Dear

my love in that which will abide and in due season I daily salute thee and thy dear wife with all thy children of whose well being I should be glad to hear of and truly desire it as my own tho' of kind from thee I am now deprived and am not thought worthy of one but am ready to say these not a care and I know it not but won't thing I know I had not had a line from thee since thou <sup>was</sup> ~~was~~ <sup>with</sup> married which I think pretty hard can a young, so wholly take away thy love from thy friends as that thou shall be remembered no more or is it my loss a love and am I forgotten and slighted a body and I yet or how I unjustly married thy unkindness at thy hands the Lord knows which way I can say I know not what I should do, however dear Phinias for so thou art to me still and in the love of truth I love thee still as truly as ever and cannot forget thee no no I had an honorable return of thee with an honorable return I often remember thee and can do no less but still attending thy fatherly care and consideration towards me as if my duty as long as I live dear Phinias I know thou hardly would get well home now I left but one night to the town of Burlington and he and found all well and well and all now pretty well in health at this time though nasty and shall be glad to hear the sound of thee and thank my kind love to dear Abigail I shall be glad of a few lines from her, dear friends I must conclude with a fresh salutation of my kind love to thy self and thy dear wife whom I truly love and bid you both in the Lord's love well, in whose love and care I desire we may ever dwell your friend

Mary Bowne

my dear husband his Land Love is to you both and yours.
