to pull down your fraternity by gossip, by procrastination, by an indifferent attitude?

WAKE UP students!

Dr. Ward is expecting great things from us and we can't fail him if you will do your share.

Razz-berry!

"What kind of a bird is that over there?" asked "Pud", visiting her farmer friend.

"That's a goose," replied the gentleman in question.

"Oh, yes. And does it lay all the gooseberries you use?"

A New Hat

Helen—"There are times when I wish I were a man."

Stanley—"When?"

Helen—"When I pass a drug store and think how happy I could make my girl."

Some Sponge

Father Whitehead—"Mary, has Bill given you any encouragement?"

Mary—"Oh, yes, father. Last night he asked me if you and mother were pleasant to live with."

Not If They Were His Size

Glassey—"Would it be modest for a girl to wear lavender sox and white shoes?"

Jerry—"I don't know. You never saw me do it, did you?"

The Open Forum

(Devoted to discussions, nominations, and suggestions concerning the Staff Election to be held April 30th. Open to all. Contributions must be signed.—The Editor.)

(Another Suggestion)

And who is it this time? Why, Johnnie Rowe, who is a newspaper man from the ground up. To give merit where merit is due is the basis upon which I suggest Johnnie as a possibility for the next editor of the Sandspur. It is my belief that the majority of the students will agree with me that this is the only sound method of procedure. Little does it matter if one is a fraternity man or not, or whether he was in the service recently; these are not qualifications that go to make up an editor of a college paper.

Now briefly for the qualifications which I believe our present Managing Editor possesses for the higher office:

(1). He knows the value of news. Anyone who considers the matter very carefully will agree that this is most important.

(2). He has been on the staff long enough to know the ideals of the Sandspur.

(3). John Rowe is industrious. Those who know how he has worked all night at the Rollins Press will be a cloud of witnesses to this statement.

(4). Johnnie possesses a good supply of common sense, said to be the most uncommon thing in the world.

(5). Business ability is a quality necessary for a successful editor and a quality he possesses; and best of all his

(6). Qualifications is his long experience in newspaper work which dates from the time when he was a small boy. It is this intimacy with the game that will enable him to meet almost any situation that may arise.

The above are not sugar plums but cold facts.

WARREN M. INGRAM.

Because of the lack of humor, the editor is going to have his picture printed in the next issue.

faith in you fellows up there, and in the good sense of the girls. I know you have the right spirit yet in the old school, but you are all pretty young and likely not to give much thought to some things unless they are brought to your attention. I'm coming up to the Gym Saturday night, and watch, for I always like to see people have a good time. And son, there's just one thing I want to ask of you. Think about the other folks a bit while you are dancing, and see if you can't help someone else to have a good time, or help them to have a better time; show someone outside your little clique some attention,—you may be surprised that you have not before known some mighty fine people—and I believe you will feel better after the dance. I wish you'd tell me Sunday how you come out, and see if I'm not right when I say that you will never be happier than when you are doing something to make another happy."

As the old man got up and left the room, Jim gazed into the empty fireplace, lost in thought.

"Good-night, son."

"Good-night, dad."

And picking up a card that had been the beginning of a dance program, Jim tore it slowly across and folding it, tore it again. Rising, he threw the bits of cardboard into the empty fireplace and stood by the mantle over which stretched a Rollins banner. His eyes wandered from the banner to a picture of his father and then to a daintily autographed photo of a college girl. He looked again at the Blue and Gold.

"Dad's right,—at that, he said to himself, "I hadn't thought about it that way. I guess that's the old Rollins spirit, and by George I'll tell Louise about it tonight. She's true blue every inch, and she'll feel about it just like dad."

STUDENT RECITAL IN KNOWLES HALL

Last Thursday, April 15, one of the regular series of Students' Recitals was given in Knowles Hall. All the participants did exceedingly well and those who attended thoroughly enjoyed the program. During this year, on account of the large number of students enrolled in the Conservatory, it has been necessary to give these recitals oftener than once a month, as in former years, in order to give all the students qualified to play in them, an opportunity of taking part. The program was as follows:

Sappho Ode ..... Brahms
Gertrude Davies
Passing By ..... Jurcell
Margaret Coulter
Tragedy of a Tin Soldier ..... Nevin
Ruth Waldron
At the Making of the Hay .....

SENIORS OF ORLANDO HIGH WRITES COURTEOUS LETTER OF THANKS

Say They Greatly Enjoyed Dr. Burton's Lecture on "The Return to Dickens"

President George Morgan Ward is in receipt of a most courteous letter of thanks from the Senior Class of the Orlando High School, putting on record their appreciation of the invitation recently extended them to attend the lectures given by Dr. Richard Burton, entitled, "The Return to Dickens." The letter is written by the President of the Class, Miss Lillian Kingsley, and reads as follows:

"Dear Sir:

The invitation of the Rollins College faculty to the Senior Class of Orlando High School was accepted with a great deal of pleasure. We enjoyed Dr. Burton's lecture on "The Return to Dickens" very much and extend our grateful thanks to you for the pleasant evening spent as your guests."

"Help yourselves to what we have. There are plenty more where ours came from."

"Leave our lights burning; the Student Council won't care, and besides we get the blame, so why should you worry?"

GIVING CONSECRATED DOLLARS

Your parents and all friends of Christian education throughout this land during the week of April 25th to May 2nd will be canvassed for pledges toward benevolent and missionary objects of the denomination which supports the college you attend.

Of the $23,000,000 it is hoped to raise from Presbyterians during this week, at least $2,000,000 is definitely set aside for endowment of Presbyterian colleges. It is the purpose of the New Era Movement to raise a total of $35,000,000 for college endowment during the next five years. Your college will profit from these yearly campaigns.

Cultivate the habit during college days of giving to benevolent causes. Make a pledge, no matter how small, through a local church. Every Presbyterian student should keep in touch with a Presbyterian church during his student days. Active alliance with such will go far toward helping you over difficult college moral hurdles.

Mrs. James Brooks heads the committee on the receiving line.

Jack Glassey is chairman of the Music Committee, and promises to have a snappy orchestra for the occasion. Miss Edwards was asked to repeat during the intermission the "Dances of the Seasons," which her gymnasium class presented a short time ago.

Mr. Raymond W. Greene was elected chairman of the Floor Committee, with Dean Hochstetler and Mr. Richard Potter as assistants; Mrs. L. C. Smith heads the Refreshments Committee, and Miss Ida M. Barrett is chairman of the Invitations Committee.

The gymnasium is to be decorated by Miss Winifred Stone, the May Queen, assisted by a committee which she is to appoint. The entire scheme of decoration is also left to Miss Stone.

Mr. James Harold Hill, of the Senior College Class, was chosen chairman of the committee on dancing, with Miss Dorothy Richards, Miss Easter Russell, and Mr. John Glassey as assistants. These students will distribute the dance programs, and in general try to see that everyone has a good time.

PAN-HELLENIC

The meeting of the Pan-Hellenic society postponed from Monday, April 12th was held on Thursday of the same week in the Fraternity Room in Lyman gymnasium. Outside of the regular routine of business probably one of the most important actions taken was that to provide the constitution of the society with an amendment which should state the conditions on which a pledge to a fraternity could be pledged again in the event that he should violate the honor of his pledgehood.

"STUDIO GIRLS" ENTERTAIN

Rollins "Studio Girls" entertained their well loved instructor, Mrs. M. E. Evans, in the apartment of Nina L. Marsh on Thursday evening, April fifteenth.

The event was planned as a surprise and expression of loving appreciation for the gracious presence, which has inspired and led them thru atmosphere of "chilliness" that made ways beautiful this year.

During the course of chat Mrs. Evans was requested to relate a few of her many interesting experiences while abroad. Her reminiscences upon this occasion partook of the ghostly, but were none the less enjoyable on this account, but rather created an atmosphere of "chilliness" that made hot cocoa, with its accompaniment of dainty sandwiches, salad, and cake, a comforting and satisfying reality.

The early departure of Mrs. Evans for the north is deplored by all, and many sincere wishes for good health and prosperity attend her.

Those present were, the guest of honor, Mrs. M. E. Evans, and the hostesses, Misses Dixie Hill, Mary Whitehead, Bertha Gram, Mary Salisbury, Nina Marsh, Mrs. M. B. Marsh and Miss Martha Marsh.

OVERALL CLUB FORMED

On Tuesday the students were surprised to see the members of the newly organized Overall Club appear in uniform. This uniform consists of a pair of overalls worn with a silk shirt. The officers of the society are: Master Overall, J. Pratt Foley; Eminent Scribbler, William Sherman; Trusty (?) Treasurer, Maxwell Sloan. Three dollars is the initiation fee and already many men have taken advantage of this club that has the noble purpose of reducing the H. C. L., in fact Chancellor Brooks is very much in favor of it and has helped in the recruiting of new members by speaking on this subject in chapel. It is understood that plans for the founding of a sister, or rather in these times of suffrage, a brother organization to be called The Bungalow Apron Society are being considered.

DELPHIC SOCIETY MEETING

The members of the Delphic Society met in the Fraternity Room Wednesday evening, April 21, to discuss the feasibility of giving a play. It was decided that the members, under the direction of Miss Idabel Edwards, would dramatize two or three short O. Henry stories. Mrs. Powers and Mrs. Barze have kindly consented to be critics for this production. The exact date of the play has not yet been decided upon, but it will be some time after the May Day Festival and before Commencement, probably the third week in May. Several Delphic members are now at work on the dramatization of the stories and as soon as their work is completed the cast will be chosen so that they may start rehearsing immediately after May Day. It was also decided at the meeting that the receipts from the play should be given to the Tomokan fund.

DR. HOYT INVITED TO GIVE SERIES OF LECTURES

The Lecture Extension Bureau of Florida, has invited Dr. Charles K. Hoyt, head of the English Department of Rollins College, to deliver a series of four lectures upon "American Ideals in American Literature." These lectures were to be given in Orlando from April 26th-30th. Dr. Hoyt found it necessary to decline for the present on account of the lateness of the invitation but has indicated that he will accept an invitation some time next year.

Dr. Hoyt is both a student of literature and an interesting lecturer and is well fitted to speak on this subject.

SIGMA PHI TEA

The Anchorage Lawn, Mrs. Packard's beautiful place on Lake Maitland, was the picturesque setting for a tea last Monday afternoon, given by the girls of Sigma Phi Fraternity for their honorary members.

No more beautiful spot could be found for an afternoon gathering of this sort. The weather was ideal. Large wicker chairs were placed on the sloping lawn, under the big magnolia trees.

When the guests arrived they were each presented with a bouquet of ferns, pansies, and sweet peas which were tied with green and white ribbon, the fraternity colors. Plans were discussed for the coming year.

Refreshments consisted of punch, cake, sandwiches, and candies.

The guests were Miss Mary Leonard, Mrs. Halstead Caldwell, Miss Susan Dyer, Mrs. George Dyer, Mrs. Packard, and Mrs. Charles Morse.

DOMESTIC SCIENCE CLASS GIVES DINNER TO FACULTY

In honor of a number of the members of the faculty, the Domestic Science class gave a very charming dinner last Friday evening at 6:30 in the class dining room in Knowles Hall. The centerpiece was of rose-colored phlox and the color scheme was prettily carried out in the menu card and the place cards which were painted by Miss Mary Whitehead and were both attractive and appropriate.

The hostess of the occasion was Lucy Anderson. Her guests were the Dean and Mrs. Hochstetler, Mrs. Evans, Miss O'Neal, Miss Bellows, Miss Gladwin, Miss Barrett, Miss Watkins, and Professor Blair. Miss Elizabeth Murphy and Miss Mildred Barrett were demure and efficient maids and performed their duties in a most skilful manner.

Both as a social feature and as a demonstration of Miss Watkins' excellent instruction the dinner was a decided success.

GIRLS' GLEE CLUB GIVES CONCERT IN APOPKA

On Friday, April 16th, the Girls' Glee Club motored to Apopka, where they gave a very successful concert before an enthusiastic audience. Although a travelling company had the bad taste to put on a show for that evening, the citizens of Apopka, with their usual discrimination turned out in a grand body to hear the girls sing, and it was a concert well worth hearing, th was, enthusiastically declared afterward. The girls, encouraged by the responsiveness of the audience did their best work. Florence Keezel's solos brought forth a storm of applause, which was well merited, for her excellent voice and artistic interpretation was never demonstrated to better advantage.

The program was as follows:
Oh He Carita ----- De Koven
Lullaby ----- Mary Turner Salter
Song at Sunrise ----- Manney
The Two Clocks ----- Rogers

The Girls' Glee Club
A Garden of Long Ago -----
----- Herman Siewert
When the Little Boy Ran away -----
----- Nan B. Stevens
Florence Keezel
Wild Briar ----- Margaret Ruthven Lang
Eastern Song ----- Mabel Daniels
Snow ----- Edward Elgar
Girls' Glee Club

The program was concluded with the college song, "Osceola," composed by Miss Dyer. After the concert, delicious refreshments of sandwiches and tea were served by some of the ladies.

ORGAN RECITAL HELD SUNDAY AFTERNOON

Miss Eleanor Coffin, assisted by Miss Florence Keezel, Mezzo-soprano, gave an organ recital, before an enthusiastic audience last Sunday at 4:30. In spite of the very warm weather, quite a large number of people gathered to hear Miss Coffin give her recital. The program offered was a most interesting one, and both performers were well worth listening to. Miss Coffin played with a technical adequacy and taste that has marked her work during all the time she has studied at the Conservatory. She opened her program with "Maitland's Concert Overture in A Flat," later playing "Morning", "The Death of Ase", and "Anitra's Dance", from the Peer Gynt Suite by Grieg. This was followed by a group of songs by Miss Keezel who sang with the delightful intelligence and taste that characterize her singing. Her first song, "A Garden of Long Ago," had the distinction of being composed by Mr. Hermann Siewert, and brought down a storm of applause. This was followed by Brahms' "Like a Blooming Lilac" and the "Floods of Spring" by Rachmaninoff. Then Miss Coffin gave another group consisting of "Bocherini's Minuet," "Scherzo in G. Minor" by Macfarlane and "Berceuse" by Kindler, from which came the "Grand March from Aida", which closed this very charming recital.

ROLLINS BREAKS EVEN IN GAMES WITH STETSON

Brooks hit to Rowe who played to hold Murray at second but the latter was safe at third after a chase when Johnny made a poor throw to Hager-ty. Chalker went out, Shannon to F. Ward, Murray scoring on the sac-ri-fice. Shannon took Higginboth-um's bounder and caught Brooks at the plate and a moment later he threw T. Hon out at first, accounting for all three putouts of the inning.

The scoring continued on both sides in the second when Sherman walked and went to second on Rowe's Texas Leaguer over third. Freddie Ward sacrificed them each along and Sher-man scored on Hager-ty's sacrifice fly. Gardiner threw Shannon out, ending the half. After two Hatters had been retired, Kicklighter doubled into right center and scored on Gar-diner's single. They repeated the performance in the third after Brooks and Chalker had been retired, Hig-ginbotham walked, stole second and third and scored on T. Hon's single. Stetson took the lead in the sixth, T. Hon singled, and Turner sacrificed him to second, Fenno walked and then he and Hon executed a double steal of second and third, Kicklighter lifted a tall fly back of short that Vin-cent and Carrol Ward each waited for the other to take, and when it dropped safe, Hon scored, tying the count. Stetson was one to the good a moment later when after Gardiner had singled advancing both Fenno and Kicklighter, Dudley Wilson dropped Carrol Ward's perfect peg of Mur-ray's sacrifice fly permitting Fenno to score. When the ball was recover-ed Kicklighter was caught at third after a chase.

The Blue and Gold knotted the count again in the seventh; Vincent, started with a long blow, good for two bases, and went to third on Arrants' fly to Brooks. C. Ward struck out but Sherman came through beauti-fully with a short single over Mur-ray's head which scored Don Vincent.

The blowoff came in the last of the ninth, however. Gardiner hit in front of the plate and was safe when Wilson played the ball badly. Murray sacrificed and Gardiner reached third on Brooks' single. Brooks was run down in a chase attempting to steal second, but Stetson took the bacon al-most immediately when Hager-ty threw wild after a clean pickup of Peek's grounder, permitting Gardiner to tally the winning run.

THE SECOND GAME

However, in the second game of five innings, which was played immedi-ately following the first contest, Rollins outplayed the Hatters in every re-spect, defeating them 8-3.

Hon, the Stetson southpaw, started the game, but was retired at the close of the third inning after allowing Rollins a lead of three runs and Gar-diner was substituted with poorer re-sults. Gardiner was an easy mark for the Blue and Gold boys, allowing them five more runs in the fourth.

Arrants, who twirled for Rollins, redeemed himself in this game by pitching air-tight ball. He was in rare form and retired man after man, striking out seven men out of 18 at bat, against one strike-out for both of the Stetson pitchers.

In the fifth, the final inning, with Stetson's last chance at the bat, the score stood 8-0 in favor of Rollins. It seemed a sure shut-out. But—the Rollins team, a bit too sure of itself, errored twice and before it could re-cover had allowed the opponents to tally three times. Captain Arrants retired the game when he struck out the two remaining Hatters. Final score, Rollins 8, Stetson, 3.

The team was supposed to travel to Gainesville, to play the University of Florida, this week, Wednesday and Thursday. The University club postponed the engagement for a week, the night before the Rollins team was to leave, on account of government inspection there.

Southern College will play here Wednesday and Thursday, May 5th and 6th, respectfully.

Now that Stetson and Rollins are tied with two games each to their credit, a fifth game will probably be played at Sanford to decide the winner. In the four games played, Rollins has a lead of five runs, the total of each being: Stetson 16; Rollins 21.

The Florida State League will start its 1920 season on May 10-11, according to the schedule released by President W. W. Rose of Orlando.

The home dates and teams that will play the first days (May 10-11) are:
Lakeland at Tampa.
Sanford at Bartow.
Orlando at Daytona.
St. Petersburg at Bradentown, May 10.
Bradentown at St. Petersburg, May 11.

burg, Woodrow Wilson and George Washington High Schools of Tampa, and Duval High School of Jacksonville. It was not expected that all applications would be in exactly on April 20th and a few other schools that have been thinking of sending teams may yet enter. Some very encouraging but not very definite communications have been received from Kissimmee, Lakeland, Bartow, Plant City, and Daytona Beach.

A second new dock is being built on Lake Virginia opposite the power house. This dock will be at least 100 feet long. It is 220 yards from the dock just erected at the boat-house.

From all indications the water meet will be conducted in a most efficient manner and this with the enthusiasm being shown throughout the state will make it one of the most memorable aquatic events ever held in this section of Florida.

Nancy Hartzog entertained Margaret Sutherland at her home for the week-end.

NEW ERA BUDGET PROVIDES LIBERAL AID FOR COLLEGES

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH WILL COOPERATE WITH THE INTERCHURCH WORLD MOVEMENT IN DRIVE BEGINNING APRIL 25TH

Two million dollars of the $23,000,000,000 1920-21 New Era Budget will be set aside for the endowment of colleges under the direction of the General Board of Education of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. This board is engaged in a five year campaign for $35,000,000, $7,000,000 a year; of which $2,000,000 comes from the New Era increase and $3,000,000 is raised by the colleges themselves. Seventeen Presbyterian colleges are being aided this year.

To make known the aims of the Presbyterian Church in the educational and other fields, the Presbyterian New Era movement is using paid advertising in the weeklies and dailies of the 57 Presbyterian colleges. This is the first time such a campaign has been so carried forward. The colleges are located in 33 states, from the Atlantic to the Pacific coast.

With the increased sums to be set aside for colleges, professors' salaries will be raised and various improvements made on the grounds and buildings. Some new buildings are also contemplated.

In addition to making known what will be done with the increased sums asked for, the advertisements in the college papers are also endeavoring to secure the co-operation of the students with the local Presbyterian churches. It is being urged on the Presbyterian students that they should ally themselves with the Presbyterian church in their vicinity and give themselves as well as their funds towards its aid.

The $23,000,000 budget allows $7,000,000 for increased work in the twenty-seven countries in which mission and educational activities are carried on by the Presbyterian church. It also includes over $4,000,000 for the work of Home Missions, which is largely educational in character. Enlarged activities in Sunday School, Evangelism, church erection and temperance are also provided for. The Presbyterian boards of missions and education operate hundreds of schools and colleges in this and other countries.

A great canvass to raise this amount will be held through the 9,800 Presbyterian churches on Sunday, April 25. Reports on the result of the work will be made on the following Sunday, May 2. The Presbyterian Church is co-operating with the Interchurch World Movement in the drive of April 25-May 2.

The 57 colleges and academies with which the Presbyterian General Board of Education co-operates are as follows: Albany College, Albany, Ore.; Alma College, Alma, Mich.; Arkansas Cumberland College, Clarksville, Ark.; Bellevue College, Bellevue, Nebraska; Biddle University, Charlotte, N.
